Graduate Society Will Give Prize At Commencement

To fill a gap in the prizes given at each Commencement, the Society of Graduates is happy to announce that it will award annually a prize in English. Most St. Mary's awards are made for character or leadership and there has been a long-felt need for recognition of scholarship in special fields. The English Department was chosen by the Society because all students will be eligible each year and because English is the academic subject most carried over into all school life.

The award will take the form of a Government "E" Bond.

At the request of the executive Committee of the Society of Graduates, a committee of the faculty developed a statement of standards for this award and submitted it to the Executive Committee for approval. Accepted with enthusiasm by the graduates' committee at its February meeting, it was announced to the student body and, we assume, the girls are now working to claim the prize. The statement reads:

"RECOMMENDED REQUIREMENTS FOR THE ENGLISH PRIZE

"The prize shall be awarded for outstanding excellence in English to a graduating senior.

"The senior so honored should be one who has not only demonstrated her ability in the English class but also has maintained the same standard of excellence in English in her other classes.

"Such a senior should also be the type of girl who has used her English ability for the good of St. Mary's Hall by working on publications, in student forums, in assembly programs, in dramatics, or any other school activity where her English ability could be utilized.

"Therefore, the committee recommends the following basis for the award: Classroom work in English, including composition, literature, and the mechanics of writing and speech, 75%.

"Excellence of English work in other classes—essays, outlines, reports, translations, 15%.

"Use of English skill in other school activities, 10%."

The faculty committee was composed of Miss Dorothy Cathell, chairman of the English department, Mrs. Rui DeMartins and Mrs. Ephraim R. Mulford.

MISS TAYLOR'S RESIGNATION ANNOUNCED BY DR. WILES

The President of the Board of Trustees has many joys in exercising the honored privileges of his office. Now, however, I have been asked to perform one of those duties that I occasionally find a most regretful experience.

Reluctantly, I announce the resignation of Miss Frances Taylor, one of the most highly respected and beloved teachers ever to serve at St. Mary's Hall. Beloved by the entire family of St. Mary's, she has won, for more than a quarter of a century of loyalty and faithful service to St. Mary's, a place for herself in the hearts of students, faculty collcagues, parents and the administration, equalled only by the most outstanding figures in the long history of our school.

The time has not arrived for us to tell Miss Taylor how much we love and admire her, but when the time does come, won't you, with the entire family of St. Mary's, be present to honor an outstanding Christian woman, a faithful teacher, and one whose loyalty to the ideals of St. Mary's will ever serve as an inspiration to those who have known her? In short, for many of us, she is the personification of the spirit of St. Mary's. God bless her and keep her safely and well in the years to come.

C. Preston Wiles
President, Board of Trustees

Former Principal Dies In Montclair

It is with great sorrow that the Society of Graduates notes the death on Feb. 19 of Miss Edith Spurr, principal of St. Mary's from 1927 to 1933, following a long illness. At the time of her death she was on leave of absence as principal of the Kimberley School, Montclair, N. J.

Miss Spurr was a graduate of

Seen At Mystery . . .

There are always many alumnae, particularly recent ones, in attendance each year at the Mystery. We noted the following last December: Frances Mulford, Mary Jeness, Joan Wright, Linda Fink, Katie Hutton, Diane Hausermann and Barbara Nelson, of the class of '59; Virginia Yutz, '58; Sally Ann Garrison, Cynthia Johnson, Judith Perinchief, Mary Virginia Shaw, Peggy Fenimore, '57; Patricia Wright, Vicki Gutstesin and Barbara Vancza, '56; Mrs. James D. Kenna (Ann Hollinger), '55; Betty Heyl, '31; and your editor, '23.

Items for IVY LEAVES may be sent direct to the editor, 15 Farnsworth Ave., Bordentown, N. J.

'Old Burlington' Feature Of Talk At Chapter Luncheon

A talk on Old Burlington, beautifully illustrated with colored slides, was the special feature of the February luncheon meeting of the Philadelphia Chapter, held in the William Penn Room of Gimbel's store. Mrs. Hugh Pugh, of Burlington, past president of the Burlington County Historical Society, was the guest speaker. Although Mrs. Pugh attended St. Mary's for only one year, she is the daughter of an alumna, the late Mrs. John C. Biddle (Delia Sturges, '83).

A brief business meeting, conducted by Miss Margaret Merritt ('13), the chapter president, preceded the talk. It was voted at that time to pay for repairs and refinishing of several chairs and tables in the front hall and parlors of the school, and the executive committee was empowered to obtain estimates of costs from several cabinetmakers.

We note with sadness the death last June from a heart attack of Mrs. Adelaide White, housemother in Scarborough Hall for three or more years.

Special Guests Are Listed For Founder's Day

The call is out for all Daughters of St. Mary's to polish up their graduate medals in preparation for Founder's Day which will be celebrated on Thursday, May 12.

Two honorary members of the Society of Graduates will be special guests for the occasion. They are Miss Frances Taylor, who will retire in June (see elsewhere in IVY LEAVES) and Mrs. L. J. Hutton (better known as Ann Hawkes Hutton), author, historian, educator, "Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania," former trustee of St. Mary's and parent of a graduate (Katie Hutton, '59). Mrs. Hutton will also be the speaker of the day.

The celebration of Founder's Day will begin, as always, with a service of Holy Communion in the Chapel at 10:45, at the conclusion of which two members of the graduating class will place the traditional garland of pansies around the portrait of Bishop Doane, founder of St. Mary's Hall. At the meeting after the exercises, the seniors will be introduced to the alumnae. Mrs. Hutton will then address the gathering.

Luncheon will be a serve-yourself picnic under the trees of the circle and should remind us of similar luncheons in our student year. Later, there will be a brief business session, conducted by our president, Miss H. Elizabeth Heyl, and the election of officers.

Because it was so voted at last year's meeting, the usual reply-card invitations for this year's celebration will be mailed only to those graduates living within a reasonable distance of Burlington. This was decided because of budget

More Winners Of Fearnley Awards

Jane Mooney: In Memoriam

Jane Mooney was the resident nurse at St. Mary's Hall from Feb., 1946 to June 1953. A graduate of the Episcopal School of Nursing in Philadelphia, she came to St. Mary's directly from her overseas experiences as an army nurse. She brought with her an acute awareness of the world scene and of the futility of war that caused so much individual suffering.

Born and educated in Burlington, Miss Mooney had a knowledge of the local community. She quickly identified herself with St. Mary's and made her first concern that of keeping students and faculty in good health. If sickness came, she ministered to her patients in a meticulous, painstaking way.

Jane Mooney had the rare capacity of entering into the needs and interests of individuals and groups. She acted as advisor to the sophomore class and served on various committees concerned with community welfare.

As a regular communicant of St. Mary's Church, she lived her Christian commitment. Many girls, during their stay in the infirmary, found they could talk with Miss Mooney about the deeper problems and values of life. Because of her concern for the religious life of the school she was willing to add the tenth grade Bible course to her many duties.

When she left St. Mary's she entered the field of Public Health Nursing in Burlington and became a familiar and loved figure in the homes of those in need of care and comfort. At the time of her death, October 16, 1959, she held the position of Supervisor of Nurses in the Burlington County Public Health Agency.

Those who knew her are the richer for her friendship. May she continue to grow "in love and service" and "go from strength to strength."

More Chapel Plates?

The Commemorative plates bearing pictures of the chapel, have long since been sold but requests for them continue. A re-order of these plates is now being considered. They will probably sell for $3.50 although the price cannot be established before IVY LEAVES goes to press.

The re-order will only be made if there is sufficient interest, so if you wish to own a plate, please send a card to Miss H. E. Heyl, 403 High Street, Mt. Holly, N. J.

Youngest Visitor Attends Mystery

Probably the youngest person to behold the Christmas Mystery in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents was Miss Siobhan Moire Kenna, aged four weeks, who was carried to the service last December by her father and mother, the Rev. and Mrs. James D. Kenna (Ann Hollinger, '55). Not a cry escaped her throughout the service. Instead, she exhibited wide-eyed and grave interest in her surroundings. A nip on her bottle before the recessional distracted her somewhat from the service but helped to ensure her good-as-gold conduct to the very end.

She was placid enough to have substituted for the doll used in the tableaux.

Please bring her to St. Mary's often, Ann—and in a few years enroll her.

Holiday Coffee Hour Proves Popular

On the Tuesday morning after Christmas, more than fifty Daughters of St. Mary's Hall gathered in the dining room of Scarborough Hall for cinnamon buns and coffee, conversation and the renewing of old friendships. Included in the group were graduates of the last four years, most of them home from college for the holidays, and members of the present senior and junior classes. Mrs. Slater greeted each guest as she arrived and Miss Taylor presided at the coffee table.

Overheard among the various groups were enthusiastic comments on college life and friendly rivalry between former classmates now attending different colleges as they vied for the interest of the present seniors and juniors still undecided on their college choices.

Interspersed were the inevitable "have you seen" or "have you heard" questions sending conversations in many directions.

Not to be outdone by the returning graduates, the present students pointed out the most recent changes at St. Mary's—the paved parking area, the new Middle School classrooms, and the new look of Nelson Corridor, and told the alumnae of more improvements to come.

When the group reluctantly broke up shortly after noon, many asked that this new holiday social hour for recent graduates become a regular part of the Christmas season at St. Mary's.

Visitors Renew Old S.M.H. Link

From time-to-time visitors come to St. Mary's because of some long-ago family connection or in quest of information about relatives who have attended the Hall.

In the former category last August were Mr. and Mrs. Amasa Marks, of Hammonton, N. J., and Mr .and Mrs. Charles E. Marks (Lillian Simonson), of Yonkers. Mrs. Charles Marks attended St. Mary's in 1895-96 and met her husband through the student friendship of Lucy Marks (Mrs. Frederick J. Morrison, '96), his sister. It had been 62 years since Mrs. Charles Marks had been at the Hall and it is, we are glad to say, her firm intention to return for Founder's Day, see the school in session and talk with other "old girls."

It was Mrs. Morrison (Lucy Marks) who bequeathed $500 to St. Mary's upon her death in 1958.

An inquiry was received at St. Mary's some months ago about Cornelia Augusta Peacock, believed to have attended St. Mary's in the early days. The office has no record of such a student. If any reader knows the name she will please inform Mrs. John J. McCarthy, 18 S. Fairview Ave., Upper Darby, Pa.

Memorial Gift For Library

New reference books for religious studies have been added to the St. Mary's library as the result of a gift by the Rev. Alfred R. Hill, of Oceanside, Calif. in memory of his wife, the former Minerva Camp ('96).

The memorial is most fitting because of Mrs. Hill's long years of devoted work in her church, St. Ann's, from which she was buried last spring and for her love for St. Mary's Hall.

In addition to her husband, Mrs. Hill is survived by a brother, Brig. Gen. T. J. Camp, and a sister, Mrs. E. L. Green, of Orange, Conn.

We extend our sympathy to them.

A visitor to St. Mary's shortly before Christmas was Mrs. George Riley, librarian at the Hall in the '40's and now retired librarian of the Bennett Junior College, Millbrook, N. Y. Mrs. Riley had spent a weekend as the guest of Miss Taylor. She is now living at "Journey's End", Dorset, Vt.

Miss Florence Newbold, headmistress from 1940-1952, is most happy in her work as head of the Department of Religious Education of the National Cathedral School, Washington, D. C. "I am enjoying so much being in direct contact with girls again—they keep me stepping!" she writes.

Miss Spurr

Radcliffe College and received her master's degree from Columbia University. She taught Latin at St. Mary's School, Garden City, Long Island, and was vice-principal of the Berkeley Institute, Brooklyn, before coming to St. Mary's where her high standard of scholarship was soon reflected in the curriculum of the Hall. She raised both admission standards and diploma requirements to a new high. Following her tenure in Burlington, Miss Spurr became principal of the Northrup Collegiate School in Minneapolis, Minn. It was from that institution that she moved to the Kimberley School.

A memorial resolution of the National Association of Principals of Private Schools for Girls said in part:

"Miss Spurr's dynamic personality, her wit, her dedication to high standards of achivement have touched many people and added greatly to their stature, attitude and convictions. A significant force in any group, her counsel was astute, practicable and forthright.

"To those who worked with Miss Spurr, it seemed highly appropriate to her enthusiasm for Roman culture and literature, as well as her singular personality, that purple was her favorite color. The color, and its connotations, became her exceedingly well.

"We shall miss her and always be grateful for her untiring dedication to the building of the finest possible schools."

Although Miss Spurr leaves no family, the officers of the Society of Graduates extend their sympathy to her many friends and associates who keenly mourn her loss. And we remember gratefully the important role she played in St. Mary's history.

CLASS NOTES

'78 We record with sorrow the death on November 15 of Mrs. James S. Hamilton (Katherine Porcher Seabrook). Mrs. Hamilton celebrated her hundredth birthday anniversary on the preceding October 12. For more than a year she had held the distinction of being the oldest known living graduate of St. Mary's. We extend our sympathy to her daughter, Mrs. Louisa H. Lockhart, with whom she had made her home.

'90 We have lost another loyal alumna with the death in late July of Mrs. Elbert L. Blakeslee (Rosa Johnston), of Wellfleet, Mass. Mrs. Blakeslee was the daughter of the rector of the Episcopal Church in Mendham, N. J. when she attended St. Mary's.

'98 Another loss to the Society of Graduates is that of Mrs. Reginald H. Waters (Grace Hurlbut Goodfellow) on April 15, 1958, after a long illness. Born in Philadelphia, the daughter of the late Rev. and Mrs. John A. Goodfellow, she had resided in recent years in Akron, Ohio. In addition to her husband, she is survived by a daughter, Mrs. E. E. Johnson, and two grandchildren.

'00 Mrs. A. Richard Capie (Annie W. Nock) of Glassboro, N. J. has sent us the sad news of the death of her classmate, Mrs. Montague Sterling (Elizabeth Heydenreich) in Norwalk, Conn., on April 21 of last year.

'02 Another devoted alumna who is no longer with us is Mrs. Harry L. Ransom (Mildred Weaver). To her sister, Mrs. Samuel K. Piercy (Florence Weaver, also '02), who sent us word of Mrs. Ransom's death, we extend our profound sympathy. Mrs. Piercy says that they both had attended their fiftieth reunion at St. Mary's and "after many years it was good to see familiar faces and the old buildings, particularly the chapel." She continued to say that "Mildred's going has taken something very precious from her devoted family and friends, and from me."

'07 A special loss to the Society of Graduates was that sustained when Miss Mabel A. Schermerhorn, of Burlington, died on January 26, 1960. Following her graduation from St. Mary's, Miss Schermerhorn studied nursing at the Children's Hospital in Philadelphia and later was for thirty-three years the public school nurse in Burlington.

Except when her nursing duties prevented, Miss Schermerhorn could always be counted on to attend alumnae gatherings. She was active in our undertakings and always ready to volunteer for such activities as preparing IVY LEAVES for mailing. Her cheery company added much to our labors and we shall miss her.

'09 Miss Isabel R. Moore, former headmistress of the Foxhollow School, Lenox, Mass., has been making her home since her retirement last June on Meirs Road, Allentown, R. D., N. J. Miss Moore is known to many graduates in addition to those with whom she studied since she was for a number of years the gym teacher at St. Mary's before going to Foxhollow. We hope she will affiliate herself actively with St. Mary's now that she is living in this area.

'13 A note to Miss Merritt from Mrs. Benjamin Hartshorn expresses regret that she never can return for alumnae events and mentions the futility of sending her notices of them. (Note to Mrs. Hartshorn: see a report of the action taken at last year's Founder's Day meeting.)

S.M.H. Graduates: Roman Debutantes

Cynthia Johnson, '57, and Martha Tribble, '58, have accepted invitations of the Italian Red Cross for the American Debutante Ball to be held in Le Grand Hotel in Rome, on Friday, July 1. Cynthia, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Francis Johnson, of Trenton, is a junior at the University of Michigan. Martha, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Tribble, of Princeton, is a freshman at Vassar. Her name appeared on the invitation list for the 1959 Debutante Ball held at the Palace of Versailles.

Both girls are being sponsored for the Roman event by Mrs. Mary G. Roebling, former trustee of the Hall.

E.F.S.

Miss Merritt went on another of her nice junkets last winter in the company of her sister, Eleanor. In mid-January they took off for the west coast of Florida where they visited friends. The weather wasn't too kind but everything else about their trip was delightful.

After a long silence, a note from Seattle, Wash., brought news of Mrs. William Mingst (Rosamund McIntosh). She, too, regrets that distance prevents her from returning for alumnae gatherings. She reports that she is a grandmother and a busy parish librarian for St. Andrew's Episcopal Church.

'14 When last heard from, Mrs. Arona Hubbard was living at 20 Alhambra Circle, Coral Gables, Fla. She was planning a get-together with two Floridian classmates, Mrs. Munn Holbertson (Gladys Osborn), of St. Petersburg, and Mrs. Ray Van Seggern (Olive Wilde), of Fort Pierce. Mrs. Hubbard is a busy person with her church work, painting and study of Spanish. She promised to visit St. Mary's before too long.

Mrs. Holbertson writes that she spent much of a recent summer in the hospital following a heart attack, so she does not plan to make any long trips north. Happily, she is now greatly improved and is leading an almost-normal life.

'16 Repeated cards from Mrs. John C. Blodgett (Teresa Pearcy) keep us in touch with her. Through IVY LEAVES she sends greetings to her classmates and regrets that others do not live near her for "it is beautiful here in California."

'17 We learn with sorrow of the death last August of Mrs. Alfred L. Howes (Elizabeth McCarty), and extend sympathy to her husband.

'19 Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Chalif (Margaret Montgomery) left in early April on another round-the-world tour, this time traveling eastward. Their trip is timed to bring them to Japan in late May for the meeting of the International Bird Preservation Sosiety in which Mr. Chalif is an active member.

'20 Along with a contribution for IVY LEAVES, Mrs. Scott Julian (Judith Field) expressed regret that she is inactive in the alumnae organization; but living in Memphis (868 N. Auburndale Ave.) precludes such activities. She has one married daughter who, in turn, has two children. Mrs. Julian also reported on Miss Elizabeth Searcy, a former art teacher at St. Mary's, whose etching of the chapel is well known to most graduates. Miss Searcy is recognized in "Who's Who of American Women" as an artist of stature in the field of etchings and water colors. Miss Searcy recalls, Mrs. Julian says, her days at St. Mary's, "those relaxed years with the Fearnleys, the river and the countryside," as some of her happiest.

'21 Such an enthusiastic Christmas letter as Mrs. Herbert Mercready (Margaret Moore) sent from her new home in Florida (269 Orchid Parkway, Ridge Manor) where she and her husband moved last year. Their lovely location, overlooking Lake Frances, is 50 miles due west of Orlando. They are rapidly landscaping their new property and so busy learning about tropical vegetation that they scarcely have had time to unpack! Their ranch-style house was built long and shallow in order to preserve a beautiful century-old grove of live oaks. Margaret writes that they really like Florida and Florida living. "It is a relaxed type of life. You do today what you can do today, period. And, that is usually far less than you would have done in the same day up north."

'23 Our sympathy goes to Mrs. Theron Chapman (Patty Foresman) on the death of her father, Mr. Hugh A. Foresman, in January. For many years students at St. Mary's have been familiar with his name, for the publishing house of which he was the long-time president and chairman of the board printed many of the textbooks used by schools.

Mrs. Ivins D. Jessup (Sally Tattersall) deserves a citation for her faithfulness in working for the Society of Graduates. Not only does she attend all meetings but she is ever-ready to volunteer for such prosaic tasks as addressing envelopes or folding papers.

We had a long chat with Mrs. Henry Holt (Elizabeth Bassett) at a party given by Mr. and Mrs. W. Tod Black (Nan Atkinson) shortly before Christmas. Betty is a most enthusiastic grandmother and finds time for baby-tending whenever asked. Yet she doesn't neglect her stimulating activities in New York. Last winter she enjoyed a memorable cruise through the West Indies.

'24 We note with sympathy to her daughter, Mrs. Fredericka Fisher (Frederica Weeks), the death, in January, of Mrs. Edward A. Weeks, of Elizabeth N. J., after a brief illness. Mrs. Weeks was also the mother of Edward Weeks, of Boston, editor of the ATLANTIC MONTHLY. Before her marriage, she had studied voice with the late Walter Damrosch.

In October, we had a glimpse of Mrs. Lewis P. Carmer (Helena Simmons) at the wedding of her niece, Cornelia Simmons ('51). She was as handsome and poised as ever!

'25 After a winter spent at Nakomis, Fla, Mrs. Frederick M. Phillips (Anna Bell Hutchinson) is once more enthusiastically busy at "Persimmon Hill," the Phillips' farm near Jobstown, N. J., and active on the boards of many philanthropic organizations.

'32 Funeral services for Mrs. William E. Large (Doris Mateer) were held at the Church of the Holy Innocents, West Orange, N. J., following her death on October 10 after a long illness. She is survived by her husband, two sons and two sisters. To them we offer our deep sympathy.

'36 Mrs. Gordon D. Griffin (Sallie London Fell) will not be with us on Founder's Day because she and her husband will be in Europe at that time. They are sailing in late April on the QUEEN ELIZABETH and will return in June.

'39 Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Sozio (Josephine Peters) are now living on Dale Road, Burlington.

'40 Teaching fifth grade at St. Mary's this year is Mrs. Donald Fischer (Nancy Eckman), of Mount Holly. Her daughter, Karin, is in the fifth grade here.

'44 Four members of this class, Mrs. Kendrick Barlow Jr. (JoAnn Clark), Mrs. John W. Arbogast (Dorothy Mark), Mrs. William L White Jr. (Jeanne Hornberger) and Mrs. John C. Borden (Elizabeth Codding) had a reunion in miniature in July when they met together for luncheon in Philadelphia. It had been hoped that other classmates could attend but the date proved difficult. However, many newsy items were exchanged and IVY LEAVES reaps the benefit.

JoAnn Barlow is living in Havertown, Pa., while her Army husband takes a course in business administration. Until they had a permanent address, JoAnn should be reached care of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Clark, 23 E. Delaware Avenue, Pennington, N. J.

Jeanne White, with her husband and three children, visited her parents in Florence, N. J., last July. One afternoon the Whites joined forces with Elizabeth Borden and her husband and three children for a picnic on the Riverbank at Beverly. "It's lots of fun," commented Elizabeth, "to see our children becoming fast friends."

Dottie Arbogast and her husband, who is an obstretrician, live in Mount Holly. Dr. Arbogast is on the staff of the Burlington County Hospital and has offices on the outskirts of Burlington. They have three children.

On the very day of this reunion, a four child, a son, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kohlmeir (Loella Schisler). Congratulations to all the Kohlmeirs.

A telegram of regrets for missing the luncheon was received from Mrs. Robert E. Morrison (Mary Newton Cox). At the time, she was vacationing in Vermont from her home in Aruba, N. Antilles.

Thank You!

IVY LEAVES gratefully acknowledges the contributions to its columns by Mrs. Slater, Dr. Wiles, Miss Heyl and Miss Newbold. We also thank the many graduates who remembered to send items of interest for our use. To Miss Taylor and Mrs. Malcolm Lewis of the school administration we owe thanks for their ever-ready help in checking alumnae dates and names.

And may we, in advance, thank those alumnae who, when the time arrives, will assist in folding, sealing, addressing, bundling and mailing the finished IVY LEAVES?

In August, Mrs. Joseph E. Arado (Mary Lou Hering) and her son, Mark, visited Mr. Hering in Beverly. Her new home in Napierville, Ill., sounds lovely. The Arados have been busy developing a lawn and landscaping their home.

As for Mrs. Borden, she declares the highlight of her year was a cruise to Bermuda in March. "It was quite a treat for the mother of three to be waited on hand and foot on the QUEEN OF BERMUDA. It was a wonderful summer altogether—having the reunion, visiting with Jeanne White and Louie Arado and vacationing in Beach Haven, N. J., with the family, Pamela, 9; John, 6, and Doug, 4. Now with the children all in school, it's back to hospital work, P.T.A. and the local women's club."

Thanks for all the news, Mrs. Borden!

'45 Mrs. Warner Heirs (Barbara Warner) will complete the series of courses given by the American Institute of Banking for its certificate in the near future. She is on the staff of the Philadelphia-Fidelity Company. One of her great interests is singing with the Savoy Opera Company, the oldest Gilbert and Sullivan group in this country.

'48 Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Weizer (Diana Dilatush), of 223 Penn Valley Terrace, Morrisville, Pa., announced the birth of their third daughter, Leslie Ann, on Oct. 19.

'49 From Mrs. Edwin R. Huddy, (Joanne Pierce) we have gleaned a number of items about this class.

In May, Ann Deibert was married in St. Mary's Church, Burlington, to Mr. Edward Henry. Dr. Wiles performed the ceremony and many of Ann's classmates were present. Some of those seen at the wedding were Mrs. Huddy, Mrs. David Barlow (Ann Harvitt), Mrs. Murray Lampert (Maxine Rosenthal), Mrs. James Hogg (Bette Hartman) and, of course, Mrs. Irvin E. Deibert, Jr., (Barbara Drummond). Ann and her husband are now making their home at 23 S. Woodland Ave., Woodbury, N. J. All good wishes, Ann.

During the summer Barbara Deibert and her husband moved to Florida. Their new address is Live Oak Drive, Vero Beach.

Mrs. Theodore Swanson (Nancy Maurer) came east last summer with her three children for a visit. Her address is 1340 Greenwood Drive, La Habra, Calif.

A new address has been reported by Mrs. John H. Brandt, Jr., (Jean Austin). She now lives at 11300 S.W. 91st St., Miami 56, Fla.

Still another person to move has been Mrs. Charles A. Cody (Jean Leiby) whose residence now is at 5110 25th Ave., S. E., Washington 21, D. C.

It is news that Mrs. Robert Breiter (Joan Pakenham) has returned to New Jersey. She and her husband and two young sons (Robert Jr., aged 2, and Michael now 9 months) are now living at 174A, Fifth St., Fords.

'50 Nancy Perkins may be addressed at the Fondation des Etats-Unis, 15 Boulevard Jourdan, Paris XIV, France. She has been studying at the Sorbonne since September.

The shocking news was received some weeks ago of the loss by flood of the home of Dr. and Mrs. Alan Nourse (Ann Morton). Fortunately, both of the Nourses and their young son, were unharmed. Last autumn, Dr. Nourse created quite a controversy when his article on medical group practices was published in the Saturday Evening Post. The Nourses live on Mt. Si Road, North Bend, R. D. 1, Wash.

Mrs. John N. Wigglesworth Mitzi Crispin) may be addressed at 537 E. Front St., Berwick, Pa.

The birth of Michael Peter Churchill on Nov. 30 was announced by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Churchill (Sally Kirby). The Kirbys, who are stationed at Patrick Air Force Base, Florida, have one other son, William F. Jr., now 3½ years old.

A happy letter was sent to her friends at Christmastime by Mrs. Thomas Moore (Nancy Merz). At the end of May her husband was separated from the Air Force and they are now living at 1422 Arline Ave., Roslyn, Pa., near the Willow Grove exit of the Pennsylvania Turnpike (from which nearby point we hope Nancy will frequently come a-visiting to St. Mary's). The Moores have three children, Terry, now in kindergarten; Freddy, 3; and Billy, who is "two and beginning to speak more of the English language," to quote his mother.

2050 Valentine Ave., New York 57, (Apt. 6-E) is the address of Mr. and Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (Sallie Siegrist). Sallie is teaching at the Bronx Community College while her husband is on the faculty of Hunter College, in Manhattan.

The Stephen Ausnits now live at 124 E. 61st St., N. Y. 21, N. Y. Mrs. Ausnit is the former Anne Porges.

'51 1959 was a wonderful year for Cornelia Simmons. In June she graduated from the Mercer Hospital (Trenton, N. J.) School of Nursing with the highest academic rank in her class. In October, she was married in All Saints' Chapel of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, to Mr. Anthony Vannozzi. The Vannozzis are living in a charming cottage on the estate of Corny's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Valentine, Fiddler's Creek Road, Titusville, N. J.

There is a new address for the Elmer Heinels (Carol Fenlin)—472 Woodside Road, Jenkintown, Pa.

'52 The new address of Mrs. Douglas Nevin Cook (Ann Richards) is Gwynned View Road, R. D. No. 1, North Wales, Pa.

Mrs. Steve Hoyt Gilman (Mary Louise DeNyse) reports both a son and a new address. The baby, born on December 14, is Steve Hoyt Jr. The new address is 273 Schucht Village, Gainesville, Fla.

The Rev. and Mrs. Donald E. MacFalls (Barbara Marter) are living at 3424 Tulane Drive, Adelphia, Md., while Mr. McFalls is assistant minister of the Riverdale Presbyterian Church in University Park. Barbara is teaching and tutoring in the junior high school, working for her master's degree in history and active in fund raising for Vassar College| A busy life! Yet she invites her classmates to come to visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee L. Wetmore (Ann Potter) have announced the birth of a son, Bradford Weichel Wetmore, on May 21, 1959. Their home is at 55 Glenwood Avenue, East Orange, N. J.

At the June Fair held last year for the benefit of Mercer Hospital in Trenton, none other than Mrs. Edward Poor (Riva Magaril) was drawing portraits at $5 each for the hospital fund. She realized a tidy sum before the day was over. Perhaps we can induce her to set up her easel at our Horse Show in May. Riva is now living at 85 Falmouth Road, Yardville, N. J. She has two children, a daughter, almost three and a son nearly a year old.

'54 On August 8, Marcia Waldron was married to Mr. Richard Dunn in Christ Church, New Brunswick, N. J. We would love to know where they are living and hope Marcia sends us word.

'55 St. Stephen's Church, Beverly, N. J., was the scene of the August wedding of Constance Gail Price to Mr. H. Arthur Smith, 3rd of Pennington, N. J. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, chaplain of St. Mary's and rector of St. Stephen's, officiated and one of Connie's bridesmaids was Diane Wilson of the junior class of St. Mary's. The Smiths are making their home in Beverly.

Jane Tucker, who graduated last June from Mary Washington College, is teaching school in Columbus, N. J. and able this year to live at home in Bordentown.

We received the happy announcement last summer of the birth of Walter Alvin Reister Jr., on June 9. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Reister (Evelyn Hardcastle) were then living in Newport, R. I. but we do not know their present address.

The birth of Siobhan Moire Kenna in late November was announced by her parents, the Rev. and Mrs. James Kenna (Ann Hollinger). Mr. Kenna is curate at Holy Trinity Church, Collingswood, N. J. Their home is at 226D Garfield Avenue, Collingswood 7.

California is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Burch (Barbara Fulmer). Since the last issue of IVY LEAVES they have moved to Apt. A, 15125 N. Charles Street, Bellflower, Calif.

'56 There are many engagements to report for this class. Patsy Decker, who will graduate in June from Douglass College, has set June 18 as the date of her marriage to Mr. Edward B. Patterson, Jr., of Colwick, N. J. Mr. Patterson is a graduate of Moorestown Friends School and Haverford College. Their home, now a-building, will be in the Barkley Estates, Haddonfield, N. J.

July 3 has been selected by Vicki Gutstein as the date of her wedding. She will marry Mr. Marvin E. Schlosser, of Washington, D. C. Vicki will graduate in June from the University of Maryland where she has been making the Dean's list with regularity. Her fiance will receive his law degree from Georgetown University at the same time They plan to live in the Washington area.

The engagement of Mary Ann Keen to Mr. David Royce ,of Chesterfield, N. J., was announced in the autumn. The marriage will take place when Mr. Royce's tour of army duty in Heidelberg, Germany, is completed. Mary Ann is enjoying her work with the Bordentown Banking Co.

The engagement of Barbara Vancza to Mr. William Edward Spiller, of Ridgewood, N. J., has just been announced. Barbara is a senior at Douglass College and is an art major. Her fiance is a student at Rutgers University, majoring in history and political science. They are planning an August wedding.

There is an international flavor about the engagement of Margaret Siegrist to M. Gilbert Charles Francois Didden, of Brussels, Belgium. They met when Margaret was a guide at the World's Fair in 1958. Margaret is now visiting her fiance's parents but will return home in mid-summer. The wedding will take place in Bordentown early in 1961.

When seen at the joint concert of the St. Mary's and Trinity School Glee Clubs in February, Patricia Wright gave an account of her plans for next year. After her graduation in June from the Trenton State College she will be in charge of music, arts and crafts at a camp in New York State. Already signed is her contract for 1960-61 to be supervisor of music for the elementary schools of North Hanover Township, Burlington County.

Edwin J. Winkler, Jr., the class baby, will be a year old on Founder's Day. His mother is the former Claire Steinert.

Vicki Wells will graduate in June from Dickinson College.

Ruth Lager is a buyer for two departments of the Arnold Constable store in Trenton.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hinckley (Susan Aaronson) are living at 4800 Grove St., Richmond 26. Susan's husband is teaching at St. Christopher's School and Susan is thoroughly enjoying her life in the Virginia capital.

Betty Bryan will shortly graduate from Bucknell University. During these last four years she has "made" many Dean's lists and has been active on the campus publications. Last summer she enjoyed a lengthy tour of Europe.

'57 Last July, Gail Probasco became the bride of Mr. Hans Courtial in Grace Church, Camden, S. C. They are living at 124 Grant Ave., Hightstown, N. J., while Mr. Courtial completes his studies at Rider College, Trenton. Gail is a secretary to a McGraw-Hill executive.

The marriage of Susan Goddard and Mr. John W. Crosby, of Wayne, N. J., took place on October 23 in Alexandria, Va. Susan attended the University of Pennsylvania Hospital School of Nursing. Her husband is a student at the Wharton School of the University. They are making their home at 40th and Pine Sts., Philadelphia.

Mary Virginia Shaw is most active in all campus projects at Northwestern University. This spring she is chairman of the model political conventions to be held at the university with key politicians from each party in attendance.

A summer in Spain was the wonderful experience enjoyed by Sydney Hagert last year. Part of the time she was a student at the University of Madrid.

Both Sydney and Julia Gleason, juniors at Pembroke College, were on the latest Dean's list. Julia has just been elected president of the Pembroke Athletic Recreation Association in all-college elections. She has been active as president of the Archery Club and secretary of the Student Government Association. She is majoring in religious studies.

'58 Trinity Church, Elkton, Md., was the scene of the marriage on Feb. 20, of Meta Doak and Mr. Henry W. Lavine. Mr. Lavine is a senior in the Law School of the University of Pennsylvania and while he is completing his course the Lavines are living at 3425 Walnut St., Philadelphia.

59 Our newest alumnae have scattered over the eastern seaboard (and a bit into the west, too). You will find Susan Probasco and Mary Agan at Douglass College, and Karin Fisher at the University of Delaware. Mac Levitt is attending Hood College and Barbara Budd is at Seton Hall.

There are three Pennsylvania colleges in which our girls are enrolled—the University of Pennsylvania, for Katie Hutton; Penn State or Diane Hausermann; and Beaver for Ann Cramer.

Lesley Levin, the farthest away, is at Northwestern and Frances Mulford went nearly as far when she entered Hollins in Virginia (winning a complete scholarship for her freshman year).

Good luck to all of them!

So Sorry!

IVY LEAVES regrets:

1. That it can't keep pace with the rapidly changing addresses of our gypsy-like graduates. (Please advise us sooner of your moves.)
2. That, because many items come to us in the late spring, they miss the current edition and must be held over for an entire year, thereby reaching our subscribers almost a year late!
3. That we can't always decipher your handwriting and often misspell your husband's name or your latest address. (How about printing those two facts when you write to us?) . . . And we apologize for our careless errors, of which there are a-plenty.

Associates

Our sympathy is extended to Mrs. Joseph Low Gooch, Jr. (Edith Albert), of Bronxville, N. Y. ,and to her daughters, Mrs. J. O. Phillips, Jr. (Margaret Gooch, '40) and Mrs. Henry H. Smith (Edith Gooch, '44) on the death of Mr. Gooch on Oct. 15 after a long illness.

Soon after IVY LEAVES is in the hands of the alumnae, Mrs. Frank S. Katzenbach, Jr. (Natalie McNeal) will be moving from her long-time home to the beautiful about-to-be-opened Carteret Arms Apartment on West State St., Trenton. Mrs. Katzenbach's apartment will overlook the Delaware River and the sunsets over Pennsylvania.

The engagement of Miss Deborah Dunk, of Scarsdale, N. Y. and Mr. Keith Black, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Tod Black (Nan Atkinson) was announced shortly before Christmas. The Blacks' older son, Bill, is expected home shortly from Venezuela where he has been working for several years as a geologist.

When we last talked to Mrs. Black she and her husband had just returned from an extended visit to the Carolinas, arriving home barely ahead of the blizzards.

Former Students

Renee Weimer, whose class would have been '56 if St. Mary's had remained a boarding school, is now teaching in Newport News, Va. She attended Longwood College, Farmville, Va.

We record with sorrow the death on Aug. 23 of Miss Rebecca Disbrow, a student at St. Mary's in the 80's or 90's. According to the Rev. Harry S. Ruth, rector of St. Barnabas Church, Burlington, and chaplain of the Masonic Home, where Miss Disbrow lived, "She was an extraordinary person . . . a wide reader with a keen mind up and to within hospitalization two weeks before her death. She prepared the Altar and took care of the linen almost from the time she entered the Home."

St. Mary's has an active and enthusiastic Parent-Faculty Association with Henry Yutz, of Burlington, as president. Among the activities sponsored by this organization were a dinner-dance at the Trenton Country Club and a Fashion Show and luncheon at Ivystone Lodge. They netted $328 and $1,132 respecively.

Annual Horse Show Will Be On May 21

On Saturday, May 21, on the beautiful Helis Estate in Jobstown, N. J., the Fourth Annual St. Mary's Hall Horse Show will be held. This increasingly popular and successful event augments our scholarship fund and helps make those improvements necessary to care for our ever-growing enrollment.

Col. Samuel A. Decker, a representative of the Parent-Faculty Association on the Board of Trustees and parent of both a graduate (Patsy, '56) and a student (Hedl, '60) is general chairman. Assisting him is a large committee of parents, alumnae, students, faculty, trustees and friends.

Events will start at 9 o'clock and continue until late afternoon. There will be classes for jumpers and hunters in many varying categories on inside and outside courses. Spectators can view the events from unreserved bleacher seats or from reserved ringside car parking locations. There are ample parking places on the grounds for those not wishing the ringside spaces.

Booths for both food and drinks will be set up under the trees to provide refreshments throughout the day.

You do not need to ride or even to "know" horses to enjoy yourself on Horse Show Day. It is fun to be present for this colorful occasion, see old friends, enjoy the beautiful setting, partake of the good food on sale—and help our project by your support.

Come and see!

Obituary

We have received an obituary from the Los Angeles TIMES of Mrs. Harvey H. Briggs, who died on November 15 after a long illness. Mrs. Briggs will be remembered by alumnae from 1915 to 1920 as Miss Helen McCormack, teacher of German at St. Mary's. Later she was Dean of several west coast girls' schools and a director of Holmby College until her retirement in 1946. She was widely known in musical circles in Los Angeles where she was vice-president of the Symphony and past president of the Orchestral Society and Opera Reading Club.

Alumnae Restore Bishop's Portrait

Now hanging in the place of honor over the mantel in the second parlor is the familiar oval portrait of Bishop George Washington Doane. This is the portrait dear to all graduates, as the one "crowned" each year on Founder's Day and is not to be confused with the large full length portrait of the Bishop hanging in the Assembly Hall.

The oval portrait, long in disrepair, was restored last summer by Dr. Arthur Bye of Holicong, Pa., through the efforts of the Society of Graduates. Tears in the canvas have been cleverly mended, water stains obliterated, layers of the accumulated dirt of many years painstakingly removed. The beautiful face of the Bishop now stands out clearly and benignly for all to behold.

This portrait was painted by Samuel Waugh of Philadelphia, at that time the leading artist of the Quaker City.

Portraits by Samuel Waugh are to be found in leading collections, as are the seascapes of his son, Frederick Waugh.

Philadelphia Chapter Meets for Election

Something quite different was enjoyed by members of the Philadelphia Chapter at their annual meeting in March. It was held at the Seamen's Church Institute with the Rev. Percy Stockman, director of the Institute, and Mrs. Stockman (Margaret Stryker, '93) as hosts.

Dr. Stockman showed moving pictures of the Port of Philadelphia and talked on the work of the Institute. Later, a tour was made of the establishment.

Miss Margaret Merritt ('13) presided at the business meeting which followed the luncheon. At that time a report was given on the re-upholstered furniture in the school parlors, a gift of the chapter. It was voted to see about new draperies for these rooms and again to give a trophy and set of ribbons for the Horse Show.

The following slate of officers was presented by the nominating committee and duly elected by the chapter: President, Miss Merritt; vice president, Mrs. Barbara Heirs ('45); secretary, Mrs. Ivins D. Jessup (Sally Tattersall, '23); and treasurer, Mrs. William E. Sheppard (Margaret Long, '36).

RETIRING DEAN HONORED

Miss Frances Taylor, shown with Miss Elizabeth Heyl, president of the Society of Graduates, as she inspects the honorary Society Medal of the Daughters of St. Mary's that had just been awarded her.

FOUNDER'S DAY, 1960, HONORS FRANCES TAYLOR, RETIRING DEAN

An outpouring of loving alumnae gathered last Founder's Day to pay tribute to Miss Frances Taylor, the retiring Dean of Students, and head of the Latin Department of St. Mary's since 1930. It was the largest attendance at Founder's Day in many years, with over 150 graduates present.

In addition, testimonials to Miss Taylor were given in the Assembly Hall following the service in the chapel of corporate Communion for the graduates which opened the program for the day. Dr. C. Preston Wiles, rector of St. Mary's Church, and president of the Board of Trustees of St. Mary's Hall, explained the reluctance of the Board to accept Miss Taylor's resignation and its efforts to persuade her to remain. A welcome to alumnae, the seniors, and some mothers of seniors, was given by Miss H. Elizabeth Heyl, president of the Society of Graduates. She spoke feelingly of the importance of Miss Taylor in the life of St. Mary's and then presented her with a medal identical with those conferred upon each graduating senior (the first such medal ever presented to anyone not a graduate) with these words, "there is no one more truly a 'daughter of St. Mary's'." In addition, a pair of sterling silver candelabra were given the guest of honor from girls whom she had taught through the years, along with a purse "for the purchase of silver polish and candles."

Speaker of the day was Mrs. L. J. Hutton (Ann Hawkes Hutton), of Bristol, Pa., honorary member of the Society of Graduates, former trustee of St. Mary's, parent of a graduate (Katie Hutton, '59) and herself a "Distinguished Daughter of Pennsylvania," an author, historian, speaker and educator. Mrs. Hutton remarked in part that although Miss Taylor would no longer teach at St. Mary's, her teaching will be hand-

An Invitation From the Principal

Dear Members of the Society of Graduates:

Once more it is my pleasure to send you greetings from St. Mary's Hall. This year has brought letters and visits from many of you with whom I have had no previous contact. This has delighted me and prompts me to send a very warm invitation to all of you to visit us at least once during our one hundred twenty-fifth anniversary year. Founder's Day offers a wonderful opportunity to renew old friendships, but a visit at another time would allow you to see the school in its normal routine. Each school day begins with chapel at 8:57 and we would like to share this experience with each of you.

Most warmly,
ELSIE F. SLATER

Anniversary Year Is Approaching for SMH

With the anniversary year approaching, everyone connected with St. Mary's is busy digging into records and old accounts to "read, mark, learn and inwardly digest" old bits of history and tradition. We are delving into books and newspapers and old files and finding, in some cases, new-to-us facts and in other instances old bits of half-remembered lore. THE FIRST HUNDRED YEARS, which Miss Helen Shaw compiled for the Centennial Celebration of 1937, and EIGHTY YEARS OF ST. MARY'S HALL, written by Mrs. Fearnley for the Eightieth Anniversary, are, of course, our chief mines of information.

Interesting plans are afoot for the celebration. It will start on Founder's Day, 1962 and continue for the next year. Students, faculty, trustees and alumnae will all take part in varying ways in the programs that are being out-

Christmas Events Prove Popular For Young Grads

Christmas time brings many graduates back to St. Mary's. Recent graduates flock to the chapel for the Mystery, and to the dining room to attend a morning coffee hour already a popular custom. This year there were about sixty who came for the coffee gathering on the Wednesday morning following Christmas. Patsy Decker, '56, poured, and the sound volume in the dining room rose to mighty heights as the girls discussed school days not far behind them, compared college notes, described weddings, bragged about young offsprings and reported on jobs. A most satisfactory morning it was, and one that will be repeated each Christmas holiday.

Some of those espied at the Mystery on December 21st were: Betsy Fineburg, Patty MacCorkle, Barbara Lefferts, Hedl Decker, Jane Viteri, Carol Geren, "E. J." Stockton, all of the class of 1960; Katie Hutton, Frances Mulford, Mary Jenness, Ann Cramer, Joanne Deitz, Karen Fischer, Ethel Shein, 1959; Virginia Yutz, 1958; Judy Perinchief, Cynthia Johnson, Virginia Shaw, 1957; Margaret Siegrist, 1956; Elizabeth Heyl, 1931; Mrs. Henry Siegrist (Bettie Fell), 1923.

President of Trustees Sends Letter To All Daughters of St. Mary's Hall

To the Daughters of St. Mary's:

It is always a privilege to write a message of greeting to the graduates and friends of St. Mary's Hall. This year, no word of greeting could possibly help reflecting the splendid progress so much in evidence in every area of this venerable school's life. Spiritually, academically, materially, St. Mary's Hall reflects those good things that give to those who love her ideals and standards, in short, her way of life, every reason to rejoice! While we by no means claim to have arrived, we may at least pause to look back over the past decade, knowing that we have achieved a complete reversal of form which presages a future of untold usefulness.

There is every reason for us to radiate confidence. Not only have we managed to perpetuate the rich traditions of the Hall which have endeared St. Mary's to her ever-growing family, but we especially take justifiable pride in knowing that we are able to meet the hightened demands for a first rate academic life in which our students are prepared competently for a successful college career.

It is good to know that the faithful alumnae and friends of St. Mary's Hall are as much interested today in her present and future as they have been in her past. It is pertinent to mention several who have recently shared in our future. Mr. C. Gauntt Holmes, lifelong resident of Burlington, and a long-time vestryman of St. Mary's Church, bequeathed a $1,000 legacy to St. Mary's which will be used by the Board of Trustees in such a manner as will provide a useful memorial in honor of Mr. Holmes and his deceased brother Harold, who until the time of his death had served for a number of years as Treaasurer of St. Mary's Hall, and of their mother. Mrs. David V. Holmes (Sara Gauntt, 1872), long-time Treasurer of the Society of Graduates.

Also, Mrs. Alexander P. Grice (Barbara Speace, '40) is desirous of restoring the prize in Bible studies for those students of the upper school who are church members. At the moment, arrangements are being worked out by special committee for this award.

By this time undoubtedly most of you are aware that "Riverside" has become a major problem—indeed, a hazard for the school. Unfortunately, tremendous damage has been done by vandals who have used it as a target for a good many years with increasing disregard for its private ownership. At the moment, it is a major fire hrazard. The Board of Trustees probably has spent more time in discussing the disposition of this property than actually the subject warrants. We have done so, however, because for most of us the history of "Riverside" means a great deal to us. Yet, realistically, we know that we cannot allow the property to continue to stand as it is. At the moment, it is all but irrelevant to the life of the Hall. We have left no stone unturned trying to preserve this historic landmark for its own sake, to say nothing of the ties it still symbolizes that have existed between the school and the church. The future of "Riverside" has yet to be finally determined pending the results of a carefully planned series of publicity efforts. The Board of Trustees is still weighing the merits of several applications for its use.

This summer as in other years, there will be further major improvements made to the school out of current income. At the same time we shall continue to amortize our indebtedness which we have been able to do for the past two years—and all this, mind you, out of funds available from a school that is realizing a profit from the concerted efforts of all those who are committed to St. Mary's Hall as the best possible place in this area of South Jersey, where our children can, most effectively, receive academic and spiritual training.

I am most happy and proud to attest to the deep satisfaction that Mrs. Wiles and I have in knowing that Mary Margaret has received already four genuinely happy and effective years of her education at St. Mary's, and we look forward with equal pleasure to our son's entrance into the kindergarten next autumn. These are happy years now for us all.

So all in all, the entire family of St. Mary's has much to be grateful for at the present. We prosper! The Christian spirit and educational ideals of our great founder live on undiminished. Laus Deo!

Faithfully yours,

C. PRESTON WILES,

Rector of St. Mary's Church and President of the Board of Trustees of Burlington College

Glee Club Will Sing For Alumnae May 11

Founder's Day, Thursday, May 11, 1961, may not have the appeal of last year's salute to Miss Taylor and it may not be the gala event of next year's anniversary celebration, but it WILL take place and it is the hope of the Society of Graduates and of the school administration that there will be a large turn-out of alumnae.

Following the annual service of corporate Communion in the Chapel there will be a meeting of the Society, followed by luncheon. There will be ample opportunity to discuss next year's program (get in your two-cents worth of ideas!) and to tour the school to see the many improvements.

During luncheon, the Glee Club will entertain with a program of songs.

Reluctant Neighbor To Premier Khrushchev

An amusing sidelight of Premier Khrushchev's visit to New York last October was recorded in New York TIMES of October 12 and involved a former St. Mary's student, Mrs. Phebe McConnel Warren Andrews, who attended our school in the early twenties.

