

Note: If you cannot access technology over the summer, you may complete five of the Choice Board options on this document. The options will be due to the student's English teacher by Friday, August 21, 2026.

Student's name _____

ELA Summer Reading Challenge Choice Board No Tech Options

Directions: Complete five Choice Board options about what you read this summer to earn one bonus point on your first quarter grade in the fall. You may choose five of your non-fiction articles OR the book you read to complete your option.

Respond to one of the following prompts: "What motivates the main character?" or "If your character were to be given an award, what award would it be and why?"	Write a friendly letter to one of your favorite characters (from your book or article), sharing why you admire that character. OR Write a letter to the editor of the publication of one of the articles you read explaining what you liked and/or disliked about the article.	Create a list of 10 interview questions to ask the author or a character in your book or article.
Respond to the following prompt: How would your book be different if it were told from the point of view of another character? OR How would the article you read be different if it were written by someone else?	Write a diary entry from the point of view of one of the novel's main characters that they would have written before, during, or after the book's events. Remember that the character's thoughts and feelings are significant in a diary.	Choose an article and record the headline, writer, and source information. Choose intriguing sentences or phrases and combine keywords to create a poem (12-line minimum) relating to the article.
Respond to the following prompt: Describe a suspenseful moment in the story. How did the author build the suspense?	Write a one-paragraph summary of your novel or article. Add an image of the book cover or an image from the article.	Invent a new character for your novel. Describe the character's looks, thoughts, actions, feelings, and other important qualities or traits.
Respond to the following prompt: Would you be friends with the main character in the book you are reading? Why or why not?	Create a comic strip retelling the story or article in your own words. Include all the essential characters, exciting events, conflicts, and resolutions.	Design a book cover for a recent television show, movie, or newscast you have seen. Your cover must include the title, author, illustration, and captivating quotes and reviews about the show.