

AI GUIDELINES FOR STUDENTS IN RICHMOND COUNTY SCHOOLS

These guidelines combine principles from the NCDPI framework and Richmond County policies to promote the secure, ethical, and fair use of AI in education.

Ethical Use

- Respect student privacy
- Avoid bias
- Promote equitable access

Data Privacy

- Educational relevance
- Comply with privacy laws
- Does not monitor students

AI Literacy

- Comprehend AI through appropriate curricula
- Coordinate professional development for students

Appropriate Use

- Align with instructional goals
- Supplement human instruction
- Utilize recommended tools

Human Oversight

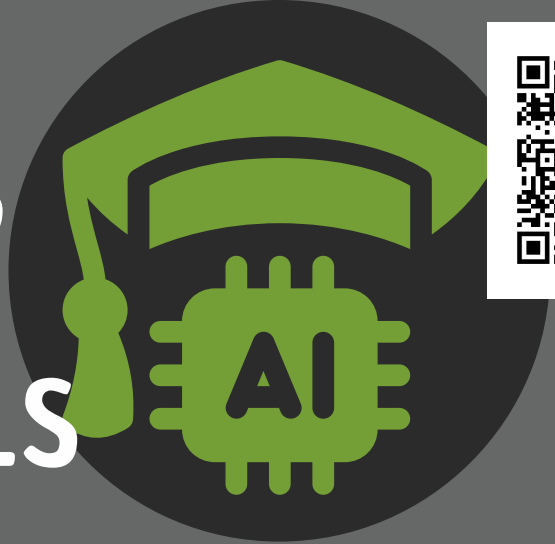

- Responsible for student accountability
- Evaluate academic work

Accessibility & Equity

- Accessible tools for all students
- Monitor AI usage for equity

AI GUIDELINES FOR EDUCATORS IN RICHMOND COUNTY SCHOOLS

These guidelines combine principles from the NCDPI framework and Richmond County policies to promote the secure, ethical, and fair use of AI in education.

Ethical Use

- Respect student privacy
- Avoid Bias
- Promote equitable access

Data Privacy

- Educational relevance
- Comply with privacy laws
- Does not monitor students

AI Literacy

- Comprehend AI through age appropriate curricula
- Coordinate professional development for teachers

Appropriate Use

- Align with instructional goals
- AI not to replace teacher instruction
- District-AI tools recommended

Human Oversight

- Responsible for student accountability
- Evaluate academic work

Accessibility & Equity

- Assessible tools for all educators
- Monitor AI usage for equity

