

LENNOX SCHOOL DISTRICT

6 -8 Local Common Assessments

2024 – 2025

Assessment	Purpose	Description	GR	Window
SchoolCity Math CBs	This is a summative assessment that will inform the level of student mastery on a given set of standards. The data gathered from this assessment will be analyzed to determine the academic needs of students. It will be utilized to make informed decisions about enrichment and intervention needs of students.	Computer-based assessment accessed through the Study Synced assessment system.	6 - 8	☐ Dec. 2 – Dec. 13 ☐ Feb. 24 – Mar. 7
Math IABs	This is a formative assessment that can serve as a teaching tool. Example 1: Teacher guided lesson Project assessment and solve problems together.	Computer-based assessment accessed through the interim assessment system.	6 - 8	Teachers will expose students to the various accessibility supports and to different item types throughout the school year . Enclosed please find the list of available IABs.
ELA IABs	Example 2: Gathering data (Pre and Post) Have students take the assessment and then use the data to inform decisions about instruction and monitor progress towards a specific target.
ELA CBs	This is a summative assessment that will inform the level of student mastery on a given set of standards. The data gathered from this assessment will be analyzed to determine the academic needs of students. It will be utilized to make informed decisions about enrichment and intervention needs of students.	Computer-based assessment accessed through the Study Synced assessment system.	6 - 8	☐ Nov. 4 – Nov. 15 ☐ Feb. 24 – Mar. 7
ELA & Math STAR	This is a diagnostic assessment. The data gathered from this assessment will be used to monitor student progress, analyzed to determine the intervention needs of students, and as one of the criteria for reclassification. DL students will also be assessed with the ELA STAR in Spanish	Adaptive computer - based assessment accessed through the STAR Renaissance platform.	6 - 8	☐ Aug. 26 – Sept. 6 ☐ Jan. 21 – Jan. 31 ☐ May. 27 – May. 6

Formative Assessments are required to monitor students' progress toward the learning goals. Some examples of formative assessment include: weekly assessments, quizzes, observations, Google forms, exit tickets, white board responses...