Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

NO. 27 ST. MARY'S HALL—DOANNE ACADEMY BURLINGTON, N.J. 08016 SPRING, 1981

A Message From The Head of The Family

I am most happy to greet you through the Graduate Edition of IVY LEAVES. I have had the pleasure of meeting many of the members of the Society of Graduates and look forward to meeting many more during the year.

As most of you have heard by this time, Dr. and Mrs. Scheel left in August to take positions at Berry Academy in Mount Berry, Georgia. In July, the Board of Trustees appointed me Acting Headmaster while they conduct a search for a permanent Headmaster. It is understood that I am a candidate for the position.

Great strides were made during the summer months all around the campus. The results of the efforts produced freshly painted classrooms and a complete renovation of the parking lot area, including repaving, curbing and a new bridge entrance road. A most beautiful addition on the Riverbank is the Julia Z. Dangler Memorial Garden. The garden and the wonderful new addition to Scarborough Hall were dedicated on September 17th by the Rt. Rev. G.P . Mellick Belshaw, Suffragan Bishop of New Jersey, in a most moving and beautiful ceremony. We wish all of you could have been with us.

The school year really started on an upswing. Our enrollment stands at 259, by far the highest in several years. Kindergarten through Grade has 110 studenets, with 149 in the upper school. In addition admission inquiries are ahead of last year by 25 percent, a sign that the tradition of excellence at St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy has not gone unnoticed. We hope to increase enrollment by 10 percent in the next academic year while maintining the small classes and individual attention which our students need and thrive on.

This year we welcomed quite an impressive array of new faculty to our ranks:

John Lavin — History-Spanish
Peter Gottlieb — English-History
Marybeth Zaruba — Math
Jay McKenzie — Family Life-Health
Joseph Coccia — Shop
Barbara Pritchard — Upper School Librarian
Murial Gordon — Lower School Librarian and a welcome back to Champ Bernauer — Grades 5 and 6

Administratively we are most fortunate to have Roy Dangler as Assistant Headmaster for Business Affairs and John Yale as Assistant Headmaster for Academic Affairs. Both of these men have ben associated with our school for many years, and we hope many more to come. Holding down the post of Director of Admissions and Development is Janet Lewis. Please feel free to contact her regarding promising students or potential contributions for improvements to our facilities.

Our Twenty-Fourth Annual Horse Show was held on October 11th, in the pouring rain! Despite the weather we had a record number of entries in the events and did realize a nice profit.

You have all received a letter from Susan Greene '73 regarding our Annual Giving campaign. I join her in urging you to give as much as you feel you can. After several years of fiscal uncertainity, we now have a distinct and attainable goal for the future — to once again claim our rightful place as the leading academic institution in the Delaware Valley. We can do it only with your help, advice and support.

In closing, I want to extend an invitation to each of you to come for a visit when you are in the area. We always look forward to hearing from you and about you. You are a very vital part of our family. Warmest regards for the upcoming holidays.

Graduate Annual Giving

I think it's time for a heart-to-heart talk. We all, through the years have received many requests for support from our various Alma Maters. Yes, we get tired of it —

But did you ever think how important and unique St. Mary's Hall-Doane is to you? To me, she is the Alma Mater of my mother, myself, 2 sons and daughter. Of course, this makes me very emotionally involved. But you all are in some degree, as she influenced you in your formative years and is part of the individual you now are. Then, she's the oldest Episcopal school traditionally for girls in the United States. Of most importance today, she is still producing above the average citizens for our communities and country. In days like this when the public schools in this area which she serves as a day school are under-educating our young people and demoralizing their characters, she is still influencing them with a sense of moral responsibility in both their private and public lives. Now, she has had the misfortune of having been seriously damaged by a devastating fire.

Please dig way down deep into you heart and your pocketbook and give her as much financial aid as you possibly can NOW. If you have given her support, when you come back for a visit and see her progress, believe me, you will feel 18 feet tall!

