

GME Orientation 2026

Audio	Video
[Dr. Morris] We want to welcome you here on this very first day of your orientation with the university. It is a great day it's the day that you've been looking for, for many of you.	Montage of scenes from the Orientation Fair with new residents and fellows getting bags with their white coats and scrubs, and meeting with organizations who offer services designed to help them during their time at L S U Health Shreveport
Congratulations on your graduation from medical school. Congratulations on your acceptance into your training program at this institution.	Dr. Morris at a podium on stage, addressing a full auditorium. Text: 178 New Residents and Fellows
It is a pleasure for me to be here and on behalf of our senior vice chancellor, Doctor Lester Wayne Johnson, and our dean, Doctor Danny Zoorab, we welcome you to the LSU Health Shreveport campus.	Man at podium with graying beard, wearing glasses and a suit with a gold and purple tie. Text: James Morris, M D, F A C G Assistant Dean for Graduate Medical Education
There are 47 accredited programs, our oral surgery program,	Man in woman listening in audience Text: 47 Accredited Programs and that gives us about 613 to 614 House officers who are training associated with LSU Health Shreveport.	Large mixed group filling the audience in an auditorium Text: 614 house officers in training
598 of you will be on this campus or the Saint Mary campus here in Shreveport.	Exterior of the L S U Health Shreveport Campus and the Saint Mary campus 598 of you will be on this campus or the Text: 598 in Shreveport
18 individuals are coming to us from the Alexandria program.	Exterior of the Alexandria hospital Text: 18 in Alexandria
Then there are 24 in the Family Practice Monroe program	Exterior of the Monroe Medical Center Text: 24 in Monroe who will spend part of their time here, but the vast majority of their training will be in Monroe. The minimum that somebody will be training here is 1096 days, which is three years, including a leap year day. And I believe	Mixed group of ethnicities and genders, sitting in the audience listening Dr. Morris who is at the podium. Text: 1096 Days Minimum in here or a couple of people will be spending 2155 days with us in training for those who will be training for seven years. So Congratulations!	Dr. Morris at the podium Text: 2155 Days Maximum