Mrs. Andrew operates the Phebe Warren House, a women's residence on East Sixty-eighth Street and an adjoining restaurant, practically next door to the Soviet Mission's Headquarters. Mrs. Andrews and her neighbors found the security regulations most irksome during the Soviet Premiers stay. Identifications was needed each time they entered their block. The night before Mr. Khrushchev's departure, the owner of a jewelry store in Mrs. Andrews' building, entertained at a—literally—red carpeted party to celebrate the approach of their "freedom." Mrs. Andrews wrote out an invitation to the Premier to attend but he failed to appear. His share of the champagne was consumed by others.

Annual Horse Show Listed for May 20

Those who have attended in the past will need no urging, but for those who have never seen the St. Mary's Hall Horse Show, let us suggest that they mark Saturday, May 20, on their calendars in large print.

This popular event will be the fifth in the series. It will be held again at the beautiful Helis Stock Farm, Jobstown, N. J., to benefit St. Mary's.

A wide variety of competitions will be held during the day, commencing at 9 o'clock and continuing until late in the afternoon. There will be classes open for jumpers and hunters in many varying categories on inside and outside courses. Entry blanks may be obtained at St. Mary's and ringside parking may also be booked there.

Even though you may not be "horse-minded" you will enjoy the beautiful setting, the gay atmosphere, the meetings with friends and acquaintances.

No need to go home for lunch nor to pack a picnic; delicious refreshments may be purchased at booths manned by the students and these proceeds will also benefit St. Mary's. There will be pony and "train" rides for the youngest set—in short, something for everyone.

The Society of Graduates and the Philadelphia Chapter will each give a trophy and a set of ribbons for events at the show, as they have done in the past.

Last year's Horse Show added more than $5,000 to our coffers. The large committees of parents, faculty, trustees, students and alumnae hope to surpass this figure on May 20. Come, help us.

Do you realize that the present senior class will be the 125th class to be graduated from St. Mary's Hall?

CLASS NOTES

'98 We are happy to receive the new address of Miss Gwendolyn Valentine because we have long suspected that mail to her had gone astray. Miss Valentine is living at Pine Acres, East Islip, Long Island, N. Y. We hope that she will soon send us the mementoes of her years at St. Mary's, which she once offered for placement in the Graduates' Room.

From Mrs. Otto Eichel (Mabel Jacques) comes word that she continues to spend much time on publicity and other promotional projects for organizations in which she is interested. We only wish she would get to St. Mary's and help us out here. Her suggestions are always valuable and pertinent.

'07 A trip to Florida prevented Mrs. Howard H. Herr (Miriam Urban) from attending the Philadelphia Chapter meeting. We missed her.

'08 The Chester R. Haigs (Hilda Morse) have been living in Fair Haven, N. J. (at 154 Buena Vista Avenue) since Col. Haig's retirement from the Army. Last Spring they visited their daughter and son-in-law in Paris.

'09 Everyone was sorry that Mrs. Levis Babcock (Marguerite Flanders) asked to be relieved of her duties as treasurer of the Philadelphia Chapter. She had long held the office and done a meticulous job. Our thanks to her! Mrs. Babcock is now following the fleet (in spirit) for her son, Richard, is an ensign, attached to the amphibious carrier U.S.S. Bayfield. He is stationed at Long Beach, Calif.

'10 Mrs. William E. Shedd (Aletta Patterson) has moved from her Key West Home to 2231 California Street, N. W., Washington 8, D. C.

We have learned that Miss Ann Kennedy has moved from Princeton and is now living at 628 S. High Street, Chester, Pa.

Three granddaughters of Mrs. A. Herbert Allen (Florence Ten Broeck) graduated last June from the Agnes Irwin School of Wynnewood, Pa., and made their debuts at a tea dance given by Mrs. Allen. Mrs. Allen had another of her delightful trips last year going to Guatemala and Mexico and ending at La Jolla, Calif.

'12 Mrs. W. Sanderson Detwiler (Gertrude Mott) says, "I would love to know more about the Class of 1912." Well, so would we, Mrs. Detwiler. Is there anyone else in the class who will send use some notes? Mrs. Detwiler, who lives in Lancaster, Pa., says she has four children and eight grandchildren.

A delightful winter vacation was that enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Halsted, Jr. (Marjorie Royce) who spent many weeks last winter at Sea Isle, Ga.

There is a new address for Mrs. Charles L. Workman (Dorothy Van Gorder). She now is making her home at 378 St. Bonaventure Avenue, Claremont, Calif.

'13 When Margaret Merritt and her sister, Eleanor, visited Mrs. Naomi Holt in the Thousand Islands last Summer, to their surprise they ran into many St. Mary's connections. Their hostess is the mother-in-law of Mrs. F. Sheppard Holt (Emily Wright, '45) who, with her family, was also visiting there. Other guests were Emily's mother, Mrs. W. Craig Wright, former member of the St. Mary's Board of Trustees,and the children of Mrs. Archibald Brown (Caroline Wright, '45). Everyone enjoyed the St. Mary's talk, the boating and other water activities. A trip on the Canadian mainland added to the delight of the Merritts' visit.

'14 There is a new address for Mrs. Ernest G. Potter (Marion G. Gallup). She now lives at 703 West Main Street. But she is still in Smethport, Pa.

Our graduates have lots of grandchildren. From Mrs. William T. Bacon we learn that she now has 13, ten boys and three girls. Wouldn't it be nice if they lived close by and could attend St. Mary's?

"It would give me great pleasure to hear from graduates living in Florida and to have them call me any time they come to Miami," writes Mrs. Arona Hubbard. She already sees Mrs. Munn Holbertson (Gladys Osborn) and Mr. and Mrs. Ray F. VanSeggern (Olive Wilde) occasionally. Her address is Colonial Villa, 20 Alhambra Circle, Apt. 11, Coral Gables, Fla.

Dr. and Mrs. John H. Dunnington (Genevieve Parker) planned a trip to Greece last Spring. We hope it materialized, for Greece must be the perfect place to visit at that season. This year they were again in Florida.

'16 We learn from Mrs. Troup Zeth (Sarah McCulloch) that Mr. and Mrs. Malcolm Guy (Mary McNeeley) are living in Florida. Please send us your address, Mrs. Guy.

As for Mrs. Zeth, she says she is still employed at the Douglas Aircraft Co. Her married son lives in Minnesota. Yes, Mrs. Zeth, there are many St. Mary's graduates living in California but many of them are there only temporarily. However, when we get out a new register—we HOPE before too long—you'll be able to note them all.

Graduates in Debut

St. Mary's was well represented at the Trenton Assembly held on December 21 at the Trenton Country Club, with five graduates among those making their debuts at that time.

Our representatives, all of the class of 1960, were: Catherine Bodwell, of Yardley, Pa., now a student at the University of Rhode Island; Susan Henry, of Trenton, a freshman at Sweet Briar College; Virginia Ann MacPherson, of Trenton, who is studying at Cornell; Emma Jane Stockton, of Mendham, N. J., of Washington University at St. Louis, Mo.; and Janet Voories, of Morrisville, Pa., who is studying at the Sorbonne in Paris.

Our reports say it was a lovely occasion and our St. Mary's girls outshone everyone.

The new treasurer of the Society of Graduates is Mrs. John Haardt (Nancy Thomas). Since moving to Mount Holly (108 Dawn Drive) she is able once again to take an active part in alumnae affairs. Her quiet and efficient help is most welcome!

'17 One of our most faithful correspondents is Mrs. John C. Blodgett (Teresa Pearcy). She has even shared with us the pictures of the attractive home in Huntington, Long Island, of her daughter and the handsome home in Oklahoma City of her son, a medical researcher. Mrs. Blodgett must regret that both are so far from her own California home.

Mrs. Wilfrid A. Forhan (Marie Loranger) says that she sees Mrs. Clayton W. Lobb (Dorothy Painter) and Mrs. Howard I. Hooker (Phyllis Neal, '16) "not infrequently" for they live within a radius of three miles of each other in Fort Lauderdale. We have the Florida addresses of Mrs. Forhan and Mrs. Hooker—won't you please send us yours, Mrs. Lobb?

Mrs. Forhan has also sent us a long illustrated feature story from a Florida newspaper about her classmate, Mrs. E. L. Newton (Jessie Porter) who is the prime mover in the effort to restore old Key West. We regret there is not room to quote the article in its entirety. Mrs. Newton is president of the Old Island Restoration Foundation, a non-profit organization affiliated with the National Trust for Historic Preservation. "I collect interesting people and houses instead of postage stamps; houses, wholesale and people, retail," she says. She has bought, moved and restored old houses in danger of demolition and has also been vitally interested in encouraging native crafts. We only wish Mrs. Newton lived nearby to assist us in solving the problem of "Riverside" (see elsewhere in this publication). The Newtons live at 4160 Crawford Avenue, Coconut Grove and in Key West.

From Mrs. Eugene Fuller (Helen Rothwell) comes a wail that she has no up-to-date list of addresses, particularly of the Class of 1917. We'd like to have a better list, too, Mrs. Fuller, but our gypsy-like graduates upset every file as soon as we think it is in order. The Fullers are great Florida-trippers. They return each year to Riviera Drive in Sarosota.

Mrs. Richard Raff (Margaret Kuhns) is an exception to the constant address-changing of our alumnae. She still lives in Canton, Ohio. In the Winter, she and her husband live in a town apartment which they close in the Summer in favor of a farm eight miles out of the city. They have four grandchildren who also live in Canton and who enjoy visiting their grandparents, especially on the farm!

'18 Another graduate who has no gypsy blood is Mrs. Thomas H. Milson, Jr. (Dorothy Newkirk who writes that she still lives in the same house in which she lived when a student at St. Mary's. She goes to Bermuda in the Spring and to Lake Clear, in the Adirondacks, for part of the Summer. Among her Christmas-time correspondents are Mrs. Wain R. Fletcher (Emma Richards), Mrs. Fred B. Griffith (Mary Coffin), Dorothy Foresman McCracken and Emily Foresman Kenyon. The two Foresman sisters were post graduate students at St. Mary's. Mrs. Griffith has 15 grandchildren at the time of writing.

'19 Our sympathy goes to Mrs. Robert H. Hough (Molly Perrine) on the death of her husband in April, 1960.

Kay Salmon returned in June to her home in Southold, Long Island, after a delightful year spent in England. We hope she now will renew her contact with St. Mary's, for she has been greatly missed.

At the monthly meetings of the Board of Managers of the New Jersey Colonial Dames there is a reunion in miniature of St. Mary's alumnae. Members from our rolls are Mrs. Edward Chalif (Margaret Montgomery, '19), Mrs. Henry G. Siegrist (Bettie Fell, '23), hospitality chairman, and Mrs. Frederick M. Phillips (Anna Bell Hutchinson, '25), the treasurer. Until recently, Mrs. S. Robinson Coale (Irene Van Meter, '22) was the recording secretary. Mrs. R. H. Aaronson, the mother of Mrs. William Hinckley (Susan Aaronson, '56), is also a member of the Board.

'20 When seen at the Philadelphia Chapter luncheon in March, Mrs. Gilroy Damon (Virginia Price) reported that she had amassed an even dozen grandchildren by the first of 1961. That beats us. Virginia!

'21 Nice full notes come from Mrs. R. W. Hasbrouck (Marjorie Nightingale) whose husband, Maj. Gen. Hasbrouck, is now retired. They took their daughter and son-in-law to Ireland last year for the Dublin Horse Show and they went on to London and Paris. They regretted missing Germany on this trip but their son, Bob, Jr., has now returned to the States with his German bride. At the time of Marjorie's writing, Lt. Hasbrouck was stationed at the missile base in Oxford, Ohio, and his bride, Astrid, was attending college at Miami University, continuing the higher education that matrimony had interrupted abroad. Marjorie reports having seen Sybil Carpenter Shugg at the party the Hasbroucks gave to introduce their friends to their daughter-in-law. And with Sybil, she attended the wedding in Leesburg, Va., of Diana, the daughter of Mrs. Philip Crocket (Ruth Dill). The wedding gave a splendid opportunity for a threesome reunion. Ruth frequently stops to see Marjorie when enroute to Leesburg to visit her daughter.

Bertha Kaltenbach writes that she had been completely occupied with church work, the League of Women Voters and the Grand Jury Association. All most worth-while organizations, we must add.

'22 When Mrs. E. O'Neill Kane, (Hannah Hamlin) sent in her alumnae dues last year she enclosed a generous contribution for St. Mary's. It would be wonderful if others would follow her example.

Mrs. Elmer Field (Catherine Scott) is another doting grandmother. She now boasts of four, the children of her daughter, Mrs. Robert Tuttle, of North Prairie, Wis. After three boys, Jeffrey, Larry and Robert, Jr., the fourth is a girl, Bettie. Congratulations!

Mr. and Mrs. S. Robinson Coale (Irene Van Meter) are flying to England in late April on a chartered flight for members of the Colonial Dames of America and their families. A visit to Sulgrave Manor, ancestral home of the Washington family, will be a highlight of the trip. Irene's son, Jim, graduated last June from Williams College and is now studying law. Her daughter, Sandy, is a senior at Pembroke.

All who knew Mrs. William D. Timmons (Alice Hunt) will mourn her death, which occurred nearly two years ago but has just reached our desk. She died on March 28, 1959, from cancer. A year before her death a volume of her poetry was published under the title of "Portrait of a Lady." It is a title most descriptive of Alice for our memory of her was of a girl, always gentle and kind and quiet.

'23 A mossy brick on which she slipped and turned her ankle brought disaster to Mrs. Henry Galt Siegrist (Bettie Fell) in late October. The ankle was both broken and dislocated and necessitated long weeks in a long cast. It was not without its compensations, however, for it gave plenty of time for seeing friends, reading and playing bridge as well as plenty of excuse for NOT doing what she didn't want to do! Learning to walk without crutches is now proving very difficult.

Enrollment Up, Endebtedness Down

Do you ever wonder about the present enrollment? You will be glad to hear that it is at the comfortably high level of 257 students. For most of the classes there is a waiting list in addition. A nice healthy situation!

As for our indebtedness, for the third straight year the note at the bank has been reduced. The Board of Trustees has regularly voted debt reduction to the total tune of $17,500 — and all within the past two-and-a-half calendar years.

'24 Mrs. W. H. Farrow (Mildred Valentine) writes from Phoenix, Ariz., where she and Mr. Farrow make their home that she is very active in church work. The Farrows have one daughter at home. Mrs. Farrow's three older girls are all married and living in the East; one, Mrs. Anthony Van-Nozzi (Cornelia Simmons) graduated from St. Mary's in 1951.

Mr. and Mrs. Desmond W. Mellor (Katharine Beardsley) are wintering on their Dutch-built auxiliary sloop, "KayDee," in Florida. Stopping off in Nolfolk on their way south via the Inland Waterway, they tied up by chance across the pier from the "Panacea," the sloop of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander P. Grice, III (Barbara Speace, '40).

A new address has arrived for Mrs. A. J. Beall (Marie Williams). She now lives at 2311 Forest Drive, Charlotte 7, N. C.

'25 Announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Alice Bedford, of Trenton, to Mr. Fritz Phillips, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick M. Phillips (Anna Bell Hutchinson) of Jobstown. The wedding will take place in July.

'27 Mrs. Chester S. Harris (Margaret C. Clark) wrote most happily that her older son, William, was graduating with honors from the University of Virginia and her younger son, Daniel, from the Lawrenceville School, where he was elected "Athlete of the Year" and was co-captain of their undefeated football team.

We wish great happiness to Mrs. William J. Mecke whose marriage to Mr. Mecke took place last June. They are living on North Surrey Drive, Gwynedd Valley, Pa. Mrs. Mecke (Virginia Van Court) was the widow of the late John M. Jopson. In writing of her marriage, Virginia sent a Christmas gift "in memory of four happy years at St. Mary's."

'28 Elizabeth Durrell is very busy with her two dance studios. She teaches ballet both in Fryeburg, Maine, and in Intervale, N. H., her home town. Sue Brodhead ('27) visited her not too long ago and, Elizabeth says, they had a wonderful session, talking St. Mary's news.

'30 The John Hoffmans (Rebecca Styer) have built a new home and are now living on the Mt. Eyre Road, Newtown, R.D. 2, Pa. Both John and Becky teach at the Pennsbury High School. Their two sons, Johnny and Billy, are in Junior High.

Peggy Cayford says she teaches 80 five-year-olds, which should be sufficient explanation of why we seldom see her.

'33 Mrs. James MacCornack (Elizabeth Seckel) is living at 114 E. Riverbank, Beverly, N. J.

'35 Our sympathy goes out to Mrs. Lewis Conklin (Virginia Boswell) and to her sister, Mrs. John Quin, Jr. (Jane Boswell, '39), on the deaths of their parents, the Rev. and Mrs. George E. Boswell, less than six months apart in late 1959. Mr. Boswell was for a long time the rector of St. James Episcopal Church, Bristol, Pa., and was a frequent visitor at St. Mary's. On a happier note, Dr. and Mrs. Quin announced the birth on July 3, 1959, of a son, John III.

'36 "Time is going all too fast," writes Mrs. Allan V. Jay, Jr. (Ruth MacDonough). "My oldest boy is now a freshman at Princeton."

The Gordon D. Griffins (Sallie London Fell) have recently moved into their new home at 163 Leabrook Lane, Princeton, N. J. With four children of their own plus a nephew whom they are raising, they were really crowded out of the first house they built.

"Acres Away" at Alburtis, Pa., is the home of the Robert F. Millers (Louise Speace) where, along with everyone else in the East, they have been enjoying a thoroughly old-fashioned Winter. The Millers are very active at St. Margaret's Church, Emmaus, Pa. They have two teen-age sons.

'37 Betty Downes is now living and working in Hudson, N. Y. She may be addressed at Hudson, R.D. No. 1.

'38 Mrs. William J. Grace (Isabella Brogan) and her family now live in Port Washington, Long Island, N. Y. Isabella's husband is Director of Medicine at St. Vincent's Hospital, in New York City. They have three sons.

'39 An interesting foreign address is the one we have received from Mrs. Joseph Hayes (Marjorie Carter). She may be reached care of the American Embassy, Guatemala, Central America.

With sadness we report the sudden death on May 11 of Mrs. John Hobart Jones (Margaret Clayberger) from a heart attack. She was buried from the Episcopal Church, in Vincentown, N. J. Our deep sympathy goes to her family.

'40 Mrs. Alexander P. Grice (Barbara Speace) seems to have many co-incidental meetings with St. Mary's girls (see the one above with Mrs. Mellor). Not too long ago she had an impromptu reunion on a Washington-New York flight with her classmate, Mrs. Jewett O. Phillips (Margot Gooch). According to Barbara, the ensuing conversation was without break all the way to New York. The Grices are still in Norfolk, where Mr. Grice is an expert real estate appraiser and is currently Junior Warden of Christ and St. Luke's Church. They have three sons.

Margot Phillips and her Navy Captain husband live in Washington and have one son, Peter.

And now we learn that the Edwin G. Siners (Ann Pumyea) have also joined the gypsies. They have moved from Oreland, Pa., to 4125 Hain Drive, Lafayette Hill, Pa.

'44 We can't seem to catch up catch up with the address of Mrs. Robert E. Morrison (Mary Newton Cox) but we think she is still in Aruba where her husband was teaching history to children of the Standard Oil Company's employees. Last Summer they planned to take a tanker to Europe and then tour the Continent in their Volkswagen.

'45 Mrs. James J. Crowley, Jr. (Frances Atkinson) wrote that only a new baby prevented her from attending last year's Founder's Day celebrations. Frances lives at 37 Indian River Road, Milford, Conn. Note to Frances: How about returning for Founder's Day this year?

Another change of address is that of Mrs. Henning F. Jesperson (Joan Hornberger) who, with her family, is now living at 17 Courrier Place, Rutherford, N. J.

We hear that the Franklin C. Johnsons (Mary Belleville) have moved to 84 N. Main Street, Yardley, Pa.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford F. Gray (Martha Flash) announced the birth of a daughter, Elizabeth Godfrew, on July 8. This is their third daughter. By the time IVY LEAVES is in the mail, the Grays will have moved into their new home, 315 Lakeland Avenue, Grosse Point 30, Mich.

'46 Several years ago Mary Jane Patch moved to California. She lives in Apt. F, 2014 Meridan Avenue, South Pasedna.

Mrs. Duane Halvorsen (Claire Remick) and her children are now making their home in Frederiksted, St. Croix, the Virgin Islands. They may be addressed care of the Queen Louise Home.

'48 Mrs. Carlton F. Snow, Jr. (Phebe Gulick) writes, "We love our new home (26 Riverview Drive, Brunswick, Maine) as well as Maine in general." Phebe's husband is a field engineer with I.B.M. and assigned to the SAGE site at the Topsham Air Force Station.

A change in states took place when Mr. and Mrs. Edward C. Weizer (Diana Dilatush) and their family moved to Summit, N. J. Their new home is at 100 Wiltredge Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph McCracken, Jr. (Mary Ann Kime) of Pineville, Ky., announced the birth of their fourth child and third daughter, Margaret Kime, on August 13, 1959.

'49 Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Henry II (Ann Deibert) are living at 23 S. Woodland Avenue, Woodbury, N. J.

Another of our graduates, who with her family, has moved to California, is Mrs. Richard Breithaupt (Betty Budd). The Breithaupts are making their home at 735 April Drive, Yuba City.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray Lampert (Maxine Rosenthal) are now living at 84 Mason Drive, Princeton, N. J.

From Mrs. John A. Herrlinger (Shirley Wilson) we hear that her older boy, Timothy, is now in the first grade. Mark, the younger, is four. Shirley says she has lost a lot of weight. Metrecal?

'50 Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hann, Jr. (Toni Hulbert) now live at 8735 Corbin Avenue, Northridge, Calif.

Kay Strahle Rogers is living at 9 Forest Drive, Roswell, New Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (Sallie Siegrist) of 2050 Valentine Avenue, Apt. 6-E, New York 57, New York, are planning a summer in England and France, both for pleasure and for further research in their fields of history.

Vermont is once again the home of Mrs. Stuart Norton (Lorraine Corbin). She and her husband and two children are living at Grande Isle. Rex is three-and-a-half and Roxie is a year old.

'51 On Founder's Day, Mrs. Stanley Grobman (Regina Weinberg) told us that she and her husband are making their home at 1452 Stuyvesant Avenue, Trenton, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart T. Daniels (Constance Fellows) are living at 100 Wyckoff Avenue, Wyckoff, N. J.

We hear from Mrs. J. A. Jamieson (Barbara Armstrong) that while her husband is working for his doctorate in electrical engineering with Aeronautronics (we hope we have read that correctly), a division of the Ford Company, they are living at 75 Monterey Lane, Sierra Madre, Calif.

'52 On May 7, in Christ Chudch, Summit, N. J., Jerrie Sutfin became the bride of Mr. Donald Harman Anderson. We believe the Andersons are living in New York but until we have a more exact address we shall continue to address Jerrie at 58 Canoe Brook Road, Summit.

Tampa, Fla., is the present home of Dr. and Mrs. Steven Hoyt Gilman (Mary Lou De Nyse) while Dr. Gilman is interning in medicine. He graduated last June from the College of Medicine of the University of Florida. Steve, Jr., was born on December 14, 1959.

A move of a few miles was made by Mr. and Mrs. John N. Park (Gail Durnell) when they left Gwynned Valley for 70 N. College Avenue, Flourtown, Pa.

Winncipaug Road, Westerly, R. I. (Route No. 1) is the new address of Mrs. P. S. Kidston (Phyllis Anne Smith).

'53 We hear that Mrs. Jack C Fisher (Katherine Probasco) is in Europe. How long she will be there we do not know, nor do we know her address. In this country she may be addressed at 56 Tower Hill Avenue, Red Bank, N. J.

The marriage of Judy Focht to Mr. John Lanigir took place in late March, 1960, in St. Paul's Church, Modesto, Calif. Their present address is 150 E. Orangeburg Avenue, Modesto. Judy's sister, Linda, who would have graduated last June at St. Mary's had the Fochts remained in this area, is now in college in San Diego, majoring in elementary education.

Dolores Johnson, who graduated magna cum laude from William Smith College in 1957 and is a Phi Beta Kappa, is now teaching at the University of Missouri. She has earned her master's degree in English and will go abroad this Summer to celebrate.

Lt. and Mrs. Channing Medwedoff (Eleanor Black) and their son, David, who was born last June, are living in Seaside, Calif., while Lt. Medwedoff is studying for his master's degree in underwater acoustics.

The marriage of Louise Rice to Mr. Martin Lee Baker, took place on December 28, 1960, in the chapel of Rowland Hall, Salt Lake City. We wish you much happiness, Louise, and hope you send us your new addess.

Fearnley Award Winners

Winners of the Fearnley Awards in the autumn were: senior, Jean Doak; junior, Barbara Wood; sophomore, Beverly Rhaun; freshman, Pamela Young.

At commencement, 1960, the first alumnae English prize was awarded to Penelope Reggie, of Trenton.

'54 Eleanor Forster is teaching English and supervising the student publications in the Sparta (N. J.) High School.

The Rev. and Mrs. Richard Dunne (Marcia Waldron) are making their home in Roslyn, Long Island, N. Y., where Marcia's husband is the curate of the local Episcopal Church.

Another new address we have recorded in our files is that of Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Evans (Elizabeth Birdsall). They have moved from Doylestown, Pa., to 3 Beech Spring Drive, Summit, N. J.

'55 The marriage of Jane Tucker to Mr. John Alan Broadbooks, of Perry, N. Y., was solemnized on June 25, 1960, in the Bordentown (N .J.) Baptist Church. One of the bridesmaids was Betty Bryan ('56). Jane, who graduated from Mary Washington College, had been teaching first grade in the Columbus, N. J. school. Her husband, a graduate of Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, is a city planning consultant. They are now living on Fairview Avenue, Portland, Conn.

Lt. (J.G.) and Mrs. Walter H. Reister (Evelyn Hardcastle) have been expecting orders in April to move from Newport, R. I. We hope Evie will soon send us their new address. The Reisters have a son, now in his second year.

So late did we receive the announcement of the birth of Philip Drysdale Clarke on April 8, of last year, that the lad will shortly be celebrating his first anniversary. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Clarke (Jean Van Dyke).

The marriage of Susan Irene Bush to Mr. Henry Blyer Warner, Jr., took place on March 5, 1960, in the First Presbyterian Church of Moorestown, N. J. The Warners are making their home at 910 Centennial Road, Narberth, Pa. Susan attended the University of Miami after her graduation from St. Mary's. Her husband is a graduate of the Episcopal Academy, in Philadelphia and attended the Universities of Pennsylvania and Southern Florida.

So lovely in its local traditions was the wedding of Daphne Dill to Mr. Walter Russell Stobo, that although it took place in August, 1959, we are going to cite a few things from the Bermuda paper's account which took a long time to reach us.

Lady Dill, aunt of the bride, arranged the pink and white frangipangi blossoms and blue plumbago in Christ Church, Devon, where the ceremony was held. The hymns played were: "Praise My Soul the King of Heaven" and "Lead Us, Oh Father." One of the bridesmaids was Mrs. Laurie Westcott (Peggy Dill, '51), a sister of the bride. The bridal table, at the reception at the home of the bride's parents, held a beautiful and traditional Bermuda gold-leafed bridegroom's cake and the silver-leafed bride's cake, topped by a small cedar tree. The bridal couple planted a cedar tree on the lawn next to those planted by her two sisters on the occasions of their marriages. Mr. and Mrs. Stobo left on a wedding trip to Scotland, the bridegroom's former home. They now live at Woodside Studio Cottage, Middle Road, Devonshire, Bermuda.

'56 Many of the St. Mary's Hall family attended the wedding on June 18 of Patricia Decker to Mr. Edward Patterson. Patsy was president of her class and is the daughter of Col. Samuel A. Decker, a trustee, and of Mrs. Decker, a member of the faculty. The ceremony was performed in Christ Episcopal Church, Bordentown, with a reception following at the home of the bride, on the Old York Road, near Bordentown. Hedl Decker ('60) was maid of honor for her sister and among the bridesmaids were Mrs. William Hinckley (Susan Aaronson) and Vicki Wells and Mary Ann Keen, all of Patsy's class. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson are now living at the Barclay Estates, near Haddonfield, N. J. Patsy was graduated from Douglass College only a week before her wedding.

Vickie Gutstein, also of Bordentown, was also married last Summer. Her marriage to Mr. Marvin Schlosser of Washington, D. C., was held in the Har Sinai Temple, Trenton. A reception followed at the Temple reception rooms. Mr. and Mrs. Schlosser are living in Chevy Chase, Md. Vicki graduated last June from the University of Maryland and her husband received his law degree from Georgetown University in the same month.

Yet another marriage in this class was that of Barbara Vancza of Columbus, N. J., on August 27 to Mr. William Spiller, Jr. The wedding was performed in St. Mary's Church, Burlington. One of Barbara's attendants was Mrs. John Vancza (Georgia Folsom, '55), of Tucson, Ariz. The Spillers are living at 184 Livingston Avenue, New Brunswick, N. J., while Mr. Spiller completes work for his degree at Rutgers University. Barbara, who is a graduate of Douglass College, is teaching in Franklin Township, nearby.

Ruth Ann Lager is working with the Manufacturers' Insurance Co., in Trenton.

We have heard indirectly that Barbara Minchin, who graduated from the Bridgeport University School of Nursing, is now a nurse with the United States Air Force. Can you give us an address, Barbara?

Vicki Wells will sail in June for a six weeks motor trip on the continent. Vicki has been working in Philadelphia this past year in the advertising department of Strawbridge and Clothier. She has an apartment at 301 S. 17th Street.

Off to Germany in late April will be Mary Ann Keen for a long vacation from her job at the Bordentown Banking Company.

Margaret Siegrist, who has almost been an European commuter since her graduation from St. Mary's, is once again planning a Summer abroad, this time in France. She is now a guide at the UN which proved particularly exciting last Fall when, for security reasons, guiding was suspended and she was assigned the task of ushering the heads of foreign governments at the famous session of the General Assembly.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. William Hinckley (Susan Aaronson) have just purchased a house in Richmond, Va. Let us know the address, Susan, and when you will move.

Betty Bryan is teaching general science and biology in the Sudbury (Mass.) Junior High School. She graduated from Bucknell College last June.

To celebrate the fifth anniversary of their graduation, members of this class, their parents and former teachers have been invied by Mr. and Mrs. Herman Gutstein, of Bordentown, N. J., to a party on Saturday evening, April 1. It sounds like a wonderful idea—during the Easter holiday when more girls are free to attend a reunion. But we hope they will have a second fifth reunion on Founder's Day here at the Hall.

'57 Diane Higham will graduate in June from the Trenton State College and has accepted an elementary teaching post in the Hamilton Township school system for next year. For the past two years she has held the offices of treasurer and secretary of the Theta Phi Sorority.

The marriage of Sydney Hagert to Mr. J. Richard O'Kane, Jr., was held in April of last year. Their present address is 46 Alumni Avenue, Providence, R. I.

When last heard of, Katherine Shinn was a secretary at the Concordia Junior College, in Bronxville, N. Y., and studying on the side. She had plans to attend Valparaiso University, in Indiana, and marry Mr. Robert Rickad, who is preparing for the Lutheran ministry.

Judy Perinchief is business manager of "The Octagon," the campus publication of Elmira College, where she is a senior.

Sally Ann Garrison is deep in her second year of nurse's training at the College of Physicians and Surgeons, in New York City.

Lynn Knowles was the lovely Queen at the Homecoming Festivities at Albright College, Reading, Pa., last Fall. She is a senior enrolled in the home economics course at Albright.

Cynthia Johnson has been leading a gay and interesting life since she left St. Mary's. Now a senior at the University of Michigan, she made her debut at the Trenton Assembly in 1957. Last Summer she was among the group of young women from the United States presented at the first American Debutante Ball in Rome. A round of Roman social events feted the girls during the week of the ball, and a tour of Italy followed it. The escorts of the debutantes were from Italian universities and military schools. Cynthia continued in Rome throughout the Summer, studying fashion design with the Princess Giovanna Carracciola, couturier, whose House of Carosa is located on the Spanish Plaza of Rome. When, more recently, Cynthia was a guest at President Kennedy's inaugural ball, she had no problem in selecting a gown—she wore the one in which she had made her Roman debut.

Ginger Shaw always seems to be doing something interesting. As co-chairman of the Model United Nations Steering Committee of Northwestern University, she was chosen last Autumn as a delegate to visit New York and attend sessions and observe the General Assembly and Councils meetings of the U N. While there, she made arrangements for speakers for the model session at Northwestern. Last Spring, Virginia was a member of the May Court at her university, chosen on the basis of outstanding leadership, activities and her contribution to the University. A very pretty addition she must have made to the court.

June 24 has been selected by Ann Elizabeth Wyckoff for the date of her marriage to Mr. Philip Reid Hirsch, Jr., of Roca Raton, Fla., and Warm Springs, Va. The wedding will take place in Trinity Cathedral, Trenton. Ann graduated from the Colby Junior College and studied at the Tobe-Coburn School for Fashion Careers, New York City. She made her debut at the Trenton Assembly and is presently employed by Abraham & Strauss, Brooklyn. Her fiance graduated from Princeton last June and is now attending the Jefferson Medical College in Philadelphia.

'58 The engagement of Mary Jay Dwier to Mr. Richard M. Salzmann, of Toms River, N. J., has been announced by her parents. No date has been set for the wedding. Marty is a junior at Russell Sage College and her fiance is a student at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute.

Virginia Yutz was tapped for the Cardinal Key, national honorary leadership sorority, at Roanoke College, where she is a junior. She already was a member of the Xi Theta Chi, another honorary organization. In addition, she has earned letters in hockey and basketball, is treasurer of Delta Gamma and is on the board of the Women's Athletic Association.

'59 Announcement was made by Mr. and Mrs. John T. Probasco of the marriage on August 27, 1960, of their daughter, Susan, to Mr. George Edwin Olsen, of Cedar Grove, N. J. The wedding was held at St. James Episcopal Church, Long Branch, N. J. Mr. Olsen is a fourth year engineering student at Rutgers University. The couple are residing at 65 Ellen Street, New Brunswick.

The marriage of Barbara Nelson to Mr. Clifford W. Henry took place on October 8. The bridegroom is the brother of Susan Henry ('60) and is a junior at Princeton University. Barbara is enrolled at the Helene Fuld School of Nursing in Trenton.

Another bride in this class is Barbara Ward, of Crosswicks. She was married on March 25, 1960, to Mr. Christopher L. Perry, of Wilmington, Del., in the Tabernacle Methodist Church, Chancellor, Va. Barbara had attended Marjorie Webster Junior College. Her husband is a graduate of the Lawrenceville School and is now a senior at Princeton University where he is a member of the Colonial Club. They are living at Laurelton House, Princeton, R.D. No. 3, N. J.

Dianne Hauserman may now be addressed at 41 West Road, Short Hills, N. J.

Barbara Budd's new address is 18 Rex Avenue, Philadelphia 18, Pa.

'60 Poor Hedl Decker! Shortly after Christmas she developed "mono" (don't ask us to spell it in full) and had to drop temporarily out of college. She is a student at Wells College, Aurora, N. Y.

Dorothy Benninghoff must be the class bride. She was married in Burlington on September 17 to Mr. Ernest Mitchell, of Philadelphia.

They are now living at the Waynemore Apts., Waynemore and Hansbury Streets, Germantown, Pa.

Susan Henry has been chosen a member of the Sweet Briar College Choir. Sue loves Sweet Briar and has been particularly enjoying riding in the Virginia countryside and skiing at the Homestead in Hot Springs.

Janet Voorhies is studying this year at the Sorbonne but she came all the way home for the Christmas season in order to make her debut at the Trenton Assembly Ball.

Home for the Christmas vacation from the University of Delaware, Barbara Lefferts entertained at a holiday party for a number of her former St. Mary's schoolmates and their dates.

We hear that Jan Colvin's engagement has been announced to a midshipman she met several years ago at the Cotillon following an Army-Navy Game. You must send us the details, Jan, we are eager to hear. This is not the first "match" that has been made between St. Mary's girls and men from the Naval Academy at these after-game functions.

Betsy Fineburg sounds enthusiastic about her course in physical education at Russell Sage College.

Some of the other members of this class are at the following colleges this year: Penny Reggie, Gettysburg; Jane Viteria, The Pennsylvania Hospital School of Nursing; "E. J." Stockton, Washington University, in St. Louis; Maxine Silver, the Katherine Gibbs' School, New York City; Chapin Smith, Moravian College; Patty McCorkle, Theil College; Ginny MacPherson, Cornell University; Kathy Kudra, Green Mountain Junior College; Peggy Forsyth, Kueka College; Cynthia Cohen, University of Washington, D. C.; Kathy Bodwell, University of Rhode Island; Carol Geren, Taylor University, Upland, Ind.

Margery Goggin is modelling at Bonwit Teller's in Philadelphia. What a stunning model she must be.

This note would come properly under so many classes that we are giving it a special place all by itself.

Shortly before Christmas, Mrs. Jewett O. Phillips Jr. (Margot Gooch, '40), entertained in her Washington, D. C. home at a tea in honor of her mother, Mrs. Joseph Gooch Jr., of Bronxville, N. Y., an associate graduate and former trustee of St. Mary's. Mrs. Gooch was then on her way south for a three months sojourn to recouperate from a recent serious illness.

New Look For Old Study Hall

Returning graduates will find many physical improvements to St. Mary's interiors. Most of these were accomplished during the summer vacation but others were undertaken during the school year.

The new look of the Assembly Hall is the greatest single improvement we have enjoyed for many years. The ceiling has been lowered, the entire room panelled in light mahogany and new lights installed. A new music room has been contrived in a corner between the corridor and assembly room. Between the two there is a double-faced closet for a record player so that it can be used in either room. The halls and stairwells of Odenheimer have been paneled and

Associates and Former Students

The marriage of Alice Huang, daughter of the Rt. Rev. and Mrs. Quentin K. Y. Huang, of Washington, to Mr. Bernard L. McGowan, took place on November 26, in the Basilica of the Assumption, Baltimore, Md. One of the wedding guests reported "Alice looked lovely in a cream colored brocade sheath (Oriental style) and a brief veil fastened to a bandeau of white flowers. She carried camellias." Alice is in the experimental premed program and will get her B.S. in June. Her husband will receive his medical degree from Johns Hopkins in June, '62. They are making their home at 907 Exeter Hall Ave., Baltimore 15. Many St. Mary's girls will remember Alice, who entered our school in the first grade and continued at St. Mary's until her parents escaped from China. Then she went to the National Cathedral School to be near them in Washington. She entered Wellesley College in 1957 on the Madame Chiang Kai Shek Scholarship. Her many friends from St. Mary's days wish her much happiness.

We hear that Maria Pappas, who would have been in the class of '56 if St. Mary's had remained a boarding school, is living in Washington and teaching fourth grade in a nearby Maryland school.

Mrs. C. E. Avery (Diane Rice) and her husband and four children, are now living at 62 Conklin Place, Dumont, N. J.

COMMENCEMENT EXERCISES OF 1891 RELATED IN CONTEMPORARY PAPER

It is very pertinent in this year of preamble to our 125th anniversary that we direct our attention to early days of St. Mary's Hall. For that reason we reprint in its entirety a description of the commencement exercises of the class of 1891, copied from a Burlington paper of that day. We are indebted to Miss Matilda Whitall, a member of that class, for sending us this account. Miss Whitall lives at The Evergreens, Moorestwn, N. J.

ST. MARY'S HALL
Burlington, New Jersey
The Fifty-fourth Commencement
Class of 1891

St. Mary's Hall has closed its fifty-fourth school year in good form and the prospects for the ensuing year are very flattering. The present efficient principal, Miss Charlotte Titcomb, will remain in charge of the school.

On Monday evening a concert was given in the schoolroom in charge of Miss Hattie Brower, the teacher of music, those participating therein being the younger members of the school mostly. The program was made up of selections from classic authors and was rendered to the great satisfaction of the audience.

At five o'clock Tuesday afternoon the art room was opened for inspection. Here there is much of interest to be seen. The most striking works are those of Miss Matilda Whitall of Woodbury, in oil from still life and flowers and also her drawings from casts. Charlotte Brown of Burlington deserves special mention for water color sketches from nature and paintings from cuts and life. May Brown, Marian Clark, Ella Throckmorton and Lou Hubbard exhibit creditable cut drawing from objects and block heads. Among the younger students Warden Towsen, Bessie Stryker and Belle Hamilton are proficient in object drawing. Alice D'Olier, May Brown and May Sailor exhibit striking water color studies. The object drawing of Eleanor Hewitt, Georgie Fiske, Marion Woolman, Daisy Stubbs, Flo. Carter, Ethel McNeal, Kate Reese and Edith D'Olier is worthy of special mention.

On Tuesday evening the school was crowded with a brilliant audience. The exercises began with an overture, Wagner's "Die Meistersinger," by Misses Johnson, Graff, Stobo and Buckelow. "La Filense," by Raff was excellently rendered by Miss Holmes. Then followed Rubinstein's chorus, "The Angel," charmingly delivered. Leschetizky's "Les Deus Alouettes," by Miss Buckelew was another musical success; so was the duo, "Introduction et Gavotte," Von Wilm, rendered by Misses Buckelew and Stryker. Shubert's impromptu. "Rosamunde," by Miss Buckelew ble quartette in Chadwick's "Lullaby." Raff's valse impromptu and was next: then followed the dou- Liszt's polonaise in E followed in succession and the programme concluded with Sullivan's chorus, "The Lost Chord." This was an excellent piece of music and happily closed the performance. A season of social intercourse followed.

In the schoolroom today in the presence of the Bishop and Trustees and a throng of friends of the institution the following programme was rendered, the essays being interspersed with musical selections: Salutatory, "The lyfe so short, the craft so long to lerne," Cornelie M. Woodrufi; Madam "On Dit," Annie C. Laffey; "Want to see the wheels go round," curiosity, Frances H. Graff; the German honor essay, by Jennie Boone, read by Katharine W. Buckelew; "Memory's Crazy Quilt," Jennie W. Boone; French honor essay, Mary A. Stobo; "Men, women and ghosts," Matilda F. Whitall; "Mrs. Grundy's Kingdom," Wilhelmina O. Johnson; valedictory—"One and one make two," Mary A. Stobo.

From the schoolroom the company adjourned to the chapel, the processional being "Hark the sound of holy voices." The bidding prayer and litany and Garret's magnificat followed, after which the Bishop conferred the diploma

Former Teacher Exhibits Art

Her former pupils will not be surprised to learn that Mrs. Katherine Steele Renninger, for several years during the 40's the art teacher at St. Mary's, has paintings on exhibit in a number of locations this spring. Currently, a group of her canvases is being shown at the Second Street Gallery, in Moorestown, N. J. She also has a work, entitled "Stairwell" at the Riverside Museum, in New York. In another exhibit at the Springfield Museum in Springfield, Mass., she is showing "Restoration." This exhibition is being sponsored by the Academic Artists Association.

Mrs. Renninger lives in Newtown, Pa., and her work is well known throughout the east.

ed on to the daughters of those she has taught, generation to generation and in that sense her teaching will not be leaving. The spiritual gifts ,the sense of tradition and heritage, which she has given St. Mary's will always remain.

A picnic lunch in the circle had been planned for the day but threatening weather necessitated an "indoor picnic."

At the brief business meeting, following the luncheon, Miss Heyl was re-elected president of the Society of Graduates for a term of three years. Other officers chosen at this time were: vice president, Mrs. Ivins Jessup (Sally Tattersall, '23); recording secretary, Mrs. S. Robinson Coale (Irene Van Meter, '22); executive committee, Mrs. William Sheppard (Margaret Long, '36) and Mrs. William McGuire (Dale Hamilton, '51).

It was announced at this time that the chapel offering totaled $84.91 and it was at once decided that this money be given to the school in honor of Miss Taylor and that a committee composed of Miss Taylor, Dr. Wiles and Miss Heyl decide upon its use.

MISS TAYLOR'S RESPONSE TO TRIBUTE

"I am completely overwhelmed. Being at no time a public figure, I am more than ever inarticulate at this beautiful token of your loyalty and affection.

"If I have made a small contribution to St. Mary's during these decades, much of it is due to this same loyalty and affection. Another factor which has contributed to my modest success has been my implicit belief in what we call the esence of St. Mary's. I have always felt that any institution that has weathered as many storms has something indestructible and of eternal value. I have been grateful to be a part of it. It will always have my best wishes and my prayers. To all of you my deepest thanks for coming, for your loyalty over the years, and for these beautiful gifts.

"This is not good poetry but it says what is in my heart—

It is my joy in life to find
At every turning of the road
The strong arm of a comrade kind
To help me onward with my load.
And since I have no gold to give
But love alone must make amends
My daily prayer is, while I live
God make me worthy of my friend.

"Thank you with all my heart. God bless you all. God bless St. Mary's and may she have many more years in which to send out many more girls just like you."

Miss Newbold, our former headmistress and one of the guests reports that despite the illness, Mrs. Gooch looked very well, indeed.

Last summer both of Mrs. Gooch's daughters, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Henry H. Smith (Edith Anne, '44) and their children visited their mother at her summer home in Ogonquit, Maine.

lined. To graduates there is great interest in the fact that Founder's Day in 1962 will be celebrated NOT on May 27 as it was for many years, and NOT on a more convenient day, as in more recent times, but on May 1, the day that St. Mary's first opened its doors to pupils. It is St. Mary's actual birthday. (After 1962, Founder's Day will revert to the second Thursday of May, as in late years.)

Our president, Miss Heyl, has appointed a committee of alumnae to plan the graduates' share in the festivities. Miss Frances Taylor, the recently retired Dean of Students and for many years head of the Latin Department and an honorary member of the Society of Graduates, will be the advisor of the committee. Other members are: Mrs. William E. Sheppard (Margaret Long, '36), Mrs. Anthony Sozio (Josephine Peters, '39), Mrs. John C. Borden (Elizabeth Codding, '44), Mrs. Edward Henry (Ann Deibert, '49), Miss Katie Hutton, '59, and Miss Heyl, '31, ex officio.

Suggestions for appropriate ways to celebrate this important anniversary will be welcomed by the committee. Please send them your ideas.

In Scarborough, bedroom walls have been removed to create a spacious art room at the end of the second floor. The former art room on the second floor of Odenheimer has been converted into an English classroom and publication room.

In Doane, classrooms for the second and third grade have been enlarged by the removal of some partitions. The ante-chapel has a new floor. In the admissions office a new ceiling was installed, a closet built and the whole room repainted. And throughout the school, many other rooms have been freshened by new paint. The whole gives an impression of lightness and cheerfulness and efficiency. It is most charming, as all who have beheld it agree.

But those most enthusiastic are, of course, those who use the rooms —the students and faculty and administration.

During the summer vacation, other renovations are in store for other parts of the old building. For the anniversary year St. Mary's will be in apple-pie condition, ready for the host of visitors we know will be appearing.

of the institution on Jennie Willits Boone, Annie Carter Laffey, Katherine Crawford Buckelew, Mary Alice Stobo, Frances Hulme Graff, Matilda Whitall, Wilhelmina Octavia Johnson and Cornelia Woodruff.

The Bishop then addressed the graduating class at length in appropriate terms. An anthem and benediction followed and the company filed out of the chapel to the recessional, "Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord."

Founder's Day Celebrated On May Anniversary

One hundred and twenty-five years after Bishop George Washington Doane greeted the first girls to arrive at St. Mary's Hall, successors of those girls gathered to commemorate the occasion.

It was on May 1, 1837, that St. Mary's opened its doors. On May 1, 1962, the Society of Graduates met for "Founder's Day."

As always, the day's exercises began with a service of holy communion in the chapel. A very brief business session followed. Dr. Althea Hottel, Dean of Women at the University of Pennsylvania and a former member of the social commission of economic and social council of the United Nations, was the guest speaker. Dr. Hottel traced the mainstream of history during the lifetime of St. Mary's, stressing the importance of education for women and the added responsibilities of women because of their education.

A period to tour the school to observe improvements and additions took place before luncheon. Dr. Roland Doane, representative of the Doane Family Association, Mrs. Slater, and Dr. Wiles each spoke briefly.

Miss Heyl, our president, presided at the meeting and luncheon.

Organ Fund Hits Sour Note As Response Lags

Disappointing in the extreme has been the apathetic response by alumnae to the alumnae-sponsored fund to repair the organ. This needed improvement was intended to be our gift to the school for its 125th birthday.

To complete the work, we needed to collect $3,000. Answers to the appeal were received from 110 women who contributed $975.75. That leaves us over $2,000 owing for work on the organ that we told St. Mary's we would pay for.

Four hundred more replies, averaging $5 each will just about answer the need. Of course, if only 200 more contribute, then we will need $10 from each of them.

Have YOU given? If not, make it SOON.

CUTTING THE BIRTHDAY CAKE

DR. WILES AND MRS. SLATER get set to slice into "St. Mary's Hall" for the Convocation guests on May 12. The elaborate cake looked good and tasted good, too!

MANY ATTEND CONVOCATION TO NOTE SCHOOL BIRTHDAY

Highlight of the 125th anniversary year was observed at St. Mary's Hall on Saturday, May 12, with a special Convocation to which parents, alumnae, and friends were invited.

The day began with a service of holy communion in the chapel at 10:00 a.m. with the chaplain, the Rev. Randall J. Conklin, celebrating. The service was followed by a symposium moderated by Dr. Wiles. Panelists were Mrs. Slater, our principal; the Rt. Rev. J. Stuart Wetmore, suffragan bishop of the Diocese of New York, and the Rev. Dr. Reamer Kline, president of Bard College. They discussed "Maturity Through Christian Education" and developed provocative thoughts on the subject.

Luncheon was served under the trees of the "circle." High point of the luncheon was cutting the cake, fashioned in the shape of St. Mary's Hall, complete even to the stained glass chapel windows and trees on the riverbank.

In the afternoon, the morning's theme was resumed with a period for the audience to direct questions to the panel members.

Closing feature of the program was the presentation of "Through the Years" by upper school students. This was a commemorative program of episodic scenes in drama and music of life at St. Mary's presented under the supervision of Mrs. Daniel Goffredo, drama coach, and Alfred Hartley, music director. Students enacted the roles.

Fearnley Photos Wanted

Is there anyone among the ranks of graduates who owns pictures of Mr. and Mrs. Fearnley? Do you know who might have them?

There is no picture of either at St. Mary's, and we feel it is high time someone stepped in to remedy the situation.

If you have pictures, and do not want to part with them—and we can well appreciate that you might want to keep them—would you have them copied?

Send them to Miss Heyl, 403 High Street, Mount Holly.

To Err Is Human —

Mistakes creep into even such staid and generally-accurate publications as "The New York Times," so St. Mary's is in good company—despite it's red face—when a glaring inaccuracy appears in the An-

New Banner For School Chapel Gift Of Students

Chapel processions at St. Mary's are now led by a beautiful new banner given by the students on the occasion of the 125th anniversary celebration. A service of dedication and benediction took place in early May when the entire student body was present.

The old banner, painted by the late Jack Ward, former art teacher and son of the late Rev. John T. Ward, former chaplain of St. Mary's Hall, has now beon retired. The painting was cracked and damaged beyond repair, making it impossible to carry it away from the school for formal processions elsewhere.

The new banner is also beautiful. Somewhat smaller than the old, it is handsomely embroidered with the school shield.

Horse Show Is Another Success

The weatherman delivered another sunny day for the sixth annual St. Mary's Horse Show at the beautiful Helis estate in Jobstown. True, it was a hot day, (in fact, a scorcher), but by mid-May everyone was prepared and eager for a touch of Summer.

Thousands were present to watch the fine performances of horses and riders, to patronize the gaily-decorated booths at the "midway" and meet with old friends. For children, there were pony rides and other amusements.

Winner of the Society of Graduates Trophy given in the Open Hunter Class was Peter Close, riding "C'est Tout." Shiman Ginny on "Mr. Easy" walked off with the Philadelphia Chapter Trophy in the Green Jumpers Class.

Close to $5,000 is raised each year by this event which is run by parents, teachers, students, trustees, and friends. Colonel Samuel A. Decker, father of two alumnae, and a member of the Board of Trustees, heads the large committee.

Which Bishop Doane Wrote These Lines?

Miss Margaret Merritt spied the following quotation in a Philadelphia paper during the Winter, along with a query for the author:

"I am quite sure he thinks that I am God—
Since he is God on whom each one depends
For life and all things that His bounty sends—
My dear old dog, constant of all friends."

The paper answered "These lines are from the tribute referred to as 'Bishop Doane and His Dog, Cluny.' Bishop Doane was American Protestant Episcopal Bishop William Croswell Doane, although some sources attribute the poem to his father, George Washington Doane, also an American Protestant Episcopal Bishop."

And, also this Winter, someone wrote to ask the New York Times who wrote the following: "If you educate a boy, you educate one individual; if you educate a girl, you educate generations."

We missed the answer given several weeks later, but always understood Bishop George Washington Doane was the first to make this statement. Does anyone know? Certainly, it was his philosophy.

Big Year A-Comin'

September began a bumper year at St. Mary's. Not for many years has the enrollment been so large on the opening day of school.

Two hundred and fifty-six students began classes on September 12. Most classes are now closed, but for the few remaining places, testing continues. There is every indication that, as in the past, peak enrollment will not be reached for the year until later in the Fall.

Chapel Plates Now On Sale

Commemorative plates, showing a view of the Chapel of the Holy Innocents, went like hot-cakes a few years ago when the Society of Graduates sold them. There was such demand for more from graduates, parents, and friends that this Spring it was decided to place a second order with the decorator.

Now the plates are available once more. They may be purchased at the school for $4 each, or ordered by mail for $5. The additional dollar covers cost of special wrapping, postage, and insurance.

COMMENCEMENT BRINGS END TO ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION

Commencement exercises, beginning with the baccalaureate service on Sunday, June 10, concluded the observances of the 125th anniversary of St. Mary's Hall, and brought diplomas to the twenty-three members of the 126th class.

The Rev. C. Preston Wiles, rector of St. Mary's Church and President of the Board of Trustees of the school, preached the baccalaureate address. The congregation then followed the school procession to the outdoor site beneath the East window of the chapel where the senior class planted its shoot of ivy. It was then that the soon-to -be graduates relinquished their caps and gowns to their successors.

Class day supper for the school and parents of the seniors followed in the dining room, with the traditional class serenades. When darkness fell, the bonfire was lighted on the riverbank, and all was hilarity until the time came for Joanne Cooper of Trenton, class president, and Caroline Kerlin of Langhorne, Pa., student council president, to step into the boat to tow into mid-stream the cross lighted by candles representing each senior. As the cross was released to drift away from the school, students, massed on the water's edge, sang the Alma Mater.

Two days later, St. Mary's weather failed. There was rain for commencement! But it did not daunt the school girls. Flower-laden, the seniors marched after the rest of the upper school into the study hall for the awarding of honors and the address by the Very Rev. Edward Harris, dean of the Philadelphia Divinity School. Later, they donned the blue-lined white capes, re-introduced by the class of 1961 as a part of the commencement tradition for the procession into the Chapel for their diplomas and blessing.

Commencement awards included: English Prize given by the Society of Graduates, Barbara Zeltmacher, Trenton; Ivy Leaf, Caroline Kerlin; ranking student of ranking class, Joanne Cooper, Trenton, '62; Dahl Award, given by the father of an English exchange student for the best essay on Anglo-American relations, Cathie Malise, Columbus; Athletic Association Award, Sally Harrel, Moorestown; Chapel Award for devotion and service, Sandra Harbourt, Trenton· Parent-Faculty Award for outstanding citizenship and good scholarship, Susan Thorn, Bordentown; Bishop Gardner Award for an unique contribution to school life, Barbara Wood, Trenton; the 1956 Class Award for giving of talents and services without though of recognition, Gail Silverstein, Trenton; Bishop Matthews Award for special knowledge of the Book of Common Prayer and its exemplary use and practice in daily living, Sylvia Daley, Trenton.

One "Ivy Leaves" To Another

Congratulations to the school IVY LEAVES from the Graduate Edition. The school paper placed first this spring among schools with enrollments of less than 500 in the annual competition sponsored by the Scholastic Press Association of New Jersey.

Out of a possible 1,000 points, "IVY LEAVES received 884 points with high scores in coverage, editorials, features, headlines, makeup, news, sports and philosophy." The association's summary: "A good publication. The young women making up the staff and contributors have done an excellent job."

Barbara Zeltmacher of Trenton was editor-in-chief. Miss Isabel Corless of Burlington was faculty advisor.

We earnestly appeal to all readers to keep us posted promptly of changes of names and addresses. It is discouraging to edit and mail IVY LEAVES only to have copies bounce back marked "address unknown." It happens too often. Sometimes we feel our graduates have gypsy blood.

Keep us up to date, too, on notices of births, deaths, engagements and marriages.

Miss Newbold And Miss Sandt Visit

It seemed natural to see Miss Florence L. Newbold (headmistress, '40-'52) and Miss Eleanor Sandt (academic head during that same period) at St. Mary's once more. They were present for the Convocation in early May and seemed equally to enjoy the changes and the abiding qualities of St. Mary's.

Miss Newbold is "partly retired." That is, she has given up her full-time position as head of the department of religious education at National Cathedral School and is now working three days weekly as director of religious education with the Church of the Good Samaritan, Paoli, Pa. And guess where she is making her home—right in Burlington (Yubas Avenue) with her sisters.

Miss Sandt still lives in Greenwich, Conn., but we were too excited and happy to see her once more to get straight the title of her present position.

Alumnae Room Is Now Society Headquarters

The Graduates' Room is at last a reality. Situated on the second floor of Scarborough Hall it is not, as yet, overly crowded by furniture, but we fully expect that additional gifts will reach us from time to time. Particularly, do we need a rug and end tables.

A handsome gift this spring was that of a desk presented by Mrs. Levis Babcock (Marguerite Flanders, '09). We thank her and also thank the Philadelphia Chapter for framing documents and pictures now on display in the room.

When you visit the Hall, ask at the office for the key to our room and browse around a while.

Award Winners See Performance At Music Circus

Fearnley Award winners this year were treated to a dinner and theater party on June 14. They attended a performance at the Camden Music Circus of "The Music Man" with Miss Heyl as chaperone.

Those who attended were: Joanne Cooper, Sylvia Daley and Sandra Harbourt, seniors; Leslie Pearl and Virginia Shaver, juniors; Patricia Albert and Anne Hesman, sophomores; Claudia Black, Nancy Carson, Marcia Megariotis, Andrea Pierce and Cathleen Stultz, freshmen.

CLASS NOTES

'87 Early in May, R. H. Morris (Annie Hoguet) was visited by four St. Mary's students, Caroline Kerlin, Barbara Wood, Linda Sharlin and Mary Hemings. The girls took greetings from the school to Mrs. Morris who, we believe, is the oldest living graduate of the Hall. Mrs. Morris, who attended a Philadelphia Chapter meeting several years ago to our great pleasure, lives in the Leamy Apartments, Philadelphia 19, Pa., a small Episcopal Home for elderly women. We are sure she would like to see or hear from other students or alumnae.

'93 With sorrow we record the death on November 13, 1961, of Miss Helen Buchanan Buckelew of Wilmington, Del. The notice reached us from the trust department of her bank.

'98 Mrs. Otto Eichel (Mabel Jacques) is the prime mover in the Library Book Fair in Langhorne, Pa., where she continues to make her home. The annual project presents stimulating programs as well as displays of books. Books may be purchased too. With her great enthusiasm and ability, Mrs. Eichel has developed the fair into an attraction for residents over a wide area. Too bad it always falls on the date of the St. Mary's Horse Show.

'09 Mrs. Levis Babcock (Marguerite Flanders) and her husband made a quick plane trip to California in March to visit their son, Richard, who was shortly to be transferred by the Navy to the Canal Zone. They had a delightful time touring southern California and parts of Mexico with their son, but the homeward flight was anything but pleasant. A snowstorm and headwinds combined to make a landing in Chicago precarious.

'13 Margaret Merritt spent lilac time in Rochester, N. Y., traveling there by bus and returning by plane. She reports a beautiful visit and the incredible information that there were 450 varieties of lilacs to be seen.

'14 Mrs. John Dunnington (Genevieve Parker) is making a good recovery from a fractured hip suffered in March.

'18 Mrs. Kenneth W. LeQuier (Emma L. Perrine) was one of the relatively few graduates to attend the Convocation on May 12. Unfortunately, we did not jot down her present address and can hope she left it in the school registry. Naturaly, she deplored the absence of boarding students, although she too recognized the need to close that department.

'19 If the trek of graduates to Florida continues, we will have to establish a chapter there. The latest alumna to move with her husband is Mrs. William T. Jones (Carolyn Fuller). They sold their Detroit home last year and are making their winter home in St. Petersburg. Summers will find them at their cottage at Harsen's Island, on the St. Clair River.

'22 We regret to report the death of Mrs. Adrian F. Head (Deborah Ware) on September 28, 1961, after a long illness. Deborah was the first graduate of St. Mary's to take college entrance board examinations, and after doing so, went to Smith College. To her sister, Mrs. R Clarke Smith (Barbara, also '22) who sent the news, to her mother, son, and two grandchildren, we send our sympathy.

We Commend . . .

The anniversary edition of the school IVY LEAVES, accompanying these alumnae notes, knowing it will recall many happy incidents of the past to our graduates. The edition happily combines episodic accounts of by-gone days with up-to-the-minute news, thereby giving a capsule picture of St. Mary's Hall, rooted in the past, growing in the present to an expanded future.

'23 It gives us much pleasure to report that Mrs. Henry Holt (Betty Bassett), after several years of widowhood, married Mr. Alden Saxton in July of last year. Betty says that her new husband was one of Henry's best friends and that her children are devoted to him.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard F. Knight (Gertrude Reynolds) whose home is on High Street, Moorestown, were in St. Petersburg, Fla., during the winter and early spring.

Helen Downes lives at 1200 Woodlyne Boulevard, Linwood, N. J. It had been decades since we had heard from her or from her sister, Mrs. David Higbee (Thelma), and it is good to be in touch once more.

Mrs. Felix Meyer (Jane Hill) has retired as secretary of the Curtis School of Music in order to better care for her husband who has been ill for many years. With her customary bouyancy and cheerfulness, Jane writes that the students and faculty are always coming to see her so that, far from missing them, she actually sees more of such friends than when she divided her time between work and nursing.

Nearly forty years after she graduated, Mrs. Edwin F. Celette (Eloise Ripley) returned to St. Mary's. The occasion was the May 12 Convocation, and I am afraid she saw few of her classmates. The day was too close to Founder's Day for many to return again. Eloise retains her youthful charm and sweetness of manner.

The offer in May, 1961, of a job on the society desk of the Trenton Times proved irresistible to your editor, Mrs. Henry Galt Siegrist (Bettie Fell). It also proved handicapping, leaving less time for IVY LEAVES.

'24 Sarah Clapham suffered a severe fracture of her hip in February, so severe that she is still confined to a wheel chair. We hope she will now begin a stage of more rapid improvement.

'26 Our sympathy goes to Mr. Alden Gee, who has written of the death in July, 1961, of his wife, Eleanor R. Cornelius. Mr. Gee sent a memorial gift to the Christmas offering with gracious remark, "Eleanor and I always looked back on her St. Mary's Hall days with deep affection, as it was when she was there that I first met her."

'30 Peggy Cayford's present address is 97 Congress Street, Milford, Mass. We know that she is teaching in that community and hope that she is happy in New England.

'33 Mrs. Frank Devlin Jr. (Mary Bright) continues to teach at the New Jersey School for the Deaf in Trenton while living in Newtown Pa. Her daughter is a student at Westchester State College, and her son is a cadet at Bordentown Military Institute. Mary and her husband, who has recovered from a heart attack, cruised the Great Lakes last summer.

The September 13, 1961 issue of the New York Times devoted a three-column space to Cecelia Staples along with two photographs of her workshops where Christmas displays were then being prepared. In the accompanyng headline it stated "In Display Studio, Christmas Looms." One picture was entitled, "It's Christmas Now, But Easter Is Coming Soon." Cecelia is quoted as saying, "I'm glad to change holidays. Once we finish Christmas, we start on Easter. Oh, those old rabbits."

'36 Several members of this class found it so pleasant to be together on Founder's Day that they decided to hold a class reunion. Mrs. William Ellis (Joanne Dufur) sent out the invitations to classmates, spouses and children, for a swimming and supper party at her home in Haverford, Pa. One quarter of the class accepted (with husbands and some children) and reported such a hilarious time that future get-togethers will surely follow.

According to one account, "Joanne has a beautiful home, reminding us of the set of 'Philadelphia Story', so that we expected to see Katherine Hepburn come crawling out of the pool at any time. Pets included a Great Pyrenees dog, a pony named 'Joker' who wandered around as a pure household pet and a parrot, later removed because of his language. There was bar under an umbrella at one end of the pool . . . Dr Ellis had cooked a roast beef of Tudor proportions and Joanne's hot breads were .sensational. The children loved the organ and everyone enjoyed the pool. The husband urged a rendition of 'Bells of St. Mary's' but it sounded pretty horrible for everyone wanted to sing the alto since all our voices had changed. The daughters put on a twist exhibition."

Present: Joanne and Dr. Ellis, son and four daughters and a son-in-law; Mr. and Mrs. William Sheppard (Peggy Long) and their 16-year-old daughter and ten-year-old son; Mr. and Mrs. William F. Hendrickson (Ann Latta) who had left their two college age sons at home in Mamaroneck, N.Y.; Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Dix Griffin (Sallie Fell), their daughters, 15 and 5, but not their sons who come between the girls; and Mr. and Mrs. William Storb (Olivia Herr) and their fourteen-year-old daughter and twelve-year-old son.

Now, don't the others in the class wish they too had accepted?

'38 The marriage of Norma Elizabeth Wenzel to Leon Bryant Tudor took place May 12, 1961, in the Westmorland Congregational Church, Washington, D.C. All good wishes, Norma. Please send us your address.

'44 The marriage of Mrs. Clapp Sarles (Nona Clapp) to Master Sergeant Paul Miller Koch, U.S. Air Force, took place on October 28th at the Chapel of Dover Air Force Base, Dover, Del. We wish them much happiness.

Mrs. Richard Kohlmeir (Loella Schisler), her husband and four children now live at 455 N.E. 93rd Street, Miami Shores, Fla.

Mrs. William Irving White, Jr. (Jeanne Hornberger), and her family, consisting of husband and three children, visited Dr. and Mrs. Hornberger in Roebling in April. And of course there was a reunion with Mrs. John Borden (Elizabeth Codding) at her home in Beverly. And speaking of "Sis," the reports on Founder's Day and the Convocation are all owing to her. Many thanks, Sis.

'46 The Ridgway Davises (Peggy MacDermid) are building a home in Storrs, Conn., and are hoping it will be ready for occupancy in September. Dr. Davis teaches history at the University of Connecticut. They have two sons, Douglas and Lynden.

Mrs. Remick Halversen (Clare Remick) may be addressed at Pouch A, Harrisburg, Pa. Let us hear from you, Clare.

'47 From Mrs. Tarleton Fleming Parsons, 2d (Joan Ferguson) we learned some months ago the good news that her husband was receiving "marvelous care" at Walter Reed Hospital following an operation on a knee cap and a later operation on a shoulder. He had earlier been medically evacuated from Korea. The Parsons have three children, Aileen Elinor, born in Frankfurt, Germany in 1951; Tarleton 3d, born the following year in Frankfurt; and Dawn Parsons, who made her debut in Petersburg, Va., two years ago.

The marriage of Nancy Elizabeth Hogeman and James Richard Hillas, Jr., took place in Grace Episcopal Church, Madison, N.J. on May 13, 1961. We send them all good wishes, along with the request for a new address. Nancy graduated from Mt. Holyoke College after leaving St. Mary's. Her husband is an alumnus of Cornell University and Harvard Law School.

'48 The tragic death on December 15 of Dr. Gioacchino Failla, expert on radiological measurements and retired professor of radiology at Columbia University, occurred after a head-on collision of the car in which he was a passenger with another automobile. One of his daughters is Mrs. Robert Rockhill (Evelyn Failla), former treasurer of the Society of Graduates. We extend to Evie our deepest sympathy. The Rockhills had moved a short time before the accident from Levittown, Pa., to Montclair, N.J., where they are living at 120 Beverly Road.

The Robert Bensons (Sally Taylor) now have four children. Erik, eight, will be in third grade; Robbie was six last November; Kristin is three. The fourth? We do not know. The children are very blonde with blue eyes, "real Swedes" according to their mother. The Bensons go to Cape Cod every summer, staying at a cottage in Brewster.

Sally sent a few brief glimpses of classmates. For instance, Mrs. Edward Weizer (Diana Dlatush) also lives in Summit and sees a lot of Sally. Diana has three daughters. Mrs. Chapman Berry (Jane Elliott) has moved to Connecticut with her husband and two boys (address, please, Jane). From Sally we also learned that Susan Crowe's father had died, and our sympathy goes to Sue.

A daughter, Rachel Jane, was born on September 26 to Mr. and Mrs. Murray Lampert (Maxine Rosenthal) who live at 84 Mason Drive, Princeton.

'50 Mr. and Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (Sallie Siegrist) again spent a summer in Europe (in '61, that is), mostly in France and Scotland. This summer they are on a camping trip through the far West. In North Bend, Wash., they spent several days with Dr. and Mrs. Alan Nourse (Ann Morton), and we await word of the reunion of the two St. Mary's roommates. When the Syphers reach San Francisco, Calif., they hope to find Nancy Perkins at home. Nancy lives at 1216 Taylor Drive (Apt. 27), San Francisco 8.

'51 Mrs. Laurie Truscott (Peggy Dill) from her vantage point in Bermuda sees vacationing classmates from time to time. Latest she reported was Mrs. Philip T. Smith, Jr. (Georgia Knobloch), who spent much time with Peggy while Mr. Smith attended a convention. Peggy has two sons, James, age six, and John, one year old.

'52 Their first child, a son, Anthony Richard, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Vannozzi (Cornelia Simmons) on March 1. The baby is the grandson of Mrs. Mildred Farrow (Mildred Valentine, '24) and the nephew of Mrs. Lewis Carmer (Helena Simmons, also '24). Congratulations to everyone!

A note in a Trenton paper informed us that Mrs. E. Ward Poor Jr. (Riva Magaril), "Bennington graduate and well-known artist," taught art at the YWCA. Riva studied at Parsons Institute, the Art Students' League in New York, and the McClellan Art School in New Hope. She specializes in portraits and sculpture.

'54 Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Evans (Betty Birdsall) of Summit, N.J., announced the birth of their first child, Sandra Lyn, on September 7, 1961. All good wishes to them. The Evanses live at Three Beech Spring Drive.

A daughter, Brenda Lee, was born in February, 1961, to Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Byrne (Darlene Palmere) of 27 Gainsboro Road, Trenton. The Byrnes have another daughter, Beth Ann.

'55 Mrs. Walter R. Stobo (Daphne Dill) has a new address: Orange Valley Road, Devonshire, Bermuda.

'56 Many St. Mary's girls were present for Mary Ann Keen's wedding on September 16, 1961, to David Richard Royce of Chesterfield, N. J. The ceremony was performed in the Presbyterian Church of Bordentown. Vicki Wells, Margaret Siegrist, Mrs. Edward Patterson (Pat Decker) and Mrs. William Hinckley (Susan Aaronson) were all bridesmaids. The Royces are now living at 511 Farnsworth Avenue, Bordentown.

Ned Patterson, Jr., made his bow into the world on April 19, 1961. His mother is the former Pat Decker, and he is as fair and handsome as she is. Lucky boy.

The William Hinckleys (Susan Aaronson) have bought a home at 6723 Hanover Street, Richmond 26, Va., not too far from St. Christopher's School where Bill teaches science.

When Margaret Siegrist was married on November 25 to Pierre Jean Lair at the Church of St. Vincent DePaul, New York City, the ceremony was performed in French. Both Margaret and her husband are with the UN. They moved in May to Stuyvesant Town and may be addressed Apt. 1-D 545 East Fourteenth Street, New York City.

Vicki Wells had a whirl in Europe in the summer of '61 and is now living at 301 South Seventeenth Street, Philadelphia, while working with the N. W. Ayer Company.

Most recent class bride is Betty Bryan who was married to Hugh McQuaid Jr., of Somerville, Mass., on August 18, 1962, in the Baptist Church of Columbus, N.J. In the wedding party was Mrs. John Broadbooks (Jane Tucker, '55) of Albany, N.Y. The McQuaids will live in Newton, Mass. We wish them much happiness.

'57 Julia Gleason has been serving an apprenticeship in church work. She is assigned to the mission district of the Episcopal Church in San Francisco and carries a full schedule teaching Sunday School in two churches, making calls, helping with projects, teaching weekdays arts and crafts and so on and on. On Saturdays there are programs and trips. Hospital calling, YPF work, and other odd jobs add to the variety of her tasks. Never a dull moment. Address her at 269 Church Street, San Francisco 14, Calif., Apt. 5.

The marriage of Cynthia Johnson and Jon Earl Floria of Marquette, Mich., took place on Thanksgiving Day in St. Clare of Assisi Episcopal Church, Ann Arbor. Cynthia was graduated in June, 1961, from the University of Michigan. Her husband was a law student there. Address please, Cynthia!

Sally Ann Garrison received her R.N. and B.S. degrees from Columbia University in June. She will be a public health nurse this year in Baltimore, Md. Before starting work, Sally Ann and her parents made a motor trip through the West. Highlight of the trip was the World's Fair in Seattle.

Melissa Crosby was born on December 23, 1961, a Christmas present to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Crosby (Susan Goddard). The Crosbys have an older child, a son.

The Chapel of the Holy Innocents, St. Mary's Hall, was the scene of the marriage on December 2, 1961, of Elena Luisa Viteri of Mount Holly and Peter Michael Regan of New York City. The Regans are now living in New York, and we wish we had their address.

Ann Wyckoff of Trenton was married in Trinity Cathedral on June 24, 1961, to Philip Reid Hirsh, Jr. Cynthia Johnson was a bridesmaid. The Hirshes are living at 410 South Camac Street, Philadelphia, while Mr. Hirsh studies at the Jefferson Medical College. Philip Reid, 3d, was born late this spring, but we have lost the date. Many good wishes.

Mrs. Ronald Lefkowitz (Judy Walters) was named "Woman of the Month" by an undergraduate newspaper at Rider College, Trenton. Judy, who dropped out of Smith College four years ago to be married, decided to return to school. She takes night courses, cares for her son, Eric David, two and a half years old, does volunteer church work, helps in her husband's office, and even works on Smith College alumnae affairs when needed. A busy girl, Judy.

This graduate edition of IVY LEAVES is possible only because of the cooperation of many. Mrs. Ruth Strahan, admissions officer of the school, sent summaries of the Horse Show and other school events. Mrs. John Borden, (Elizabeth Codding, '44) provided the account of Founder's Day. Peggy Fenimore ('57) typed the copy. Others, at the moment unknown, will handle the arduous task of preparing the completed IVY LEAVES for mailing. Thanks to each one.

After a year of teaching music in the Newtown, Mass., public school system, Mary Virginia Shaw is, herself, doing further study in music. This summer she attended the first workshop of the New England Conservatory of Music, the National Music Camp where she participated in the Junior High School General Music Workshop and then enrolled in a Fred Waring Workshop at Shawnee-on-the-Delaware. What is left of the summer will be spent at home in Trenton. Then she will "travel once again to Boston to begin another year in the Newton schools." Ginger keeps busy.

Having graduated in '59 from Green Mountain Junior College, Mary Louise Harnischfeger entered the Columbia Presbyterian Hospital Medical Center School of Nursing in New York City. This June she graduated with her R.N. and B.S. Come Fall, her plans call for nursing as a staff member at Presbyterian Hospital, New York City.

'58 Marlene Gross of 13 Cadwalader Drive, Trenton, received a bachelor of arts degree in June from the University of Pennsylvania.

Marty Jay Dwier of Trenton and Toms River was graduated in early June from Russell Sage College, and a short time thereafter was married in the Methodist Church of Island Heights to Richard M. Salzmann of Toms River. Mr. Salzmann graduated from Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute. They plan to live in Trenton, but we do not have their address. Marty majored in retailing while in college and was treasurer of her class.

Susan Knowles was married in August, 1961, to George Cramer. The marriage, in St. Stephen's Church, Beverly, was performed by Father Conklin, chaplain of the Hall. Suzie made a beautiful bride, attended by her sister, Lynn ('57). The Cramer's daughter, Lori, arrived on May 25, in time to get this issue. They are living at 7322 Drexelbrook Drive, Drexel Hill, Pa.

Four years at Roanoke College crammed full of campus activities drew to an end for Virginia Yutz in June. She graduated with honors in French after having taken part in athletic, social, and literary activities while a student. In September she will begin work in the Graduate School of Arts and Science of Duke University.

Nancy Rossell's engagement to William J. Flynn, Jr., of Drexel Hill, Pa., has been announced. A graduate of Friends' Central School and Dickinson College, Mr. Flynn is now associated with Proctor and Gamble. Nancy graduated in June from Dickinson where she was a member of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority.

We hear that Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Perry (Barbara Ward) are living in Wilmington, Del. There was an attractive picture of them enjoying themselves on the beach in Bermuda in a local paper this Spring.

Committees Named

Our president, Miss Heyl, announced the appointment of the following committees to report at Founder's Day, 1963:

By-laws: Mrs. John Borden (Elizabeth Codding, '44), chairman, Mrs. John Haardt (Nancy Thomas, '16), and Miss Margaret Merritt ('14).

Nominating: Mrs. H. G. Siegrist ('23) chairman, Mrs. Ivins Jessup (Sally Tattersall, '23), and Mrs. Edward Henry (Ann Deibert, '49).

'59 The marriage of Mimi Agan to Beran Eugene Richards took place on June 2, 1961, in West Orange. The Richards are living at 59A, Brookdale Garden Apartments, Bloomfield, N.J.

The engagement of Joanne Deitz to Richard M. Hochman has been announced by her parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. R. Deitz. Joanne graduated from Colby Junior College and attends the Mills College of Education in New York City. Her fiance graduated from Lafayette College in 1960 and attends the School of Dentistry of Temple University.

In a ceremony performed at "Beaulieu," her parents' home in Princeton, Martha Tribble became the bride on June 3, 1961, of James Malcolm McKinnon of Scarsdale, N. Y. Marty attended Vassar. Her husband graduated from Yale. We should like to have their address.

'60 The engagement of Hedl Decker to William Biddle Brick of Crosswicks, N.J., was announced in June. No date has been set for the wedding. Hedl transferred from Wells College to Russell Sage last September. She has completely recovered from the "mono" that laid her low in her freshman year, thank goodness. Much happiness to you, Hedl.

Betsy Fineburg was named first president of the Alumnae Association of the Girls' Friendly Society Holiday House at Island Heights, N. J., when the group was formed last summer. Successively a camper, junior counselor, and finally head couselor, Betsy is well qualified for the office. Her college year at Russell Sage was interrupted by a siege of "mono" from which she is now recovered.

We have a brief note of the engagement of Penny Reggie to Richard Donald Wright and wish we knew more. When will you be married, Penny?

Carole Ann Geren was married on June 16, 1962 to David C. Fraser. The ceremony was performed by the fathers of the bride and bridegroom at the Shady Rest Bible Conference in Chesterfield, N. J.. Hedl Decker was one of the bridesmaids. The couple are living in Chesterfield.

Another June wedding was that of Margaret Kathryn Goggin of Levittown, N. J., who married Robert Kern Molloy of Drexel Hill, Pa. We would love to have Margie's address.

It's twins for Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Mitchell (Dottie Benninghoff). The boys, weighing in at a little over five pounds and almost four pounds respectively, were born on September 2, 1961.

Virginia McPherson became the bride of Darwin Douglas Roberts of Prestonburg, Ky., in a ceremony performed on May 20 in Trinity Cathedral, Trenton. Her maid of honor was Janet Voorhies, her classmate. Theirs is another address we want.

Kathleen Kudra received an associate of arts degree in June from Green Mountain Junior College, Poultney, Vt. She majored in retailing.

When Jan Colvin married 2nd Lieutenant Robert Updegrove, USMC, on June 6, it was with a military wedding following the graduation of the bridegroom from the United States Naval Academy. Jan met her future husband at a cotillon after an Army-Navy football game when St. Mary's girls served as some of the hostesses. While Lt. Updegrove is on temporary assignment at Quantico, Va. (until next January), the couple will live at 40 Melrose Avenue, Triangle, Va.

'61 Articulate Ann Bond wrote enthusiastically from Middlebury College, "It has now been 'blizzarding' here for 16 hours, hard, rough, whipping snow, whirling, swirling, drifting. Carnival jumping had to be postponed because of too MUCH snow. At the bowl, 40 inches of packed snow with at least 15 inches of powder on top, probably more by now. One part of Carnival is a snow sculpture contest, one among the various girls' dormitories and one among the boys' dorms and fraternities. One of the girls', ours, won. The theme was mountains; ours was a carved four-poster bed with Mt. Everest inscribed on it." Incidentally, Ann was in charge of the winning sculpture. We learned from St. Mary's that Ann was officially accepted for advanced standing credit in French at Middlebury, one of eight freshmen so honored. Work in French at St. Mary's was given full college credit.

Suzanne Shaw is having a high-old time at Bouve-Boston School of Physical Education at Tufts University, Medford, Mass. Just imagine, last Winter she HAD to spend time at a ski center to develop proficiency in the sport and be able to teach it. This Summer, she HAD to attend a seaside camp. Some fun.

Betsy Siegrist, finishing her freshman year at the Helene Fuld School of Nursing in Trenton, won a Lenox china swan when her class was taken on a visit to the Lenox pottery one day. The girls were told to list errors in a scrambled table setting, and Betsy not only detected every mistake but found an unintentional one as well. Result, the prize swan.

St. Peter's Church, Medford, N. J., was the scene of the wedding of Diane Bethel to Lester C. Jones on Sept. 16, 1961. Cynthia Bonnet, also '61, was maid of honor. Diane attended business school last year in New Brunswick while her husband completed his senior year at Rutgers University. We would like to have their address.

Susan Kahn has a job this summer in Asbury Park, between her freshman and sophomore years at Douglass College.

Marge Ely is also at Douglass and seems to enjoy college life.

Cynthia Bonnet is transferring from Mount Vernon to Trenton Junior College. She looks forward to spending the coming year with her family.

Alice Collins is most enthusiastic about Sweet Briar College where she is a student. Some of the others in this class and their colleges are: Sandra Smith, Vassar; Elizabeth Dorset, Green Mountain; Linda Davies, Tusculum; Mavis Cantril, Cazenovia Junior College; Trudi Scott, Goucher; Jean Scott, Marietta, and Cheryl Kolb, Ripon.

'62 Members of our newest alumnae group are going to the following colleges next year; Joan Bard, Lynne Coane, Barbara Zeltmacher, and Gwen Snover, Boston University; Peggy Yutz, Baldwin Wallace; Susan Thorn, Beaver; Peggy Simmons, Hiram; Gayle Silverstein, Vermont; Barbara Wood and Francine Kantor, University of Pennsylvania School of Nursing; Sandy Harbourt, Westminster Choir; Joanne Cooper, Mt. Holyoke; Caroline Howell, Upsala; Cathie Malise, Ursinus; Sandi Maloy, Episcopal Hospital School of Nursing; Judy Evans, Russell Sage; Sylvia Daley, Cedar Crest; Judy McTighe, Marjorie Webster; Freia Koschek, Guilford; Caroline Kerline, Wake Forest; Jill Campbell, University of Wisconsin; Betti Anne Bates, Green Mountain.

Reading the bridge column in the Trenton paper the other day, we noted with interest that a beautifully played hand by Barbara Zeltmacher was the hand for the day.

Associates

Our affectionate, though belated, felicitations go to Mrs. Frank S. Katzenbach Jr. (Natalie McNeal) on the occasion of her 90th birthday anniversary. The day was celebrated on July 16. Mrs. Katzenbach was for many years a trustee of St. Mary's and her wise counsel and devotion to the Hall have always been valued.

Mrs. W. Tod Black (Nan Atkinson, circa '24) had a full winter. Her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Black, presented her with a granddaughter, Lindsay Atkinson Black, just two days before Christmas. Her son, Bill, was married in January to Mrs. Susan Souder Seward of Berwyn, Pa. Best of all, her husband is in vastly improved health.

Diane Clunan, who was a member of the class of '61 for several years, is active in dramatics at Cedar Crest College, Allentown, Pa., where she is now a sophomore.

The beauiftul wedding of Louise B. Hiden (circa '53) took place on February 3 in Trinity Church, Princeton, to Donald Melgaard Gardner. Louise is a graduate of Hollins College and her husband of Kent School and Cornell University. Besides attending St. Mary's Mary's for several years, Louise has deep roots with us. Her grandfather, Dr. Ephraim Mulford, was the school physician for several years. Her mother, Mrs. J. Conrad Hiden (Louise Mulford) was in the class of '27. Her aunt, Mrs. Ephraim Mulford, Jr., is on the faculty. And she has many cousins who have attended the Hall; most recently, Frances Mulford ('59).

Ribbons, Anyone?

Has the blue and white ribbon of your medal become frayed? Is it soiled? Are you ashamed to wear it in its present condition? Why not purchase a new, fresh one? They are on sale in the school office. Only $1.

Dr. Elizabeth Irving Christian, who attended St. Mary's in boarding school days, is a resident pathologist at Trenton State Hospital.

From her son, we have heard of Mrs. Ramel (Mary Helene Wolfe) who attended St. Mary's in the 80's. Until she was 85 she travelled extensively abroad with her son, but in more recent years has led a quiet life because of an injury. She often talks of her "happy associations with the school, the many friends made there, and of the chapel services, and hymns. The memory of her St. Mary's days has always been happy for her." Mrs. Ramel lives at 488 Classon Avenue, Brooklyn 38, New York.

Mrs. E. W. G. Boogher (Elizabeth Reynolds) and her husband are now living at 6159 West Cedar Avenue, Merchantville, N. J.

A second daughter, Ellen Lee, was born on March 3, 1962, to Mr. and Mrs. Alan Ralph Evans (Joy Gribbon).

In a ceremony performed on August 25 in Christ Episcopal Church, Trenton, Barbara Bodner became the bride of G. William Bowne. She was attended by Dorothy Bahrenburg ('60). Barbara is a senior in the Helene Fuld Hospital School of Nursing. Her husband, who attended Rutgers University, is associated with the Farm Cooperative Credit Association in Moorestown. When they return from a Mexican honeymoon, the Bownes will live at 2656 Nottingham Way, Trenton.

Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

Hot Coffee For Cold Grads

"St. Mary's weather" has long been famous for its sunshine — that is for commencements, field days, pageants, fairs, horse shows or other spring or autumn events. In winter we are not so fortunate. Nights of the Christmas Mystery, for instance, are generally snowy, sleety, foggy or icy.

Such winter weather occurred last December on the morning of the now traditional "Christmas Coffee Party" held during the holidays for graduates of the four most recent classes. Only about 50 girls succeeded in braving the weather to hear up-to-the-minute news of their classmates over coffee in the school dining room.

Chapel Plates Again Available

It is not too late to order a chapel commemorative plate. The first edition of these handsome souvenirs was sold out several years ago but the demand for them continued and a reorder was placed last year. If we hurry and sell the remainder of this second lot, the organ will be paid for all the sooner.

Purchased at the school, a plate is $4. If ordered by mail, one will be sent for a cool $5. The dollar difference pays for mailing carton, postage and insurance.

Step right up!

Lamp Shades From Cards

As a result of a card party held at the Mount Holly home of its president, Miss Margaret Merritt, the Philadelphia Chapter purchased a number of lamp shades for the school parlors. (It was NOT before they were needed, we might add.) The party was very pleasant according to reports.

The Chapter met again in mid-March at Strawbridge's Restaurant in Cherry Hill, N.J. Speaking politely, it was a most select gathering; more bluntly, one might say it was poorly attended. But it WAS fun!

Rebuilt Chapel Organ Helped Pay For Itself With December Concert

Two factors keep this alumnae edition of Ivy Leaves small. One is that we can't spend money we don't have! The other is that not much alumnae news has accumulated since we went to press in the Fall.

About the first reason — The Society of Graduates is bending every effort, to say nothing of every cent, to complete payments on the reconditioning of the organ. Even if it takes a long, long time and we have to forego many other things, we can say about the organ "It was well worth the cost." For, you see, WE have heard it since it was repaired. And what a sweet old instrument it is!

As for the quantity of news, well, that's up to all of you. Keep sending it in and we'll print it.

But let us speak a little more about the organ. Elsewhere there is a printed an itemized statement of funds received and money spent, and in the statement is listed "a recital."

It seemed appropriate to let the organ itself have a share in the funds, so early in December area alumnae sponsored a concert. Mr. Alfred E. Hartley, of the music faculty and organist of St. Mary's Church, and Leslie Pearl, a senior and chapel organist, were the two soloists. All three—the two musicians and the organ! — performed beautifully and we are most grateful to them. The program was largely Bach.

An added feature were numbers by the handbell ringers of the Prospect Street Presbyterian Church of Trenton. The group demonstrated the ancient art of handbell ringing on a matched set of English cast bells. Those of us who came prepared to hear mere "din," heard instead the lovely, clear ringing tones that truly were "silvery." It was sheer delight.

An "Alumnus" Of St. Mary's

No, we haven't forgotten our Latin genders. St. Mary's does have alumni as well as alumnae. But since they were graduated from the eighth grade instead of completing high school, we are at a loss as to where to place them in notes of former students.

One such student of whom we are very proud is Jay Lapin who graduated from our middle school in '58 at the top of his class. At Peddie School he captured most of the honors before graduating as ranking student. Now at Yale, he is also making an enviable record, holding a place in the upper tenth of his class and participating in the "directed studies course" preparatory to a pre-med education. We are mighty proud of Jay.

New Class Unit To Open In Fall In Upper School

Year-by-year, enrollments at St. Mary's have climbed staedily, with each year out-distancing the preceding one.

The next school year gives every indication of producing the largest registration to date. Already, four months before the autumn term, the advance enrollment is over 250, almost equalling this year's high registration — and testing continues of other applicants.

To meet the demand for places, the board of trustees has approved Mrs. Slater's plan to open a second section for the tenth grade, thereby permitting a larger class. The long-range plan allows for additional sections each year until each upper school grade is thus enlarged. Previously, each of the upper classes has been limited by school policy to 20 students.

By the use of two sections rather than one large class, St. Mary's will maintain its strong selling point — small classroom units.

At The Mystery

We saw many recent graduates—and a sprinkling of us oldsters, too—at the Christmas Mystery service. There were too many, in fact, for us to tag each one. But we did note Katie Hutton and Frances Mulford, '59; Hedi Decker, Patty MacCorkle and Barbara Lefferts, '60; Trudi Scott, Diane Wilson, Suzanne Shaw and Diane Bethel Jones, '61; Caroline Kerlin, Gwen Snover, Sandy Harbourt, Freia Koschke, Caroline Howe, Sylvia Daley, Peggy Yutz, Lynne Coane, Gayle Silverstein and Barbara Zeltmacher, '62.

IN MEMORIAM

SUSAN CRAIG HENRY

The tragic death of Susan Craig Henry ('60) on May 11 has brought grief to her schoolmates and many friends.

A junior at Colorado State University at Fort Collins, Colo., she was drowned while on an underwater diving expedition in Horsetooth Reservoir near the college. Although she was an experienced swimmer and diver, Susan's oxygen supply apparently became exhausted before she could reach the surface after a guide rope broke loose from a surface buoy. Her body was recovered some days later and she was buried on May 18 from All Saints Chapel of Trinity Cathedral in Trenton.

Susan was also an accomplished horsewoman who rode in every St. Mary's Horse Show while she was at the Hall and captured many trophies and ribbons.

The Society of Graduates mourns the loss of its young member and joins with students and faculty in sending its sympathy to her parents, brothers and grandmother.

WILLIAM SPURGEON YATES

Alumnae and former students will join with the family of William Spurgeon Yates and the St. Mary's Hall family in mourning his death on May 4, 1963, after a brief illness. He was buried on May 7 from the Baptist Church of Burlington.

Since 1919 when he came as a young man to work at St. Mary's, "Spurgeon" was a familiar figure at the Hall, always cheerful and helpful. Few, indeed, are the girls who did not experience his kindnesses.

Mrs. Yates has graciously consented to St. Mary's request to make a lasting memorial to him. The monument to be erected over his grave will be given by the Hall. He would have liked that.

CLASS NOTES

'85 We have learned of the death during the past year of one of our older alumnae, Mrs. B. F. Taylor (Edith Ridgway) of Washington, D.C. Mrs. Taylor's ties to St. Mary's were many and close. Her sister, Miss Elizabeth R. Ridgway ('89), was for many years president of the Society of Graduates. We extend our sympathy to her daughter.

We also note with sorrow the death of Miss Carolyn A. Griggs of Columbus, Ky.

'98 Mrs. Otto Eichel (Mabel Jacques) says that we have her mailing address wrong. It SHOULD be Box No. 113, Langhorne, Pa.

Mrs. John D. Cronmiller (May Williams) whispered a secret when we saw her at the Philadelphia Chapter luncheon in March. She plans to give the Alumnae Room a fine old family table. Please, don't forget, Mrs. Cronmiller!

The name of Mrs. F. Carter Rich (Florence Carter) must be added to the long list of graduates who have died during the past year.

'01 We are sad to note the death on March 19 of Mrs. Edward E. Matteson (Dorothy Hudson) and send our sympathy to her daughter, Mrs. Matteson Spach (Margaret Matteson, '24).

Mrs. Matteson's death was made known to us by her classmate, Miss Agnes Robbins of Moorestown, N.J., whom we thank for so promptly sending us the notice.

'03 Miss Helen Brady writes regretfully that she is unable to return for her 60th reunion.

'09 Mr. and Mrs. Levis C. Babcock (Marguerite Flanders) attended the March wedding of their son, Richard, in Jacksonville Beach, Fla. The bridal couple is now living in the Canal Zone where Lt. Babcock is serving in the Navy. Mrs. Babcock has recently added a carved rocking chair for the Alumnae Room to her last year's gift of a desk. Although we have not yet seen it, we hear it is lovely. Many thanks to her.

'10 Mrs. Herbert Allen (Florrence TenBroeck) is home again in Haverford after a fabulous "winter in the sun" in Honolulu. A stop-over in California highlighted her trip east.

'13 Mrs. Hirst Foster Broom (Dorothy Carman) has retired and is now making her home at 5 River Street, Cedar Glen City, Toms River, N.J.

A brief note of the recent death of Mrs. Idene Montague Nichols has just reached us.

'14 We record with sorrow the November death of Mrs. Munn Holbertson (Gladys Osborn).

Mrs. Arona Hubbard now lives at Colonial Villa, 20 Alhambra Circle, Coral Gables, Fla. But she doesn't stay there. No, indeed. With the purchase of a 25 cent piece of fudge in March at a benefit party she won a trip-for-two to Nassau. Her activities include the Women's Club, a DAR chapter, a mentally retarded children's project and the Florence Crittenton Home. As if that weren't enough, she taught English to a refugee Cuban attorney. Last fall she visited St. Mary's and loved what she saw.

It is good to learn that Mrs. Ernest G. Potter (Marion Gallup) is "getting around" again after having broken her hip in late December. We hope she shortly can discard the walker and be as good as new.

DUES-ARE-DUE

Our treasurer, Mrs. John Haardt (Nancy Thomas, '16) is waiting not-so-patiently at her home, 108 Dawn Drive, Mount Holly, N.J., for more dues to come in.

Please relieve her of the suspense by sending along your signature on a check for $3 - unless you have already mailed it.

'16 Mrs. John Haardt (Nancy Thomas) will leave in early June (with Betty Heyl, '31) for a visit to Colorado Springs, where her son is stationed with the Air Force. The two Mount Holly-ites plan to motor. See Class of 1931 note.

Shortly before going to press we learned of the death of Mrs. Herbert L. Lewis (Georgianne Ingersoll) and send our sympathy to her family.

'18 Mrs. Thomas Milson (Dorothy Newkirk) tried to round up her classmates for a reunion on Founder's Day but found them so scattered that she doubts many can be present. She herself was about to take off for Buck Hill Falls for several weeks.

'22 After a long illness, Mrs. Howard Wasserman (Hortensia Lucas) died in January at her home in Berwyn, Pa. A champion golfer and trapshooter, "Tish" was an amateur artist who exhibited in non-professional shows. We extend deep sympathy to her husband and her two children, Mrs. Diane Mraz and H. Barton Wasserman.

'23 Talented Mrs. Arthur Fessenden (Charlotte Waterhouse) died in early October after several months of declining health "Polly" could do many things and do them well. Only last summer she was busy planning a lecture tour — or rather, a reading tour. She planned to dress in period costume and read from fascinating letters of her grandfather.

In making a contribution to the organ fund in memory of "Tish" Wasserman, Mrs. Felix Meyer (Jane Hill) asked for the address of Carol Burdan who attended St. Mary's in the early 20's. She is now a Mrs. Wilson and, Jane believes, lives in Winter Park, Fla. We well remember Carol but cannot supply the information. Can you?

Jane had plans to come for Founder's Day but bus schedules from Philadelphia (trains are non-existent now-a-days) did not fit with schedules for Mr. Meyer's nurses. Jane's husband has been long and seriously ill and it is difficult for her to leave for a full day.

Another whose plans to come for Founder's Day were altered because of family illness is Mrs. Austin Winters (Helen Leavens). Instead of "reuniting" with the rest of us, Helen will be babysitting with grandchildren because of her daughter's hospitalization. Helen added a postscript to her letter "It CAN't be 40 years. I don't feel that old!" Who does?

The name of Mrs. Alden R. Sexton (Betty Bassett) was incorrectly printed in the last Ivy Leaves. Betty won't be at the reunion, either, because she is "up to her neck" in the fashion show at St. James Church in New York.

Mrs. W. A. Johnston (Jane Miller) reports a new address— 9 Jack Jouett Apartments, Charlotteville, Va.

Mrs. Paul V. Osborn (Dorothy Bolte) is another with a new address. New to us, that is. She is living at 421 Parkview Drive, Wynnewood, Pa.

Louise Barclay has a new name as of May 5, '62. She is now Mrs. Charles John Shannon von Pagenhardt. The address, Brevard, N. C., is the same. The von Pagenhardts plan to travel a great deal and to acquire a second home, "a small place abroad, perhaps in Ireland." Much happiness to you, Louise.

Helen Downes, writing to say she plans to come to Founder's Day, says she thinks an off-campus reunion would be fun. We agree, providing it supplements —not supersedes — one at the Hall. Helen llves at 1200 Woodlynne Boulevard, Linwood, N. J.

'27 Mrs. Chester Sprague Harris (Margaret C. Clark) reports her new permanent address as West Hyannisport, Mass.

'28 Mrs. John H. Davie Frances Miller) wrote to inquire about her classmates since she never sees anything about them in Ivy Leaves. The reason is self-evident — they never tell us of themselves.

Now thanks to Mrs. Davie (whose address is 1331 Medford Road, Wynnewood, Pa.) we can report that she occasionally sees Mrs. Edmund Dawes (Eleanor Poland) and hears once in a while from Mrs Stanley B. Johnson (Adele May).

We were delighted to answer Mrs. Davie's request for addresses and hope she wrote to each one urging her attendance for the 35th reunion.

One of the class wrote that she could not return for the reunion. Elizabeth F. Durell says the date conflicts with her spring recital but sends "all good wishes." She'll be missed

'31 Our president, Betty Heyl will leave in early June (with Nancy Thomas Haardt, '31) for Colorado Springs. The two Mount Holly-ites plan to motor. See class of 1916 note.

'33 Talented Cecilia Staples Smith died on January 2 after a very short illness. "Though she had little time to attend events at the Hall, her interest never waned," a friend noted in writing us of Cecilia's death. Many who never knew Cecilia knew and were attracted to her imaginative window decorations in New York City stores. Hers was the outstanding such firm in the metropolitan area. An artist, she brought to her creations a magic touch of fun and fantasy.

'34 Mrs. Joseph G. Wortley (Blanche E. Matthews) reports a move. She is now living at 3545 Wabeek, Bloomfield Hills, Mich.

'38 IVY LEAVES is 'way off. Mrs. Frederick English (Julia Carll) moved back to New Jersey almost two years ago from Rochester, N.Y. The Englishes are living at 6 Madison Street, Princeton.

'39 and '41 An informal reunion of several members of these two classes took place in late January at the Olney Inn, Olney, Md. Present were Mrs. Jose de Murguiondo (Onnolee Brace), Mrs. E.L. Donovan (Marjorie J. Carter), Mrs. Williamson Nesbitt (Libby Williamson) and Christine W. Ridley of '39 and Mrs A. B. Robinson Jr. (Barbara Mayer) and Mrs. Oliver H. Whitney (Lillian Handelman) of '41. They sent us a postcard but nary a word about themselves!

'44 Mr. and Mrs. Paul Koch (Nona Clapp) have a daughter, born on Aug. 2. All good wishes!

Mrs. Alfredo Valetta (Lois Westby) lives at The Cedars, 38 High Street, Cranford, Middlesex, England. Lois, who will be remembered as an English girl who attended St. Mary's during World War II, has two sons.

'45 Mrs. F. C. Johnson (Mary Belleville) wrote that she would be in Colorado Springs at the time of Founder's Day.

'46 The Ridgway Davises (Peg MacDermid) have moved into a home they built near the University of Connecticut where Dr. Davis teaches political economy. Address; Birchwood Heights, Route No. 2, Storrs, Conn.

'47 The marriage of Martha Ann Rice to Dr. Orson Henry Mabey Jr. took place on June 15, 1962, in Salt Lake City. The Mabeys are making their home at 143 N. 70 East, Malad, Idaho.

'49 John Herrlinger Jr. was born on Nov. 5, '62. His mother is the former Shirley Wilson. Good wishes to him and to his parents.

Mrs. Edward P. Henry 2nd (Ann Deibert) is another with a new address: 204 N. Stockton Ave., Wenonah, N.J. Ann says she is "entertaining the idea of doing some part time nursing again."

'50 Mrs. Leroy Rogers (Kay Strahle) has two sons, Larry, 9, and Terry, 7. They live at 9 Forest Drive, Roswell, N. Mex., and Kay does case work for the department of public welfare.

Mrs. James M. Elliott (Laurie K. Crispen) is living at 1336 S. Allen St., State College, Pa.

'51 Mrs. Anthony VanNozzi (Cornie Simmons) says she has her hands full these days. Marie Angelina arrived on February 27 to join her brother, Tony, who is only a year older.

'52 Mrs. Edmund Poor Jr. (Riva Magaril) was elected secretary of the newly organized Bennington College Alumnae Group of Central New Jersey. Riva and her family live in Yardville, near Trenton.

Another alumna to join the trek to California is Mrs. Donald Anderson (Jerrie Sutfin) whose new address is Box No. 214, Millbrae. Don't forget us Jerrie!

The Elmer Heinels (Carol Fenlin) have two sons in Saint Mary's. "Twig" is in the second grade and John is a "student" in the kindergarten. Carol is living in Edgewater Park.

'53 We have two new addresses for this class:-

Mrs. John Lanigir (Judy Focht) now lives at 2802 San Juan Boulevard, Belmont, Calif., and Mrs. Jack Fisher (Kitty Probasco) is living at 21 Upper Creek Road, Freeville, Route 2, New York.

'54 Mrs. Stephen C. Paine (Katharine Moore) writes that she and Dr. Paine make their home at 642 Holly Avenue, Winston-Salem, N. C.

Lt. and Mrs Walter Reister (Evelyn Hardcastle) and their sons—almost 4 and 1½ years old live at 366 Everett Drive,Marina, Calif., while Lt. Reister is attending the Navy's post graduate school in Monterey. They expect to be there for two full years.

'56 We spied Vicki Wells and Ruth Ann Lager chatting together at a wedding reception recently. Vicki has a new address, 2101 Chestnut St., Philadelphia, Pa. (Apt. 1811). Ruth Ann reports she likes working for the New Jersey Manufacturers Insurance Company.

The address of Mrs. Marvin Schlosser (Vicki Gutstein) is 1301 S. Scott Street, Arlington 4, Va.

And a new address (new, that is, last year) for the William Hinckleys (Sue Aaronson) is 6725 Hanover Street, Richmond 26, Va.

There are two birth announcements for this class. The Pierre Lairs (Margaret Siegrist) have a daughter, Catherine Anne, born on Election Day. A most superior infant she is, if you'll pardon this editor's not-so-unbiased opinion.

James William Patterson made his debut on Feb. 2 to join the Edward Patterson (Patsy Decker) family. We haven't seen him yet but he'll "have to go some" to be as cute as his big brother, Ned.

'57 Three members of this class have our heart-felt sympathy because of the loss of parents. Sally Ann Garrison's father was fatally injured by an automobile on April 11 when crossing the street near his Bordentown office. Mrs. Richard J. O'Kane (Sydney Hagert) also lost her father during the winter. And the mother of Mrs. Philip Hirsch Jr. (Ann Wyckoff) died a few months ago after a long illness.

Mr. and Mrs. John Earl Floria (Cynthia Johnson) report a daughter, Katherine Jean, born on Feb. 13. The Florias live at 4827 Wilke Road, Rolling Meadows, Ill.

The engagement of Margaret Fenimore to Robert Frederick Morris Jr. of Wynnewood, Pa., was announced after Christmas. Peggy's fiance is an alumnus of Haverford School and Princeton University. Our good wishes to them both.

Katherine Shinn was married on Dec. 22 in Calvary Lutheran Chapel, Medford, N. J., to Robert L. Rickus of South Bend, Ind. The bridegroom is preparing for the Lutheran ministry at Concordia Seminary, St. Louis. We saw Kathy's bridal picture and it was lovely!

Sally Garrison has an apartment in the Park Pleasant Apartments (A-10) 1203 Harwood Avenue, Baltimore 12, Md., where she has a position as a public health nurse.

In November, a Trenton newspaper "front paged" a picture of Ann Hirsch's then six months old son, showing him fondling a dog. They were modeling the latest in winter knitwear for (1) a baby boy and (2) a French poodle, respectively.

The John W. Crosby's (Sue Goddard) have a daughter, Amy Grace, born on April 22. That makes three children for them—John Jr., almost three; Melissa Ann, nearly one-and-one-half and the new baby. The Crosby's live at 17 Glenside Ave., Summit, N. J.

'58 We send much sympathy to Mrs. Allan Ainsworth (Mary Jane Seifert). Her husband died in late March after a long illness.

Dorothy Bahrenburg will receive her RN during the summer from Helene Fuld School of Nursing in Trenton.

Marlene Gross, who was graduated last June from the University of Pennsylvania, is now a law student at Columbia University.

We hear that Marjory Cohen is working for her master's degree in economics at Northwestern University. She is an alumna of Mt. Holyoke College.

Nancy Gray's engagement to Ralph D. Woodruff of Englishtown, N. J, has been announced. Nancy is a student at the Jefferson Hospital College School of Nursing. Her fiance, an alumnus of The Citadel, is a medical student at "Jeff." Felicitations!

Virginia Yutz is teaching in High Point, N C., and is attending the graduate school of Duke University.

The George Cramers (Susan Knowles) are about to move from Drexel Hill to New York City. We await word of their new address. Another alumna of St. Mary's tells us that Susie's baby, Lori, is about the most beautiful she has ever seen. To that statement we have an answer—"what else would one expect?"

'59 Mrs. John Brooks Oliver (Linda Fink) may be addressed at 3444 E. McCornack Road, Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. We saw a charming newspaper picture of Linda taken in front of a prize-winning Christmas decoration she made for the Festival of Trees in Waikiki on behalf of the Officers' Wives' Club. It was a large "Wedgewood wreath constructed of 13 varieties of native pods, seeds and nuts which she enameled white"

Frances Mulford will be graduating from Hollins College very shortly. We understand she made a splendid record there and aren't surprised!

Joanne Deitz and Constance Michaels, both of Trenton, will graduate in June from the Mills College of Education in New York City.

Mariellen Levitt will be married in June to Benjamin Cates Olliff Jr. of Atlanta. The prospective bridegroom is a graduate of Wesleyan University and is a third year medical student at the Medical College of Georgia. "Mac" attended Hood College after graduating from St. Mary's.

Another class engagement is that of Anne Cramer to Benjamin Andrew Hoover of Dallastown, Pa. Anne's fiance, also a medical student, will graduate in June from the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine. He is an alumnus of Mercersburg Academy and Princeton University. Ann will shortly graduate from Beaver College.

'60 The Richard D. Wrights (Peggy Reggie) have moved to 116 Central Avenue, Dover, N. H. Penny planned to enroll at the University of New Hampshire where her husband is a senior.

Hedl Decker, an English major at Russell Sage College, was elected secretary of her campus residence last year. Hedl plans to be married in the late summer to Lt. William Brick, now stationed at Fort Knox, Ky.

Patricia MacCorkle, a student at Thiel College, is a member of the College Choir with a European tour in the offing. Recalling Patty's lovely soprano soaring in St. Mary's Chapel, we well know she is an asset to the group.

Mr. and Mrs. David Fraser (Carole Geren) of Chesterfield, N. J., announce the birth of a son, Mark, on March 13.

'61 Suzanne Shaw's roommate at Bouve-Boston School of Tufts University is Margaret Vauclain Roberts, an Agnes Irwin graduate and great-granddaughter of Bishop Scarborough.

Margaret Honeyman Ely was married on October 20 to Clark S. Rodney. Susan Kahn was the maid of honor. The couple lived in New York during the winter but are moving to Trenton where they will live in the new Hamilton Arms Apartments in Hamilton Township.

Linda Whinney is working at the University of Pennsylvania Hospital and loves it.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester C. Jones (Diane Bethel) have a son, David Lester, born on February 19. The Joneses are living near Lumberton, N.J.

Cynthia Bonnet says she may transfer to Ursinus College in September.

We hear that Mavis Cantril was named a member of the queen's court at the Winter Carnival at Cazenovia College. Mab is a liberal arts major at the college.

Two class members are working in New York City. Mimie Doak is "on Wall Street" and Bonnie Swerman has a job with an off-Broadway group.

Elizabeth Dorsett transferred to Tusculum College in Tennessee and is a classmate once again of Linda Davies.

Susan Youngs is working in Trenton. We understand she has a job "with the State."

Betsy Siegrist is winding up her second year at Helene Fuld School of Nursing in Trenton. It won't be long before she is once more a "senior."

Susan Kahn, after one year at Douglass College, transferred to New York University and lives in the city.

'62 Judith McTighe was married on October 5 to William B. Fell of Titusville, N.J. The couple is living at 2010 Lawrence Road, Trenton.

Susan Thorn, completing her freshman year at Beaver College, is a member of the Glee Club.

Joanne Cooper took part in a Laboratory Theater's production of "Menaechmi" at Mt. Holyoke College where she is a freshman.

The engagement of Gwendolyn Snover to Peter K. Scott of Cape Cod, Mass., has been announced. The wedding date had not been set when we heard.

ASSOCIATES

Mrs. Frank S. Katzenbach Jr. (Natalie McNeal), an associate graduate and long-time trustee of St. Mary's, suffered a fall in early November. After a short hospital stay she returned home to make her convalescence from a fractured pelvis. We are thankful that she has improved.

The engagement of Patricia Mosle (who would have been in the class of '55) was announced in the New York Times in October to J. Roger Friedman of New York City and Pecos, N. Mex. Because of the newspaper strike we never did learn if the marriage took place in December as planned.

We deeply sympathize with Mrs. Elbert W. K. Boogher (Elizabeth Reynolds) on the death of her husband in April, 1963. Dr. Boogher, retired dean of Rider College in Trenton and head of the English Department, had previously taught English at Georgia Tech. Elizabeth lives at 6159 West Cedar Avenue, Merchantville, N.J.

A former student, Clara Howe Blair, was married in early December in Calvary Church, Pittsburgh, to Frederick W. Roloff Jr. of New York City. The couple lives in New York. Clara directed special events for the George Junior Republic Association. Her Harvard graduate husband is on the public affairs staff of RCA.

The W. Tod Blacks (Nan Atkinson) had "heavenly weather" for their winter in Florida.

At press time we learned that Mrs. Burton Morley (Elizabeth Coles) has sent two snapshots, one each of Mr. and Mrs. Fearnley. Elizabeth dates them "about 1920." We are most appreciative and are hoping it will be possible to enlarge the prints for hanging at St. Mary's. Elizabeth's address is 8 Hickory Hill, Tuscaloosa, Ala.

We must record the death of Mrs. Ida Hutchinson Wilber of Trenton.

The Rev. and Mrs. Wilbur Hogg are doubtless now in Europe. They had planned to sail on April 2 for eight weeks abroad. Father Hogg is a former chaplain of St. Mary's and Mrs. Hogg (Leota Curtis) was before her marriage the head of our music department. She is the composer of music for Bishop Matthew's "Hymn to St. Mary."

$333,000 For St. Mary's In Surprise 1963 Bequest

When my secretary, Mrs. Shaw (mother of Mary Virginia, '57, and Suzanne, '61) told me that St. Mary's Hall had just inherited a third of a million dollars, I thought it was her pleasant way of stimulating very tired spirits on the morning after commencement last June. A careful reading of a letter from the Wilmington Trust Company did substantiate the fact that St. Mary's Hall had, indeed, fallen heir to over $330,000.

The death of Mrs. Genevieve Sharretts Records on May 12, 1963, had terminated the trust established for her by her husband, Victor C. Records of Laurel, Del. Because this was a living trust and consequently had not gone through any court of law, St. Mary's Hall was unaware of its existence. Nor could we find any record of Genevieve Sharretts ever having attended the Hall. A phone call to the trust officer at the bank shed no light on the background of the gift but it did furnish the name and address of Mr. Records' nephew in Baltimore.

From him we learned that the Records were childless and that Mr. Records' mother, Virginia Giles, had attended St. Mary's in 1867. She had always had a deep affection for the school and had followed its progress closely during her lifetime. In setting up his living trust, Mr. Records acknowledged her interest and devotion by allocating one-third of the corpus of the fund to St. Mary's, the other two-thirds being divided equally between his father's alma mater, Lehigh University, and his own college, the University of Delaware.

In accepting this gift, the trustees of St. Mary's Hall acknowledged the donor's wish that the income be used for scholarships. They have put the funds in an investment advisory account at the Girard Trust Corn Exchange Bank and have stipulated that the income be used for scholarships. It will be known as the Virginia S. Records Scholarship Fund.

As a footnote, those of us who have served on the board for many years recall the oft-repeat-

Class Of 1963 Welcomed Into Graduates' Room

You should have heard the shrieks of delight and the effusive thanks that greeted permission given to the seniors on Founder's Day to use the Graduates' Room. The very idea of entering the room a full month before they actually became alumnae was too-too wonderful!

Now that we know how little it takes to give pleasure to school girls, IVY LEAVES hopes that the Society of Graduates will continue each year to give this permission (good conduct permitting!) and—may we suggest?—for more than for the one brief month between Founder's Day and Commencement?

Well do we recall the pleasure of old Senior Room into which no lower class member could advance one little toe without an invitation from a senior. Such invitations were seldom forthcoming. What a blissful privilege it was.

Five girls were cited at the Christmas dinner as winners of the fall Fearnley Awards for good citizenship. They had been elected by classmates and the faculty. The prize will be a theater party at the end of the school year.

The winners are: Senior, Patti Albert; junior, Martha Mulford; sophomore, Aliceann Walsh, and freshman, Liza Conant and Frances Megariotis in a tie.

These girls will be joined by winners of the spring-term awards whose names will be announced on Founder's Day. A slightly different basis of judging holds in the spring. At that time, the prize goes in each upper class to the girl showing the greatest growth in citizenship responsibilities.

Chapel Memorial For Susan Henry

In memory of Susan Craig Henry, '60, whose tragic death in May of last year occurred in a scuba-diving accident, classmates together with some friends and faculty members gave a new superfrontal for St. Mary's Chapel of the Holy Innocents.

The gift was consecrated by the Rev. Randall Conklin, school chaplain, at a special memorial service held in November. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Henry of Trenton, Susan's parents, and the entire student body were present.

The superfrontal, green for the Trinity season, was designed and created in the Katherine Morgan Terry Studios of Bordentown where ecclesiastical embroideries and needlework are worked with ancient techniques.

Horse Show Reaps Profits For School Improvements

The eighth annual St. Mary's Hall Horse Show will be held on Saturday, May 16, at the beautiful Helis Estate in Jobstown, N. J.

For those who attend, the horse show is a memorable occasion. The setting is beautiful. The performances of horses and riders are also beautiful. The food is good. The crowds are happy. There are familiar faces everywhere. All-in-all, it is an event no one willingly misses, having once participated.

Colonel Samuel A. Decker, when a trustee of St. Mary's, suggested the first horse show to raise money for the scholarship fund. The Colonel organized and directed it from the start and continued as its chairman for many years.

From the first, it made money for the school. Last year, $5,000 (more or less) was netted, making it our best year financially and that, despite fog and rain in the early morning which discouraged even some stalwarts from attending. But—you know "St. Mary's weather"—the rain held off after the events began, and the sun shone for part of the time.

Funds raised by future shows will be dedicated for the most part to capital improvements because scholarships are now being provided for by the Virginia Records Scholarship Fund.

Both the Society of Graduates and the Philadelphia Chapter give trophies and ribbons each year. In May, '63, Heide Erdman of Princeton won the Society of Graduates' Trophy in the Open

"DOING BUSINESS AT THE OLD STAND" . . . Henry Purvis served his first plum pudding at a Christmas dinner at St. Mary's in 1920. Among the first to partake of his bounty was Bettie Fell, '23, now Mrs. Henry G. Siegrist. Both chef and gourmandizer are still at it! They are pictured above playing the same roles at the "Mystery Dinner" in December '63, as they did more than 40 years ago. Part of the mystery is which one enjoys these occasions the more.

CLASS NOTES

'00 A three-column picture in a Florida newspaper in the winter was captioned "Reminiscing about school days in St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J." Pictured were Miss Etta Patterson of Key West with her visiting sister, Mrs. William Shedd (Aletta Patterson, '10) of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Leland Goddard (Emily Woolley, '21) also of Key West. They seemed to have a lot to talk about! Perhaps one of those Key Westers can tell us if Mrs. James Jones (Euphemia Bott, '23) still lives there.

'08 Mrs. Chester Haig (Hilda Morse), who lives at 154 Buena Vista Ave., Fair Haven, N. J., says that a grandson (one of seven grandchildren) will graduate in June from the University of California at Berkeley and has been accepted by the Peace Corps.

She also reports that at long last she has been in touch with Mrs. W. E. Downing (Beatrice Kennedy) who lives alone since the death of her husband. Her home is in Palo Alto, Calif. The two classmates plan to get together soon, but we don't know just where. Certainly, one or the other will have to travel across the country.

'09 We welcome Mrs. Levis Babcock (Marguerite Flanders) to the estate of grandmotherhood. Her son, Richard, now has a son, David Levis.

'15 With sorrow, we record the death on Nov. 19, 1963, of Mrs. Richard W. Logan (Kate Lee Dando) of a heart attack. Our sympathy goes to her husband and son.

'17 Belatedly, we have learned of the death of Mrs. Henry Eberts Pflatz (Phyllis Perrine) which occurred, we think, in 1960. Her sister, Mrs. Edmund D. Wingfield (Virginia Perrine, '22) died last July after several years of failing health, and was buried in New Orleans. The oldest of the three Perrine sisters, Mrs. Charles T. Somerby (Marjorie Perrine, '15) died several years previously. All who remember the three attractive girls will mourn their loss.

'19 A note from Mrs. William T. Jones (Carolyn Fuller) comes from St. Petersburg, Fla., where she spends her winters. She tells of a visit from her cousin, Anna S. Pendleton) of Washington, D. C., who attended St. Mary's in '12-'13. Miss Pendleton's sister was Mrs. H. W. Schaefer (Adeline L. Pendleton, '14).

'21 It was Mrs. James E. Covington (Annie James) of Beaver Creek, Martinsville, Va., who sent us word about Phyllis and Virginia Perrine. About herself, she wrote that now that her husband is in semi-retirement, they spend a few months each winter in Florida although she herself prefers to live where there is a four-season year. The Covingtons have two daughters, married to doctors, and a lawyer son. Their score for grandchildren is five boys and five girls.

Bertha Kaltenbach lives a full and useful life. Her primary interest is serving as world missions chairman of her area for the United Church Women of Greater Cleveland. This position gives her charge of the inspiring World Day of Prayer, always held on the first Friday in Lent. We know Bertha presents a well-organized program.

'23 Nine members, exactly one-third of those then living, attended the 40th reunion of this class on Founder's Day 1963. There wasn't one changed beyond recognition although everyone agreed that Mrs. Howard F. Knight (Gertrude Reynolds) had changed the least. At luncheon we filled a table in the dining room just about where the old French table formerly stood. Talk veered from "do you remember" to grandchildren, but there was less of the latter than one would suppose. After all, we didn't FEEL old enough to be grandmothers! Present were Helen Downes, Mrs. Harold Fick (Elsie DeVoe), Mrs. Ivins D. Jessup (Sally Tattersall), Mrs. David D. Higbee (Thelma Downs), Mrs. George C. Reinohl (Bessie Clark), Mrs. C. F. Wiltberger (Rosalind Dubell), Mrs. Burke Smith (Frances Burke), the aforementioned Gertie Knight and Mrs. Henry G. Segrist (Bettie Fell).

Mrs. Felix Meyer (Jane Hill) thought until the last that she would also be with us but her husband's illness prevented. It was Jane who sent us word several weeks ago of the most recent loss on the class roll. Karin Hillman died on February 14 in Hot Springs, Va., after a fairly lengthy illness. We remember so well Karin's quiet, gentle manner and her sweet disposition. Jane, will you extend our sympathy to her family?

Mrs. Alden Sexton (Betty Bassett) entertained a group of alumnae of the New York area for a luncheon in the winter. There were nine guests but not a great deal of news. Betty is extremely active in St. James Church but finds time to enjoy her grandchildren. A new grandson made his bow during the winter.

Your editor moved in September the great distance from 15 Farnsworth Ave., Bordentown, N. J., to 5 Farnsworth. But for all the lack of distance, it seemed a mighty move. Sorting, dispensing, discarding, retaining the accumulated hoardings of many years in a large old house was no easy task. Hope we never have to move again!

LEST YOU FORGET . . . .

Founder's Day will be observed by St. Mary's Hall and the Society of Graduates on Thursday, May 14.

The corporate communion service for alumnae will be celebrated in the chapel at 10:30 A.M. The annual meeting of the society will follow. It will be brief.

A program will be presented by students and, afterwards, luncheon will be served in the dining room. ($2.25, please!).

We hope to see you.

'28 Elizabeth F. Durell of Intervale, N. H., recently choreographed the ballet in a production of "Oklahoma!" In the fall, she visited Susan Brodhead ('27) in Catasauque, Pa., and "there was a lot of chatter about SMH." Elizabeth serves on the vestry of Christ Church, North Conway, N. H., which must be a record. She is president of the Episcopal Church Women and in great demand to show her lovely slides of the Holy Land, Africa and of her trip around-the-world.

'33 The Home and School Association of the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf gave a scholarship last summer to Mrs. T. Frank Devlin Jr., (Mary Bright) to attend a session at the Clarke School in Northampton, Mass. Mary had a professionally profitable experience but she had fun, too, for she saw many former SMH girls now living in New England. She visited Mrs. Charles A. Owen Jr. (Mabel Welles) in Storrs, Conn., and Barbara Congdon ('34), and was in touch with others. Incidentally, Mary's daughter, Roberta, has been listed in "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." An English major at West Chester State College, Roberta will graduate in May.

It was from Mary that we learned that Mabel's husband is a full professor (of English) at the University of Connecticut.

'34 Since Mary saw Barbara Congdon, the latter was married to Frederick Henry Littlefield. The wedding took place on Sept. 21 in Portland, Me. The couple will live in Raymond, Me., on Lake Sabago. All good wishes, Barbara!

'37 Virginia Beardsley Claybrook has a new address. Her home is now 10 Mitchell Place, New York 17.

'38 We send deep sympathy to Caroline St. Claire on the death of her mother, Mrs. George E. St. Claire.

From Melbourne, Australia, came a long note from Mrs. F. Lawrence Wilkinson (Phyllis Beardsley) which we quote in full: "We have been living in Melbourne for seven years. Unfortunately, our yearly trips to USA are in September and I miss seeing everyone on Founder's Day. I wonder if there are any other SMH graduates in this part of the world or passing through. My children are David, 15, and Michelle (Mimi), 13. We live in a suburb and have just finished a house at the seashore for vacations. It is known as the 'American House' with the look of California and made of red wood. We love Australia and don't know when Larry's insurance company will transfer us. As a hobby, we opened an antique shop though we don't actually work in it. Though we have put down all these roots, the children will certainly go to college in the states. My address here is 607 Toorak Road, Toorak S. E. 2, Victoria, Australia."

Some time after receiving the above, another brief but interesting note arrived from Phyllis. It said "I forgot to say in my letter, saying I would be unable to attend Founder's Day, that in my antique hunting here in Melbourne I found an early Connecticut mantel clock. The painted glass picture was of Bishop Doane's house on the Delaware. Needless to say, the clock now ticks away on a mantel in the Wilkinson house!"

Ah, come on, Phyllis—send it back to St. Mary's, won't you?

'39 Mrs. Elizabeth Nesbit (Libby Williamson) lives at 4635 Brandywine St. N. W., Washington, D. C.

'43 Mrs. Frank E. Wismer (Nancy A. MacFarland) lives at 214 Cowbell Road, Willow Grove, Pa. Nancy is planning to take courses at Beaver College.

Mrs. William E. Pearson (Mary Elizabeth Altemus) helped in a re-enactment of history on the morning after Christmas. As hospitality chairman of the board of managers of the Trent House Museum in Trenton, she was in charge of a breakfast served at the Trent House to a group of men, "history buffs," who had marched through the night over the route George Washington and his army had taken on their way from their crossing of the Delaware to the then little city of Trenton to overcome the Hessians in "the turning point of the Revolution." The men taking part numbered about 65. Mary and members of her committe were dressed in colonial costume. They actually cooked the breakfast—cider, ham, scrambled eggs and corn bread. Their sons, also in costume, acted as bus boys.

'49 Mrs. Richard Breithaphaupt (Betty Budd) is living at 8955 Petit Ave., Spulveda, Calif.

'50 It's a new address and a new baby for Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (Sallie Siegrist) although that is not the proper order of importance. Jonathan Wylie was born on May 30, '63, and is a most beguiling and handsome blond young man. (That couldn't POSSIBLY be grandmotherly prejudice, now could it)? The Syphers' home is Longview Road, Route No. 3, Putnam Valley, N. Y.

Can anyone supply us with Nancy Perkins' address? We heard she planned to move back to New York and we don't want to lose track of her.

'52 Mrs. John N. Park (Gail Durnell) lives at 70 N. College Ave., Flourtown, Pa. Gail has three children, John Jr., eight; Kimberly Anne, six; and David, four.

'53 Margaret Budd seems to have followed her sister, Betty, to California. She may be addressed at 7534 W. Norton St., Hollywood 46.

'54 Alison Elizabeth was born on Feb. 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Alvin W. Evans (Betty Birdsall), joining a big sister, Sandra, two and one-half years old. Betty writes that Sandra adores the new baby and is very helpful with her. The Evans' now live at 2 Magda Lane, Somerville, N. J.

'55 Mrs. Russell Stobo (Daphne Dill) wrote an appreciative letter about last year's IVY LEAVES and told us that she had a son, Ronald, born on Feb. 21, '63. We are happy to print such a happy item.

'56 The Pierre Lairs (Margaret Siegrist) moved in November to Apt. 6-E, 442 East 20th St., New York City.

'57 Sally Ann Garrison is a school nurse in Baltimore, Md.

The marriage of Margaret Fenimore to Robert Frederick Morris Jr., of Wynnewood, Pa. took place in the summer in the Presbyterian Church of Mount Holly. Peggy and her husband are living in Elizabeth, N. J. at 220 W. Jersey St., (Apt. 4-C), to be exact.

Judith Perinchief is working in the occupational therapy department of Magee Memorial Hospital for Convalescence and Rehabilitation in Philadelphia. She completed work last June at the University of Pennsylvania School of Allied Medical Sciences.

Mrs. Ronald W. Lefkowitz (Judith Walters) was graduated in June from Rider College.

'58 Margery Cohen's engagement has been announced to Robert M. Coen of Marion, Ohio. Margery was graduated in '62 from Mt. Holyoke College, magna cum laude, and is completing work for a master's degree in economics at Northwestern University. Her fiance is working for a doctorate in economics there. He is a Harvard graduate.

Dorothy Bahrenburg won an award for excellence in bedside nursing when she graduated last summer from the Helene Fuld Hospital School of Nursing in Trenton. Dottie is now nursing for a Trenton physician.

Mr. and Mrs. George Cramer (Susan Knowles) announce the birth of a second child, George Geoffrey, in mid-November. The Cramers live at 2220 Greer Avenue, Linden, N. J.

Virginia Yutz received a master's degree in French from Duke University and is now teaching fourth year French in Alexandria, Va.

Mary Jane Siefert Ainsworth has remarried since the death in March '63 of Mr. Ainsworth. She is now Mrs. M. J. Stephan of Summer Avenue, Edgewater Park, Beverly. We are very happy for her.

Mrs. William J. Flynn Jr. (Nancy Rossell) lives at 9629 Bustleton Ave., Philadelphia 15, Pa. We can't tell you the date of her wedding but believe it was last June.

'59 We know of three June brides of this class. On June 22 Anne Cramer of Birmingham, N. J. was married in Grace Church, Pemberton, to Dr. Benjamin A. Hoover 2d. They are making their home in York, Pa., and Anne is teaching in a suburban school while her husband interns at the York Hospital. Ann graduated from Beaver College and her husband is an alumnus of Mercersburg Academy, Princeton University and the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine.

Following her graduation from Mills College of Education, Joanne Deitz of Trenton became the bride of Richard M. Hochman, also of Trenton. Mr. Hochman is an alumnus of Lafayette College. He attends the School of Dentistry of Temple University.

On June 16, the Rev. Randall Conklin, St. Mary's Hall chaplain, married Mariellen Levitt to Benjamin C. Olliff Jr. of Griffin, Ga. One of the bridesmaids was Ethel Shein, also of '59. "Mac" attended Hood College and her husband was graduated from Wesleyan University. He is a student at the Medical College of Georgia. They are making their home in Augusta, Ga.

Katharine Ann Hutton will be married on June 27 to Charles W. Tweedy 3d., of Jasper, Ala. The ceremony will take place in the Episcopal Church of Fallsington, Pa. Katie graduated last June from the University of Pennsylvania where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority. She is teaching in Drexel Hill Junior High School, Upper Darby, Pa. Her fiance, an alumnus of Vanderbilt University, attends the University of Pennsylvania School of Medicine.

Frances Mulford received a bachelor of arts degree in biology in June from Hollins College. We hear she is now at the University of Virginia.

The engagement of Constance Michaels of Trenton has also been announced. She will marry Philip H. Shore of Woodbridge, N. J. in the summer. Connie graduated from Mills College of Education and is now a member of the faculty of the Grant School in Trenton. Her fiance was graduated from NYU and attended the Graduate School of NYU before joining the army. He is stationed at Fort Dix.

'60 Hedl Decker was married on June 29 to Lt. William Biddle Brick, USA, of Crosswicks, N. J., in a ceremony performed in Christ Church, Bordentown. Mrs. Edward Patterson Jr. (Patsy Decker, '56) was her sister's matron of honor. After a honeymoon in the Poconos, the couple lived at Fort Knox, Ky., until Bill was sent to Korea. Then Hedl returned to Russell Sage College in Troy, N. Y., where she is a junior, majoring in English (and where she is generally to be found on the dean's list).

Lt. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Updegrove (Jan Colvin) have announced the birth of a son, Mark, on July 24 at Fort Sill, Okla. Since then, the family has moved to Hawaii for Lt. Updegrove is stationed at Kanehoe Marine Corps Air Station, Oahu, "until 1966," says Jan. Their address is 111 Haskea Drive, Kailua, Hawaii.

Mrs. Douglas Robert (Virginia McPherson) has written of the birth of a son, Thomas Lee, on October 10. The Roberts are back in Trenton (and may be addressed at 20 Perdicaris Place), following Mr. Roberts' graduation in August with a B.S. in civil engineering from the University of Alabama. Ginny says they also have a "problem child"—Sir Michael of Ensley, a two-year-old English bull dog.

Not to be outdone by her big sister, Margery ('58), Cynthia Cohen is also engaged. Her fiance is Seth D. Rosen of Stamford, Conn., a law student at George Washington University. He graduated last June from the university as a political science major. Cynthia is a senior in speech therapy at George Washington.

Betsy Fineburg will graduate in June from Russell Sage College where she has been on the dean's list and majoring in physical education. During her college career she has served as class treasurer, dormitory president and secretary of the AA. Lesser offices, too.

After graduating from Katharine Gibbs School in Boston, Mass., Margaret Forsyth is living at home in Medford Lakes, N. J., and working for Campbell Soup in Camden as secretary to the assistant manager of export sales in the international department.

'61 Two August brides were Mavis Cantril and Elizabeth Dorsett. Mab was married in the Church of Christ, Hanover, N. H., on Aug. 31 to Donald M. Jansky, a Dartmouth graduate who is studying for a master's in electrical engineering at George Washington University. Mab has enrolled at the University of Mary-

Only Small Debt Remains On Organ

Little-by-little, the Society of Graduates is whittling down its debt to St. Mary's—money owing on our pledge to pay the cost ($2,860) of reconditioning the chapel organ. This was our birthday gift to St. Mary's for the Hall's 125th anniversary.

According to the report of the school treasurer at the February meeting of the Board of Trustees, we now owe St. Mary's $300.43.

Let's clear this debt—soon.

land, having graduated last June from Cazenovia Junior College. They live in Silver Springs, Md.

Sugie Dorsett married Barry Fernandez in the Episcopal Church of Hatboro, Pa. Linda Davies and Betsy Siegrist were attendants. The Fernandez's are living in Knoxville, Tenn., while Barry finishes college at the University of Tennessee.

Bonnie Swerman is another class bride. Her wedding to Richard Eli Helmuth took place on Nov. 21 in Las Vegas, Nev. The couple are living at 320 S. Sherbourne Dr., Los Angeles, Calif.

And we hear, too, that Cheryl Kolb is married to John B. Clark brother of Bonnie Clark ('63) but we know neither when nor where —nor their present address.

A son, David Charles, was born on Sept. 16 to Mr. and Mrs. Clark S. Rodney (Margaret Ely). We have seen the lad, and an uncommonly handsome boy he is!

The Bouve Dance Club of which Suzanne Shaw is a member was invited by the Harvard Church of Brookline, Mass., to take part in a Sunday evening vesper service. The group interpreted a passage from Ecclesiastes and presented Benjamin Britten's "Ceremony of Carols."

We hear that Susan Kahn is at NYU and that Mimi Doak is working in New York. Susan Youngs works closer to home. She has a job in Trenton with a State agency.

Betsy Siegrist is looking forward to graduating from the Helene Fuld Hospital School of Nursing, come July. Her new home address is 5 Farnsworth Ave., Bordentown.

Trudi Scott wrote from Goucher College (Thank you, Trudi!) that as a music theory major, she is student director of the Chapel Choir, "a small group which sings each Sunday and on other special occasions." Trudi is also president of the Canterbury Club.

Linda Davies has transferred from Tusculum College to Pennsylvania State University. Perhaps we'll see more of her now.

'62 Mr. and Mrs. Henry Warren Fell (Judith McTighe) of 2010 Lawrenceville Road, Trenton, have a daughter, Felicia Lynn.

The marriage of Sally Harral to Kevin S. McQuillen took place on Sept. 21 in Morrestown, N. J. May we have your address, Sally?

Gwendolyn Snover also is married, although we don't know the date of the wedding. Gwen's new name is Mrs. Peter Scott.

Peggy Yutz is enrolled at Trenton Junior College.

Judith Evans didn't stay long at Russell Sage College. She married Philip Bonnet (brother of Cynthia Bonnet, '61) last Fall. The bridegroom is a student at Lehigh University.

'63 Even our baby class has a bride. Meredith Ates married Lt. Henry Morris on July 20 in the First Baptist Church of Chase City, Va. They will live at Fort Knox, Ky., while Lt. Morris is assigned there. He was graduated from West Point last June.

Here's where others in the class are: Karen Black, Green Mountain Junior; Bonnie Clark, Sullins; Leslie Pearl and Perijane Heisen, Boston University; Martha Conway, Endicott Junior; Mary Hemings, Albright; Aileen Howe, High Point; Rosalma Nimphius, Lasell Junior; Sheryl Popkin, Brandeis University; Sharon Reilly, Thiel; Beverly Rhawn, Bucknell; Linda Sacks-Wilner, Temple University; Linda Sharlin, Bard; Virginia Shaver, Adelphia; Jeanette Smith, Bates; Elizabeth Stratton, University of Rhode Island; Virginia Volkommer, Glassboro State; Priscilla Wodehouse, Briarcliff; Anne Wright, Mount Holyoke; Susan Hopkins, Episcopal Hospital, and Carol Richards, West Jersey Hospital.

And Carol Richard's engagement to Thomas R. McElroy of Riverton, N. J. has been announced. They plan a May wedding.

ASSOCIATES

All who knew Mrs. E. R. Heyl (Elizabeth Bowen) can in some degree share her loss with her daughters, Elizabeth Heyl ('31), president of the Society of Graduates, and Caroline Heyl. Mrs. Heyl died on Christmas Eve in Mount Holly after an illness of several weeks. A gentle, gracious lady, she illuminated all she touched.

To express in some small measuer our sympathy, the executive committee of the Society of Graduates voted a gift to the organ fund in Mrs. Heyl's memory.

We also record with sorrow the death on Feb. 6 of Miss Rebecca Fort of Burlington. She will be missed at our alumnae gatherings and by St. Mary's Church of which she was a devoted member.

Our deep sympathy goes to Mrs. Frank S. Katzenbach Jr. (Natalie McNeal) of Trenton. Her only son, Frank S. Katzenbach 3rd died in January after a long illness. A graduate of Princeton University and Harvard Law School, he was a brilliant lawyer, Mercer County Judge and public-spirited citizen. He was buried from Trinity Cathedral.

Mrs. W. Tod Black (Nan Atkinson) had two new grandsons during the past year making "a grand total of five grandchildren in all." Nan and her husband did a stint of baby-sitting in February while one son and his wife went to Nassau. As of this writing, Nan and Tod are now getting a deserved rest in Florida.

Mrs. Joseph Gooch Jr. (Edith Albert) is back in Bronxville, N. Y. after a winter spent in Italy.

SURPRISE BEQUEST

ed statement of the late Franklin P. Jones Jr. (father of Elizabeth Jones Harnischfeger, '31, and grandfather of Mary Louise Harnischfeger, '57), long-time trustee, treasurer and president of the trustee group, to the effect that one day, when it was least expected, St. Mary's would most certainly receive a sizeable gift. Did he have prior knowledge of this trust, established many years ago? Or did he simply have faith that miracles DO happen?

You, Too, May Own One Of Our Chapel Plates

Commemorative plates bearing pictures of the SMH Chapel are still available.

Made by Lazelere of Bucks County, Pa., they may be purchased at St. Mary's for $4 each. If ordered by mail, the cost is $5, with the extra dollar paying for mailing carton, postage and insurance.

Profits, though small, will help pay for that organ reconditioning.

And—believe us—when these plates are sold, there will be no reorders from the pottery. This is your chance to own one.

HORSE SHOW PROFITS

Jumper Class. Ribbons went to Howard Hubbs of Lincroft, N. J. and Teddy Tighe of Mount Holly.

The Philadelphia Chapter Trophy in the Five-Gaited Saddle Class went to Tom McConough of Marlton, N. J. Franklin McConnell of Cornwells Heights, Pa., and Blaine Wilent of Mount Holly won second and third place ribbons.

TEA FOR TISHA

Two days after Christmas, Miss Dorothy Cathell of Barclay Estates, Haddonfield, gave a tea in honor of Tisha Dahl who had flown here from Brighton, England, to spend the holidays with one of her St. Mary's Hall families, the Samuel A. Deckers of Bordentown.

Society of Graduates Will Pose Questions At Annual Meeting

Founder's Day this year will have particular importance. It is hoped to launch a program of re-evaluation for the Society of Graduates.

In the 90 years since the society was founded, St. Mary's has changed and so have lives of alumnae. It is high time to pause and take stock.

"What is the purpose of an alumnae society?" "How can we implement our ideas?" "Where do we go from here?" "Are you satisfied with the simple program we now have--one meeting annually and one issue of a publication plus slender dues?" "Do you wish more involvement with St. Mary's today or a retreat into a social organization trying to perpetuate lost youth?"

These and other questions pertaining to our organization will be discussed. Come prepared to voice your opinions freely.

The schedule for Founder's Day will begin, as always, with a service of Holy Communion at 10:30 a.m. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, chaplain will be the celebrant.

After a pause for refreshment, the business meeting will be conducted by Miss Heyl, president. Luncheon will follow. There will be no guest speaker, so proceedings should be brief, allowing time to tour the buildings and grounds.

As you must remember, St. Mary's is at its loveliest in mid-May. Join us.

'Henry' on the Mend

Henry Purvis, who began dispensing hospitality from St. Mary's Hall kitchen in 1920, suffered a serious illness in January. Happily, he is now making a good recovery at his home. The hundreds of former students who remember him send him good wishes for a steady, speedy and complete return to health.

Remember popovers for the boarders' breakfasts . . . strawberry shortcake on Founder's Day. . . plum pudding at the Christmas dinner. . . pancakes on Shrove Tuesday? Who can forget them!

Good Wishes Follow Dr. Wiles To Texas

No resignation was ever accepted with greater reluctance by the Board of Trustees than was that presented to it at its October meeting by its president, the Rev. C. Preston Wiles. Dr. Wiles resigned from both the presidency and the board.

Since coming to St. Mary's Church as its rector, Dr. Wiles had served on the Hall's Board of Trustees giving generously of his time, talents and wisdom. His devotion to the Hall was matched only by his skill in charting the school's course in times of insecurity. Only those who sat with him at meetings can fully appreciate his vision, his tact and his accomplishments.

Along with our regrets at his departure, goes our pleasure in Dr. Wiles's increased opportunities for service in his new church, the Cathedral of St. Matthew in Dallas, Tex., where he is now dean. He will always have our affection, gratitude and good wishes.

Dr. Wiles's place on the board has been filled by the new rector of St. Mary's Church, the Rev. James J. Green, and we welcome him to the St. Mary's Hall family.

Henry Yutz of Burlington, (father of VIRGINIA YUTZ, '57, and PEGGY YUTZ, '60,) vice president of the board, is filling Dr. Wiles's unexpired term as president.

ANNUAL HORSE SHOW SET FOR MAY 8 AT JOBSTOWN ESTATE

The annual St. Mary's Horse Show will be held earlier this year.

Saturday, May 8, is the date set for the ninth annual benefit.

That's all the information needed by those who have attended earlier shows at the beautiful Helis Estate. They'll be there. For there is no such thing as a one-time attender. Once present, one is "hooked", and will be back for more.

Where else can you spend an entire day in such a beautiful setting with so many friendly people--students, faculty, administration, parents, trustees, alumnae, neighbors and horse afici-

Old St. Mary's Kept Ever Young By Facing Up To Modern Needs

Since 1837 St. Mary's Hall has weathered many crises, undergone many changes and adapted itself to many new ideas. Changes have been physical (new buildings, although not recently!); academic (many courses in the first catalogue have long since been dropped and others substituted); social (there weren't dances-with-boys even in the '20's) and in the student body (we have boys now, up to the upper school).

It's all very well to hark back with nostalgia to the good old days, but who REALLY wants them?

Can you imagine Bishop Doane's school in the present day world? Students living and studying in what is now called Doane Hall? Eating in the basement? Spending Saturday afternoons mending and darning? No Christmas or Summer vacations?

The school would never have survived for there would be no enrollment.

Had St. Mary's not adapted itself to contemporary life and kept abreast academically, it would have closed its doors a century ago.

Thank goodness, there have been changes! Many of them.

Today the Board of Trustees is giving serious attention to another proposed change. Parents of some boys in our middle school have for several years been requesting that we open the upper school to their sons. The first requests were scarcely taken seriously but as demands persisted the board decided to take stock of the situation.

Letters have gone out to parents of both boys and girls to get reactions. An area survey of the situation is being made and before many weeks have passed a decision--for or against--will be made.

Whatever the decision may be, it will not be arrived at lightly. It will be the result of deliberate and thoughtful thinking, aided by professional advice from those who know the educational facilities in the area. And by prayer.

It has not at any time been suggested that St. Mary's upper school become "co-ed," as are the lower and middle school departments. Rather, the proposal is made that a parallel upper school be opened for boys. Some facilities would be used jointly (the gymnasium and chapel, for instance) and the administration would be the same.

Co-ordinated schools of this kind are on the increase and have proved successful. The Holmquist School in New Hope, Pa., affiliated itself with the Solebury School for Boys a few years back. Radcliffe and Harvard are similarly affiliated.

Whether such a plan meets the needs of the Delaware Valley area is now the subject of our study.

Whatever the decision of the board, it will be its best judgment on the facts brought out by the survey.

In a sense, it may be that we are coming back to Bishop Doane's way of thinking--after all, he had affiliated schools in St. Mary's Hall and Burlington College!

Chapel Window Given In Memory of Susan Henry

A beautiful lancet window was unveiled in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents in a brief service following last December's presentation of the Christmas Mystery.

Given in memory of Susan Craig Henry, '60, by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward A. Henry of Trenton, its theme is "Suffer the Little Children to Come Unto Me." The artist has depicted a girl and a boy at the feet of Jesus. He has used a photograph of Susan for the likeness of the girl.

In vibrant colors, predominately blue, the window is on the gospel side over the choir stalls in which Susan sat as a student for four years.

Class Notes

'93 We note with sorrow a message from the Rev. Percy R. Stockman of Haverford, telling of the illness of his wife, the former MARGARET ANN STRYKER. We wish for her brighter days.

'01 MISS HELEN CRISSEY, writes from "Merwick," Bishop Matthews' old home, that she "is improving slowing, not being young." Merwick is now an adjunct of Princeton Hospital, serving as a convalescent residence. We hope Miss Crissey is now back in her own home, 176 Springdale Road, Princeton.

'03 Mrs. J. Lee Barnes (ADELAIDE BAIRD), 437 West College Street, Granville, Ohio, remarked in speaking of her 60th reunion, "How upsetting it would be to return and find oneself the oldest living graduate."

'08 Mrs. Chester R. Haig (HILDA MORSE) and her husband, Colonel Haig, celebrated their 50th wedding anniversary in November. Mrs. Haig recalls that her classmates, NAOMI LONG (now Mrs. Harry W. Stubbs) and CHRISTINE GAYLOR (Mrs. John D. Williamson) were at the wedding and still keep in touch.

'09 Mr. and Mrs. Levis C. Babcock Jr. (MARGUERITE FLANDERS) have sold their Ambler, Pa., home and are moving to Orlando, Fla., near the home of their son and daughter-in-law. We shall miss Mrs. Babcock but are glad she will be joining the growing SMH family in Florida.

'10 Mrs. A. Herbert Allen (FLORENCE, TENBROECK) wrote on March 1, "Here I am, out at my favorite spot in this world, Honolulu, Hawaii, after a South Pacific cruise with stops in Australia and New Zealand, Singapore, Hong Kong and Japan. I will be home in time for Founder's Day."

Mrs. Allen doesn't wait for Founder's day to give us what news she knows of the 50-year class.

Mrs. H. L. Gerstenberger (MARJORIE HOWE) is in Roselle, N.J. with her son who has been very ill. We hope he has recovered by the time you receive IVY LEAVES.

Mrs. George D. Upson (ANNE SPRAGUE) of Newark, Ohio, has promised to visit Mrs. Allen in her Haverford Home. WE hope that means, they will both come for Founder's Day.

Mrs. E. B. SHOWELL (GERTRUDE CHAPMAN) of Chadd's Ford, Pa., often visits with Mrs. Allen--and vice versa. And Mrs. Allen frequently sees Mrs. Norman Bisler (MIRIAM JAMESON) who lives in near-by Mermont Gardens on Montgomery Avenue "since her beautiful home in St. David's burned to the ground." That is the first we knew of this appalling tragedy and we grieve with Mrs. Bisler over her loss.

'12 We extend our deep sympathy to Mrs. G. D. Halsted Jr. (MARJORIE ROYCE) at the death of her daughter.

Mrs. Halsted has written of seeing Mrs. Bruce Stratton (DOROTHY HOVER, '12) when passing through Denver, Colo., rather recently. "It was great fun seeing her looking so well and the same old Dorothy." Mrs. Halsted says she wrote this bit "as there is practically never any news of 1912 in Ivy Leaves and this may stir some one to "say hello through Ivy Leaves, as I do now to all my old friends and classmates who may be reached this way."

Graduate Awards

At last year's commencement, Barbara Sackin of Trenton received the Alumnae Award for excellence in English.

Winners of the society's Fall Fearnley Awards for Christian citizenship were announced at the Christmas dinner following the presentation of the Christmas Mystery. They are Martha Mulford, senior; Leona Soltesz, junior; Nancy Hayes, sophomore, and Doris Fischer and Katherine McMillan, freshmen.

'13 MARGARET MERRITT and her sister, Eleanor, had a delightful summer when another sister, resident of San Diego, Calif., came East on a visit.

'14 Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Laidlaw (ISABEL H. EMERSON) of 912 Glenn Circle South, State College, Pa., came to St. Mary's recently but, alas! the school was closed. As a day school, it is rarely open on Saturdays. The Laidlaws then spent an evening with Margaret Merritt who reports "Isabel is just as attractive as ever." Mr. Laidlaw teaches English at Pennsylvania State University. There are two Laidlaw children--the daughter holds a PhD from Yale and teaches at Hollins College.

'15 A criticism that we had never before heard about St. Mary's was one raised recently by Mrs. Charles P. Maxwell (KATHERINE S. VIGELIUS) who regrets that in her SMH years she was "taught no history of Burlington or of New Jersey--its founders and its place in American history." With so much of interest known about Burlington and New Jersey, this is, indeed, regrettable. Another regret voiced by Mrs. Maxwell is that she did not accept the "minor teaching post offered to me so that I could have spent a few more years in that very dear and historic place."

'16 Mrs. Troupe Zeth (SARAH McCULLOCH) writes that she has retired after 20 years with Douglas Aircraft but is serving as a secretary at the First Presbyterian Church of Santa Monica, Calif. She became a grandmother for the first time a year ago and sounds thrilled to have joined that elect group. Mrs. Zeth has talked to Mrs. Paul Fidel (RUBY MATTHEWS) of near-by North Hollywood and she hears annually--at Christmas from Mrs. Malcolm V. Guy (MARY McNEELEY.) "I cannot realize," she continued, "that I have been out of school for 50 years."

'17 MRS. TERESA PEARCY Bodgett should boast that a step-son and his wife have named a daughter for her. In a postscript announcing this happy act, Mrs. Bodgett contributes "I am still active, well and happy." Lucky lady!

'18 Their sister Mrs. Frederick Laidlaw, (ISABEL EMERSON, '14) tells that Mrs. Arthur J. Manville (MARGARET EMERSON) lives in Denver, Colo., and Mrs. Arnold Ronneback (LOUISE EMERSON) is a resident of Bermuda. Margot has two sons and a daughter, all married. Louise has a son and daughter, each the parents of two.

'19 Mrs. Richard E. Adams (EMILY CLARK) of 523 South Main Street, Hightstown, N.J. is a busy person with children, grand-children and a business to attend to. She failed to attend her reunion last year because of a trip to Florida.

Another of this class to miss her reunion was Mrs. James S. Montgomery (CONSTANCE PIERSOL). She, too, was in Florida.

'21 By the time this is in print we hope Mrs. R. W. Hasbrouck Jr., (MARJORIE NIGHTINGALE) has long ago dispensed with the many pins in her leg and hip, put there nearly two years ago at Walter Reed Hospital after bad fractures. "I seem to be an inordinately slow 'knitter,'" she commented when reporting last spring. "Being a dowager is not really my style."

Mrs. Hasbrouck was visited by Mrs. Phillip Crockett (RUTH DILL) who was en route to Leesburg, Va., from her home in New Brunswick. Ruth was then planning to spend Christmas in Paris.

'22 Mr. and Mrs. S. Robinson Coale (IRENE VAN METER) are spending two months in Egypt, the Holy Land, Turkey, Greece and Italy. Irene says that her son, Jim, is "a Philadelphia lawyer" and her daughter, Sandy, is married to a musician and lives in New York where her husband has a Rockefeller Grant and plays with a Chamber Group under the direction of Lukas Foss at the Center for Creative and Performing Arts in Buffalo.

Irene writes that she recently had lunch with Mrs. T. H. Atherton Jr., (ELOISE WICKES) who teaches a course in the horticultural department of the Barnes School of the Barnes Foundation in Merion.

'23 Mrs. Felix Meyer (JANE HILL) "never seems to change" according to Irene Coale who saw her recently. What a nice thing to have said about one!

Mrs. Howard Knight (GERTRUDE REYNOLDS) sounded in seventh heaven when reporting that her daughter, Barbara, and her family were moving from Massachusetts to nearer Pennsylvania. "And," added Gert, "We can baby sit."

There is no more devoted alumna than Mrs. Ivins Jessup (SALLY TATTERSALL) who never skips a meeting of the executive committee and is always helpful with sound suggestions and good hard work.

'24 Mrs. Lewis P. Carmer (HELENA SIMMONS) resides in Bay Head, N.J., all year since her husband's retirement. Her address is 45 Bristol Place.

'28 ELIZABETH DURELL (address Box No. 5595, Forest Ring, Intervale, N.H.) met HELEN GLAZIER in North Conway, N.H. at a Palm Sunday service.

'29 Mrs. Alfred Meisner (VIRGINIA LENTE) brought her husband and daughter to visit St. Mary's in early March. They formerly lived in the mid-West but now reside in Tenafly, N.J. Virginia's daughter will enter college in the fall.

'30 Mrs. John W. Hoffman (REBECCA STYER) wrote last Spring "I am sorry to have to answer 'no' for Founder's Day, but that will have to be the case as long as I teach." Becky lives on Mount Eyre Road, Washington Crossing, R.D. No. 1, Pa.

'34 Mrs. Frederick Littlefield (BARBARA CONGDON) lives on the shore of Sebago Lake, a beautiful spot about 20 miles from Portland, Me.

Mrs. Allan H. Sharp (ELINOR CASE) makes her home at 2 Homestead Road, Sea Girt, N.J. Elinor teaches and "can't get to Founder's Day when it falls on a school day."

'36 We have just learned of the death of several months ago of the father of Mrs. William E. Sheppard (MARGARET LONG) and we send her our very real sympathy. Peggy and her husband, alumni secretary for Haverford College, are about to take off on a Haverford Alumni-chartered flight for three weeks in Spain. Last Spring they enjoyed a similar trip to Greece. Do you suppose SMH alumnae could follow suit?

Mrs. Gordon D. Griffin (SALLIE FELL) has a daughter who is a freshman at Bryn Mawr. Sallie's parent-affiliations range from Bryn Mawr to the Hun School, Princeton High, and two different grammar schools.

'37 The John J. Routiers (BETTY BROWN) have two daughters, aged 18 and 11, and a 14-year old son. Meeting Mr. Brown recently in Trenton, we were told that it was safe for him to leave home in the winter because his son could take care of all necessary snow-shoveling. Stout lad--snow in Rochester gets pretty deep!

'39 Mrs. Edwin Brower (PRISCILLA IRELAND) finds herself busy with cub scouts which, she remarks, "are not very St. Mary-ish."

'40 Orchids and all goodies to Mrs. Edwin Siner (ANN PUMYEA) for her efforts to 'rouse her classmates for their 25th reunion. Even though many are too distant to return for Founder's Day, Ann received lots of replies, including addresses previously unknown. Here are some of her findings:

Mrs. W. A. Bates Jr. (HELEN FRANCES BARBER) may be addressed at Pine Valley, R.D. No. 1, N.Y.

MARION BURNS' address is Box No. 380, Boulder, Colo.

Mrs. William J. Seaman (CATHERINE E. CAPOZZI) lives at 24 Brooks Drive, Simsbury, Conn.

Mrs. Jewett O. Phillips Jr. (MARGARET GOOCH) will have "Quarters A, Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill." as an address until June, '66. After that, she will again be at 2422 Tracy Place, N.W. Washington, D.C.

Ann also heard from Mrs. C. W. Daniels Jr. (EARLENA MORTON) and PRESLEY ANN RHODES. We hope they'll come on May 13.

'41 Mrs. Harry Pierce Callahgan (BETTY ANN VAN HISE) now lives at 513 Crystal Drive, Madeira Beach, Fla., 33708.

Another graduate lives in Short Hills, N.J. Mrs. Albert C. Crowell, (BARBARA B. BOWEN) has her home at 10 Beechcroft Road.

In Ithaca, N.Y., Mrs. Francis Russell (MARY ELIZABETH HARTMAN) lives at 230 Enfield Falls Road.

The address of Jean Hathaway Thomas (JEAN SUTHERLAND HATHAWAY) is 915 Arizona Avenue No. 2, Santa Monica, Calif.

'42 Mrs. Frank H. Gardner (ELOISE C. WOODWARD) says her five children--four boys and a girl--"have reached the point where all are in school each day. The oldest will go to college next year and the youngest will be a third grader. This gives me time to contact my former classmates which I'd like to do through Ivy Leaves." "Woody" says she has lived in the Boston area since her marriage and loves it, "particularly for the fine schools for the children." Her address is 141 Prince Street, West Newton, Mass. The Gardners also own a Vermont farmhouse which they are restoring. Woody corresponds with Miss Maude Yeoman, her class advisor, now on the faculty of St. Mary's Cathedral School in Garden City, L.I. "Miss Yeomans is just as active there as ever she was at the Hall."

'43 Mrs. William E. Pearson (MARY ELIZABETH ALTEMUS) brought her daughter to the Christmas Mystery and hopes to send her to the Hall. Mary Elizabeth (address, "Glencroft," River Road, Yardley, Pa.) maintains her interests in Trenton and we note her activities in many civic affairs. She is most active on the board of the Trent House Museum.

'44 Mrs. NONA MAY CLAPP has a new address: 14 Lake Avenue, Red Bank, N.J.

'46 Mrs. G. F. Osborn (MILLICENT FARMER) has Box No. 103, Allentown, N.J. for an address.

'47 Mrs. Orson H. Mabey Jr. (MARTHA ANN RICE) lives at 143 North 70 E., Malad City, Idaho.

'48 As if four children weren't enough to occupy her, Mrs. Robert O. Benson (SALLY TAYLOR) says she has taken up the guitar! Sally's children range from Karlyn, nearly four, up to Erik, a fifth grader. In between are Kristin in kindergarten and Robbie, nine. Sally's address is 65 Seminole Way, Short Hills, N.J.

We extend sympathy to Mrs. Edward Weizer (DIANE DILATUSH) at the loss of her father in March, 1964, after a long illness.

Mrs. Carlton Snow 2d (PHEBE CLARK GULICK) is living at 719 Wallace Drive, Falls Church, Va.

'50 Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (SALLIE SIEGRIST) has earned a doctorate in history from Cornell. Sallie halted work on her thesis while teaching, keeping house and running her family, but last summer resumed its writing. The Syphers will live in Ithaca next year while Mr. Sypher, who is on the Hunter College faculty, is a visiting professor at Cornell.

We have no news of others in this class but we hope many will return for their 15th reunion.

'51 Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilkins (CAROLYN MILLER) live and teach in Beaumont, Calif. Last summer they drove East to visit the senior Wilkins on Lake Champlain.

We record with sorrow the death in February of David B. Skillman of Easton, Pa., father of Mrs. William B. Chapman (JUDITH SKILLMAN) and we send our sympathy to her.

'55 Mrs. J. Duncan Kenna (ANNE LEE HOLLINGER) has returned to Burlington to live. Her husband is the new rector of St. Barnabas Episcopal Church. With three children and parish duties for Anne, we probably won't see as much of her as we would like, but we are hoping!

We have two conflicting addresses for Mrs. John Broadbooks (JANE TUCKER). Both are for Fort Lauderdale, Fla., and we believe the latest is 2261 N.E. 61st Court Imperial Point. Jane likes Florida very much "but will always miss SMH and Founder's Day." Jane's husband is associated with Edward D. Stone Jr.

'56 VICKI WELLS is a social worker with the State Bureau of Children's Services in the Mount Holly office. She commutes from her Bordentown home.

The Edward Pattersons (PATSY DECKER) have moved to 642 Washington Avenue, Haddonfield, N.J.

'57 MARY VIRGINIA SHAW attends the Cambridge Divinity School and is studying for a BD degree. She says she doesn't know what she will do afterwards but "I just want to keep on studying."

SALLY ANN GARRISON, a school nurse in Baltimore, Md., spent last summer motoring in Europe.

Mrs. Jon E. Floria (CYNTHIA JOHNSON) has given us her new address: 185 Berkeley Lane, Hoffman Estates, Roselle, Ill., 60172.

'58 The Richard M. Salzmanns (MARTY DWIER) live at 1903 Nottingham Way, Trenton, 08619.

New address for the George F. Cramer Jr. (SUSIE KNOWLES) is 12 N. Greenwood Ave., Hopewell, N.J.

'59 MARY VICTORIA JENNESS is living in Apt. 66, 308 E. 79th St., N.Y.C.

Hopkinson House, Washington Square S., Philadelphia is the new address of Mrs. Benjamin Oliff Jr., (MARIELLEN LEVITT.)

'60 BETSY FINEBURG, who graduated in June from Russell Sage College, teaches "phys ed" in the Cook School of Trenton. Betsy held many offices and won many honors in college.

CYNTHIA COHEN received a BA degree in speech therapy from George Washington University (see "Marriages" for addition news of Cynthia.)

"E. J." STOCKTON, a senior at Converse College, Spartanburg, S.C., is yearbook editor there. She was also circulation manager of the college newspaper.

CHAPIN SMITH graduated in June from Moravian College where she was a member of Alpha Epsilon Pi sorority. (see "engagements")

Mrs. Thomas Moore (BARBARA J. LEFFERTS) lives at 3528 Church Road, Ft. McClellan, Annistan, Ala.

A stint of practice teaching convinced Mrs. William B. Brick (HEDL DECKER) that teaching is for her! Hedl will graduate in June from Russell Sage College and hopes to teach in the Hartford, Conn., area.

'61 We hear that Mr. and Mrs. John B. Clark (CHERYL KOLB) both attend VPI, Blacksburg, Va. The Clarks have a two-year old daughter.

BETSY SIEGRIST was graduated in August from Helene Fuld Hospital School of Nursing and, after taking her state board exams, now writes the coveted "RN" after her name. She is on the staff of the hospital.

SANDRA SMITH of Pemberton is business manager of the 1965 "Vassarion," yearbook of Vassar College where she is a senior, majoring in political science.

SUZANNE SHAW, a senior at Bouve Boston School of Tufts University, made her debut in December at the Trenton Assembly. Last Summer Sue traveled in Europe.

TRUDI SCOTT, a Goucher College senior, tells us she wants to study medicine but at the time (Christmas) she did not know in which school.

JEAN DOAK lives in Apt. FE, 501 W. 110th St., N.Y., N.Y. 10025.

'62 CATHY MALISE was named to the dean's list at Ursinus College where she is a junior. Cathy's home address is 8 Dublin Road, Pennington, N.J.

Mrs. Philip Bonnet (JUDITH MAY EVANS) can be reached care of Dr. W. Lawrence Bonnet, 2791 Nottingham Way, Trenton.

SANDRA HARBOURT, a student at Westminster Choir College, Princeton, is a member of the college's Symphony Chorus that joined the Berlin Philharmonic Symphony on its tour of the United States.

JOANNE COOPER (see separate story) played a role in the Junior Show of Mount Holyoke College.

'63 The Merrill Prize in Freshman English went last year at Mount Holyoke College to ANNE R. WRIGHT.

PRISCILLA WODEHOUSE is president of the Senate Activities Committee at Briarcliff College. The committee, composed of heads of all student organizations, acts as a clearing house for extra-curricular activities and coordinates student functions. Priscilla also is a member of Gold Key, honorary student leadership society.

Mrs. Thomas R. McElroy (CAROL ANNE RICHARDS) is living at 407 Bank St., Riverton, N.J.

The address of Mrs. Henry Morris (MEREDITH LEE ATES) is care of Lt. Henry Morris 098855, A Troop 3/7 Cav., APO 36, N.Y., N.Y.

'64 PATTI ALBERT attends the University of Wisconsin where she has been pledged to Sigma Delta Tau sorority.

MYRNA BLANK is a freshman at Boston University.

BETTY SUE CAMPBELL elected to attend Juniata College.

REBECCA DEITZ, sister of JOANNE DEITZ Hochman, '59, is at Colby Junior College. Rebecca won the 1956 Class award last June as "the senior who has given her talents and services without thought of recognition."

SARA JANE GURNEY attends Western College for Women.

NANCY HANO and ANNE HERMAN are students at the University of Pennsylvania.

HELEN KIEMLE attends Endicott Junior College.

BARBARA McCAY was accepted by Gettysburg College on the early admissions plan.

NANCY MILLER is at Cedar Crest, Allentown, Pa.

MALETA MILSOM, who won the Bausch and Lomb Award in June for excellence in science and mathematics, is at McNeese State College.

ARLENE PALMER goes to Wilson College, Chambersburg, Pa.

DONNA ROCKHILL electrified SMH by attending both her baccalaureate and commencement despite an appendectomy on Memorial Day. She is now at Chandler College for Women.

BARBARA SACKIN (see "awards") is a Goucher College freshman.

JENNIFER SCHWED goes to Muhlenburg College.

LEONA SOPHOCLES attends Pine Manor Junior College.

TERRY WORTHINGTON is at Dickinson College, having been granted both a Dickinson and a New Jersey State Scholarship. In June she was awarded the Dahl Prize for the best essay on Anglo-American Affairs, given by Cameron E. Dahl of Brighton, England, father of a former exchange student from St. Mary's Hall, Brighton.

SANDRA YOUNG attends Bob Jones University. Sandra won the Bishop Gardner Award last year as the senior who has made an unique contribution in some area of school life.

PAMELA YOUNGS, at Mary Baldwin College, was crucifer in her junior year and president of the Student Council last year. At commencement she won the prized "Ivy Leaf". Pam spent the summer in England and Ireland. In the former country, she was guest of SHEELAGH DODD of Southampton who was an exchange student from St. Mary's Hall, Brighton, and had lived with the Youngs in Chesterfield. Pam's older sister is SUSAN YOUNGS Gallino ('61).

MARGARET PERRY, now at Roanoke College, won last year's Henry Yutz Award for service in the Chapel.

ELLEN ZWIRNER attends Marjorie Webster Junior College in Washington, D.C.

All members of this class are attending college. Together they captured a total of 49 college acceptances.

Souvenir Plates

Chapel plates are in shorter and shorter supply. If you wish to own one, order now.

When purchased at the school, the price is $4. By mail there is a charge of an additional $1 to cover cost of packaging, postage and insurance.

Engagements

DIANE HIGHAM, ('57), is engaged to Lt. (jg) James Craig Warrick, USNR. The wedding is planned for May. Diane teaches in Hamilton Township having graduated from Trenton State College. Her fiance, an alumnus of Rider College, is associated with Peat, Marwick Mitchell in Newark while earning a master's degree in business education at Seton Hall University.

CHAPIN SMITH, ('60), of Princeton will be married in the summer to Donald Ray Blair of Nutley, N. J. Chapin is a graduate of Moravian College, Bethlehem, Pa., and Mr. Blair is an alumnus of Muhlenburg College, Allentown, Pa.

JOAN HELEN WRIGHT, ('59), and Willis H. Burkhardt of Mount Ephraim, N. J., are engaged. Joan is an alumna of Marjorie Webster Junior College. The prospective bridegroom attended Gettysburg College. The wedding date has not been set.

The engagement of SYLVIA DALEY, ('62), to David E. Iannucci of Wayne, Pa., has been announced by her parents, the Rev. Canon and Mrs. C. Edward Daley of Moorestown, N. J. Sylvia is a junior at Cedar Crest College in Allentown, Pa., and her fiance attends Wesleyan University.

LYNN COANE, ('62), is the fiancee of Donald Peck of Lawrence, N. Y., a Harvard graduate. Lynn is a junior at Boston University. No date has been set for the wedding.

SHARON P. REILLY, ('63), will marry James T. Baughman Jr., of Murrysville, Pa., at a date to be announced. Sharon is a sophomore at Thiel College and her fiance, who graduated from Thiel in 1964, teaches at Greenville, Pa., Junior High School.

SUSAN MARIE THORN, ('62), a junior at Beaver College, is engaged to William F. Doyle of Haddonfield, N. J., a senior at Mount St. Mary's College, Emmitsburg, Md.

ISABEL SANDRA MALOR, ('62), of Beverly, has not yet set the date of her marriage to Leslie Wilson of Alden, Pa.

PAMELA YOUNGS, ('64), will be married to Edwin Charles Runyon of Brielle but no date has been set for the wedding. Pam is a freshman at Mary Baldwin College, Staunton, Va. The romance began several years ago when Pam was first at St. Mary's and her now-fiance was a student at Admiral Farragut Academy in Pine Beach, N. J. Reciprocating Glee Club concerts and dances sparked the romance.

Marriages

The marriage of MARY LOUISE HARNISCHFEGER ('57) to Albert W. Johnson 3d, of Roaring Spring, Pa., was celebrated on Nov. 28 in St. Stephen's Church, Beverly. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, rector and SMH chaplain, and the Rev. Robert P. Varley, former rector and former SMH chaplain, officiated. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Harnischfeger (ELIZABETH JONES, '31) and the granddaughter of the late Franklin Jones Jr., long-time trustee and treasurer of St. Mary's. A bridesmaid was JOAN GALE, ('61). "Weesie" graduated also from Green Mountain College and Columbia University's Nursing School. Her husband is an alumnus of Pennsylvania State University and the University of Pennsylvania Law School. The couple are living in Roaring Springs.

SUSAN WILLMARTH YOUNGS ('61) of Chesterfield, N. J., was married on Jan. 2 to Samuel James Gallino of Trenton by the Rev. Cooper Nace, pastor of the Bordentown Methodist Church. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's parents with PAMELA YOUNGS ('64) serving as her sister's maid of honor. The couple are living at 24 Parkside Avenue, Trenton. Susan's father, William Youngs, is a trustee of St. Mary's.

KATHERINE ANN HAWKES HUTTON ('59) became the bride of Charles Enzer Tweedy 3d on June 27 in All Saints Episcopal Church, Fallsington, Pa. A reception was held on the lawn of her parents' home, "Shadyside," on the banks of the Delaware above Bristol, Pa. Among her attendants were ALICE COLLINS ('61) of Moorestown and Alice Berger, a former student, of Columbus. FRANCES MULFORD, ('59), of Beverly served as maid of honor. St. Mary's was very much in evidence. Among those spotted by your reporter were Mr. and Mrs. Slater, Miss Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Mulford, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Knoll, Mr. and Mrs. John Collins, CAROLINE KERLIN ('62), JOANNE DEITZ Hochman ('59), and ANNE CRAMER Hoover ('59). And there were many others that now escape us. The bride's mother is a former valued trustee of St. Mary's. The Tweedys are living at 49-10 Revere Road, Drexelbrook, Drexel Hill, Pa.

BARBARA LEFFERTS, ('60), of Bristol was another of last summer's brides. We do not know the date of her wedding but her bridegroom is Lt. Thomas Clark Moore of Maplewood, N. J. Both Barbara and her husband graduated from the University of Delaware.

IVY LEAVES made an enormous boo-boo last year. MARY JANE SEIFERT ('58) is now Mrs. Frederick Buenzle of Warren Street, Edgewater Park, Beverly. The error in her new name and address can be attributed to a misleading Christmas card.

The marriage of CONSTANCE HELEN MICHAELS ('59), of Trenton to Philip H. Shore of Woodbridge, N. J., took place on July 26 in the Princeton Inn. MARLENE GROSS ('58) was maid of honor. The couple are living in Metuchen, N. J., but we lack the street address.

It was a double wedding for MARGERY COHEN ('58) and her sister, CYNTHIA COHEN ('60) of Morrisville, Pa. They were married on August 23 in Adath Israel Synagogue, Trenton, to Robert Morton Coen and Seth David Rosen respectively. Margery's husband is a candidate for a PhD degree at Northwestern University and Mr. Rosen attends the George Washington University Law School. How about addresses, girls?

PATRICIA McCORKLE ('60) and Ronald P. Beede of Youngstown, Ohio, were married on August 1 in St. James Episcopal Church, Bristol, Pa. Both Patty and her husband are graduates of Thiel College. They are living in the Camelot Apartments in Levittown, Pa.

Paris, France, was the setting for the wedding of ANN BOND ('61) and William Harris on June 17. Ann was graduated in January, 1965, from Middlebury College where her husband is a professor of Greek. They are living in Middlebury, Vt.

RUTH ANN LAGER ('56) is now Mrs. John Carroll Worth of Florence, N. J. The couple were married on December 5 in Grace-St. Paul's Church, Trenton, of which Ruth Ann's father is rector. Dr. Lager is a former trustee of St. Mary's. The couple are living in Florence.

On June 20 LYNN KNOWLES, ('57), of Crosswicks, N. J., was married to Victor Lee Saxe. The ceremony took place in the Beverly Presbyterian Church. Mrs. George F. Cramer Jr. (SUE KNOWLES, '58) was her sister's matron of honor. The couple are living at Wynnewood Acres, Pemberton, N. J. Lynn, who was graduated from Albright College, teaches "home ec" in Pemberton Township High School where her husband is an industrial arts teacher.

NANCY GRAY, ('58), became Mrs. Ralph Dutton Woodruff on June 6 in St. Mary's Church, Burlington. Mr. Woodruff is a senior at Jefferson Medical College. Please, Nancy, send us an address.

Our good wishes go to all these lovely brides and their husbands.

Carriages

Most belatedly, we have learned of the birth of a daughter to GWENDOLYN SNOVER Scott, '62. The baby was born on Dec. 16, 1963.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schlosser (VICKI GUTSTEIN, '56) of Takoma Park, Md., have a daughter, Stacey Lynn, born on Aug. 24.

We know that Mr. and Mrs. Richard Salzmann (MARTY DWIER, '58) had a baby born in April, 1964, but we don't know if it was a boy or a girl.

The Edwin Olsens (SUE PROBASCO, '59) of Slidell, La., have a year old son, Eric Tyler, who was born on April 17, 1964. Is that enough address, Sue, or do we need more?

A second daughter, Margaret Evelyn, was born on Oct. 5 to Mr. and Mrs. Pierre J. Lair (MARGARET SIEGRIST, '56). The Lairs live in Apartment 6-E, 442 East 20th St., New York City--that's in Stuyvesantown.

Mr. and Mrs. Murray A. Lampert (MAXINE ROSENTHAL, '49) of 84 Mason Drive, Princeton, announced the birth of their second child, David Alan, on April 17, 1964.

Mr. and Mrs. Orson H. Mabey Jr., (MARTHA ANN RICE, '47) announced the birth of a son, Orson Jr., on April 26, 1963.

It's a boy for Mr. and Mrs. Barry Fernandez (ELIZABETH DORSETT, '61). Barry Jr., now nearly a year old, lives with his parents in the Knoxville Trailer Court, King's Highway, Knoxville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Philip Bonnet (JUDITH MAY EVANS, '62) announce the birth of a son David, on March 15, 1965.

Congratulations to all the Papas, Mamas, girls and boys!

Former Students

RUTH ELANE HAND will be married on June 26 to Richard J. Wagner of Essex, Md.

SALLEE E. HORHOVITZ became the bride of Nelson R. Lipshutz on August 3. Sallee graduated from Bryn Mawr College and her husband was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. The couple are living in Chicago, Ill., while Mr. Lipshutz studies for a doctorate in physics at the University of Chicago.

Princeton University Chapel was the scene on January 2 of the marriage of DONNA LEE FIRTH of Trenton to Frank Szabo, also of Trenton. Donna's husband is a Princeton alumnus.

MERLE PALMERE was married last Summer to Gilbert Van Houten Jr. of Suffern, N.Y. The ceremony took place in Grace-St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Trenton, and the couple honeymooned on the West Coast. They will live in Manhattan, Kan., while Mr. Van Houten completes his military service at Fort Riley.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of RITA JESTER (Bunty) to Captain Charles Bronston Jones Jr., United States Army Medical Corps. The wedding is planned for August.

LINDA HUBLEY PLATT, formerly of Edgewater Park, was married in February, 1964, to Charles George Parry of Moorestown in a ceremony performed in Beverly Hills, Calif.

Although she did not graduate from St. Mary's Hall, there was no more loyal "daughter of St. Mary's" than Mrs. Frank S. Katzenbach Jr., (NATALIE McNEAL). Mrs. Katzenbach's death on Christmas Eve followed a long illness.

For many years a member of the board of trustees of St. Mary's, Mrs. Katzenbach was untiring in her work for the school. She raised funds, oversaw repairs and improvements and gave abundantly of her store of sound common sense. The school will always be in her debt and those who had the good fortune to know her personally will always treasure her dry wit and her staunch friendship.

Mrs. Katzenbach, widow of State Supreme Court Justice Frank Katzenbach, was the mother of the late Mercer County Judge Frank S. Katzenbach 3d. She is survived by a daughter, Floy Katzenbach, and a sister, Mrs. George Hughes (ETHEL MCNEAL, '98) and nieces who are also graduates of St. Mary's. Our sympathy goes to them.

U. S. Attorney General Nicholas B. Katzenbach is a nephew.

Former Faculty

Miss Florence Lukens Newbold, SMH headmistress 1940-52, was seriously injured in an automobile accident that occurred in October and was hospitalized at the Bryn Mawr Hospital.

We rejoice that she has recovered and is able to resume her active and useful life.

Miss Newbold's address is Yubas Avenue, Burlington.

Katherine Steel Renninger of Newtown, Pa., was awarded the Elizabeth Pratt Memorial Award for a painting at an oil exhibition held in the winter at the Pen and Brush Club in New York City. Mrs. Renninger, a former art teacher at St. Mary's, was also represented in an exhibit held in March at the National Arts Club in New York by the National Society of Painters in Caseins.

Miss Evelyn Hayden, former English teacher, was married on June 27 to Ken Pipenberg, a research engineer with the duPont Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Roger Test (Mrs. Test was our music director) have moved to Wingate, N. C. Mr. Test will teach in a junior college.

Young Alumnae Return At Xmas

Young alumnae a-plenty, and a few not-so-young, attended the Chirstmas Mystery.

Here's a partial list, sans classes and, frequently, without married names, too:

And seated at the organ, playing for the entire service, was none other than an alumna, GINGER SHAW, '57.

CUM LAUDE Chapter Instituted at SMH

In a service held on March 19 in The Chapel of the Holy Innocents, St. Mary's Hall was granted a chapter by the national Cum Laude Society. The charter, presented by Theodore Hughes, regent for this area, was accepted by Mrs. Slater and an address was made by Miss Marjorie Darling, director of admissions of Beaver College.

Mrs. Slater, who will serve as chapter president, then conferred pins and scrolls of membership on charter members. These honor students of the six preceding graduating classes were MARLENE GROSS '58; MARY JENNESS, '59; GERTRUDE SCOTT and SANDRA SMITH, '61; JOANNE COOPER, '62; JEANNETTE SMITH and BEVERLY RHAWN, '63; and ANNE HERMAN, '64.

Faculty members elected to membership are Mrs. Ephraim Mulford, who will be chapter secretary, and Mrs. Margaret Sharp.

Next were inducted Miss Frances Taylor and Miss Dorothy Cathell to honorary memberships. This makes Miss Taylor's second membership in the order for she first became one when on the faculty of the Albany Academy, Albany, Ga.

Three members of this year's graduating class were elected, Sandra Alves, Martha Mulford and Bonnie Warren.

The alumnae salute all those who have contributed to this academic recognition for St. Mary's--administration, faculty and students.

Alumna To Wed SMH Alumnus

Deserving a special story all to itself is that of the engagement and approaching marriage of two St. Mary's Hall graduates. Undoubtedly, this is the first such event.

KATHERINE JOANNE COOPER, daughter of Judge and Mrs. Albert Cooper Jr., of Trenton, will be married on June 19 to JAY FORMAN LAPIN, son of Dr. and Mrs. Louis P. Lapin of Bordentown.

Joanne was graduated from St. Mary's in 1962 and is now a junior at Mt. Holyoke College. Jay graduated from the eighth grade of St. Mary's before going to The Peddie School. He is now a pre-med junior at Yale.

We haven't heard where the wedding will take place but the St. Mary's Chapel DOES seem to be an appropriate setting!

ondas--with good food and handsome horses performing?

For the benefit of those who have not attended, let us tell you how to find the Helis Estate. We want you to come and be converted, too.

Have fun--and help the St. Mary's Hall fund.

Only one graduate rode in last year's horse show, sad to relate. That was Mrs. Lester Jones (DIANE BETHEL, '61).

Of special interest to alumnae are winners of trophies given by the Society of Graduates and by the Philadelphia Chapter. The society's trophy given in the open hunter class, was won by Sandy Anderson riding Prince Gladwyne. Herman Schmidt and his daughter, Dolores, of Huntingdon Valley were awarded the chapter trophy for their "family class" riding. In second place were the Gearren family of Bordentown, Jack, Candy and Michael, all students at St. Mary's.

10th HORSE SHOW SET FOR MAY 14 AT HELIS ESTATE

St. Mary's tenth annual Horse Show is scheduled for May 14 at the Helis Estate in Jobstown, N.J. The gala event is a focus of efforts of students, parents, faculty, trustees, administration, alumnae and friends.

Each year the entries are more exciting, the riding better. Each year everyone is friendlier and the day more fun. Each year the money raised to benefit St. Mary's is greater.

Among the many entries will be a number of students and a sprinkling of alumnae. In one class, for the Principal's Trophy, only St. Mary's students may compete. The Society of Graduates presents one trophy and set of ribbons each year.

Besides the riding events, there are ponies to ride for the youngsters, food booths for the hungry and a number of novelties for those who like to roam about.

The Helis Estate is situated on Route No. 537 (The Old Monmouth Road) about three miles east of Route No. 206. And a beautiful place, it is, to spend a day.

All who have clamored for a Sunday observance of Founder's Day will have a chance this year to prove themselves. Better show up on April 24.

Program Announced For Founder's Day

Come ye to the Hall!

Come anytime, but especially come on Founder's Day (see the enclosed pre-stamped addressed return postcard).

The committee on arrangements has planned the day mindful of the complaints of many working alumnae who have bemoaned their inability to attend on week-days.

There will be two highlights of the program: a talk by Dr. Kenneth Prescott, director of the New Jersey State Cultural Center, and the new gymnasium which will be virtually completed by April 24.

Dr. Prescott will discuss the center and how it can be used by groups and individuals. The gymnasium---it is hoped---will be open for inspection by visiting alumnae and their guests.

Please send your reservations NOW.

Diocesan Family

Not since the 20's when Harriet Matthews, daughter of our Bishop Paul Matthews, was a student at St. Mary's has there been a bishop in the diocese of New Jersey with daughters attending the school.

Now, once again, a bishop in our diocese has daughters and two of them are students at St. Mary's.

The Rt. Rev. Albert Van Duzer, newly consecrated bishop suffragan, is the father of Lynn, a senior, and Gayle, a junior.

We welcome the re-activated association with the diocesan family!

Burlington College Will Expand With New School, New Building

One cannot enter St. Mary's now-a-days without being charged with the excitement investing the old school. There's a tingle of anticipation in the air.

Part of the excitement is visual---Just look at the new gym nearing completion! See that beautiful soccer field rolling out on the old Fairholm property!

Some of the excitement is auditory---that hammering on third floor Doane gives promise of new quarters being fitted up for the art room and other facilities that now are located on second floor Scarborough.

And some of the excitement comes from knowing...that Robert Kingsley as he strides through the corridors is here to help set up Doane Academy that will be a reality in September.

Mr. Kingsley, retired headmaster of Chestnut Hill Academy is acting head master of the proposed new academy. He is advising on curriculum, interviewing for the faculty, testing and enrolling students and helping with the selection of a headmaster for the new school.

Doane Academy will be a coordinate school with St. Mary's Hall, both operating under "The Board of Trustees of Burlington College." At first, Doane will comprise grades 6 through 9, but a new grade will be added yearly until a full upper school is established. Boys below sixth grade will continue to be accommodated at St. Mary's in a co-educational program.

The new school will have its own classrooms (to be situated for several years on the second floor of Scarborough Hall), its own faculty; its own side of the gymnasium building (which is designed to house the two schools). Boys will also have their own complete country-day-school schedule of sports.

They will share with St. Mary's girls the bus service, the art and music departments (with their own glee club), the auditorium and the chapel.

When Bishop Doane established St. Mary's Hall in 1837, it was considered a bold move. Girls schools were few and were believed by many to be a needless extravagance. Time has proved that the good bishop was right in his thinking that "to educate a boy is to educate a man; to educate a girl is to educate an entire family."

Yet Bishop Doane was a firm believer in education for all and hoped that Burlington College would carry on his ideas in education for men., as St. Mary's is continuing to carry on his belief in education for women. In restoring a boys school to "Burlington College," the board of trustees is acknowledging its debt to Bishop Doane's advanced thinking in the field of education.

LAST CALL FOR NEW ADDRESSES

A number of alumnae are in for a jolt.

This will be the last IVY LEAVES, or other communication from St. Mary's Hall, that they will receive.

Who will be on this list of non-receivers? Why all who did not trouble to return the postcards sent in the winter for confirmation of addresses.

But the large number who DID reply will continue as before to receive all mailings. And the large number was both astonishing and gratifying. Better than 75% sent back their answers.

Some of those from whom we did not hear are doubtless dead. We are sure, too, that some persons never received cards owing to incorrect addresses. Yet there are many for whom these excuses do not hold. Their reason for not replying was worse --- indifference.

It seems, therefore, to be no longer feasible to carry in our files names that cannot be reached or are uninterested in news of St. Mary's or of their fellow alumnae. It is too expensive, also. Therefore, to all such we reluctantly and regretfully say "Farewell."

* * * *

P.S. The above may sound hard-hearted. Actually, we are "soft." Just ask for a reinstatement, and you will see how easy it is to be re-listed.

A listing of all known alunmae and their addresses is shortly to be prepared. It will be mailed to everyone whose name is listed.

Is your name (and address) included?

CLASS NOTES

'85 Our "oldest known alumna", Mrs. A. Saunders Morris (ELIZABETH WOOD), died the day after Christmas. Until very recently, Mrs. Morris had attended chapter meetings in Philadelphia. More recently, area alumnae had visited her in her home. We shall miss her.

'87 We have arbitrarily awarded Miss BLANCHE SMITH of 61 W. 10th St., New York City, the palm for being our oldest living graduate of record. True, there may be older alumnae living or members of earlier classes, but Miss Smith is the sole member of the earliest class from which we have had a response in our recent appeal for information about our graduates. Long may she continue her interest in St. Mary's.

'96 We sorrowfully record the death of Mrs. Tazewell T. Thomas (MARIE VAIL SPINOZA) and extend our sympathy to her daughter, Mrs. Thomas Mumford, one-time trustee of St. Mary's. We do not know the date of Mrs. Thomas's death.

We have also been notified of the death of Mrs. S.C. Tomlinson (EUNICE HUNTINGTON) of Woodbury, Conn., without any other information.

'98 Mrs. Otto Eichel (MABEL JACQUES), originator of the annual Book Fair in her adopted home-town of Langhorne, Pa., continues to head that very successful undertaking which not only raises money for the town library but also presents a number of cultural programs for the community.

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. John Cronmiller (MAY WILLIAMS), a loyal alumna who never failed to attend meetings of the Philadelphia Chapter and who was always interested in St. Mary's.

'06 It is sad to list the death of Mrs. H. W. S. Gehrke (EMILIE ZEHN of Fleetwood, Pa.

'08 Word came too late for last year's IVY LEAVES of the death of Mrs. Spencer L. Trotter (CAROLINE M. WANBAUGH). The date was not given us.

'10 Our faithful Mrs. A. Herbert Allen (FLORENCE TEN BROECK) sends a number of items. She reports that Mr. and Mrs. E.B. Showell (GERTRUDE CHAPMAN) visited their California daughter and her family for Christmas.

Mrs. Norman L. Jamesons (MIRIAM BISLER) of Aberdeen Road, Wayne, Pa., Christmased in Denver with her daughter, and Mrs. Leigh Gerstenberger (MARJORIE HOWE) has been in Pittsburgh with her son and his family.

As for Mrs. Allen, she flew off to Kauaii, Hawaii, on February 1 to spend several months. Hawaii seems to be Mrs. Allen's second home, isn't she lucky?

'12 Good news is pleasant to spread. We have learned in a round-about way that the husband of Mrs. Clifford Morley Jr. (HELEN MAC QUOID) is in greatly improved health after years of invalidism. He can now walk again and "navigate by himself."

'13 From Mrs. Benjamin Eshleman (BALLOCH RICHARDS) comes a breathless note "enjoy living in town--and I have been travelling a great deal-off to Florida now for a month and then to Sicily, up the Italian coast to Rome, Florence, Venice and then the French Riviera--home early June. Please excuse haste and scrawl." Who wouldn't scrawl in a hurry to be off on such a schedule?

"A dream come true" is how MARGARET MERRITT describes the trip she and her sister, Eleanor, took last Summer to England. They flew on a flight chartered by the National Society of Magna Carta Dames to attend the ceremonies attendant on the Great Charter's 700th anniversary. After ten thrilling days in England (including being present for an installation service of Knights of the Garter at St. George's Chapel, Windsor,) the Merritts toured the continent before returning home in July aboard the Queen Mary.

Margaret tells of lunching in October with Mrs. B. Holloway Lewis (BEATRICE HOLLOWAY, '15) in her lovely apartment. "Reminiscenses filled the conversation. Beatrice looked as attractive as ever."

Membership . . .

The Society of Graduates has applied for membership for its president in the Alumnae Presidents' Council of Independent Secondary Schools.

"It is expected that the membership will prove of value in helping us to reach alumnae and to meet their interests," says Miss Heyl. "When persons meet to discuss kindred problems a cross-fertilization of ideas takes place that helps everyone."

'14 Mrs. Ernest G. Potter (MARION G. GALLUP) attended the 1965 DAR Continental Congress in Washington and while there spent an afternoon with ANNE PENDLETON, a sister of ADELINE PENDLETON Schaeffer, who attended St. Mary's before going on to graduate at National Cathedral. Mrs. Potter hopes "to get together soon" with Mrs. Frederick Laidlaw (ISABEL EMERSON), whose husband is an English professor at Penn State University.

'15 A nice note from Mrs. Theodore D. Palmer (MARGARET E. OCHS), 500 Randy Lane, Fort Myers Beach, Fla., 33931, says "Thought the Class of 1915 might be interested to know that three of us still keep in close touch." Mrs. Hamilton Albaugh (MARGARET ROYER) and Mrs. Edward W. Burnham (ANNE FRENCH) were expected to visit her in February. Not in her letter, but noted in the New York Times last August, was the death of Mrs. Palmer's mother, Mrs. Milton B. Ochs of Chattanooga, whose late husband was a member of the famous publishing family. We send our sympathy.

'16 It has been many years since we have heard of CATHERINE WATSON who retired in June '64 after 27 years of teaching English at Miss Porter's School in Farmington, Conn. She writes in part "My teaching was interesting and rewarding but since then I have had wonderful PERSONAL experiences." For nearly a year, she toured Europe, the near East and Japan on what she calls "twenty-five years of vacation rolled in one, for, except for a Sabbatical in '61, I had not taken a long trip since a European expedition in '26." For future reference, she has 1200 pictures! What wouldn't Mrs. Fearnley have given to have some of them for her travel classes? Miss Watson counts as one of the great bonuses of her self-planned trip the meeting of wonderful people. Now she wants to read and study more about such things as mosaics.

'18 The names of two members of this class will be remembered on Founder's Day. They are Mrs. Thomas Brown Rudd (HELEN F. NEILSON) of Clinton, N.Y., and Mrs. M. Price Lee (MARTHA PRICE) of Ridley Park, Pa. We list their deaths with sorrow.

'21 Mrs. Leland Goddard (EMILY WOOLLEY) has great fun directing "The Key West Players." Emily's artistic ability also finds vent in decorating the Episcopal church for feast days. She adds to her note "and I have returned to college to boot."

'23 Mrs. Edwin F. Celette (ELOISE RIPLEY) is happy that her daughter Edith is once more in this country, doing guidance work in the Detroit school system and within 7 or 8 hours driving distance from the Celettes' home in North Hornell, N.Y. Her son, Ted, and his family now live in Brussels where Ted is in charge of production for Monsanto in Europe. Last Summer, Eloise and her husband joined the junior Ripleys for a trip up the Rhine, across the Alps to Switzerland. As Eloise puts it "If you have never traveled with children and grandchildren" (she has two, aged 11 and 8) "put it at the top of your list. It turns a staid vacation trip into a circus." On the way home, the senior Ripleys stopped off in Iceland briefly to visit friends. "How I thought of Mrs. Fearnley and our St. Mary's travel courses!"

We hear that the Ivins Jessups's (SALLY TATTERSALL) son, Davis, is doing graduate work in psychology and think Sally should be proud.

'24 We have been notified of the death of Mrs. William West Gamwell (MARY BENNETT) of Middletown, N.J. Mary's mother and aunts all were graduates of St. Mary's and now the long line of the Hartshorne family has been broken.

There is news for Mrs. F.W. Fisher (FREDERIKA S. WEEKS) who has bemoaned the fact that she can't come to Founder's Day, saying "I am a working and self-supporting woman." This year, Freddie, we're putting you to the test--Founder's Day will be on a Sunday. Lest readers don't know it, Freddie is living at 60 E. 94th St., N.Y.C. 10028.

'28 Church work plays an important part in the life of ELIZABETH DURELL. She is president of the Episcopal Church Women at Christ Church, North Conway, N.H., and is diocesan director of the Church Periodical Club. Elizabeth was also choreographer for the Fryeburg, Me., Academy's production of "My Fair Lady." She says that she and SUSAN BRODHEAD ('27) keep in touch with each other and then gratifying adds "I always enjoy Ivy Leaves." Thanks, Elizabeth.

'33 Mrs. Frank T. Devlin Jr. (MARY I. BRIGHT), former president of the Philadelphia Chapter and a former member of the executive committee of the Society of Graduates, died in May after a brief illness. She is survived by her husband, a son, Thomas, and a daughter, Roberta. To them we send our heart-felt condolences. Mary had taught for many years in the New Jersey School for the Deaf and more recently in the Pennsylvania School for the Deaf in Philadelphia.

'34 Word of the death of Mrs. Bergson (GENE EWART) of Collingswood, N.J., has been received.

'36 With her enthusiastic approach to all she undertakes, Mrs. Gordon D. Griffin (SALLIE LONDON FELL) has recently become a member of the newly appointed Historic Sites Commission for Princeton.

'38 The John Routiers (BETTY BROWN) moved from Rochester last October, in time to escape the heavy snows of the winter. Their new home is 1451 E. Hartley Circle, Deltona, Fla., and we wager they like it better under that good old Florida sun than in the cold of western New York State. Betty Ann Routier graduated in June from a business college and has a job near her new home. Son John, 17 years old, and Amy Lou, 12, go to school in Deltona.

"I'm just a housewife," says Mrs. Leslie J. MacDonald (SARAH ELIZABETH SALISBURY). Sarah's husband teaches math and science. They have three sons, the eldest entering college and the youngest in grade five.

'37 A general invitation has been issued by Mrs. Frederick English (JULIA CARLL) to any alumnae visiting Princeton on "college tours" to come to see her at her home, 290 Prospect Avenue. The Englishes moved to Princeton several years ago from Rochester. Their daughter, Judy, is a senior at Monmouth College where she is majoring in elementary education.

'39 Last summer your editor wrote to Modern Learning Aids in New York City to order a film for a program she was arranging in Trenton. To her astonishment, instead of a formal business reply, she received a note from Mrs. Winfield Allen (CATHERINE PHELAN) -- "Hi Bettie: Your letter has been sent to me from the New York office because I am in charge of MLA in N.Y., N.J. and New England. I've been with it for four years and love it." She then wrote briefly of her family--her son, "Wynn", attends Emerson College and had just had his first story accepted by "Yankee." Cathy is a high school junior and anticipating an art career. Says "Kitty," "Wynn Sr. and I think this is our 'ease' period of life--but we have said that with each. Hope to get to SMH some fine day."

'40 Mrs. Edwin Siner (ANN (PUMYEA) did yeoman work urging her classmates to return for their 25th reunion last Founder's Day. And they did return, almost 50% of 'em. Ann says "Others would have come but for distance or family illnesses." She continued that for those who came back "Founder's Day was a rewarding experience. We had a wonderful time 'catching up' and passing pictures around. And, believe it or not, we were able to recognize each other. But the extra dividend for us all was the visit with Miss Taylor."

Mrs. Phillip C. Antrim (NANCY ECKMAN) lives at 301 Wayne Ave., Cinnaminson, N.J., with her husband and five children. Nancy is curriculum director of the Adult School and board member of the County YWCA. A busy life.

The new address of Mrs. W.A. Bates Jr. (HELEN BARBER) is Pine Valley R.D., N.Y.

The address for Mrs. John A. Spencer (ELEANOR SHOEMAKER) is 23 East Avenue, Swedesboro, N.J. Shoey teaches kindergarten. Her son is 12 years old.

Guess what MARION BURNS is doing in Boulder, Colo. (Box No. 380)? She's training dogs and running dog teams. Marion teaches obedience and confirmation. "If someone had told me 25 years ago that I would be doing this, I wouldn't have believed them. If any classmate comes this way, I hope she will come to see me."

1605 Oxford Rd., Charlottesville, Va., is the address of the Channing W. Daniels (EARLENA MORTON). The Daniels' children are Betsy, 17; Kathy, 14, and Chan, 10. Earlena is active in her church and at the hospital, and loves to golf and fish.

Mrs. Robert Edwards (LILLIAN GIRTON) "hasn't changed much." She lives at 206 W. Park Ave., Langhorne, Pa. Three children, church work, Great Books Discussions and bridge are her hobbies.

Mrs. Alexander P. Grice 3rd (BARBARA ANN SPEACE) was another Virginian who came for the reunion. Her home is 1443 Graydon Place, Norfolk 7.

About Mrs. Robert Merk (EMILY VAN SCIVER), Ann writes, "She phoned me from her home 1352 Don Kirk St., Los Altos, Calif., and it was so astonishing to get a call from California that it took me awhile to realize I actually was talking to Em. She has a daughter, seven years old, I think. And she would love to have us visit her when we are in her adopted state."

MARY ELIZABETH LEEDOM, an RN, lives at 535 E. Ridgewood Ave., Ridgewood, N.J. At last she has her very own organ! Her other avocations are oil painting, needlepoint and sewing.

Until June Mrs. Jewett Orson Phillips Jr. (MARGARET GOOCH) may be addressed at Quarters A, Naval Training Center, Great Lakes, Ill. Her permanent base is 2422 Tracy Place, N.W., Washington, D.C. Margo says that despite going all over the world with her Navy husband and 14 year old son, she handles her PR firm "with assists from loyal competitors when I was out of the country. We spent two marvelous years in Hawaii and two years in Italy when my husband was in charge of underwater research training for NATO."

Volunteer work in the office and library of a private school keep Mrs. J. Franklin Pierson (BETTY KUNZI) busy. She has two sons, Jay, 17, and Guy, 11, and a daughter, Joy, 7. The Piersons live at 241 Fisher Place, Princeton, N.J.

A practical nurse, PRESLEY ANN RHODES lives in Sherman, Conn. Riding, swimming and training dogs are her recreations.

No address changes were reported by Mrs. Edmund Sawicki (LILLIAN SCHNECK) and Mrs. Donald Scott (JEANNE A. LEACH). They live at 41 E. Main St., Freehold, N.J., and 1285 Old York Road, Hartsville, Pa., respectively.

Fearnley Awards . . .

Upon nomination by students, the St. Mary's faculty elected the following students to receive the Fearnley Awards offered by the Society of Graduates for "Christian citizenship."

Award winners, announced at the Mystery dinner by Miss Hyle are: Ninth grade, Linda McMillan; tenth grade, Cheryl Podkul; eleventh grade, Kathryn Newberry, and twelfth grade, Lynn Van Duzer.

These girls, together with winners of the spring term awards will be treated to a theatre party.

Girl Scouts, Boy Scouts, Church School, PTA, League of Women Voters and other community affairs keep the William J. Seamans (CATHERINE E. CAPOSSI) busy these days. They have three sons and a daughter.

No word of Mrs. John Egner (HETHA BROWN), but Ann knows her address is 4 Nassau Drive, St. Louis 24, Mo.

The whereabouts of ANN MARGUERITE PEARSON are completely unknown.

JEAN ALLER, addressed at 1068 Stuyvesant Ave., Trenton, doesn't answer, yet her mail has not been returned.

Ann--and IVY LEAVES--wants to hear of them.

FRANCES (PATRICIA) BROOKS is married to Robert L. Davis. She and her husband live at 317 Lisle Ave., Falls Church, Va.

And as for Ann, herself. Her new address is 4125 Hain Drive, Lafayette Hill, Pa. As assistant to the headmistress of Springside School, Philadelphia, she is a busy lady but, as a busy person, she found time to tackle this what-she-says-was rewarding job of rounding up her classmates.

'41 Mrs. David C. S. Kline (KATHERINE HELWIG), a California resident for 15 years, re-visited St. Mary's in August for the first time in 20 years. She was pleased to see it maintaining its traditions and was happy to find it well cared for. Come again, Katherine!

'44 A brief note from Mrs. Robert E. Morrison (MARY NEWTON COX) happily reports that she and her husband have adopted a daughter, Lynn Dolan, four and one-half months old. Their adopted son, James is now four.

'45 Barbara Hiers (BARBARA WARNER) is now Mrs. Richard W. Dole Jr. We know she was married in Philadelphia on April 17,'65. All happiness to you, Barbara.

'46 Twelve-year old Douglas Davis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ridgway Davis (MARGARET MacDERMID) is a promising young musician, a clarinetist. Named No. 1 in music try-outs, he won a coveted place in the music school at Tanglewood and will attend there next summer. The Davis family lives in Storrs, Conn.

'47 From Mrs. J. Hansen Thomas (PEGGY FOX), Christiansted, St. Croix, Virgin Islands (P.O. Box 1088) comes a letter written "in the few moments before we go off sailing for the day. We have lived here for five years and love it. Our oldest son, Roger, 15, is a freshman at Middlesex School, Concord, Mass. Anderson, 14, is at St. Paul's School, Concord, N.H. They come home Christmas, Easter and all summer. I am a secretary with the only stockbroker on the islands. We have reduced our 'farm' animals --- the goat was stolen; the horses, sold. We now have only cats and dogs.

Mrs. Orson H. Mabey Jr. (MARTHA ANN RICE) reports two children, Orson 3rd, and Martha Marie.

'48 Mrs. Robert O. Benson (SALLY TAYLOR) gave a run-down in June on her children---Erik, 10 years old; Robbie, nine, Kristin, 5, and Karlyn, three. They are correspondingly older now, of course. "My latest hobby, besides my family, is the guitar," reports Sally. She also says she sees a lot of Mrs. Edward C. Weizer (DIANA DILATUSH), a neighbor in Summit.

Mrs. Lansing Smith (SHEILA WALSH) writes from Caracas, Venezuela, that when she visits her grandmother in Burlington it's always in the summer. "We wander over the campus, go in the chapel and walk along the riverbank---one of these days, we just may make it while school is in session. SMH is one of the wonderful periods in my life and our ties are strong." Sheila has twin sons, Bruce and Roger, aged 12. Her husband is with Firestone Inter-America and the family has lived in Caracas for eight years, "one of the most beautiful cities in the world," thinks Sheila who has been teaching fifth grade at the American school there for two years.

'49 I'm the only one of the 'Morrisville gang' left even vaguely in Central Jersey," writes Mrs. Murray Lampert (MAXINE ROSENTHAL). "And in those days I didn't even live in Morrisville -- my parents moved there in '50." The Lamperts, with Rachel born Sept. 26, '61, and David, April 17, '64, live on Mason Drive in Princeton.

Maxine ticks off the "old Morrisville gang," --Mrs. David Barlow (ANNE HARVITT), living in Massachusetts; Mrs. James Hogg (BETTY HARTMAN) in Jacksonville, Fla.; Mrs. Irvin E. Delbert Jr. (BARBARA DRUMMOND), in Fort Lauderdale, Fla.; Mrs. Theodore Swanson (NANCY MAURER), in La Habra, Calif.

We didn't know of Betty Hogg's move but hope she will send her new address.

To Mrs. Henry Huston Jr. (ELIZABETH McCARTHY) we owe an apology even though she sends forgiveness in advance. Betty writes "Am very proud of SMH! Would love to have info sent in printed in Grad. News which it never has been --but will forgive and forget!" So sorry but we'll try to improve. Send us a lot of news and try us out!

'50 ELEANORA McDONALD was married on May 1, 1965 to Daniel Fisher Worth 3rd in a ceremony performed in Zion Episcopal Church, Charles Town, W. Va. "Eleo" was attended by classmate Mrs. Steven Ausnit (ANNE PORGES) as maid of honor and Anne's daughters Christine and Suzanne, as flower girls. Mr. Ausnit was an usher. Eleo attended Mt. Holyoke after graduating from St. Mary's. She holds a bachelor's degree from West Virginia University and a master's from the University of Virginia. She also attended the University of Edinburgh in Scotland. Her husband is an alumnus of the University of Virginia with engineering and law degrees. He is associated with Doubleday and Company. The Worths will live in Millwood, Va. All good wishes, Eleo.

A second child named Ann Huntington was born on May 26, 1965, to Mr. and Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (SALLIE SIEGRIST). Their older child is Jonathon Wylie who will be three on May 30.

'52 Mrs. Edward Kidston (PHYLLIS SMITH) brought her children to St. Mary's for the Christmas Mystery. The Kidstons have moved from Ridgefield, Conn., to 35 Whipperpoorwill Road, Belle Mead, N.J.

The Donald Harman Andersons (JERRIE SUTFIN) and their two daughters, Monique, three, and Michelle, nearly one, live in California on the Bay Penisula south of San Francisco.

In a newsy letter from Mrs. Steve H. Gilman (MARY LOUISE DeNYSE) we learn that she and her family are "finally settled in Ocala, Fla. after nine years of medical school and residency training (in orthopedic surgery) for Steve. Our children are Steve, six; Linda, four; Dan, three, and Christina, one. Steve and Linda attend our Episcopal Church Day School here. It goes from kindergarten through the first six grades. I wish it were longer!" Gratifyingly, she added "Thank you for your efforts in continuing alumnae relations." Thank YOU, Mary Louise.

'54 ELEANOR FORSTER is living at 3623 Hamilton St., Philadelphia, while a teaching fellow at Penn. She is completing course credits for her doctorate and writing a dissertation on "Folklore." Ellie taught for two years after college and then spent several years in England. Welcome back! and come to see St. Mary's.

MARIA VITERI had her picture in the paper as a Red Cross social worker who was sent to the flood disaster area at Fort Wayne, Ind. Ordinarily attached to the Philadelphia office, Maria is gaining wide experience in helping those in trouble.

'55 It's a new address for the John A. Broadbooks (JANE TUCKER). They have moved to University Gardens, D-13, 125 Baxter Drive, Athens, Ga. Jane writes that her husband will study for his master's degree in landscape architecture and "I am looking forward to teaching in elementary school again."

From time-to-time we see Mrs. Arthur Smith 3rd (CONSTANCE PRICE) when she joins her husband at the Trenton Times Newspapers where he is a staff writer (and a con-frere of IVY LEAVES's editor). The Smiths live at 128 Voorhees Avenue, Pennington, N.J. and have two adorable daughters, Teresa Gail, who will be three on May 16, and Joan Margaret, born last July 31.

"We have lived in Rock Hill, S.C. for eight years," says Mrs. Donald E. Ross (FRANCES DAVIES). She may be addressed at P.O. Box 1041 -- zip code 29730. The Ross children are Robert, ten; Kim, nine, and Thomas eight months (as of Frances's January letter.) "When chores get me down," writes Frances, I think of the six happy years spent at the Hall. They go far to rejuvenating me." She adds a request for addresses of her classmates Connie Price (see above), VIRGINIA GUDIKUNST and ANN HOLLINGER, and inquires about her "little sister," MARGARET SIEGRIST (see below.)

Mrs. James Kenna (ANN LEE HOLLINGER) says succinctly "New babies, SIUSAIDH BRONWHYNN, 4-24-64, a girl, and COIN GRIOGAIR, a boy, 7-15-65.

Mrs. Russell Stobo (DAPHNE DILL) also reports a new baby, a daughter named Heather, born on October 27. The Stobos have a son, two and one half years old.

From Mrs. Thomas Clarke (JEAN VAN DYKE) comes word that she and her husband and their sons, Andrew, nearly seven; Philip, five, and David, going-on-three, are living in Tuxedo Park, N.Y. Tom is district manager for Techbuilt Homes of Cambridge Mass.

Jean also sends an address for Mrs. Marcus Wright (NANCY FULLER). It is Little Silver, N.J. Nancy has two daughers, Alex, almost five, and Heather, three and a half.

Orchids to . . Everyone who helped prepare this issue of IVY LEAVES. Particularly do we thank alumnae who have sent us news. . .the St. Mary's staff who were never too busy to check a date, verify a spelling or look up a figure. We also give advance thanks to those who will handle the arduous task of sealing, sorting, bundling and mailing the completed publication.

'56 VICKI WELLS has an apartment at 99 E. Second St. Moorestown, N.J. (Apt. D-13 in the Barberry Apartments.) She is a case worker in the Mount Holly office of the State Bureau of Children's Services.

Our deep sympathy goes to Mrs. Hugh McQuaid (BETTY BRYAN) whose husband died during the Christmas season after a long illness.

1st Lt. BARBARA MINCHIN, USAF flight nurse, has been assigned to a Continental Air Command unit at Portland, Ore.

Mrs. Edward Patterson (PATSY DECKER) was the only alumna to be a model in the annual luncheon and fashion show given in January at Cherry Hill Inn by the Parent-Faculty Association. Other models were mothers and students.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Schlosser (VICKI GUTSTEIN) and year-and-a-half daughter, Stacey, have moved to Bordentown where they may be addressed at Apt. G-2 of the Farnsworth Arms, 30 E. Union St.

A daughter, Elaine Ann, was a Christmas present for the Edward Winklers (CLAIRE STEINERT.) She joined big brother, Eddie, aged five.

After suffering through Manhattan's water shortages, blackout and strikes, the Pierre J. Lairs (MARGARET SIEGRIST) can hardly wait until mid-May when their new home should be ready for occupancy. Their address will be 18 Marigold Road, Somerset, N.J. (That's near New Brunswick.)

'57 On Dec. 18, SALLY ANN GARRISON was married to Benjamin Marvin Thomas 3rd of Towson, Md. The ceremony took place in the beautiful Towson Presbyterian Church with a reception held afterwards at Tall of the Fox in Timonium, Md. They will live at 334 Stevenson Lane, Towson. Sally Ann is a school nurse in a Baltimore High School and her husband teaches in the same school. At the wedding we glimpsed JUDITH PERINCHIEF, Mrs. Robert F. Morris (MARGARET FENIMORE) and Mrs. Mary Ann Royce (MARY ANN KEEN, '56). Peggy Morris says she and her husband will be moving back to this area before too long.

A daughter, Elizabeth Woodside, was born on Sept. 14 to Mr. and Mrs. Albert W. Johnson 3rd (MARY LOUISE HARNISCHFEGER). Congratulations, Weesie! Congratulations are also in order for grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Harnischfeger (BETSY JONES, '31).

The marriage of DIANE HIGHAM to James Craig Warrick took place on May 29 in St. James Episcopal Church, Trenton, and was followed by a reception held at the Princeton Inn. The Warricks are living in the Madison Arms Apartments, (Apt. 324) Rellim Drive, Old Bridge, N.J. All good wishes, Diane.

Did you know that Mr. and Mrs. Jon Earl Floria (CYNTHIA JOHNSON) had twin daughters, Judith and Janice, born in Sept. 1964? We're sorry to be so long in reporting the happy event. That makes three daughters for the Florias. Katherine Jean made her debut on Feb. 13, 1933. What fun they must all have together!

'58 Mr. and Mrs. George F. Cramer Jr. (SUSAN KNOWLES) of Hopewell, N.J. announce the birth of their third child, Douglas Bergen, on Oct. 10. Their other children are Lori and Geoffrey, And we hear that Douglas is as beautiful as his big brother and sister.

Our sympathy goes to Mrs. Robert M. Coen (MARGERY COHEN) and her sister, Mrs. Seth Rosen (CYNTHIA COHEN, '60) on the death in November of their charming mother, Mrs. Theodore Cohen.

Margery is living in Palo Alto, Calif., where her husband is an assistant professor of economics at Stanford. She does economic research at the Stanford Research Institute. "We adore California," says Margery, "and hope any of our friends who get to the San Franscisco area will call us."

Orchids of MARLENE GROSS, who graduated from Columbia University Law School, where she was a Stone Scholar, and passed her New Jersey State Bar Exams. We understand she is practicing law in Newark.

'59 We hear that Captain and Mrs. John B. Oliver (LINDA FINK) will probably return to the mainland this spring after having been stationed for several years at Schofield Barracks, Hawaii. The Olivers have a new daughter, named Amber Elise, but we don't know the date of her birth.

A son was born on July 30 to Captain and Mrs. Richard M. Hochman (JOANNE DEITZ) of Jacksonville, Ark. His name is James Miller.

Dr. and Mrs. Benjamin C. Olliff Jr. (MARIELLEN LEVITT) have announced the birth of a daughter, Alice, on August 6. She joins brother Scott. The Oliffs live at 4401 Reynolds Drive, Virginia Beach, Va.

Congratulations on all these parents and babies, too.

The Jack Fines (BETH DAVIS) have a new New York City address. It's 115 W. 25th street.

The marriage of JOAN HELEN WRIGHT of Burlington, to Ellis H. Burkhardt of Mt. Ephraim, N.Y. took place on June 12 in St. Stephen's Episcopel Church, Beverly, N.J. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, rector of the church and chaplain of St. Mary's Hall, performed the ceremony. After a reception held at the home of the bride's parents, the couple left on a Canadian wedding trip. They will live in Haddon Heights, N.J. Joan graduated from Marjarie Webster Junior College and her husband attended Gettysburg College.

'60 The William Biddle Bricks (HEDL DECKER) are settled in Wethersfield, Conn., at 14 Old Pepperidge Lane. Hedl is teaching and Bill is with The Travelers Insurance Company. Hedl graduated in June from Russell Sage College where she majored in social science and elementary education, and served as an editor of the campus yearbook.

We lack the date but we know that CHAPIN SMITH was married during the summer to Donald Ray Blair of Nutley. The ceremony was performed on the terrace of the Hun School in Princeton by the Rev. Rowland Cox, chaplain of Princeton University. Chapin graduated from Moravian College and her husband is a Muhlenberg College alumnus. Send us your address, please, Chapin.

Descendants . . .

Two lower school children have big St. Mary's backgrounds.

Jonathan MacCornack in third grade, and his sister, Katharine Griswold MacCornack, kindergartner, are the children of Mrs. James MacCornack (Elizabeth Seckel, '33) of 114 E. River Bank, Beverly, and granddaughter of Mrs. George T. Seckel (Ethel Spooner, an associate). Mrs. Warner D. Shelly (Katharine Seckel '24) is their aunt.

Welcome MacCornacks!

'61 St. Mary's Chapel was the scene of the November wedding of JEAN SCOTT to John Jay Cassen. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, the school chaplain, officiated, and Mrs. Bernard C. Fisk (ALICE COLLINS) was a bridesmaid. Mr. Cassen is a graduate of Franklin and Marshall College. The couple are living near Lawrenceville, N.J.

In August, ALICE COLLINS was married to Bernard Carter Fisk of New York and Green Farms, Conn., in Trinity Episcopal Church, Moorestown. JEAN SCOTT was maid of honor and a bridesmaid was CAROLINE KERLIN, '62. Following a reception at "Pheasant Fields," the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John S. Collins, the couple honeymooned in Hawaii. They are living in West Haven, Conn. Alice's father is a former trustee of St. Mary's. A recent note from Alice says she'd like to become active in the Society of Graduates.

We wish both girls much happiness and we also wish we had their exact addresses.

SUZANNE SHAW is teaching "phys ed" at the York, Pa., YWCA. She graduated in June from Boston-Bouve College of Tufts University.

The Class of 1961 holds the distinction of being the only one to furnish a faculty member for St. Mary's. TRUDI SCOTT, who graduated in June from Goucher College, now teaches science and music at the Hall. Trudi has taken the hurdle from student to teacher in a most graceful fashion!

SANDRA STODDART SMITH graduated and became engaged in 1965. She graduated in June from Vassar College with a degree in political science and is now a graduate student at the University of North Carolina. She says "Chapel Hill is just GREAT."

Her engagement has been announced to Robert Edmund Graf of Browns Mills, N. J., a senior at the University of Pennsylvania. Sandy's home address is 130 Prince St., Bordentown, N.J. for her father, the Rev. Canon Russell A. Smith, is now rector of Christ Church in Bordentown.

BETSEY SIEGRIST'S engagement was announced in November to Richard William Petri of West Seneca, N.Y. The wedding is planned for April 30 in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents, St. Mary's Hall, with the Rev. Randall J. Conklin officiating. The reception also will take place at St. Mary's. The couple will live temporarily in San Antonio, Tex.

DIANE WILSON sends us the news that a daughter, Heidi, was born on August 10, to Mr. and Mrs. Cameron P. Helmuth (BONNIE SWERMAN). The Helmuths' address is 5332 Cahuenga Boulevard, Apt. 8, North Hollywood, Calif.

SUSAN KAHN, who graduated from NYU in June after having majored in history and sociology, is a graduate student at Columbia University.

A June wedding is planned by NANCY E. WALTON. She will marry Joseph J. Plumeri 2d of Trenton. The prospective bridegroom is a senior at the College of William and Mary. All good wishes, Nancy.

MARTHA E. MC CLURE tells us that she is "working towards a BA in recreational leadership at the University of Washington in Seattle. "Expect to graduate in '66 or '67 and then go overseas if possible." Good luck, Marty.

We hear that JOAN GALE was married on November 12 to David C. Smith. The Smiths' address is 240 Highland Ave., Haddon Heights, N.J. (Apt. 4-B).

Congratulations to LINDA DAVIES who graduated in March from Pennsylvania State University after majoring in mathematics.

'62 In a ceremony performed in Grace Episcopal Church, Merchantville, on July 10, SYLVIA DALEY became the bride of David Iannucci. The Rev. Canon Albert Van Duzer (now Suffragan Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey) performed the ceremony. Sylvia graduated from Cedar Crest College and her husband is a student at Cornell University, in Ithaca, N.Y., where they are living.

When a St. Mary's alumna marries a St. Mary's alumnus THAT'S news. KATHERINE JOANNE COOPER was married on June 19, to JAY FORMAN LAPIN, in a ceremony performed in Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Trenton. Following a reception held at the Princeton Inn, the couple left for Nassau. They are living in Cambridge, Mass., where Jay is a student at the Harvard Law School. Joanne graduated from Mt. Holyoke College and Jay, after graduating from St. Mary's eighth grade, went on to Peddie. He is an alumnus of Yale University and a member of Phi Gamma Delta fraternity.

SUSAN THORN was married on December 20 to William H. Doyle of Haddonfield. The ceremony took place in the Church of Christ the King, Haddonfield, with a reception held at the Tavistock Country Club. Susan attended Beaver College and her husband was graduated from Mt. St. Mary's College.

The engagement of CATHIE MALISE to Thomas Z. Minehart

Announcement has been made of the marriage of BETTY ANN BATES to Emilio DeBlasio of Trenton on July 17 in Elizabeth City, N.C. Betty is employed by the N.J. Department of Education and her husband is with the Fab-Con Company. They live at 43 West Upper Ferry Road, Trenton.

'63 LINDA SHARLIN was married on August 29 to Philip Kenneth Bender in a ceremony held at the Hotel Pierre. They are living at Rego Park, N. Y. Linda attended Bard College and her husband is an alumnus of Rider College. He is associated with Eversharp.

JEANNETTE E. SMITH, daughter of Morris Smith, a former trustee, is a junior at Bates College where she is consistently named to the dean's list for her high academic standing.

Named to the dean's list at Bucknell University is BEVERLY RHAWN, who is studying for a BA degree.

KAREN BLACK was awarded an associate in arts degree from Green Mountain College in June, and PRISCILLA WODEHOUSE earned an associate in arts degree from Briarcliff College. Priscilla is back at Briarcliff as one of the first students to be enrolled in the college's new four-year degree program.

ANN WRIGHT, now a junior at Mt. Holyoke College, worked during the summer at Northeast Harbor, Me.

We hear that LESLIE JAN PEARL is engaged to Roy Yaffe of Wyncote, Pa. Leslie, who was the St. Mary's organist while a student and who often plays at special events at the Hall, attends the Boston University School of Fine and Applied Arts while her fiance is a senior at Dartmouth majoring in government.

St. Thomas Lutheran Church, Bricktown, N.J., was the scene on May 1 of the marriage of CAROLINE ANN HOWELL of Toms River to Albert Stevenson Naef of Irvington. PEGGY YUTZ was a bridesmaid. Following a reception held at Ye Olde Cedar Inn, Toms River, the couple honeymooned in Fort Lauderdale, Fla. They are living at 524 Cable Ave., Beechwood, N.J. Caroline attended Upsala and her husband, an alumnus of Admiral Farragut Academy and the Newark School of Fine and Applied Industrial Arts, is active in the Naval Reserve in Lakehurst, N.J.

'64 HELEN ELIZABETH KIEMLE was married to Robert Carl Bernhardy Jr. last summer in the First Baptist Church of Levittown, Pa. The Bernhardys are making their home at F5314 Goodnow Rd., Baltimore, Md.

The engagement of BARBARA J. MC CAY of Bordentown has been announced to Stephen Hoxie, also of Bordentown. No date has been set for the wedding. Barbara is a sophomore at Gettysburg College. Her fiance is a first classman at the United States Naval Academy, Annapolis, Md.

In a garden wedding at her parents' home near Pemberton, N. J., TERRY WORTHINGTON was married last August to Harvey Green of Ventnor, N.J. Terry had been a student at Dickinson College. Her husband attends the Temple University School of Dentistry.

PAMELA R. YOUNGS is engaged to Edwin Charles Runyon of Brielle, N.J. As of this writing no date has been set for the wedding. Pam's father is William Youngs, a member of the board of St. Mary's. One of her sisters is Mrs. Samuel Gallino (SUSAN YOUNGS, '61). An aunt, Mrs. Maurice Stevenson (ANN ROCKHILL) attended the Hall in the 40's. Pam also has sisters at the school now. They are Maralee, freshman, and Deborah, in seventh grade.

Holiday Brought Many Back To SMH

The Christmas season brings a flock of younger alumnae to St. Mary's. There is always, of course, a large turn-out in the chapel for the Mystery. In recent years, the Coffee Hour for the five most recent classes, pulls many for a morning of "do you remembers."

We glimpsed the following at the Mystery (though there were doubtless others who escaped our eagle eyes) Susan Brotz, Barbara O'Hara, Lenore Bell, Martha Mulford, Jeanne Andrews, Susan Wojick, Bonnie Warren, Teddy Groff, Jeanne Fayman, Marsha Megiariotis, Sandy Alves, Wende Mercier, Joan Trouts, Ronnie Sue Pearl, Mimo Black, Nancy Carson, Andrea Pierce, all of '65; Linda Sacks-Wilner, Barbara McCay, Donna Rockhill, Meg Perry, Helen Kiemle, '64.

Also Ginger Volkommer, Jeanette Smith, Martha Conway, Ellen Howe, '63; Trudi Scott, Diane Wilson, Linda Davies, Betsy Siegrist, '61; Ginger Shaw, '57; Phyllis Smith Kidston, '52; Betty Heyl, '31 and Bettie Fell Siegrist, '23.

Forgive us if we have missed some married names.

Sandra Alves of Burlington won the Society of Graduates' English Prize at last year's commencement. Sandra was a member of the graduating class.

Will we see you on Founder's Day? It's to be Sunday, April 24.

Alumnae Will Be Regaled With Talk on Ghosts At Founder's Day Meeting

Though half a year removed from Hallowe'en, Founder's Day this year (to be observed Sunday, April 30) will have a ghostly theme.

Our guest speaker will be Mrs. Stewart Joslin of Haddonfield who will give an illustrated talk on "Haunted Houses of South Jersey" for alumnae, seniors and their guests.

For a number of years, Mrs. Joslin has been collecting eerie stories just as others might collect stamps or antiques. Many of these peculiar occurrences have happened to her or to members of her family, others have been reported to her. Since she began several years ago to address club groups on the subject, other spectral tales have been given to her. She says, "I never address an audience without someone present adding other interesting and unexplainable stories to my store. Perhaps at St. Mary's I will hear some ghost tales of old Burlington."

Mrs. Joslin's talk will be the final event on the Founder's Day program -- something to carry away into the night!

The day's events will begin at 4 p.m. with a service of holy communion in the chapel with our chaplain, Father Conklin, officiating. Father Elliot, chaplain for Doane Academy, will assist.

Afterwards, there will be time for a quick tour of the new Field House before Miss Heyl raps for order for a brief business meeting. This year, a vice president and a secretary will be elected by the society.

Next on the program--an innovation, this!-- will be an hour of cheer when a choice will be offered between two separate punch bowls.

Supper is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at which time, Mrs. Joslin will speak. Bring an appetite because there will be baked ham, sweet potato - pineapple casserole, salad, peas, etc., to say nothing of strawberry shortcake. Tickets for supper will be $2.50 (this includes the pre-supper punch.)

(And don't forget to bring a supply of ghost stories with you).

Annual Giving Fund Grows

Seventy nine graduates of St. Mary's contributed to this year's Annual Giving Fund. From them the school received $6,448 in cash with an additional $300 pledged.

Were YOU one of the 79?

As of March 1, gifts received total $12,596 and pledges amount to $1,575.

It is not too late to add your bit to this fund that will be used to help amortize the cost of our new field house and its up-to-date equipment.

Principal Reports On Dual Schools

It is nearly seven months since Doane Academy came into existence and understandably St. Mary's Hall alumnae are interested in its impact upon their alma mater.

To report briefly, it has had only minimal effect upon the pattern of life at the Hall below the administrative level. Students at the Hall still start their day with chapel, while Doane has its chapel before its luncheon period and after the two St. Mary's Hall luncheon periods. Except in isolated cases, Doane boys have classes in the new classrooms in Scarborough and on the third floor of Doane Annex. Library periods are staggered. Except during basketball season, St. Mary's girls use the new field house for gym before 2:45 p.m., when the boys' physical education program starts. During basketball season, girls have the gym two afternoons weekly after school, the boys have it three. Since the old gym is still available and both schools have their own separate locker room facilities and one gymnastic exercise room, all with outside entrances, many after-school activities can be scheduled con-

River Cruise On Memorial Day

Have you ever wondered how St. Mary's looks from mid - Delaware? No, not from the height of the Burlington-Bristol Bridge but from the level of a ship's deck?

On Memorial Day, May 30, you will be given an opportunity to see for yourself.

The Society of Graduates together with the Parent-Faculty Association is sponsoring a Wilson Line cruise on the river. Tickets will shortly be on sale for what promises to be an unique and gala occasion.

The boat will pick up passengers at 2 p.m. from the foot of High Street, Burlington, where the old Bristol-Burlington Ferry docked. The cruise down and up the river from Burlington will continue until debarkation time at 5 p.m.

Tickets, limited to 375, will be $3.00 with children under five years of age carried free. Children under 12 must be accompanied by an adult.

Soft drinks will be available on board and there will be a juke box for the younger set to

New Site Chosen For 11th Annual SMH Horse Show

The second decade of the St. Mary's Horse Show is marked by a change in its location.

On Saturday, May 13, "rain or shine," the 11th annual fund-raising event will take place at the 112th Field Artillery Headquarters Field on the Eggert's Crossing Road, Trenton.

This spacious location, with its paved parking for 700 cars, should prove even more popular than the beautiful Helis Estate, no longer available.

There is ample space near the ring for the many horse vans and fair-features connected with the show. Happily, too, it will not conflict geographically with the Fort Dix- McGuire Air Force Base traffic.

Grads - Students In Court Opener

The now-annual coffee hour for recent graduates was held during the Christmas Holidays with something added!

After a communion service on Holy Innocents day, the group gathered for a reunion over the coffee cups with faculty members and present juniors and seniors.

The came the innovation.

The first basketball game of the season was held in the new Field House with alumnae players contesting against present students. Observers are vague about the score---there was too much hilarity for anyone to keep an accurate count of the baskets made.

At one time during the game, Pam and Susan Youngs (S. of G.) were playing against their sisters, Maralee and Debbie Youngs (present students) while their mother, Mrs. William Youngs (wife of a trustee) and Susan's baby, Tracy Gallino, watched from the bleachers. Also in the game was Donna Rockhill, a cousin. Almost an all-family game.

Principal Reports

currently without confusion.

The two schools share a common transportation system and join for convocations and communion services, as well as for some dances.

Girls being girls and boys reacting in a normal manner, there is the expected waving across the circle from classroom to classroom, and a few ingenious souls have managed to engineer a redezvous now and then before school or between classes, even though "fraternizing" during the school day is discouraged. In a few instances in the tenth grade, in order to meet individual scheduling needs, a Doane boy is in a St. Mary's Hall class.

At the faculty level, male faces and voices are a stimulating challenge to be constantly on one's mettle. Common discussion of curriculum and teaching procedures, usually on a departmental basis, is exciting. Two Doane masters each teach a class in St. Mary's Hall and two St. Mary's teachers teach a class in Doane. Both schools share our chaplain, the Rev. Randall J. Conklin, and his assistant, the Rev. Nathaniel R. Elliott, although in practice, Father Conklin's first responsibility is the Hall, while Father Elliott's is Doane.

From the administrative standpoint, it has been a provocative. stimulating experience.

In Memoriam: Colonel Decker

St. Mary's lost a good friend with the sudden death on February 4 of Colonel Samuel A. Decker (U.S. Army-Ret.), long time trustee, founder of the St. Mary's Horse Show, father of Mrs. Edward Patterson (PATSY DECKER, '56) and Mrs. William Brick (HEDL DECKER, '60) and husband of a member of the St. Mary's faculty.

His dynamic personality did much to re-charge enthusiasm of parents, students, trustees and faculty. He gave freely of his boundless energy, vision and practical experience to the betterment of our school.

That St. Mary's is vigorous and stable today is owing in large measure to his contributions.

To Mrs. Decker and to his daughters we give our very real sympathy. We share their loss.

Last Call For Plates

Fewer than 20 plates of the chapel remain to be sold.

To refresh your memories, the picture on the plates is taken from an etching made during the '20's by the late Miss Elizabeth Searcy, art teacher at St. Mary's.

Purchases may be made at the school office at $4. If ordered by mail from the office, the price is $5 to cover packaging, insurance and postage.

Bring your pocketbook and help students. faculty, trustees, alumnae and friends put on a successful show to benefit St. Mary's!

* * * *

At the 1966 show, the Society of Graduates trophy was won, fittingly enough, by Mrs. Lester Jones, Jr. (DIANE BETHEL, '61.)

As fellow alumnae, we hope she repeats this year!

Younger Alumnae Return For Mystery

As in former years, young graduates flocked back to the Hall on December 22 to attend the chapel service with its beautiful presentation of the Christmas Mystery.

A partial census of those present lists PAT WRIGHT, '56; KATIE HUTTON Tweedy and FRANCES MULFORD, '59; TRUDI SCOTT and DIANE WILSON, '61; KAREN BLACK, ' 62; MARTHA CONWAY and SUSAN HOPKINS, '63; BARBARA SACKIN and DONNA ROCKHILL, '64; SUE WOJICK, JANE WALTON. SANDRA ALVES, SHERRYSHAW, CATHY STULTS. MIMO BLACK, MARTHA MULFORD and MARSHA MEGARIOTIS, '65; and LEONA SOLTESZ, LYNN HOELZER. KATHY BAIR. BARBARA McCREE, ALICEANN WALSH, ANGIE APOSTOLAROS, SUSAN HOPPER, JOAN SACKSWILNER. BARBARA YARD. CHRIS MEYER and LINDA FILLER, '66.

Many Students Have Roots In Halls Former Days

There are lots of students at St. Mary's-Doane who are related to girls of by-gone years.

Take Pamela, John and Douglas Borden, a senior at St. Marys, and students in Doane's 8th and 6th grades respectively. They are children of Mrs. John Borden (ELIZABETH CODDING, '44) and grandchildren of Mrs. Charles N. Codding, Jr. (MAUDE C. FITCH, '14).

Katharine and Jonathan MacCornack, in 1st and 4th grades are children of Mrs. James H. MacCornack (ELIZABETH A. SECKEL, '33) and grandchildren of Mrs. G. T. Seckel (ETHEL G. SPOONER, Associate).

Maralee and Deborah Youngs, sophomore and 8th grader are sisters of Mrs. Samuel Gallino (SUSAN YOUNGS, '61) and Mrs. Edwin Runyon (PAMELA YOUNGS, '64).

CLASS NOTES

'93 It seems only a few years ago the Rev. and Mrs. Percy R. Stockman (MARGARET RIDGWAY) entertained the Philadelphia Chapter at the Seamen's Church Institute, Philadelphia. Now we must sadly report the death of Mrs. Stockman on July 3, 1966, at her Haverford, Pa., home. Mrs. Stockman was the sister of Miss Eliza Ridgway ('89) longtime president of the Society of Graduates. During her early married years she served with her husband as a missionary in China. We send our sympathy to the Rev. Mr. Stockman and to her daughter, Mrs. S.D. Walker.

'98 The death of Miss GWENDOLYN VALENTINE, some time within the past year, has been reported to us. Miss Valentine had been a rising actress on Broadway in the early 1900s when illness cut short her career. Many of us remember her magnetic charm though we never had an opportunity to view her dramatic talents.

'00 With sorrow we list the death on July 11 of Miss ETTA PATTERSON of Key West, Fla., and we send our sympathy to her sister, Mrs. William Shedd (ALETTA PATTERSON, '10) of Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Richard Caple (ANNIE W. NOCK), who sent us word about Miss Patterson, reports that she is a semi-invalid, permitted to take stairs only once a day. We hope that she will improve in health.

'01 We must record still another death, sometime during the past year: that of Miss AGNES ROBBINS of Moorestown, N.J.

'03 MISS FLORENCE KUSCHE writes that she keeps in touch with her classmates. She also sends the information that she has a nephew in Trenton who has three children she hopes will someday be enrolled at St. Mary's. We wish she would send us his name and address so that we can be informed of his childrens ages. He might like to have a school catalog.

Just about the time IVY LEAVES went to press last year we learned that Mrs. Early Johnson (MARY FRANCES GRIFFITH) had called the school office to check on some addresses. Mrs. Lewis, with whom she talked, reports "It just made my day to chat with her. She is a joy, brimming with wit and love of life." Mrs. Johnson said that she has kept in touch with classmates and, while in Florida, had had dinner with Mrs. T.W. Harvey (MARGARET RIDDELL) who lives in Westmont 6, Montreal, Canada, but who was visiting in Fort Lauderdale. She wanted the address of Mrs. F.H. Brown (MARY SMITH) formerly of Philadelphia. Can anyone supply it? If so, send it to Mrs. Johnson, 1594 Quarrier St., Charlestown, W. Va. -- and also to the St. Mary's office. We belatedly offer congratulations to Mrs. Johnson and her husband who celebrated their 58th wedding anniversary in November.

'10 Mrs. Charles Showell (DOROTHY BROOKSBANK) gives us a new address for Mrs. Miriam Jameson (MIRIAM BISLER) Mermont Gardens Apartments, Bryn Mawr, Pa. She also sends word that Mrs. E.B. Showell (GERTRUDE CHAPMAN) of Chadds Ford, Pa., has been on a round of visits to Palo Verdes Estates, Calif., and Fort Worth, Tex., where she visited her daughters.

As for Mrs. A. Herbert Allen (FLORENCE TENBROECK) of Haverford, she has been on one of her almost-every-year trips to Honolulu.

The sad news reached us, without any particulars, of the death during the past year of Mrs. Ralph N. Cole (ELEANOR RABE) of Canton, Ohio.

'21 From Rochester, Minn., came a letter from Mrs. William W. Hasbrouck (MARJORIE NIGHTINGALE) written February 24. She says "I am about to enter the Methodist Hospital here, part of the Mayo Clinic, for further surgery on the hip that I fractured nearly four years ago. Two previous operations have not been very successful but we believe that the Mayo Clinic can do anything, including curing me!" Mrs. Hasbrouck expected to be hospitalized for several weeks. We pray everything turns out happily for her.

'22 Mrs. Robinson Coale (IRENE VAN METER) has contributed both sad and happy news.

She writes of the sudden death on January 5 of Mrs. Nelson Billington (JANE COOLBAUGH). Two of Jane's sons (professors at Princeton) were in Europe with their families but returned in time for the memorial service "in a packed church." We send Mr. Billington and his sons and Jane's mother, our most sincere sympathy.

It was only last spring, too late to be reported in IVY LEAVES, that Jane was hostess at an informal luncheon reunion at her home for some former Hall-mates. Present were Mrs. Felix Meyer (JANE HILL,'23) Mrs. Grace Coe Boney (GRACE COE,'23); Mrs. T.H. Atherton Jr. (ELOISE WICKES, '22) Mrs. Malcolm Kraft (KAY JOHNSON '25) and IRENE VAN METER Coale. "We had a lovely time reminiscing" says Irene. "Jane told us that Mrs. James E. Covington (ANNIE JAMES) was recuperating nicely from a heart attack."

In November Irene herself had a reunion luncheon with Jane and Mrs. Coolbough, Mrs. W. Tod Black (NAN ATKINSON, Associate), Mrs. Federick. M. Phillins (ANNA BELL HUTCHINSON, '25) KAY KRAFT, JANE MYERS and Mrs. C.F. Wiltberger (ROSALIND DUBELL, '23) as guests. To that party, Jane took an album of old photos and "we all had fun looking at ourselves 'way back when."

Says Irene also "Bob and I rented a chalet in Switzerland in August and our children spent three weeks with us there. Sandy (her daughter) and I went to Florence and Venice for another week. Now we've just returned from a two weeks cruise to the West Indies."

A phone call as we were going to press brought the sad news of the death of another member of this class. Mrs. Philip Otis (ELIZABETH DALE) died on Christmas DAY. We send our sympathy to her family.

We also note the death of RUTH STURTEVANT of Florence, N.J., on June 9 after a brief illness. Ruth was the sister of Mrs. Michael Carboy (MARGARET STURTEVANT) also '22 to whom we express our sadness at her loss.

'23 Mrs. Harold Fick (ELSIE DeVOE) and her husband were on the way to Florida last year when they were stopped en route with the news of Elsie's father's death. All Elsie's classmates remember him well and will join in sending her sympathy.

We can scarcely keep track of Mrs. Harold Knight (GERTRUDE REYNOLDS) who moves back and forth between Moorestown and Florida with the greatest of ease. Gertie sounds happy that her daughter now lives in Easton, Pa. where she can get to see her easily. She also says that her sister, Mrs. E.W.G. Boogher (ELIZABETH REYNOLDS, Associate) now lives in Ocean City where she is happy and busy. Please send us her address, Gertie.

Last year was a big one for Mrs. Henry G. Siegrist (Bettie FELL). She acquired one new granddaughter in January and a second in April (see class of '56). Then on April 30, her youngest daughter, Betsy Siegrist ('61) was married.

'27 We learn from ELIZABETH DURELL ('28) that SUSAN BRODHEAD is active in her church, St. Stephen's, and in the community (Catasaqua, Pa.) serving as UTO chairman in the former and on numerous community committees.

S.M.H. Chapel Proves Popular As Setting For 1966 Weddings

No one knows to the contrary, so it seems safe to assert that 1966 saw more weddings in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents than any other year since its erection in 1845.

A former student, Alice Berger, led the procession on March 2 when she was married to Henry Hughes 3d of Anglessey, Wales. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, chaplain of the Hall, performed the ceremony and Mrs. Charles Enzer Tweedy 3d (KATIE HUTTON, '59) was a bridesmaid. "Lolly's" reception also took place at St. Mary's.

Then, on April 16, Hannah Founders, daughter of Mrs. Slater, became the bride of James J. Duncan of Perth, Scotland, in a ceremony performed in the chapel by the Rev. Robert P. Varley, former school chaplain. A reception took place in the school parlors.

BETSY FELL SIEGRIST, '61, daughter, sister and niece of alumnae, chose the chapel for her April 30 marriage to Richard William Petri of West Seneca, N.Y. Father Conklin officiated and Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (SALLIE SIEGRIST, '50) was her sister's matron of honor. After a reception in the parlors, luncheon was served in the dining room.

Students and former students galore took part in PAMELA YOUNGS'S ('64) wedding to Edwin Charles Runyon of Brielle, N.J. Trustee Williams Youngs escorted his daughter and Father Conklin officiated. The maid of honor was Mrs. Samuel J. Gallino (SUSAN YOUNGS, '61) the bride's sister. Some of the bridesmaids were Donna Jean Rockhill of Morrisville, a cousin and a student; Maureen Dodd of Brighton, England, sister of a girl who attended our Hall several years ago as an exchange student from St. Mary's Hall, Brighton; and Maralee Townsend Youngs, another sister of the bride and a present sophomore.

They were all lovely brides and we wish them continued happiness.

the Hall a brief visit in September when en route from her home in Intervale, N.H. to visit SUSAN BRODHEAD in Catasaqua, Pa. Elizabeth is president of the Episcopal Church Women, Christ Church, North Conway, N.H. and is diocesan director of the Church Periodical Society. She also does choreography for the Fryburg Academy in Maine. Last spring she arranged dances for "My Fair Lady" and this year is handling them for "The King and I."

'32 "Thank you, Miss Merritt, for reminding me of my 35th anniversary coming up." writes Mrs. Robert B. Hilleary (FRANCES S. WRIGHT). "It doesn't seem possible. I'll be glad to contact class members but I don't hold out for much luck. Out of nine in the class, one is now dead, another lives in Panama."

The Panama resident is Mrs. Maurice B. Winstead (VERNA STOVER) whom Frances and her husband planned to visit in February. And from Frances we learn that Verna plans to vacation this year in Madrid, Spain, where a daughter is in school. Verna has a married daughter, also, and two grandchildren.

For the record, Frances lives at "Waltham," Centreville, Md.

'33 From the Princeton Alumni Record we have learned that Charlie Owen of the English Department of the University of Connecticut, spent the fall semester teaching at the University of Illinois. We imagine that his wife, MABEL WELLES, accompained him to the mid-west. The Owens's two older children are in college----Lucy, a sophomore at Radcliffe, and Sarah, a freshman at Colby.

'36 Without any further information we have learned with sorrow of the recent death of Mrs. William Ellis (JOANNE DUFUR) of Haverford. To her husband and children we send our sympathy.

'38 To Mrs. Lewis R. DeCecco MILDRED LASLOCKY) we send our sincere sympathy on the death in July of her father, Stephen R. Laslocky of Riverton, N.J., longtime friend of St. Mary's. Mr. Laslocky was also the father-in-law of Mrs. Robert D. Laslocky LILLIAN STYER, '36.

'40 Mrs. Edwin G. Siner (ANN PUMYEA) who acted as class secretary to alert her classmates to their 25th reunion, nearly two years ago, recently wrote "Hearing from the Class of 1940 was a very rewarding experience. The nine able to make Founder's Day had a wonderful time catching up on each other's experiences. There were many pictures passed around and we actually knew each other! Some other members would have come had not distance prohibited it. I heard from almost everyone and all agreed the reunion was worth the time. The extra dividend of the reunion day was the visit with Miss Taylor! I recommend to all asked to round up classmates for a similar reunion that they Jump at the chance."

'45 School-teaching would be wonderful, thinks Mrs. F. Dryden Moore (PRISCILLA HALL) who has been teaching at the Kawana School, Santa Rosa, Calif., were it not that she has too little time with her son, Gregory, and--we quote---a messy home, to boot. Priscilla "stuck out the first years as a teacher of fourth graders" but found the second most enjoyable.

Dues Are Due

Let's make Mrs. John Haardt (NANCY THOMAS, '16) happy by hastening to send her our $3 dues. On our desks the bills may be small and easy to overlook, but when Nancy adds them together they become large and important to the Society of Graduates.

And, just think, they help pay your subscription to IVY LEAVES!

From Mrs. Henning F. Jesperson (JOAN HORNBERGER) came word of several informal class reunions following the one on Founder's Day. There was one memorable occasion when five of the class met for luncheon at the "Top of the Sixes" in New York. Present besides Joan were: Mrs. Mary B. Johnson (MARY BELLEVILLE) Mrs. Barbara S. Mathiessen (BARBARA STEM) Mrs. Richard W. Dole Jr. (BARBARA WARNER) and Mrs. Cliff Gray Jr. (MARTHA L. FLASH). Mary Johnson has a new home in Yardley, Pa., teaches at the New Jersey School for the Deaf in West Trenton, and recently traveled to Mexico where her father has a church. Barbara Mathiessen lives in Milford, N.J. and has two children, a boy and a girl.

Barbara Dole brought her husband to the reunion "but he took fright and "quietly slipped away". The Doles have an apartment in Media, Pa. and Barbara is "working in investments in Philadelphia." Martha Gray flew in from Grosse Pointe, Mich., especially for the reunion. She has four children, three girls and a boy. During the reunion, Priscilla Hall telephoned from California to say "Hello!"

At a different round, Mrs. Russell Waddell (ARLENE SPENCER) of Newtown, Pa., joined Mary Johnson, Joan Jesperson, and Mrs. James Crowley (FRANCES ATKINSON) for a second New York get-together. They had a grand "gab-session, a ball."

Reporting these events, Joan says "We all thank you for your help. We couldn't have had such fun without your spurring us on."

'47 Douglas Davis, young son of Dr. and Mrs. Ridgway Davis (MARGARET MacDERMID) is very talented musically. He has been accepted for a second season at the Merrywood Music Camp in the Berkshires. Douglas has been playing the clarinet for a number of years and this year has begun piano lessons at the University of Connecticut. We hear from the same indirect source that Peg's husband, who teaches political science at the university, has been voted one of the top ten favorite professors by the students.

'49 News from Mrs. Ted Swanson (NANCY MAURER) sounds happy. Nancy and her husband and four children live in Santa Rosa, "a beautiful town 50 miles north of San Francisco." Between Little League baseball, and round robin bridge, Nancy finds time to be vice president of her husbands Servisoft Company.

We send very real sympathy to Mrs. Edward P. Henry 2d (ANN DEIBERT) on the January 6 death of her father, the noted surgeon Dr. Irvin Deibert of Camden. Dr. Deibert was a most generous friend to St. Mary's. His daughter-in-law, Mrs. Irvin Deibert Jr., (BARBARA DRUMMOND) is also a member of this class.

'50 Too late for last year's IVY LEAVES was the news of the marriage of NANCY PERKINS to Ronald Andrews. They were married Christmas Eve, 1965, and are living at 2401 Sacramento St. San Francisco 94115. We hear Mr. Andrews is "with a securities outfit." All good wishes, Nancy!

The Daniel F. Worths 3ds. (ELEANORA MacDONALD) are now living at 3392 Martha Custis Drive, Alexandria, Va. Mr. Worth is with the U.S. Patent Office.

'53 The John Lanigirs (JUDY FOCHT) are in Nigeria where John is working for the Development and Resources Corporation as a technical advisor in agriculture and rural development with some 55 Peace Corps volunteers scattered throughout northern Nigeria. Judy says "It's quite a challenge, for this is a huge territory." Their home is in Kaduna, "a relatively recent city, originally designed by the British. The ancient walled cities of ZARIA and KANO are not far distant, each steeped in history of camel caravan and Sahara Desert traders." Their address is "United States Peace Corps., P. O. Box 212, Kaduna, Nigeria. And Judy would love to hear from her friends.

It is with special sadness that we record the death on April 6 of Margaret Budd, daughter of Mrs. Walter Budd, who teaches at St. Mary's; sister of Mrs. Richard Breithaupt (BETTY BUDD, '49) and of BARBARA BUDD, '59.)

'56 Mrs. John Worth (RUTH ANN LAGER) is now living at 236 Reeves Avenue, Trenton.

The William Hinckleys (SUSAN AARONSON) are building a new home in Richmond, Va., and will shortly be moving. DO send us your address, Sue.

Mrs. Pierre J. Lair (MARGARET SIEGRIST) has a new daughter to report---Caroline, born April 11, 1966. With editorial and grandmotherly pride we can state that she is a remarkably lovely little girl! The Lairs moved in May to 18 Marigold Lane, Somerset, N.J., thankful to be out of a city apartment with their three little daughters.

VICKI WELLS is in the Graduate School of Social Work of the University of Pennsylvania. Temporarily, she is living in Media but she may always be addressed through her parents at 105 Farnsworth Avenue, Bordentown.

Here's a new address for Mrs. Marvin Schlosser (VICKI GUTSTEIN) 5 Shelter Rock Road, Mt. Holly, 08060. Vicki and her husband and daughter, Stacey, moved in the fall into their new home.

157 Mrs. Robert F. Morris (PEGGY FENIMORE) reports a new center-city address. The Morrises live in Apartment E-508, 2200 Benjamin Franklin Parkway, Philadelphia 19130.

This sounds like a "first" in St. Mary's history: In June MARY VIRGINIA SHAW will receive a bachelor of divinity degree from Episcopal Theological Seminary! She plans to teach religion and music. Recently, Ginger was on a panel program. Her mother says, "She was at the low end and Bishop Angus Dun was at the high end of the table." But she was THERE!

206 Patann Road, Timonium, Md., is the new address of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Thomas (SALLY ANN GARRISON). The Thomases moved shortly before Christmas into their newly-built home.

Mr. and Mrs. R.D. Woodruff (NANCY GRAY) of Nashville, Tenn., announced the birth of a daughter, Emily Frances, on October 12. Congratulations, all three Woodruffs!

The engagement and approaching marriage of JULIA GLEASON to Dr. Jonathan Evans Rhoads Jr. of Philadelphia, has been announced. Julia graduated from Pembroke College and the Smith School of Social Work in Northampton, Mass. Her prospective bridegroom is an alumnus of Germantown Friends School, Haverford College and the Havard Medical School. The wedding is planned for April 3, 1967 at the Moorestown Friends' Meeting.

'59 It's a new son and a new address for Mr. and Mrs. G.E. Olsen (SUSAN PROBASCO). Anrew Byron arrived October 28 to join his brother, Eric Tyler. The Olsens now live at 25 Country Lane, Collinsville, Conn., 06022

Ann Elizabeth Tweedy made her bow on February 19 in Lankenau Hospital. Her mother is Mrs. Charles Enser Tweedy 3d (KATIE HUTTON) and her grandmother is former trustee Mrs. Leon J. Hutton of Bristol. The Tweedys are living at 2100 Walnut Place, Cinnaminson, N.J.

'60 Mrs. William B. Brick (HEDL DECKER) has been teaching in Colts Neck N.J. this year. She and Bill are living in Matawan. They should be addressed at Ellisdale Road, Crosswicks (Care Mr. and Mrs. Charles Brick) because their present address may be temporary.

'61 Three members of this class had late spring-early summer weddings.

BETSY SIEGRIST was married April 30 to Richard Petri in The Chapel of the Holy Innocents (see elsewhere in IVY LEAVES.)

Also on June 18, was the marriage of NANCY WALTON to Joseph James Plumeri of Trenton. The ceremony was performed in St. James Church, Trenton, with JANE WALTON ('65) as maid of honor for her sister. Since we don't know Nancy's address, mail should be sent care of her parents to 531 Grand Avenue, West Trenton.

'61 With her sister, VIRGINIA SHAW ('57) as maid of honor, SUZANNE MARILLA SHAW was married June 19 to David Julian Smith of Cambridge, Mass. The wedding in the Church of the Holy Spirit, Wayland, Mass., was followed by a reception at the Master's Residence of Lowell House, Harvard. The couple left for Portland, Ore, by way of Banff. David is doing graduate work at Reed College in Oregon and Sue is teaching phys ed. In June they will be off to Hawaii for two years for David to teach at the famed Punahou School.

Sue and her husband spent a day in Annaheim, Calif., during the summer with BONNIE SWERMAN Helmuth. They helped celebrate the first birthday of Bonnie's daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gallino (SUSAN YOUNGS) announce the birth of a daughter, Tracey Jeanne, on April 29. Tracey made her debut at St. Mary's at the dedication of the new Field House and was as good as gold.

When her new husband completed his tour of duty in the Air Force, Mrs. Richard W. Petri (BETSY FELL SIEGRIST) was thankful to leave Texas where they had been stationed during the summer's heat. Now the Petris are living at 4383 Seneca St, West Seneca, N.Y., moving there in the fall in time to endure a northern winter. Betsy is nursing in a hospital for disturbed children and loves work.

TRUDI SCOTT is back in college satisfying her longtime desire to study medicine. She is a first-year student at Women's Medical in Philadelphia. Good Luck, Trudi!

'62 The birth of Michael Erik Burro on April 2, 1966 was announced by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Erik Burro (FRANCINE KANTOR). The Burros live at 350 Diane Court. Burlington.

The marriage of CATHIE MALISE to Thomas Z. Meinhart 3rd took place June 25. The Meinharts are living in Newtown, Pa., Route 1, 18940.

Another June bride was FREIA KOSCKE who was married to William McCannless in the Westfield Friends Meeting House, Riverton. Mr. McCannless is an alumnus of The Citadel and Freia was graduated from Guilford College. Now the couple may be addressed at the University Apartments, Clemson, S.C. where Mr. McCannless is a graduate student.

JOAN BARD has been presented with the Claude B. Kleinfelter Award by the Mercer County Educational Association for her outstanding work in her first year of teaching. Joan teaches a special class at Trenton's Columbus School. The citation accompanying the award read "She's the kind of teacher who gets in to school at 7:30 a.m. and is still working long after the dismissal bell." Joan's comment as quoted in the Trenton Times was "It's true I teach slow learners, but they are by no means slow-witted. I think great progress can be made in this field."

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yutz of Burlington (he's president of our board of trustees) announce the engagement of their daughter, MARGUERTIE ANNE YUTZ, to Charles A. Yount of Silver Spring, Md. Both Peggy and her fiance are seniors at the University of Maryland.

We don't know where in the roster of graduates to place JAY LAPIN who graduated from 8th grade; but his wife, JOANNE COOPER, was a member of this class, so this is where he will have to be! Jay, a second year law student at Harvard, was invited to join the Harvard Legal Aid Bureau. Purpose of the bureau is to give legal aid to those unable to afford counsel and to give student members an opportunity to work on actual cases with practicing attorneys. Selection is on a scholastic basis.

The marriage of CAROLINE POTTER KERLIN to Edwin Walter Kemmerer 2d took place July 1 in the Newtown, Pa., Presbyterian Church and was followed by a home reception. Caroline was attended by schoolmates, Mrs. Bernard C. Fish (ALICE COLLINS, '61) of Rochester and SANDRA HARBOURT of Trenton. The Kemmerers are at home at the Norriton East Apartments, DeKalb Pike, Norristown, Pa. In February, Caroline earned her degree from Beaver College, to which she had transferred from Lake Forest College after her marriage.

SANDRA HARBOURT of Trenton plans a June wedding. She is engaged to Stanley A. Bishop of Vineta, Okla. Sandy, a graduate of Westminster Choir College, Princeton, now teaches in the Montgomery Township school system. Her fiance attended the University of Arkansas and is a student at the choir college.

'63 Morris Smith of Woolwich, Maine, former trustee of St. Mary's, has announced the engagement of his daughter, JEANETTE SMITH. to Bryant Lewis Cureton, faculty member of Bordentown Military Institute. We hear they will be married in August in St. Mary's Chapel. Jeanette is a senior at Bates College where she has been consistently on the dean's list.

AILEEN HOWE of Mount Holly is a senior at High Point College. Last year she served in the Home-Coming Court of the college.

When PRISCILLA WODEHOUSE graduates on June from Briarcliff College, she will be in the first class to be graduated since the former junior college changed to a degree-awarding four-year institution. Priscilla has been president of the Gold Key, campus honorary society, and served as dormitory president.

The engagement of SUSAN JANE HOPKINS to John R. Van Sciver of Burlington has been announced by her mother, Mrs. Sterling Hopkins. No date has been set for the wedding. Susan, daughter of the late Mr. Hopkins, who was on the staff of St. Mary's in the '40's, is a senior at the Episcopal Hospital School of Nursing in Philadelphia. Her fiance is studying electrical engineering at Drexel Institute of Technology.

June 17 has been chosen by VIRGINIA VOLKOMMER as the date of her marriage to Richard K. Sponenbergh of Cookstown. The ceremony will be performed in Christ Church, Bordentown. Ginger is a senior at Glassboro State College where she is majoring in kindergarten-primary education. Her fiance graduated from Ursinus and is associated with the Travelers Insurance Company.

'64 The marriage of ARLEN AUDREY PALMER of New Egypt to Richard Charles Zammito of Chambersburg, Pa., took place June 18 in New Egypt. The Zam-

In a military ceremony performed June 9 in St. Mark's Lutheran Church, Trenton, BARBARA JOANNE McCAY of Bordentown, became the bride of Ensign Stephen Hoxie, USN. The Hoxies live in Annapolis, Md., but we do not have their address.

REBECCA DEITZ of Trenton was graduated in June from Colby Junior College, New London, N.H.

BETTY SUE CAMPBELL was chosen as an alto for the Juniata College Concert Choir and in January went on a tour with the choir. Betty Sue is a junior majoring in elementary education.

LEONA SOPHOCLES received an associate of arts degree from Pine Manor Junior College in June.

PAMELA ROCKHILL YOUNGS and Edwin Charles Runyon were married June 25. (for details, see elsewhere in IVY LEAVES.)

'66 Members of our baby class are hard at work in their various colleges, scattered along the eastern seaboard and into the mid-west. Here's where they may be found:

ANGIE APOSTOLAROS, Trenton State College; KATHY BAIR, Wagner; DIANA DAVID, Hofstra; LINDA FILLER, Temple; MONA FISHMAN, Garland Junior; NANCY HAYES, Wellesley; LYNN HOELZER, Delaware; SUSAN HOPPER, Hamline; TURBA KANTER, Mt. Ida Junior; JUDITH LIGHT, Carnegie Institute of Technology; DARLA LOCKE, Fairleigh-Dickinson; BARBARA McCREE, Penn Hall Junior.

Also CHRISTINE MEYER, Cedar Crest; JOAN SACKS-WILNER, Vassar; CLAIRE SCHAEFFER, Chandler; BARBARA SHARLIN, Drexel Institute; LEONA SOLTESZ, Vernon Junior; ALICEANN WALSH, Goucher; MARY WORTHINGTON, Women's College of Georgia; BARBARA YARD, The College of Wooster, and DEBORAH YOUNGBLOOD, University of Florida.

Though accepted at Elizabethtown College, two members of the class elected to be married. They are LYNN VAN DUZER and CAROL ANN HOOD who are now Mrs. Joseph Ryan and Mrs. Earl J. Walker respectively. Lynn's address is 44 West Broad Street, Palmyra, N.J. Carol is living at 13512 Bustleton Avenue, Apartment 4-109, Philadelphia, Pa., 19116.

MISS CHARLOTTE MUIRHEAD has written "During the Fearnley regime I was a 'special student.' I loved every minute. While it is some time since I've been back for reunion, I keep in touch with several of 'the girls' who were at the Hall with me." Miss Muirhead's address is 33 Netherwood Terrace, East Orange, N.J.

Burlington County sees rather more of Mrs. W. Tod Black (NAN ATKINSON) these days since she and Tod gave up their New York City apartment to make "The Locusts" their full-time home. Nan sees to it that not only her friends experience the the hospitality of her home---she constantly entertains also for younger generations. Her parties for her grand-children are no less than inspired----and she now has seven grandchildren since the birth in January of little Laura Atkinson Black to her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. Tod Black, Jr.

LOUISE HOLT HAWTHORNE of Trenton who attended St. Mary's a few years ago is engaged to Alexander William Gernhardt also of Trenton.

Join us for a river's eye view of Dunk's Ferry, lovely Andalusia...China Hall...Pen Ryn..The famous Fish House...the little river towns....Pennsbury Manor. Follow with us in the wake of the Shield....of John Fitch's steamboat...

We hope you will come.

Send Money Please

A number of alumnae have been guilty of losing (?) bills sent by St. Mary's as a charge for transcript of secondary school records to colleges.

Mrs. Lewis of the Hall's records office has asked that all future requests for transcripts be accompanied by $2. This will eliminate both the task of sending out bills and the chance that alumnae will lose same.!

Take A Bow

We cannot go to press without thanking all who gave assistance in preparing this year's IVY LEAVES....alumnae who sent in items about their friends and classmates.....members of the school staff who exercised endless time and patience in helping your editor track down a date or a name.

From the many who should be mentioned by name, let us pick a few.. Mrs. Stephen, art teacher, for her photography; Mrs. Strahan, Mrs. Shaw, Mrs. "Vi" Lewis and Mrs. Fischer, all of the staff, not just for their help but also for giving-it-with-a-smile!

Many Students

Dean Chattin To Be Speaker Founder's Day

A stream-lined program has been planned for Founder's Day to allow more time for socializing.

By this time you have probably sent acceptances for the day—at least, that is the hope.

But in case you have misplaced the notice, let us repeat the schedule for Sunday, April 28. Events will begin at 2:30 p.m. with a business meeting for alumnae. No elections are scheduled but several questions of interest will be discussed and acted upon.

At the time of the business session, spouses and children will be entertained by students of Doane Academy with an exhibition of wrestling and—weather permitting—of tennis.

The annual chapel service is listed for 3:30 with the Very Rev. Lloyd G. Chattin, dean of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, and St. Mary's trustee, as the speaker.

In lieu of a supper, a champagne punch party (with a fruit punch too) and sandwiches will be served.

Alumnae Serves Another Group

Our alumnae are well represented on the board of managers of the New Jersey Colonial Dames. Three graduates plus an associate plus the grandmother of two former students are current board members.

They are Mrs. S. Robinson Coale (IRENE VAN METER, '22); Mrs. Frederick M. Phillips (ANNA BELL HUTCHINSON, '25); Mrs. Gordon D. Griffin (SALLIE LONDON FELL, '36) and Mrs. W. Tod Black (NAN ATKINSON, associate). Mrs. Jay B. Tomlinson, another member, is grandmother of David and Elizabeth Tomlinson, former students.

Gala Gatherings For Giddy "Gals"

Our younger alumnae took part in a number of affairs at St. Mary's during the first semester of the school year, but for none do we have a report. Evidently everyone had too hilarious a time to be bothered with reporting their happenings.

But this we know, a champagne punch party in September brought out droves of girls and their spouses in the classes since 1947. (Those graduating earlier were cast into outer darkness and were not invited.)

Christmas saw the usual spontaneous gathering of the very-very recent graduates, back in numbers for the Mystery. Those out for five years were invited back for Mrs. Slater's traditional coffee hour during the holidays.

Also during the holidays was an alumnae - student basketball game. Score? That's a top-classified secret.

Many of us older alumnae are frankly envious and would like to have one big champagne reception in the autumn. How do you feel about copying the younger gals' idea? Comments are welcome. Just write to Miss Heyl, 403 High St., Mt. Holly, N. J.

WHAT DO YOU best remember about your school days? What do your friends remember? See page 6.

The Society of Graduates can't operate on good wishes alone. Be sure you have paid your dues. We need 'em.

'68 Horse Show To Have New Site On Delaware

A St. Mary's-Doane Horse Show is barely over before planning must start for the next.

After last year's show, held at a temporary site, there was the added problem of finding a new —and, hopefully, permanent location—for future events.

And there it was, practically ly within sight and walking (or at least, swimming) distance of St. Mary's—across the river at Maple Beach, Bristol. Everyone concerned is vastly pleased because of its accessibility for workers and patrons. Maple Beach is adjacent to the Burlington-Bristol Bridge.

If you never have attended one of our Horse Shows, come see what a pleasant affair it is. If you already know, you need no urging.

Alumnae can be listed as patrons by sending the small sum of $2 to the school before May 1. Ten dollars will reserve ringside parking for your car with five passengers. Without ringside parking, admission is $1.

For riders, there will be approximately 20 classes, offering a variety of opportunities to compete for the attractive prizes. Some events will be limited to children or to students of the two schools or to families. Others are open for pleasure classes, hunters or jumpers.

And of course there will be ample opportunity to purchase refreshments.

But with or without horses, be sure to come.

Alumnae Boost In Annual Giving

St. Mary's is grateful to the 90 graduates who contributed nearly $7,000 to this year's Annual Giving Fund. The actual amount received from alumnae by March 1 came to $6,904.

This is an increase of 11 contributors over the preceding year.

If you are not one of the 90, it is not too late to add your gift or pledge. If not this year—then next year.

Miss Heyl Greets Fellow Graduates

I wish to express appreciation to graduates who, in increasing numbers, are responding to efforts made in recent years to establish closer ties.

Distance in many cases makes it difficult or impossible to attend activities at the school. Yet there are other ways for you to participate in the continuing life at the Hall.

May I suggest:

Thoughtful answers to our questions on areas of activity interest to your president or to the school.

Communications to be read on Founder's Day as evidence of your interest.

Notes about yourself and friends for IVY LEAVES.

Prompt payment of dues (our treasury is under constant pressure).

Contributions in ANY amount to the Annual Giving Program, this year and in the future.

And suggestions, suggestions, suggestions . . .

Hoping you will communicate with us to give me the pleasure of presenting your views on Founder's Day as concrete evidence of a strong, interested and vocal Society of Graduates.

Again, my gratitude for what you have already done—together may we do even more.

St. Mary's Girl Of 1855
A Belle On 2 Continents

(Ed. note: WITH DEAREST LOVE TO ALL, The Life and Letters of Lady Jebb, by her great niece Mary Reed Bobbitt, was published in 1960 but only recently came to the attention of IVY LEAVES when a copy was presented to the school library. It is fitting that the story of Lady Jebb, a former student at the Hall, should be reviewed by another former student, Mrs. W. Tod Black (ANNA ATKINSON).)

The remarkable career of Caroline Lane Reynolds Slemmer Jebb, as told in her own letters and by her great-niece, makes delightful reading as well as paints enchanting portraits of the 1855 graduate of St. Mary's Hall and her times.

The daughter of an early rector of St. Barnabas Church, Burlington, Caro Reynolds was a beautiful and even a bewitching young woman whom all who knew adored. She married her first husband, Lt. Adam J. Slemmer, USA, when she was only 16, following him to army posts in the south. When the Civil War broke out, Caro was dissatisfied at his slow promotion and appealed in person to President Lincoln whom she so charmed that he himself recommended a majority for the young officer "because of his pretty wife." Caro was only 28 in 1868 when the then Gen. Slemmer died of a heart attack.

Fellow officers of her late husband beseiged her for her hand but, turning all down, she sailed for England to visit relatives. In Cambridge, her conquests of the male sex continued (in later years when asked if it were true that she had had four proposals in one evening in a certain room replied, "Ridiculous. Three were in the garden.")

Finally she succumbed to the importunities of Richard Jebb, foremost Greek Scholar of the period (he was knighted in 1900).

A noted hostess in the Victorian society of Cambridge and, later, Glasgow, Lady Jebb moved in the Darwin-Balfour circles where she was celebrated for her wit as well as for her beauty. Her letters of this period to her sisters in America (they were also St. Mary's Hall graduates and one, Ellen, grandmother of Miss Bobbitt, taught Greek at the Hall for a time) are especially delightful with their comments on social contacts and picture of Cambridge academic life.

Yet a letter written much earlier, during the Civil War, is of special interest to St. Mary's Hall girls. In it she mentions having seen "Lt. Allen, brother of my classmate Leonora. He told me she died a year ago. This is the third one gone out of my class that I have heard about. Claude Brownrigg and Carrie Franklin are both dead. Perhaps they are the happiest ones of all. The old Hall was a good school for Heaven. Many date their first inception of true religious principles from the altar of St. Mary's Chapel."

Lady Jebb was left a widow for the second time in 1905. Her nieces in America persuaded her to return to this country in 1917 and she made her home in Washington. Her letters back to England report on her new circle of friends—dinner with Mrs. Stanley M. Matthews, widow of the Supreme Court Justice and mother of our own Bishop Paul S. Matthews — dinner with the Hughes (the Charles Evans?) — luncheon at the British Embassy, etc.

(Not mentioned was a reception given in her honor at the New Willard Hotel by the Washington Chapter of the Society of Graduates. This is reported by Mrs. John Fearnley in "The First Hundred Years," the history of St. Mary's written for the 1937 centennial.)

Following her death there appeared in the London Times a tribute from "a Cambridge friend" which read in part:

". . . a most brilliant and remarkable personality. It was not only that she possessed a Titianesque beauty of eyes, had dark auburn hair and rich colouring, but there was colour also and beauty in the tones of the voice which reminded one of Ellen Terry. . . Lady Jebb had not only beauty but a fine mental equipment; and her literary capacity showed itself when she came to write the memoir of her husband. . . . Perhaps what was chiefly remarkable about her was her unusual vitality, a vitality of the mind as well as of the body. . ."

This is an appealing book and one I can recommend most highly.

Anna N. Black

Your $4 dues to the Society of Graduates are an investment in a continuing society, assuring publication of alumnae news, handling of society records and maintaining ties.

CLASS NOTES

'07 Arbitrarily, we have awarded the palm to Miss BLANCHE SMITH of 61 West 10th Street, New York City, 10011, for being our oldest living graduate; a title she may keep until we hear from a claimant with a better right. Miss Smith is the only member of the earliest class to respond to last year's appeal for updating our alumnae files. Long may she continue her interest in St. Mary's.

We report sadly the death of Mrs. R. H. Morris (ANNIE HOGUET). We have no date.

'01 Miss MARY MILLER of Burlington, long-time treasurer of the Society of Graduates, died May 31 in the Burlington County Memorial Hospital and was buried in St. Mary's Churchyard. Although not active in alumnae affairs in recent years, Miss Miller was a devoted "Daughter of St. Mary's" who will be greatly missed.

After a short illness, Miss HELEN CRISSEY of Princeton died in early September. Miss Crissey had been retired as assistant to the principal of the Horace Mann School in New York.

'03 From Miss MAY EVERNGAM we have learned of the sudden death of Mrs. Frederick W. Harvey (MARGARET RIDDEL) of Montreal in September and we send sympathy to her family.

'06 Notice has been received of the death during the past year of Miss EDITH C. ROBBINS of Moorestown.

'09 No cracker she, but Mrs. Levis C. Babcock Jr. (MARGUERITE FLANDERS) feels very much at home in her new home in Orlando, Fla. even while deploring "being far behind in everything connected with St. Mary's." The Babcocks live fairly close to their son, Richard, and his family who live on Merritt Island. Richard is a transportation specialist with NASA with the responsibility of missiles after they arrive from California.

With sorrow we note the death of Mrs. Edgar M. Burdge (VALETTA BENNETT) of Lakewood in the late summer.

'10 No one seemed more to enjoy the SMH-Doane cruise on the Delaware last May than Mrs. A. Herbert Allen (FLORENCE TEN BROECK) who came from her home in Haverford for the event. "The only disappointment was in seeing so few alumnae," she said afterwards. "They missed a lot." Maybe more next time, eh?

'13 As we go to press, word has been received that Miss MARGARET MERRITT has suffered—and is happily recovering—from a severe viral infection. Speed her complete recovery! We need her.

'14 Although ARONA M. HUBBARD writes from Coral Gables, Fla., that she is "slowing down," she mentions being in charge of sunshine cards for the sick of St. Stephen's Church and visiting the hospitalized. She also works in the hospital thrift shop. The three-year old shop, financed with a $500 loan, paid off the loan in six months and last year grossed over $10,000. "It isn't much larger than my living room," Arona says. "But everything is donated except for one paid employee." An idea for St. Mary's -Doane, perhaps.

'16 We have been notified of the death on October 23 of Mrs. James M. Austin (DOROTHY W. BLAIR). We have no further particulars.

'17 Mrs. John C. Blodgett (TERESA M. PEARCY) is justifiably proud of her doctor son who has been named associate professor of pathology at the University of Utah. Dr. Hunter was a Naval Academy classmate of Wally Schirra, the astronaut. Teresa says she often hears from Mrs. Gorham P. Sargent (DOROTHY SHREVE) of Riverton. We wish we did, too.

'22 Her many friends grieve with Mrs. S. Robinson Coale (IRENE VAN METER) whose daughter, Sandra, was tragically killed last summer when a car in which she was riding was struck by a locomotive.

'23 Mrs. Ivins D. Jessup (SALLY TATTERSALL) at last has a daughter. Sally's son, Davis, was married December 30 in All Saints Chapel of Trinity Cathedral, Trenton, to Miss Jo Ann Lodyn of Collegeville, Pa. The Very Rev. Lloyd D. Chattin, dean of the cathedral and member of the SMH board of Trustees performed the ceremony.

Mrs. Henry G. Siegrist (BETTIE FELL) spent a month in Italy in the autumn (see under Class of '36 notes).

'30 Our good wishes go to MARGARET CAYFORD whose marriage to Leandre L. LaMarche took place in Las Vegas, Nev., at Thanksgiving. The LaMarches are making their home in Nashua, N. H. at 9 Eighth St., 03060.

'30 Mr. and Mrs. William E. Sheppard 2d, (MARGARET LONG) have announced the engagement of their daughter, Ellen, to Robert Ellsworth Smith Jr. The Sheppards and the Smiths all live in Plymouth Meeting, Pa.

Our sympathy goes to FRANCES EASTBURN whose distinguished lawyer father died last year.

The Gordon D. Griffins of Princeton (SALLIE FELL) sailed on the S. S. Raffaello at the end of September. In Genoa, they picked up a waiting Fiat and the following day in Milan they were joined by Sallie's sister, BETTIE FELL Siegrist ('23). Then the three took off for a month's tour of Italy that included art and archeology, cities and countryside, mountains and plains. The Fiat provided transportation between stopovers and shank's mare covered miles and miles vertically and horizontally wherever they paused. Ancient sites seemed to appeal most to Bettie (as befit her years) while Sallie preferred more youthful stuff—the Renaissance period. A final week spent in Rome passed too quickly—then they all flew home.

We send our sympathy to Mrs. Robert Fulmer (LOUISE SPEACE) and her sister, Mrs. Alexander P. Grice 3d (Barbara Speace, '40) whose mother died in February and was buried in St. Mary's church yard. Mrs. Speace was the grandmother of DOLORES JOHNSON, '53, and Mrs. Ellis Burkhardt (JOAN WRIGHT '59). To all of them we send sympathy.

'37 To ELIZABETH DOWNES goes the sympathy of a whole generation of St. Mary's girls who knew and loved her mother, Mrs. Mary Aitken Fleming Downes who died suddenly in late June. Long a housemother at St. Mary's, Mrs. Downes gave generously of her motherly qualities to all those entrusted to her care. We cherish her memory.

'39 We have learned of the recent marriage of ELIZABETH WILLIAMSON Nesbitt to Marvin W. Gordon. We wish much happiness to the couple who are at home at 2540 Massachusetts Ave. NW, Washington, D.C. 20008

'40 Nelson D. Pumyea of Mt. Holly died September 5, '67. To his daughter, Mrs. Edwin G. Siner (ANN PUMYEA) we send our understanding and sympathy. In speaking of Mr. Pumyea's death, a Mt. Holly neighbor said to us, "The world needs men of his type. He will be greatly missed."

Recovery For Miss Newbold

Her many friends will be thankful to hear that Miss Florence Newbold, former headmistress of St. Mary's, is recovering splendidly following a successful operation for a detached retina.

Miss Newbold and her sister, Mrs. Mary Minks, live on Yubas Avenue, Burlington.

'42 Sending regrets that she could not attend her 25th reunion, Mrs. Frank H. Gardner (ELOISE WOODWARD) reported news of herself and classmates. She says her activities revolve around her four children. The oldest, Nan, was then planning to enter Green Mountain College. The family hoped to spend last summer in England.

Mrs. Joseph Yarlott (BARBARA JUTSON) lives at 6250 Sumter Ave., Baltimore, 9, Md. (If we read Eloise's handwriting correctly.) She has three children—the oldest is the godchild of Mrs. Robert G. Bird (VIVIAN ATKINSON) of Ormond Beach, Fla. Vivian teaches Spanish in the Ormand Beach High School. Last summer she was a delegate to the Friends' World Conference in Guilford, N.C. The Birds two sons are 16 and 15.

Eloise also sent word of Mrs. William Spofford (POLLY FAWCETT) whose home is at 1303 N. 24th St. Boise, Ida. The oldest Spofford son was about to be married. The triplets are in college and we can't decipher what the youngest is doing! Polly teaches U. S. history and world politics in high school. Her husband spent last summer as chaplain on the S. S. Hope.

Despite being scattered, members of the class sent a gift of books to the St. Mary's library, as an anniversary present to their Alma Mater.

'48 Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weiser (DIANE DILATUSH) announced the birth of their fourth child and first son, Edward Jr., on February 6, 1967—but the announcement arrived too late for last year's IVY LEAVES. In April last year, they left the baby at home with a nurse and took off for Florida with their daughters during the girls' spring holiday.

We hear that Mrs. Walter T. Armstrong (CAROL DURELL) lives at Pine and Thornbrook Lane, Rosemont, Pa. She has three children.

'49 It's a new address for the Henry Hustons (ELIZABETH McCARTHY). They have moved to 2704 Coventry Rd., Upper Arlington, Columbus, Ohio. 43221

And it's a son for Mr. and Mrs. Edward P. Henry Jr. (ANN DEIBERT). Edward Pitcher Henry 3d arrived January 20 and Ann noted on her announcement to Miss Taylor "All Is Well!" Good wishes to you.

'50 Although she enjoys work of the League of Women Voters in Putnam Valley, N.Y., Mrs. G. Wylie Sypher (SALLIE SIEGRIST) says she is going to resign as president now that election year is coming up. She can't be bipartisan.

'51 Mrs. Stanley Grobman (REGINA WEINBERG) keeps busy with her four children, 14, 11, and twins, 6, yet she found time to write what news she has of her classmates, all of whom, she says, "would like to hear from some other old friends." Her address is still 1452 Stuyvesant Ave., Trenton, 08618.

She reports Mrs. Phillip Trumbull Smith Jr. (GEORGIA KNOBLOCH) as living at 97 Woodland Drive, Fair Haven, N.J. Georgia has "three boys, 10, 9 and 4 and handsome!" Mrs. William Brewster Chapman (JUDY SKILLMAN) and her family have moved to 737 Pine Ridge Road, Media, Pa. Both these addresses are new to us.

A note from Mrs. Daniel A. Baugh (CAROL ALLEN) tells that five years of her married life have been spent in England, interspersed with stays at Princeton. Her husband holds a "teaching post in British History at Princeton University." The Baughs have three English-born children, Nancy 9; Charles, 8; and John, 6. Nancy may be reached at 38 Longview Dr., Princeton 08540, at the present.

'52 Here are class notes gleaned by Mrs. John N. Park (GAIL DURRELL):

Mrs. Donald H. Anderson (JERRIE SUTFIN) lives at 1455 Ormsby Dr., Sunnyvale, Calif., 94087, with her husband, an engineer with Western Electric, and two daughters Monique, 4 years old, and Michelle, 2. Despite the distance, Jerrie was on hand for her 15th reunion.

So was Mrs. Douglas N. Cook (ANN RICHARDS) of Gwynedd View Rd., North Wales, Pa., 19454. Ann and her husband have three daughters, Debbie, 10; Margie, 9, and Judy, 5.

Then, here are some new addresses—Mrs. William V. Daniel (LUCY KELLOGG), 322 Greenway Lane, Richmond, Va. Lucy's husband is president of a Richmond bank. They have two daughters, Mimi, 12; Hampton, 4, and a son, Vernon, 9. . .Mrs. George N. Jones (ESTHER GOULD) lives at 125 Vue de L'eau St., Cambridge, Md. The Jones have two or three children, Gail wasn't quite sure which. . .And Mrs. E. Ward Poor Jr. (RIVA MAGARIL) at 66 Martin St., Cambridge, Mass. 02138 with her financial analyst husband and two children, Larie and Edmund. Riva was awarded a scholarship at MIT in city planning. She works part time with the Boston Redevelopment Authority. . .And Mrs. John Yerkes (SUE SCAMMELL) at Buckingham, Pa. Sue has two children, Jon and Jan. . . and Mrs. Sheldon Kovarsky (ALEXIS MELLOR) at 5534 Fernhill Circle, Huntington Beach, Calif. Her husband is a teacher.

Classmates whose addresses we already have are Mrs. Steven H. Gilman (MARY LOU DENYSE) of Ocala, Fla. Dr. and Mrs. Gilman have four children. . . .Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Kidston (PHYLLIS ANNE SMITH) are ensconced in their newly-built home, 99G Pine Ridge Dr., Newark, N. Y. 14513 (Phyllis's husband is a retail manager with Sears. They have three children.) . . .Mrs. Donald E. MacFalls (BARBARA MARTER) lives at 903 Hollow Rd., Radnor, Pa., 19087 while her husband is completing his doctorate in gerontology at the University of Pennsylvania. . .And Mrs. Dexter Tutein (BETSY DAVIS) may be reached at 126 Center Ave., Chatham, N. J. 07923. Mr. Tutein is also a financial analyst. They have three daughters, 7, 4, 2. . . and Mrs. Lee L. Wetmore (ANN POTTER) lives at Lake Vallah Valhalla, Montville, N.J. (Box 5010, 07045.

The address of Mrs. Howard Smith (HILDA CADWALADER) is not known.

As for Gail herself, her husband is vice president of the C. A. Sauter Company. They have two sons, John, 12, and David, 7., and a ten year old daughter, Kim. Their home is at 6 Rose Lane, Flourtown, Pa., 19031.

'55 We have a new address for Mrs. John A. Broadbooks (JANE TUCKER). 95 Hillcrest Ave., Clemson, S.C. Mr. Broadbooks is an associate in a landscape architectural firm. The couple have a son, Jon Karl, born November 2, 1966.

'56 The Edward Pattersons (PATSY DECKER) acquired a new home and a new son, in that order. The home is at 60 Lane of Acres Rd., Haddonfield, N. J. and the son is Robert Decker Patterson, born December 16. He joined big brothers Ned and Billy.

On January 15, Lori Sue Schlosser was born to Mr. and Mrs. Schlosser (VICKI GUTSTEIN) of 5 Shelter Rock Rd., Mt. Holly, N.J. The Schlossers have another daughter, Stacey Lynn, three years old.

During the past year, Mr. and Mrs. William Hinckley (SUE AARONSON) moved to 93 Lakeland Dr., Richmond, Va. 23229.

Mrs. Hugh McQuaid (BETTY BRYAN) lives at 82 Arlington St., Newton, Mass. 02158. We hear indirectly that she has received a full federal grant for study for her PhD in biology at Boston University.

'57 After receiving a DBD degree last June from Episcopal Theological Seminary MARY VIRGINIA SHAW spent the summer as a staff member of the new Coventry Cathedral in England, teaching Bible and heading a youth work program. Since September she has been associate to the Rev. Perry R. Williams at Emmanuel Church, Geneva, Switzerland, working with study-discussion groups for all ages and teaching some classes in the American School. According to her mother she travels on days off—attending the Olympics in Grenoble, skiing at Kitzbuhl, attending opera, the Spanish Riding School and concerts of the Vienna Boy Choir in Vienna (whose ancient Roman liturgy "threw her for a loop.") Next holiday will be to Israel or Greece (her major is O.T.). Ginny writes good sermons but dislikes writing them, says Mrs. Shaw.

With the death of Dr. John F. Johnson on July 13, Trenton lost one of its best-known surgeons. We extend sympathy to his daughter, Mrs. Jon E. Floria (CYNTHIA JOHNSON).

When MARLENE GROSS was sworn in as an assistant U.S. Attorney she was only the third woman in New Jersey to be so named. After graduating from St. Mary's, Marlene attended Sophie Newcomb College and was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. Her law degree cum laude is from Columbia University. The U.S. Attorney who appointed her said that she will be assigned both criminal and civil cases at the Federal Building in Newark.

The marriage of JULIA GLEASON to Dr. Jonathan Evans Rhoads Jr. was performed according to the custom of the Religious Society of Friends in the Friends Meeting House, Moorestown, April 2, 1967. Our good wishes go to the couple who are making their home in Cincinnati, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Marvin Thomas 3d (SALLY ANN GARRISON) announce the birth of their first child, Jessie Ann, August 10, '67; and a right pretty infant she is! (We have seen her and know.)

Little Miss Jean Fenimore Morris was born January 8 to Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Morris (PEGGY FENIMORE). Congratulations to all three!

'58 VIRGINIA YUTZ's engagement to the Rev. Herman Virgil Thomason has been announced by her parents, SMH board of trustees' president Henry Yutz and Mrs. Yutz. The ceremony will be performed in June in St. Mary's Church, Burlington by the Rev. James Green (also a trustee of SMH-Doane).

Bond-Delucia

All good wishes to JOHN L. ("JOHNNY") BOND JR. and his wife, the former Miss Ann DeLucia of Trenton. They were married November 26, 1966 but IVY LEAVES missed out on the announcement.

Johnny was graduated in 1958 from St. Mary's Hall's 8th grade but he has kept his interest in the Hall—witness the hard work he puts in each year for the Horse Show! More than one person has said "I don't see how we could put on a show without his help."

It will be a double wedding (see Class of '62).

'59 Here's a new address for Mrs. Charles E. Tweedy 3d (KATIE HUTTON)—2956A Sabie Drive, Tyndall AFB, Florida 32401.

'60 The marriage of CATHERINE BODWELL to Frederick Lowell Malan took place in September in Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia. The couple live at 3900 Chestnut Street, Philadelphia. Cathy's husband is a graduate of the Wharton School of Finance at the University of Pennsylvania.

On May 20, KATHLEEN KUDRA became the bride of John George Caning of Huntingdon Valley, Pa., in Trinity Church, Morrisville. They are making their home in Cornwells Heights, Pa. Cathy is fashion coordinator for her father's firm, House of Kudra Furs, in Trenton.

Another class bride is MARGARET FORSYTH who was married February 10 to William Van Arsdale of Bordentown. The wedding was held in the Cathedral of the Woods, Medford Lakes, N.J. and the couple will live at Oakwood Lakes, Medford.

KAREN FISCHER spent last summer in California doing research for a team of Boston doctors.

The William Biddle Bricks (HEDL DECKER) have moved to Crosswicks, N.J. (Star Route). Hedl is teaching in nearby Pemberton.

Once again the Delaware Valley is home to Mrs. D. Douglas Roberts (GINNY McPHERSON). She and her family (which includes sons Tommy, 4, and Douglas Jr., 2, besides her husband) now live at 15 Noreen Dr., Morrisville, Pa. 19067, after spending several years in the Pittsburgh area.

'61 Mrs. David J. Smith (SUZANNE SHAW) evidently is enjoying life in Honolulu. Besides teaching phys ed, sex, etc. at The Academy (overlooking the Pacific) she is taking courses in Chinese cookery—she's quite good, reports her mother after visiting her during the Christmas holidays—karate, stitchery (original designs) and, of course, the hula! Suzy's husband teaches at the Punahou School. The Smiths' address is 1930 Kakela Drive 3, Honolulu, Hawaii 96822.

A son, Todd Richard, was born on Lincoln's birthday to Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Petri (BETSY SIEGRIST) of 4826 Seneca St., West Seneca, N.Y. 14224.

Good wishes to DIANE WILSON whose engagement has been announced to Ronald Luttrell of Louisville, Ky. They hope to be married in June or September in the SMH chapel. Diane and her fiance met at Walson Hospital, Fort Dix, where both were technicians. Ronald is now out of the service and finishing work for a degree at the University of Louisville.

Here's a new address for Mrs. Bernard Fisk (ALICE COLLINS): 50 Knollbrook Rd., Rochester, N.Y. 14610.

CYNTHIA BONNET was married August 19, '67, to James M. Fortune in St. Stephen's Church, Beverly. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, St. Mary's Hall chaplain, performed the ceremony and Mrs. Philip Bonnet (JUDY EVANS, '62), Cynthia's sister-in-law, was matron of honor. The ringbearer was David Jones, son of Mrs. Lester Jones Jr. (DIANE BETHEL). Both Cynthia and her husband are graduates of Rocky Mountain College, Billings, Mont. They are living at 130 1/2 Breen Ave., Watertown, N.Y. 13601, and Cynthia is working as a case worker in foster home care. Jim teaches in the high school.

The Donald Janskys (MAVIS CANTRIL) toured Europe last summer. Their home is 3709 Underwood St., Chevy Chase, Md.

New residents of California are the David Smiths (JOAN GALE) whose address is 14641 Del Amo Ave., Santa Ana.

Since her divorce last year, BONNIE SWERMAN Helmuth and her daughter, Heidi, 2, have continued to live in California.

'62 The Chapel of the Westminster Choir College, Princeton, was the scene June 24 of the marriage of SANDRA ELIZABETH HARBOURT to Stanley A. Bishop of Venita, Okla. One of the bridesmaids was Mrs. Edwin A. Kemmerer 2d (CAROLINE KERLIN). The Bishops are making their home at Windsor Castle, Apt. A, Cranbury, N.J. 08512, and Sandy, a graduate of the choir college, teaches vocal music in an area junior high school. Her husband is studying at the college.

JILL CAMPBELL was married in April, '67, to James J. Breslin Jr., in St. Gregory the Great Church, Hamilton Square, N.J. They also make their home in Cranbury — in the Dorchester Apts. Jill commutes to New York to work at the Morgan Guaranty Trust. Her husband is on the Eastern audit staff of the U.S. Steel Co.

MARGUERITE ANNE YUTZ will become the bride of Charles Anthony Yount of Silver Spring, Md. in June in a double ceremony with her sister PEGGY'S ('58) marriage to the Rev. Herman Virgil Thomason. With two such lovely brides it will, indeed, be a doubly beautiful ceremony—or should we say "ceremonies?"

'63 The Chapel of the Holy Innocents of St. Mary's Hall provided the setting September 16 for the marriage of SUSAN JANE HOPKINS, daughter of Mrs. Sterling Hopkins of Burlington and the late Mr. Hopkins (who was long on the staff of St. Mary's), to John Richard Van Sciver, also of Burlington. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin officiated. After the ceremony, a reception was held in the school dining room. The Van Sciver's live in Burlington.

Too late for last year's IVY LEAVES, came announcement of the engagement of BONNIE LOUISE CLARK to Donald D. Lenhard of Newtown Square, Pa. Bonnie graduated from Sullins College and the Tobe-Coburn School of Fashion Careers. Her fiance is an alumnus of Episcopal Academy and Bucknell University.

We hear that MARTHA CONWAY hopes to be married in the chapel in May, but IVY LEAVES hasn't learned the name of the bridegroom.

VIRGINIA VOLKOMMER was graduated early in June from Glassboro State College and on June 24 became the bride of Richard K. Sponenbergh in a ceremony performed in Christ Church, Bordentown by the Rev. Russell Smith who this year doubles as chaplain for Doane Academy. (His other connection with St. Mary's is as the father of SANDRA SMITH ('61). Her attendants included JEANETTE SMITH, maid of honor, and her cousin, Mrs. William B. Brick (HEDL DECKER, '60) as a bridesmaid. Reception followed at the McGuire Air Force Base Officers' Club. The Sponenberghs are living in Wethersfield, Conn.

The Chapel of the Holy Innocents was the scene of JEANETTE ELAINE SMITH's marriage August 14 to Bryant Lewis Cureton. The Rev. Randall J. Conklin, St. Mary's Hall chaplain, officiated with the Rev. Charles L. Cureton, father of the bridegroom, assisting. GINGER VOLKOMMER Sponenbergh returned the favor by being matron of honor for Jeanette, and a bridesmaid was Jenefer Riley of Brighton, England, whom Jeanette knew when she was an exchange student at our sister school, St. Mary's Hall, Brighton. The Curetons are living in Baltimore where Jeanette is doing graduate work at Johns Hopkins and her husband, teaching at Eastern College. Jeanette was graduated last June from Bates College where she had been elected to Phi Beta Kappa.

The marriage of AILEEN NAOMI HOWE to Frank Alan Ward of Jenkintown, Pa. took place December 23 in St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, Mt. Holly. The couple honeymooned in Nassau and are now living at 44 Bennett Dr., Stoughton, Mass. Aileen is a graduate of High Point College.

Announcement has been made of the marriage of ELIZABETH BONNEY STRATTON to Robert Kapp Jr. of Lakewood, Ohio, in August. Ibby was graduated from the University of Rhode Island where she was a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Her husband, an alumnus of the Peddie School and Syracuse University, is studying medicine.

The engagement of PRISCILLA WODEHOUSE of Trenton has been announced to Harrison Taylor Barrow Jr. Priscilla was graduated from Briarcliff College and is teaching in Trenton. She is a provisional member of the Junior League of Trenton and a member of the General Washington Chapter, DAR.

ANNE WRIGHT of Crosswicks was a member of the 1967 class at Mt. Holyoke College. In the fall she began a training program at Bonwit Teller.

KAREN BLACK of Bordentown is a student at the University of Bridgeport, Bridgeport, Conn.

'64 SANDRA YOUNG of Mt Holly has been named to the dean's list at Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C. Sandra is a senior.

The engagement of BARBARA SACKIN of Trenton to Bruce Jay Berger has been announced by her parents. Barbara is a senior at Goucher College. Her fiance, a Dartmouth alumnus, is a medical student at Tufts University.

Dr. and Mrs. Joseph R. Deitz of Trenton have announced the engagement of their daughter, REBECCA DEITZ, to James S. Levy of Yardley, Pa. Rebecca, sister of Mrs. Richard W. Hochman (JOANNE DEITZ, '59) is a senior at Boston University. Her fiance attended the Lawrenceville School and Proctor Academy and is an alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania.

We have heard that Ensign Stephen S. Hoxie, husband of the former BARBARA McCAY, reported in the fall to the Naval Air Station in Pensacola, Fla. for flight training in the Navy's T-28B "Trojan" aircraft.

On July 8 in the St. Mary's Hall Chapel, DONNA JEAN ROCKHILL was married to Steven Michael Warchol of South Bound Brook. Father Conklin performed the ceremony. The maid of honor was Mrs. Edwin Runyon (PAM YOUNGS) of Manasquan, N.J., and one of the bridesmaids was Christine C. Rockhill of Upper Montclair (daughter of Mrs. Robert Rockhill — EVELYN FAILLA, '49), both cousins of the bride. Drew Stevenson of Crosswicks (son of Mrs. Maurice Stevenson—ANN ROCKHILL, a student in the 40's) another cousin of the bride, served as ringbearer. The Warchols live in South Bound Brook where Donna works for the American Cyanamid Company.

A recent marriage is that of NANCY KAREN MILLER to Robert Craig Pearl of Miami, Fla., formerly of Trenton. The ceremony was performed February 25 in Har Sinai Temple, Trenton, and the couple honeymooned in Jamaica. They will live in Miami.

'65 SANDRA ALVES of Burlington has been named a Sarah Williston Scholar at Mount Holyoke College where she is a junior. The title is awarded to students who have achieved high academic honors in their first two years at the college.

Announcement has been made of the engagement of JANE WALTON of Yardley, Pa., to George T. Wolfson of Lincoln Park. A graduate of Penn Hall Junior College, Jane is a medical secretary in Trenton and a provisional member of the Junior League. Her fiance, who graduated from the Pennington Preparatory School, is a senior at the College of Business Administration of the University of Toledo. Jane is the sister of Mrs. Joseph J. Plumeri 2d (NANCY WALTON, '61).

'66 DIANA DAVID of Mt. Holly is editor of the college newspaper at Hofstra University where she is a sophomore.

CLAIRE LEA SCHAEFFER has been graduated from the Chandler School for Women in Boston, Mass.

Another June bride was LINDA N. FILLER whose marriage to Eric Jonathan Cox took place June 23 at the Beverly Hills Hilton, Calif. The Coxes are living at 4115 N. Ninth St., Philadelphia, Pa. 19140.

'67 Here's a list of our newest alumna and the colleges which they are attending:

New-old Custom Pleases All At '67 Commencement

How Bishop Doane would smile with gratification at the 1967 Commencement exercises. Instead of an important dignitary pronouncing sage (and often unheard) advice to the graduating class, Mrs. Slater, with the approval of the faculty, returned to a custom of the good bishop's day, turning speechifying over to the girls themselves.

A senior delivered the commencement address.

Karen Berger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Berger of Trenton, carried the honors for her class by delivering a talk on "Our Quest for Happiness," and all who heard her were proud of her for her subject, her composition, her delivery and her poise.

So well was the idea of a student orator received, the practice will be continued this year.

Of special interest to all alumnae were three awards made at the graduation exercises—all to Pam Borden, a senior and daughter of Mrs. John C. Borden (ELIZABETH CODDING, '40). Pam earned the Dahl Award for the best essay on Anglo-American affairs, the Bishop Matthews Cross for special knowledge of the Book of Common Prayer, and the English Award, given by the Society of Graduates for excellence in English.

Graduates Will Vie In SMH —Memory Contest

Are you of the vintage to remember when "boiled baby" was served for dessert at St. Mary's?

Do you remember the annual visits of "Miss Manners?" When tags were issued for particular lapses in grammar?

Or are you of a later generation?

Do you recall parties after "lights out?"

Now is the time to gain a receptive ear for your reminiscenses of school days.

IVY LEAVES will sponsor a contest-with-prizes for good, amusing (and well-told) anecdotes of St. Mary's life, a funny happening, a startling prank (played by a schoolmate, not by you, of course!).

A prize will be given in each of the four following groups:

1. In the Fearnley era or earlier.
2. Classes '26 through '40
3. '41 to '52 inclusive, and
4. For the past ten years.

Judges (for whom this writing constitutes first official and only notification that they have been so dubbed) will be Miss Frances Taylor, Father Conklin and Miss Dorothy Cathell.

Send entries before December 1 to IVY LEAVES, care of Mrs. Henry G. Siegrist, 5 Farnsworth Avenue, Bordentown, N. J. 08505. Be sure to note your class.

Winners will be announced in next Spring's IVY LEAVES along with their winning entries. Prizes (and they will be dillies!) will be presented on Founder's Day, 1969.

You, too, may be a winner.

LAURELS TO . . .

Mrs. Harry Fischer at St. Mary's for her patience in checking figures, confirming addresses and tracking down names for this edition of IVY LEAVES. . .

To Mrs. Ingo Stephan for her excellent picture of the Fearnley Award winners with Miss Heyl. . .

To Mrs. W. Tod Black for so graciously reviewing Lady Jebb's story. . .

And to the many others whose contributions made IVY LEAVES possible—Thanks!

Good-by To Finals

Those of us who agonized over finals during our senior year will be interested to learn that the Class of 1968 at St. Mary's will not be subjected to them except in foreign languages, and if the new plan proves successful, the school will not revert to final senior exams.

(An exception will be the student failing a course who will be required to take an examination in that course.)

In place of exams, each senior is expected to complete a special project in the second semester that will require approximately 50 hours of work. Subjects covering at least two disciplines were selected from suggestions made in the fall by the faculty, relating to each student's proposed college major.

Each senior was excused from school for the first three days after mid-years for off-campus research, reporting upon her return and outlining her project for an assigned advisor.

Completed projects are to be submitted May 1 and will be reviewed by the principal and several faculty members. Two of these projects will be presented at commencement.

Although an experiment for St. Mary's, similar provocative programs have been adopted during the past several years by many outstanding independent schools to allow scope for original research and development in areas of particular interest to each student. Such programs are deemed compatible with the mature, adult status students should have attained by senior year.

Founder's Day Set For April 27

A major decision will confront alumnae at the business meeting that will open this year's Founder's Day, Sunday, April 27. A motion will be introduced calling for a drastic change in the traditional observance of the day. It is hoped that a large number of graduates will be present to discuss this proposal.

The meeting, at which Miss H. Elizabeth Heyl, '30, will preside as president, is set for 2:30 p.m. following a 2 p.m. registration. Business will also include election of a president, treasurer, recording secretary and two members-at-large for the executive committee.

A corporate communion service will be held in the chapel at 4:30, ending with the crowning of Bishop Doane's portrait.

Doane's First Class Slated For Graduation On June 9

This will be a red-letter commencement at St. Mary's-Doane. Rather, we should say "commencements" for there will be two senior schools as well as SMH Lower School exercises June 5 and Middle School exercises for Doane and SMH, each on June 6.

For the first time, a class of boys will receive diplomas in the chapel and for the first time St. Mary's will share a baccalaureate service with her school affiliate.

The Rt. Rev. Albert Van Duzer, suffragan bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey (and father of Lynn Van Duzer Ryan, '64) will deliver the baccalaureate address at a joint service for the schools Sunday, June 8, at 4:30 p.m.

St. Mary's Class Day events will take place from 5:45 to 9:30 p.m. beginning with the planting of ivy and ending with the old custom of launching a candle-laden "boat" on the river. Between the two events, parents of the graduating class will be guests at a supper.

With the idea of establishing traditions of its own, Doane Academy will hold its commencement on Monday evening, June 9. The four boys in this significant "first" will receive diplomas from the hands of William J. Youngs, president of the Board of Trustees of Burlington College. Mr. John H. Jones, headmaster of Riverdale Academy, will be guest speaker.

In a sense, Mr. Jones is a godfather to the school. It was he who urged his assistant, William Williams, to tackle the job of setting up the academy as its first headmaster. And through the years he has continued to offer encouragement to the fledgling school.

Members of Doane's first class are John Abbott of Pennsauken, Fred Doolittle of Trenton, Thomas Rose of Riverton and Frank Sleeper of Mt. Holly. The first three have grown up with Doane. Frank entered the academy last year. All have been accepted by one or more colleges.

St. Mary's own graduation will follow long-established traditions on Tuesday morning, June 10. Exercises in the auditorium will be marked by an address by Dr. Lee Bristol in Princeton, retiring president of the Westminster Choir College and prominent layman in the Episcopal Church. Prizes and awards will be presented by Mrs. Slater.

Twin Schools Will Share New Building

Another "Right Onward" step has been taken by Burlington College with ground-breaking for a new building to serve the science departments of St. Mary's Hall and Doane Academy.

Erection of a Science Building with up-to-date labs has been started and, weather and all the other imponderable being favorable, the structure should be ready for September classes.

The building will adjoin the new gymnasium along the Pearl street wall. Its financing has been arranged without benefit of a special drive for capital funds; but, of course, gifts from alumnae and friends are very much in order for equipment. Such gifts would be tax deductible.

Miss Cathell Feted Upon Retirement

Miss Dorothy Cathell couldn't have been more mistaken when she thought she was giving up teaching at the time she "retired" in the mid-50's from an Abington school. That was only her first retirement.

Mrs. Slater coaxed her to come to St. Mary's and she began her second career. It was three-sided love at first sight— Miss Cathell, St. Mary's and "her girls."

Last June, she retired for a second time to have time to travel with her two sisters (also retired teachers). But before that final

Except in recent years when graduating seniors of St. Mary's have launched their candles on Class Night, the Delaware has played little part in the life of the school. Few school traditions center on the river.

Indeed, at many periods, both river and riverbank have been out of bounds to students.

But leave it to the boys of Doane to change all that. The academy has taken over the river as an extension of its "playing fields."

Yes, rowing has been added to sports that Doane students now go out for. An eight-man shell of the Princeton Class of '40 was acquired in the spring and was dubbed "George" at a formal launching ceremony on Memorial Day, complete with champagne-on-the-bow.

Rowing practice began in earnest in the autumn under the coaching of Linton Studdiford, Upper School supervisor and head of the English Department, and Randolph Pyle, head of the math department.

Our one race scheduled in the fall was lost to an experienced crew from the Hun School of Princeton. But we made a creditable showing in this first contest and the boys (22 go out for the sport) are looking forward to spring when they can get back to the river.

During the winter, a second shell was obtained from Rutgers and christened "Washington." Some fine day, when a third shell will have been added to the fleet, there will be a "Doane."

Meanwhile, St. Mary's girls are happy to see their confreres "messing around in boats."

Dues are due! If you haven't paid them already, mail a check today. Better yet—bring the $3 with you when you come to Founder's Day!

Have you any amusing anecdotes about your school days at St. Mary's to contribute to IVY LEAVES? Be sure to send them along.

CLASS NOTES

(Special attention is called to classes 1914, 1919, 1924, 1929, 1934, 1939, 1944, 1949, 1954, 1959, 1964 and 1968 which are marking reunion years on Founder's Day. It is hoped that each of these groups will have a good representation.)

'87 We record with sadness the death on June 24 of Miss BLANCHE SMITH who, until that time, had been our oldest known living graduate. She had celebrated her 101st birthday on the preceding Memorial Day.

'90 Not until we learned of Miss Smith's death did we hear that her sister, Miss KATHERINE LOUISE SMITH, had died in 1965. So our sympathy goes doubly to Miss MABEL SMITH, '97, their surviving sister who now lives at 61 W. 10th Street, New York City, 10011.

'98 Mrs. Otto Eichel (MABEL JACQUES) died March 15 in Langhorne, Pa., after a long career of public service. Her early newspaper writing in Philadelphia, Buffalo and New York was followed by intense activity with the New York State Women's Suffrage Party. In World War I she organized and directed the state's Women's Land Army and was later director of the women's division of the Fusion Party campaign that elected Fiorello LaGuardia as mayor of the city. Until she returned to St. Mary's in the late 40s to develop public relations, she was active nationally in women's organizations. In 1951 Mrs. Eichel moved to Langhorne and immediately became heart and soul of its library and historic association, promoting both at a Book Fair that provided an annual cultural focus for the community. Her enthusiasm was only equaled by her intelligence, wit and capability.

'09 Miss ANNA B. HEWITT makes her home at The Fairfax, 43d and Locust Streets, Philadelphia, 19104.

'10 Mrs. Douglass B. Williams (AGRA BENNETT) of Wheeling, W. Va., died in January, 1968, although word has just reached IVY LEAVES. She had long been active in her church (St. Matthew's Episcopal), the Whee.— Garden Club and the Ohio Valley General Hospital. Shortly after her graduation from St. Mary's and at the time of the coronation of King George V, Mrs. Bennett was presented at the Court of St. James's.

Besides revisiting her "fabulous Honolulu" again last year, Mrs. A. Herbert Allen (FLORENCE TEN BROECK) continued on to Samoa. "Before that, there was a 'wing' safari in Africa, taking pictures in East Africa and enjoying much of South Africa," she writes. Where will it be next, Mrs. Allen?

'12 The new home of Mrs. Samuel W. Caesar (MARGARET HOWELL) is 390 Tremont Place, Orange, N.J. 07050.

'12 MARGARET MERRITT and her sister, Eleanor, had another wonderful trip last summer. They visited another sister in San Diego going there via Alaska! Flying to Vancouver, they voyaged up the inside passage to Skagway and then journeyed to the gold fields and up the Tanana River aboard a sternwheeler. Fairbanks and McKinley National Park were included on the itinerary. At one hotel their college-girl waitress remarked that her father had come from a small New Jersey town. Did they know it — Mt. Holly? Turned out, the Merritt gals know the girl's uncles and grandmother. "A highlight of the trip was flying over the Arctic Circle and receiving a certificate as life member of the Arctic Circle Club," says Margaret.

The class of '13 gets around. Mrs. Frederic Waddington (OLIVIA BEDDOES) wrote to Margaret that had they each flown a few miles farther north, they might have met over the North Pole, surely an unlikely place for an SMH reunion. Olivia had toured Ireland and Scandinavia with a son and granddaughter. Later, with the granddaughter, she continued on through the Benelux Countries. (Another granddaughter is an exchange student in Japan.)

If you are motoring in the Sheffield, Mass., area during the summer, be sure to look up Mrs. Arthur Hamilton (JOSEPHINE ZINKEISIN) who with her son, Bill, runs a very successful antique shop. Word of this comes from KAY SALMON, '19, who "keeps in touch."

'16 One would never guess from her firm handwriting that Miss CATHERINE D. WATSON had sustained double fractures of both wrists in October. We are glad to have evidence that she has so well mended.

When friends move away, it is sad. And when dependable workers leave us, it is calamitous. So it is with double regret that the Society of Graduates has seen Mrs. John Haardt (NANCY THOMAS) leave Mt. Holly and her office as treasurer of the society. Her new address is 3 Ohio street, Bangor, Me. And while her departure is our distinct loss, we do wish her everything good in her new home. And we hope she will visit this area often.

'17 Mrs. Samuel S. Pettit (MARTHA ANTRIM) has moved closer to Burlington and, we hope, to closer ties with SMH alumnae. Her new address is 12 Radnor Court, Willingboro, N.J. 08046.

Annual Giving

Although the Annual Giving Fund had not quite reached $20,000 by March 1, there are many interesting factors to be noted. The grand total of gifts and pledges on that date came to $19,132.50, representing $7,864 from 112 members of the Society of Graduates and $2,310 from parents of alumnae.

Encouragement may be found in the fact that 92 percent of ALL parents of present students contributed to the campaign; and that among alumnae responding to a second appeal were 17 graduates who decided to give a second time. That can be called "underlining their support."

'19 KAY SALMON leads an interesting life. When she isn't traveling (twice around the world in different directions in the past seven years and goodness knows how many other trips!), she spends almost every minute in the Southold Historical Society Museum, doing volunteer work. With a friend, Kay was instrumental in organizing the society several years ago and, until a full-time professional curator can be found, she feels responsible for seeing that work is carried on in a professional manner. If any reader knows of a suitable curator, please write to Kay—simply to Southold, Long Island, N.Y. The museum is closed in winter and open on certain afternoons in summer. However, the job is a full-time one, carrying with it responsibility for keeping the office open, cataloguing collections and engaging in research. "Southold is the oldest town in New York State," claims Kay, "and too-long neglected history must be preserved."

We learned all this when Kay was visiting Miss FLORENCE NEWBOLD, former headmistress, and her sister, Mrs. Mary Minks, at their Burlington home during the Christmas holidays. Hours flew by as we recalled this girl and that, and one incident after another of former days at the Hall. A small reunion but — shall we say? — one in depth.

"There are such big changes in our lives that we must tell you about them" wrote the Edward Chalifs (MARGARET MONTGOMERY) in their Christmas letter. Eddie retired a year ago and "what do you think he wants to do? Go back to college to study astronomy, ornithology and Russian." Since the Chalifs dislike cold weather, they have sold the home they built 41 years ago in Short Hills, stored their lovely antiques and moved in mid-January to Tucson, Ariz., "on a trial basis." Eddie has entered the University of Arizona. If they like the area as a permanent home, they will then send for their belongings. Meanwhile, their official address will be care of a daughter, Mrs. Sonia Daniels, 15 Sterling Street, West Newton, Mass., 02163. "Of course we will always spend our summers at our cottage in Chilmark, Martha's Vineyard," adds Margaret.

'20 When sending her dues, Mrs. Reginald Giese (FLORENCE HORN) writes "It has been a long time since I have returned to St. Mary's. The four years that I spent there have had a great impact and influence on my life. To this day, I find myself judging things by the standards of St. Mary's." We send sympathy to Mrs. Giese on the sudden death of her husband in August.

'22 Word comes (via KAY SALMON) that the Earl Shepherds (ODILE McCULLOUGH) who have lived in New York for "lo! these many years" have moved from the city for good. They have bought a home in Remsenberg, Long Island. Odile and Kay plan an early get-together with Mrs. Gilbert Halsted (MARJORIE ROYCE, '12) of Garden City who summers in Remsenberg. We wish they'd move that reunion to Burlington.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Robinson Coale (IRENE VAN METER) escaped the coldest part of January by fleeing from New Jersey to Nevis in the West Indies where, bell rang, more than 50 former students joined in honoring her at a luncheon held on Founder's Day before the chapel service and alumnae meeting.

We join in wishing her many happy miles in her journey.

says Irene, the weather was perfect.

'23 To Mrs. Felix Meyer (JANE HILL) we send our deep sympathy at the loss of her husband. Mr. Meyer, an invalid for many years, died in late November "after a devastating bout with flu."

It is a new address for Mrs. Howard F. Knight (GERTRUDE REYNOLDS). She and her husband now live at The Towers of Windsor Park, Kyoto Apartment D-6, Cherry Hill, N.J. 08034.

'27 Another of our graduates lost her husband during the past year. Dr. Joseph Conway Hiden died in April, 1968, following a long illness. He was buried in St. Mary's Churchyard, Burlington. Mrs. Hiden is the former LOUISE MULFORD, whose family has for so long been closely identified with our school.

'29 A new address for Mrs. Charles C. Armstrong (IDA R. PICHLER): 583 Oak Hill Road, Middletown, N.J. 07748.

'30 Their 1968 Christmas card pictured in color the attractive new home the Leandre L. LaMarches (PEGGY CAYFORD) have built in Manchester, N.H. Peggy gives the address as 31 Hilton Street.

'31 For the present, the Norman Harrisons (ELIZABETH LINDABERRY) are not to be found in Riverton. They are living in glamorous Bangkok, Thailand, where Norman is with the joint U.S. Military Assistance Group. They may be addressed Box No. 496 Bangkok, APO San Francisco, Calif. 96346, for the two years of duty.

An address change is listed for Mrs. Richard Graff (DORA B. PARRY). The family now lives at 1101 Washington Avenue, Cinnaminson, N. J. 08077.

Our president, BETTY HEYL, and her sister Caroline plan a summer trip to Germany. They will join friends for a motor trip that sounds fascinating. Happy journey, Betty!

The John R. Naisbys (LIBBY HUNN) made their third visit to Egypt last summer on a world tour with the Friends' World College. Part of the time they visited the family of a young couple they are bringing to this country for permanent residence. "A real challenge for them and a responsibility for us, but a thrill for all four," comments Libby. Reminiscing a bit, she writes "How quickly the years have rushed by. Seems only yesterday that WE were rushing to chapel line! Now our niece Wendy Lippincott is happy there." The Naisbys have three sons and "four beautiful grandchildren." Libby's nice letter also reports that she saw the Howland Dudleys (MARY CUMPSTON, '30) and their four daughters at Christmas and also Mrs. Richard Graff (DORA PARRY).

'34 When Mrs. Frederick H. Littlefield (BARBARA CONGDON) sent word about Father Hogg's appointment as dean of the cathedral in Portland, Me., she failed to include news of herself. We wish she had.

'36 From Mrs. William Sheppard (PEGGY LONG) comes a breezy note implying that she intends to be present on Founder's Day and agreeably accepting a bit of work to do for the Society of Graduates. "I love getting back to SMH," she declares.

SALLIE FELL Griffin's (Mrs. Gordon) daughter—another Sallie—became the bride of Eric van Merkensteijn in June shortly after Eric was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania. Sallie is completing work on a degree at Penn and Eric is continuing for a graduate degree.

'40 The postman has just bought the nicest note from Mrs. Edwin G. Siner (ANN PUMYEA). At times, one almost has to pull teeth to get anyone to tackle a job, so Ann's note was most gratifying when, in response to a request that she undertake a certain task, wrote "Of course. I'd really like to have a part in what goes on at St. Mary's. You know my interest is great, so I love to be a part of things there." To develop interest in her 30th reunion, Ann is already writing to classmates to persuade them to make plans to come back in 1970.

'41 A letter from Mrs. James E. Levett (BARBARA LINDENFELSER) tells of her family's move from Delaware to 208 Walker street, Clarendon Hills, Ill., 60514. "A small town west of Chicago. We like it very much although I miss the East and my friends. And although I haven't been back to St. Mary's for several years, I keep up with classmates. Several girls in the class have separated from their husbands and this makes me sad."

'42 Her mother has written of the death on Feb. 1, 1968, of FAYE HARRISON after an illness (virus pneumonia) of only two days. We send Mrs. Harrison our deep sympathy and concur with her when she says "her passing came as a great shock and she shall long live in the memory of those who knew and loved her."

'43 May in Iberia! That's what is in store for the William E. Pearsons (MARY ELIZABETH ALTEMUS). They will fly April 30 for Portugal and Spain. Before leaving Europe for home, they plan a visit with friends in Zurich and a trip down the Rhine.

Mrs. Henry Switkay (MARY OLIPHANT ECKMAN) is now living at 1502 Dogwood Drive, Arlington, Va., 22305.

'44 We are sorry to learn that Mrs. John W. Arbogast Jr. (DOROTHY MAE MARK) and her family have left Burlington County. They now live in Westlawn, Lewisburg, Pa. 17838.

Our sympathy goes to Mrs. William White (JEANNE HORNBERGER) and her sister, Mrs. Henning Jesperson (JOAN HORNBERGER, '45) on the death of their father, Dr. J. Howard Hornberger, for 45 years a physician in Florence Township, plant physician for the Roebling Company, township and school physician and foremost citizen of the area.

'48 Another SMH gypsy is PHEBE GULICK Snow (Mrs. Carlton F., Jr.) who has moved from Brunswick, Me., to King's Highway, Valley Cottage, N. Y. 10989.

Miss Newbold tells us that Peg Neuhauser (MRS. CLARENCE E. HORST) and her family—husband and children, Anita, Gail and Frank—live in a lovely old farm house in southern Lancaster County. Their address is Conestoga, R.D. No. 1, Pa. 17516.

There's a new address for the Walter T. Armstrong Jrs. (CAROL L. DURNELL). Their home is at Pine and Thornbrook Lane, Rosemont, Pa., 19010.

'48 Here's JOAN PAKENHAM'S (Mrs. Robert L. Breiter) newest address: 901 Linden Boulevard, Brooklyn, N.Y. 11203.

'49 If the Class of '49 doesn't have a bumper turn-out for its 20th reunion on Founder's Day, it won't be the fault of Mrs. Edward Henry (ANN DEIBERT). Ann, according to Miss Taylor, has been writing 'round to stir up interest. She hopes there will be a goodly number on hand. We hope so, too.

MAXINE ROSENTHAL Lampert (Mrs. Murray) of Princeton was a key worker in the recent Antiques Show of the Wellesley College Club of Princeton-Trenton for the benefit of its scholarship fund. Maxine was in charge of luncheons served daily and of refreshments that were available throughout the days and evenings.

'50 At long last, we have an address for ALICE SHOEMAKER. She lives at 1201 N. E. 52d Street, Seattle, Wash., 98105.

And ELEANORA McDONALD Worth (Mrs. Daniel F. 3d) lives at 3392 Martha Custis Drive, Alexandria, Va., 22302.

Still another address, this time for Mrs. Ronald Andrews (NANCY PERKINS). She is making her home at 2401 Sacramento Street, San Francisco, Calif., 94115, Apartment 2.

'52 JERRIE SUTFIN Anderson (Mrs. Donald H.) is on the move again. The Andersons now live at 12231 (sounds like a zip code, doesn't it), Fredericksburg Drive, Saratoga, Calif., 95070. Jerrie got back for last Founder's Day and WERE we glad to see her!

And how good it is to learn that Mrs. Lee L. Wetmore (ANN POTTER) has moved to a neighboring community. The Wetmores are making their home at 501 Tavistock Boulevard, Haddonfield, N.J. 08033. We hope she will soon become active in alumnae affairs.

'54 ELEANOR FORSTER earned a PhD in the department of folklore and folklife of the University of Pennsylvania in May and is assistant professor of English at Philadelphia Community College. We wish we'd hear from her sometime.

Just to add another new address to our list, here's one for Mrs. Stephen C. Paine (KATHERINE F. MOORE): 111 W. Beverly Court, Peoria, Ill. 61614.

The William Greenups (MARY ELIZABETH HENDRICKSON) have added a baby to their family. They have adopted a baby girl, born January 6 (Epiphany). We wish them all much happiness. The Greenups live at 1411 Dandridge Street, Fredericksburg, Va. 22402.

All good wishes to James Victor Vancza who was born Sept. 9 to Mr. and Mrs. John Vancza (GEORGIA FOLSOM).

'56 Guess who is teaching at St. Mary's! None other than PAT WRIGHT. "It's always been a dream, to come back someday," she confided last Founder's Day shortly after signing her contract to teach in the music department. Welcome home, Pat!

Many good wishes go to BETTY BRYAN McQuaid who was married October 26 in Cambridge, Mass., to Joseph Godrick. The couple are living at 107 Irving Street, Watertown, Mass., 02172.

The William Hinckleys (SUSAN AARONSON) are back in Burlington County after living for a number of years in Richmond, Va. Their new home is at 17 Shelter Rock Road, Mt. Holly, 08060. Sue's not only delighted to be back with kith and kin, but she is looking forward to enrolling her daughter, Margie (now a kindergartner) in St. Mary's. Curiously enough, Sue's parents live across the street in Bordentown from parents of her classmate, VICKI GUTSTEIN Schlosser. And now Sue and Bill find they are living a few doors away from Vicki and her husband, Marvin. Stacey Schlosser is almost the same age as Margie, too.

Having received a master's degree in social work from the University of Pennsylvania, VICKI WELLS is a superintendant of social work with the N.J. Bureau of Child Welfare. She lives in the Versailles Apartments, Sullivan Way, Trenton 08628, only five minutes drive from her office.

Mrs. John Worth (RUTH ANN LAGER) has moved to 3465-A South Broad Street, Trenton, 18010.

On St. Patrick's Day, and just making the IVY LEAVES deadline, Phoebe Francoise Elizabeth was born to the Pierre J. Lairs of Somerset, N.J. Mrs. Lair was MARGARET SIEGRIST. Phoebe is Number 11 grandchild for BETTIE FELL Siegrist, '23!

'57 To MARY VIRGINIA SHAW and her sister Mrs. David J. Smith (SUZANNE, '61) and especially to their mother who is secretary to St. Mary's principal, we extend our very deep sympathy on the death at Easter-time, 1968, of Colonel Howard K. Shaw. Classmates of the two girls well remember the jovial colonel who took such an interest in them all.

But there is happiness in the family, too, because Ginger's engagement to the Rev. Donald E. Grayston of West Vancouver, British Columbia, has been announced. A civil marriage ceremony is planned for May in Zurich, Switzerland, and will be followed by a religious ceremony in the chapel of the Episcopal Theological School, Cambridge, Mass. They plan to attend St. Mary's commencement. Since her graduation from ETS, Ginger was on the staff of Coventry Cathedral in England and is now associate to the rector of Emmanuel Church, Geneva. Her fiance attended General Theological Seminary and is now studying at the Ecumenical Institute of the World Council of Churches in Geneva. In the summer, he will assume his duties as acting director of the Lay Training Center of the Anglican Church of Canada in Sorrento, B.C.

'58 St. Mary's Church, Burlington, was the scene June 15 of marriages of double interest to alumnae. VIRGINIA YUTZ and her sister PEGGY ('62) were married in a double ceremony by the rector, the Rev. James Greene, a trustee of the Hall. Their father, Henry Yutz, another trustee and past president of the board, gave them in marriage, of course. But lest we forget the bridegrooms in the rush of recording SMH-related details—Virginia's husband is Herman Virgil Thomason of Spartanburg, S.C., minister of music at the Pennsylvania Avenue Baptist Church in Washington D.C. and an English teacher at Mt. Vernon High School, Alexandria, Va. They make their home at 7421 Vernon Square Drive, Apartment 302, Alexandria 22306. (see below for Peggy)

Here's a new address for META DOAK Lavine (Mrs. Henry W.): 16205 Shaker Boulevard, Shaker Heights, Ohio, 44120. . . .

And another new one: Mrs. Ralph D. Woodruff (NANCY GRAY), 139 1/2 W. Wayne Avenue, Wayne, Pa. 19087.

'59 The many friends of Mrs. Charles E. Tweedy 3d (KATIE HUTTON) and her mother Mrs. L. John Hutton, former trustee, will be grieved to learn of the death January 2 of Mr. Hutton. One of St. Mary's most loyal supporters, Mr. Hutton found time, among his many state-wide and national interests, to be active in affairs at the Hall. He was an organizer and early president of the Parent-Faculty Association.

After IVY LEAVES was issued last spring, we learned of the death of another graduate's father. Harry T. Perinchief died in late April and we send sympathy to his daughter, JUDY PERINCHIEF, and to his wife who for many years was director of admissions at St. Mary's.

On Feb. 15 in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents of St. Mary's FRANCES BATTAILE MULFORD became the bride of Capt. William Platt Young Jr. The Rev. David Mulford, uncle of the bride (and son of the late Dr. Ephraim Mulford, long-time school physician) performed the ceremony, and MARTHA R. MULFORD '65, was her sister's maid of honor. Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ephraim Mulford, Jr. (Mrs. Mulford teaches mathematics at St. Mary's) is the niece of Mrs. Joseph C. Hiden (LOUISE MULFORD, '27). She was graduated from Hollins and holds a master's degree in education from the University of Virginia. Prior to her marriage, Frances taught in Quantico, Va. Her husband is a graduate of Johns Hopkins and the University of Maryland Law School. He is serving in the Judge Advicate General Corps with the U.S. Army in Germany. The couple will live in Frankfurt.

Word comes of a new address for Mrs. Benjamin A. Hoover 2d (ANN CRAMER). Write to her care of Capt. Hoover MC, U.S. Army Hospital, Wurzburg, Germany, APO New York City 09801. We don't know how long the Hoovers will be stationed there but we hope they enjoy their stay. Perhaps they will see the Youngs in Frankfurt.

Mrs. Benjamin Cates Oliff, Jr. (MAC LEVITT) has two events to report: 1) the birth of a son, David Cates, Aug. 19, and a change of address to 3230 Ramsgate road, Augusta, Ga. 20904.

Still new addresses roll in. Two more from this class! Mrs. Ellis H. Burkhardt (JOAN WRIGHT) reports from 520 Bell road, Mt. Ephraim, N.J. 08059—not too far to prevent her from being an active alumna; and KAREN GRACE FISCHER, who now lives at 768 Huntington avenue, Boston, Mass., 02115.

St. Thomas Episcopal Church, New York City, was the scene of the November wedding of DIANE HAUSERMAN of Short Hills and Beach Haven, and James Frederick Pilgrim of Richmond, Ind. MARY JENNESS was Dianne's maid of honor. After she was graduated from St. Mary's, Penn State and the Institute of Fine Arts of NYU, Dianne was a Chester Dale Fellow at the Metropolitan Museum of Art. Her husband, a Williams alumnus, also was graduated from the Institute of Fine Arts and was a Clawson Milles Scholar at the Metropolitan. He is curator of American art at the Corcoran Gallery of Art in Washington, D.C. They are making their home at 1915 Kalorama road. Washington, 20009.

'60 Two members of this class each report new daughters and new homes. Mrs. D. Douglas Roberts (VIRGINIA McPHERSON) has a daughter, Katherine Leslie, born June 26, to join two sons. The home is at 15 Noreen Drive, Morrisville, Pa. 19067. (Perhaps the Roberts' children will be coming to St. Mary's and Doane.) The Donald R. Blairs' (CHAPIN SMITH) daughter arrived a bit earlier, but IVY LEAVES just learned of the birth. Mary Chapin was born Aug. 8, 1967. The new home (since November) is 45 Broad street, Flemington, N.J. 08822.

Indirectly we hear that "E.J." STOCKTON is leaving her "fabulous job" with Harper's Bazaar to go to Paris. At the present, her address is 24 E. 73rd street, New York City. Can we expect a letter telling all about it, E.J.?

There are new addresses for: Mrs. Richard D. Wright (PENELOPE REGGIE), who has moved to 2932 Calhoun street, New Orleans, La. 70100, and for Mrs. Frederick L. Malan (KATHY BODWELL) at 27 E. Central avenue, Paoli, Pa. 19301 (Apartment H-5)

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Seth D. Rosen (CYNTHIA D. COHEN). A son, Gregory Alexis, was born Feb. 18. The Rosens live at 4600 Connecticut avenue, N.W., Washington D.C. 20008 (Apartment 831).

'61 In a candle light service performed Aug. 8 in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents, LINDA DAVIES was married to Landon Cameron. The Rev. Randall Conklin, chaplain, officiated. Linda and her husband, safely returned from service in Vietnam, are living at 225 Jefferson avenue, Bristol, Pa. 19007.

Three cheers for TRUDY SCOTT! She has embarked on a long-held ambition to study medicine, having resigned from St. Mary's faculty and is a student at the Women's Medical College in Philadelphia. All good wishes to her!

25 Chamberlain Drive, West Seneca, N.Y. 14210, is the new address of the Richard W. Petris (BETSY SIEGRIST). They moved in October, thankful to be out of an apartment, in plenty of time to welcome their second child, Melissa Ann, Jan. 29. They also have a son, Todd.

The Samuel Gallinos (SUSAN YOUNGS) have moved to Crosswicks, N.J. and have a home on Main street. Their zip code is 08515.

Mrs. Joseph J. Plumeri 2d (NANCY WALTON) gives her address at 701 Parkway avenue, Trenton, N.J. (Apartment A-15) 08618.

SANDRA SMITH, busy working for a doctorate at the University of North Carolina, took time off last summer for a lengthy European tour. She found it hard to return!

At last we have an address for SUSAN KAHN. Sue works for the MacMillan Company and may be addressed at Apartment 3-F, 171 E. 77th street, New York City 10021.

SUZANNE SHAW Smith will be matron of honor when her sister, MARY VIRGINIA, is married in Cambridge, Mass., in the summer. She and her husband, David, find their home in Honolulu to be a good center from which to travel. They spent two months last summer traveling in New Zealand and Australia, climbing a glacier and skiing. In August they came to New Jersey to visit Sue's mother and uncle and to Massachusetts to be with David's family. Then back to their home for Sue to take up her duties teaching at The Hawaiian School for Girls and for David to return to Punahou School where he is a member of the faculty. Sue loves her school because "the spirit is much like that of St. Mary's."

'62 JAY and JOANNE COOPER LAPIN—Jay attended SMH, too, graduating from our 8th grade before there was a Doane—are living at 2528 Greenwich street, San Francisco, Calif., 94123, with their son, Matthew Patrick, who was born Aug. 24. Jay was graduated in June from Harvard Law School and is a law clerk for an associate justice of the California State Supreme Court.

We hear that BARBARA L. ZELTMACHER lives at 140 E. 46th street (Apartment 3-0), New York City 10017.

The marriage of LYNNE

COANE to Dr. Bruce Brofman took place March 1 in Har Sinai Temple, Trenton. They will live at 401 E. 74th street, New York City. Lynne was graduated from Boston University's School of Communications and Columbia University School of Social Work. Her husband is completing his residency in obstetrics and gynecology at Flower Fifth Avenue Hospital and Metropolitan Hospital.

'63 This class has furnished three of 1968's brides.

On May 25 MARTHA JANE CONWAY was married to John Norman Gabrial of Methuen, Mass., in a ceremony performed in the St. Mary's Chapel by the chaplain, the Rev. Randall Conklin. They live in the Danbury Park Apartments, Methuen, 01844. Martha, an alumna of Katharine Gibbs School, studied photography at Endicott Junior College and the Country School of Photography in South Woodstock, Vt. Her husband is an alumnus of Manlius School and Norwich University and is associated with the Phoenix of Hartford Insurance Company.

The marriage of PRISCILLA DAVIE WODEHOUSE to Harrison Taylor Barrow Jr., was performed by the Very Rev. Lloyd G. Chattin (former St. Mary's trustee) in Trinity Episcopal Cathedral, Trenton on July 13, Priscilla, an alumna of Briarcliffe College (in its first class to graduate after it became a four-year institution) teaches in a Hamilton Square, N.J. school. Her husband is with the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company in nearby Roebling. They are making their home at 810 Renard Lane, Morrisville, Pa. 19067.

Christ Episcopal Church, Bordentown, was the scene Aug. 31, of the marriage of KAREN BLACK to Robert Sweeney. The Rev. Russell A. Smith (assistant chaplain at St. Mary's and chaplain for Doane, as well as father of SANDRA SMITH, '61) performed the ceremony. The Sweeneys live at 238 Farnsworth avenue, Bordentown, 08505 and Karen commutes to New Lisbon where she teaches at the N.J. State Colony. Bob attends Trenton State College.

And of course, there are a lot of new addresses. ANNE WRIGHT reports her address as 69 Fifth avenue, New York City 10003. "I left my job as assistant buyer at Bonwit's in mid-August," she writes. "Now I am doing graduate work at NYU for a master's degree in education. I hope eventually to get into some sort of educational research."

The John R. Van Scivers (SUSAN HOPKINS) are living at 90 King Edward Avenue, London, Ontario, Canada (Apartment 14). They love London, "the slower paced life and are delighted with the hospitality of the people." John is an engineer with the Cinnati (sic) System. The Van Scivers spent several days in Burlington during the Christmas holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Bryant Cureton (JEANETTE SMITH) returned to Bordentown in September and are making their home with Jeanette's grandfather, Dr. Harold M. Smith, retired headmaster of BMI (address: 17 Farnsworth avenue, 08505). Jeanette teaches French in Lenape High School, Medford, while Bryant commutes to the University of Pennsylvania to work for his doctorate in political science.

IBBY STRATTON Kapp (Mrs. Robert J.) may be addressed at Columbia, Mo. (R.D. No. 2) 65201.

Mrs. Frank A. Ward (AILEEN HOWE) gives 44 Bennett Drive, Stoughton, Mass., 02072, as her new address.

From SHARON REILLY Baughman (Mrs. James T. Jr.) came an amusing "Peanuts" postal showing Snoopy getting a letter from a rural mailbox and remarking "Happiness is getting mail at your new address." That new address for Sharon is Hillside Apartments (23-B) Newton, N.J. 07860.

'64 The marriage of JENNIFER SCHWED to Albert F. Kellum Jr. took place March 22 in the Chapel of the Navy Officers Candidate School, Newport, R.I. The couple is living at 4510 N. W. 23d Court, Fort Lauderdale, Fla. 33313. Both are graduates of Florida Atlantic University in Boca-Raton.

On June 10, REBECCA DEITZ was married in Har Sinai Temple, Trenton, to James A. Levy of Yardley. The bride's sister, Mrs. Richard M. Hochman (JOAN DEITZ, '59) was matron of honor. We wish we knew Rebecca's address. We suspect it is in the Trenton area since her husband is associated with the S.P. Dunham Company of Trenton. He is an alumnus of the University of Pennsylvania and Rebecca was graduated from Boston University.

Har Sinai Temple was again the scene of the wedding of a graduate when on July 6 BARBARA ANNE SACKIN was married to Bruce Jay Berger of Trenton. PATTI ALBERT (see below) was a bridesmaid. Barbara is a Goucher graduate and her husband, an alumnus of Dartmouth, attends the Tufts University School of Medicine.

PATTI ALBERT was herself a bride on Nov. 30 when she married Kenneth Saul Cohen at the Greenacres Country Club in Trenton. Patti is an alumna of the University of Wisconsin where she was president of Sigma Delta Tau sorority. Her husband, a math teacher in a junior high school, was graduated from Yale where he was a member of the Fence Club and of Skull and Bones Society and was business manager of the Yale Daily News.

Send us your addresses, Rebecca, Barbara and Patty!

SANDRA YOUNG was graduated in June from Bob Jones University, Greenville, S.C. where she majored in elementary education and was a member of Chi Sigma Literary Society. She was frequently on the dean's list, too.

MYRNA HOPE BLANK'S engagement has been announced to David Arnold Herz of Brooklyn. They plan a June wedding after David gets a medical degree from the New York Medical College and Flower and Fifth Avenue Hospitals. Myrna, an alumna of Boston University, also holds a degree from Mills College of Education. She teaches first grade in a New York City public school.

The Steven Warchols (DONNA ROCKHILL) announce the birth of a son, Robert Steven, Oct. 17, 1968. The Warchols live at 215 Garfield avenue, South Bound Brook, N.J. 08805.

And here's a new listing for Mrs. Richard C. Zammito (ARLENE PALMER): 309 Sylvan Knoll road, Stamford, Conn., 06902.

'65 The Chapel of the Holy Innocents was again the scene of a wedding on Aug. 17, when NANCY JEANE CARSON of Hamilton Square became the bride of S. David Berst of Carbondale, Ill. The Rev. Randall Conklin once more officiated. A reception at the Carson home was followed by a wedding trip to Cape Cod. Nancy is a senior at MacMurray College, Jacksonville, Ill., and her husband, an alumnus of McMurray, is doing graduate work at Ohio University. Address Nancy at her parents' home, 4007 Nottingham Way, Hamilton Square, N.J. 08690.

Another August wedding, although we know neither the exact date nor the place, was that of WENDE MERCIER to Anthony B. Gorman. Their home is at 1338 New Rodgers road (Apartment N-11) Levittown, Pa. 19056. Wende is employed at Helene Fuld Hospital in Trenton (after graduating from the Franklin School of Science and Arts). The bridegroom is associated with the Trap Rock Industries in Kingston, N.J.

In Trinity Episcopal Cathedral Trenton, was held the September wedding of JANE H. WALTON and George Thomas Wolfson. The Very Rev. Lloyd G. Chattin, dean (and former SMH trustee) officiated and Mrs. Joseph J. Plumeri (NANCY WALTON, '61) was her sister's matron of honor. A bridesmaid was ANDREA J. PIERCE of Harbourton (see below). After a reception at the Princeton Inn and a honeymoon in Jamaica, the Wolfsons settled in Toledo, Ohio, where George attends the university. We do not have their address.

While she was still Walton and not yet Wolfson, Nancy was pictured in the Trenton Times, along with another Junior League provisional, as they prepared a tape recording of children's stories to be used in Trenton public schools. Nancy stood by with a handful of paper to crunch and a glassful of water to trickle as sound effects for the recording.

On Dec. 28, in the St. Mary's Hall Chapel, ANDREA JEAN PIERCE, daughter of Trustee Arnold C. Pierce and Mrs. Pierce, was married to Frank Scott Bigelow of Boulder, Colo. Of course Father Conklin performed the ceremony. BARBARA PIERCE ('67) was maid of honor for her sister. The Bigelows left on a ski wedding trip to Steamboat, Colo. They will live in Boulder where both Andy and her husband are seniors at the University of Colorado. Frank served in the U.S. Army Intelligence Corps.

Announcement of LENORE BELL'S marriage to Donald Noel Reitz must have been misplaced for it has only now turned up— more than a year late—to be included in this year's IVY LEAVES. It occurred Dec. 28, 1967, in Old Christ Church, Philadelphia, with the Rev. Ernest A. Harding (speaker at a Founder's Day luncheon several years ago) officiating. Lenore attended the Academy of Fine Arts in Philadelphia and Carnegie Institute in Pittsburgh, where her husband studies architecture. We are sorry for our tardiness, Lenore.

The Edwin Runyons (PAMELA YOUNGS) have announced the birth of a son, Edwin Charles J. on June 8. If he follows the Rockhill-Youngs tradition, he'll someday be enrolled in St. Mary's (and, eventually, in Doane).

'66 BARBARA FAYE SHARLIN'S engagement to Sheldon S. Berkman of Trenton was announced in November. Barbara is a junior at Drexel Institute of Technology and her fiance is a senior at Temple University.

BARBARA E. McCREE of Cinnaminson was graduated in June from Penn Hall Junior College.

A June wedding is planned by LEONA MARY SOLTESZ. She will marry David Maffei of Trenton. Leona attended Mt. Vernon Junior College. Her fiance is a student at Princeton University.

Changes of address are noted for:

Mrs. Kenneth Smith (DARLA LOCKE) 3301 Telegraph avenue (Apartment 34), Oakland, Calif., 94609 and Evangela A. Apostolaros, R.D. 3 —534, Princeton, N.J. 1954.

DEBORAH F. YOUNGBLOOD may always be addressed care of the Malcolm Lewises, 406 Locust street, Burlington 08016.

'67 KATHLEEN A. COOMBS DiBlassio (Mrs. Joseph D.) lists her address as 1717 Bath road (Apartment A-17), Bristol, Pa. 19007.

'68 All the members of our baby class are in college and here's the list:

DONNA GRIFFING, Pierce Jr. College, Philadelphia.

ARLENE KOLMAN, Adelphia University, Garden City, N.Y.

JANE LAWRENCE, Lynchburg College, Lynchburg, Va.

MARGARET McLEAN, Bennett College, Millbrook, N.Y.

KATHARINE McMillan, Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y.

CHRISTINE PICARD, Thiel College, Greenville, Pa.

CHERYL PODKUL, Finch College, New York City.

SHARON SHAFFER, University of Denver, Denver, Colo.

KATHERINE SMALL, William Smith College, Geneva, N.Y.

BARBA STULTS, Ithaca College, Ithaca, N.Y.

JACQUELINE THOMAS, Lycoming College, Williamsport, Pa.

KATHARINE THROPP, Garland Junior College, Boston, Mass.

JOAN URKEN, Goucher College, Towson, Md.

PAMELA WEDDLE, Stratford College, Danville, Va.

Associates

Her many friends send sympathy to Mrs. W. Tod Black (NAN ATKINSON) on the death of her husband in early October. Mr. Black had been ill for many months. In January, Nan visited with friends in Picyune, Miss., and made a three-week motor trip to Mexico with them. Pictures she took on the trip are simply beautiful.

Miss Newbold tells us that ALICE HUANG who attended the Hall from first through eighth grade and was graduated from National Cathedral School, was married in October to Professor David Baltimore of M.I.T. (Alice is also on the M.I.T. faculty.) The couple honeymooned in Europe. Alice earned a PhD from Johns Hopkins in 1966. She delivered a lecture series at Academia Sinica of the University of Taiwan and later was with the Salk Institute.

Students of St. Mary's in the early '20's remember Gertrude Sinclair (sister of Mrs. S. Kissam Kerr —ELIZABETH SINCLAIR, '20). We have just learned that she is Mrs. R. Stedman Jones and lives at 25 Villa de la Reunion, Paris 16, France.

The engagement of MARY HALE CROUCH, a student of recent years, has been announced to James Richard Semple, son of Mrs. Rosabelle Hagen of Palmyra, N.J. Mary was recently graduated from the Pan American Art School in New York City.

Mrs. Donald S. Humphreys (ELIZABETH REYNOLDS) may be addressed at Wesley Manor, Apt. 9-B, Bay Avenue, Ocean City, N.J. 08226.

Gleaned from the grape vine is news that Mrs. Joseph Gooch (EDITH ALBERT) of Bronxville. Former trustee, of Bronxville, associate and former trustee, has not been in good health. We wish her a speedy and steady recovery.

Congratulations to JOHNNY BOND and his wife, Anne, whose first child, Sharon Lisa, was born February 8. Johnny is an alumnus of the SMH eighth grade. He and his family now live in Whitehouse, N.J.

Former Faculty

Has IVY LEAVES ever noted that Miss Frances Taylor moved some time ago from her Locust Street Apartment to 34 West Broad street, Burlington, 08016? The apartment is charming, as those who know Miss Taylor would expect it to be. Curiously, it is an apartment in the old home of Miss Eliza Ridgway, long-time president of the Society of Graduates. In December, Miss Taylor flew to Georgia to spend the holidays with her sisters. She escaped New Jersey's cold but not the flu, and stayed recovering in Georgia until early March. Happily, she is now well and home once more.

Retired as editor for the Christian Education Department of the National Council of the Episcopal Church, Miss Eleanor Sandt is living at 485 1/2 Valley Road, Upper Montclair, N.J. 07043 and summering at her cottage at Beaver Lake, N.J. Last summer she taught in the Head Start program near her cottage. Miss Newbold reports a happy visit with her in January.

As for Miss Newbold, she has made a complete recovery from the detached retina she suffered last year. She and her sister, Mrs. Minks, continue to make their home on Yubas avenue, Burlington, 08016, and during the holiday entertained KAY SALMON for a brief visit.

Of special interest at St. Mary's where he was chaplain for a number of years, was the announcement in September that the Rev. Canon Wilbur E. Hogg of Falmouth Foreside, Me., had been named dean of the Cathedral Church of St. Luke, Portland, Me. The announcement is of double interest at St. Mary's because Mrs. Hogg is the former Leota Curtis, former head of the Hall's Music Department and composer of "Hymn to St. Mary's." The Hoggs' may be addressed at 143 State street, Portland, 04101.

Enrollments Boom

Both St. Mary's and Doane are enjoying goodly filled classes. The former have an enrollment of 268 girls. The new boys' school boasts 84 students, a long way from the zero of three years ago this date.

Two Named As Parent-Trustees

Two new members have been elected by the Board of Trustees. They are Dr. Jerome Urken of Bordentown and James McCornack of Beverly. Both have ties with students, past and present.

Dr. Urken, father of JOAN URKEN '68, has two other children in school, Gail, a sophomore in St. Mary's, and Mark, an eighth grader in Doane.

Mr. McCornack is not only the husband of ELIZABETH SECKEL, '33, but the father of Jonathan McCornack in Doane's sixth grade and Katherine McCornack in the third grade of St. Mary's.