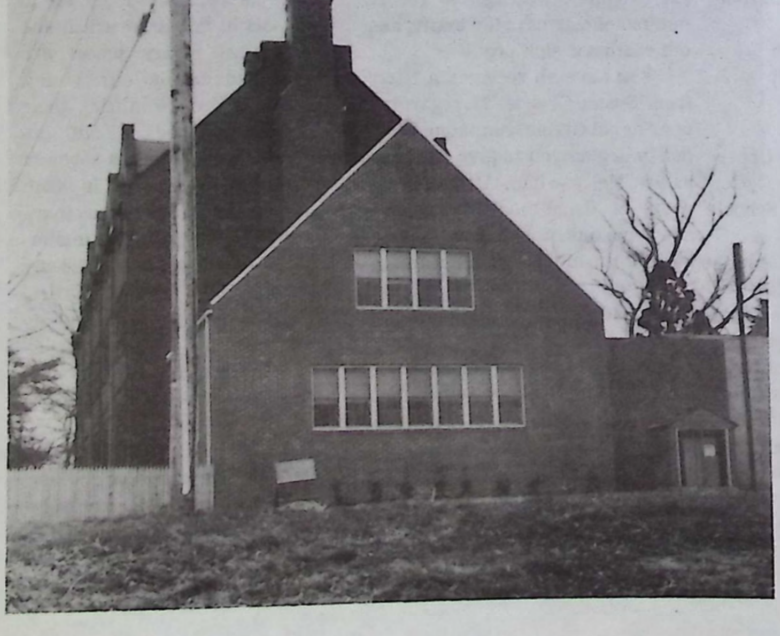

From the Bottomof my heart,
Elizabeth Codding Borden

1980 Graduation and Alumni Day

The Society of Graduates welcomed 27 new members June 7th. The day was shared with Commencement activities and our annual Founders Day celebration.

The day had special significance for both groups. To the graduates it was a culmination of many years of education, a beginning as well as an end. Years at the Hall flashed through their minds. Good times and bad. Friendships and memories. Jubliation and tears. Speaking to the class of 1980 was the Rev. James A. Trimble, Rector of Christ Church, Philadelphia. Awards were given for distinguished achievement. Diplomas were presented by Rev. James Greene, President of the Board of Trustees. Society of Graduate medals were given by Miss Judy Perinchief, President of the Society. Rev. William Scheel celebrated communion during the annual Founders Day service held following commencement. Pansies decorated the portrait of Bishop Doane. Graduates attending Founders Day began the day by attending commencement. After luncheon, the annual meeting waas held.

To all it was a special day. A mixture of memories and special feelings.

Dues . . .

Where Does It Go?

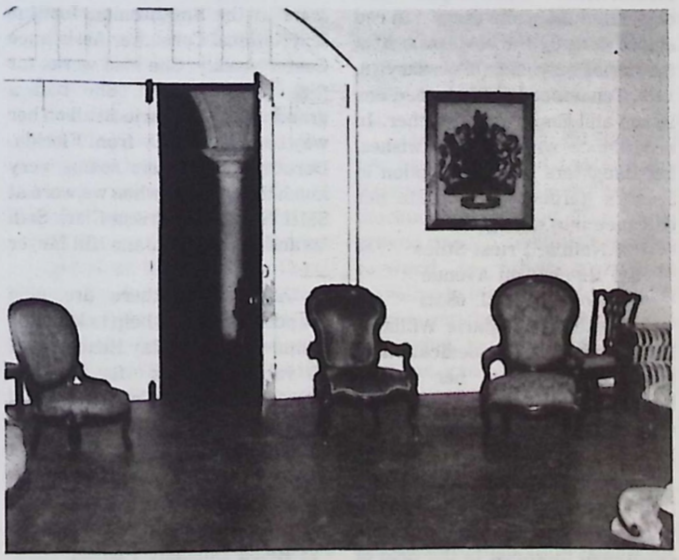

What happens to the revenues generated by your dues to the Society of Graduates? How many times have you wondered about this when you mail your check to the treasurer of the Society of Graduates? No doubt your answer is Ivy leaves publications and mailings received from the Society of Graduates during the year. In part, this is correct, however, there are other ways in which your dues support our school.

Each year the Society of Graduates sponsors a class at the Horse Show, including a silver trophy and ribbons for the class. Each year the Society of Graduates presents the English Award at upper school graduation to the student who demonstrates excellence in English. Each year the Society of Graduates sponsors a Christmas Reunion for graduates in the area for the holidays.

For the last two years, The Society of Graduates has contributed to special needs within the school which could not have been obtained otherwise due to tightening of and maintenance of a balanced school budget. In 1979 the Society of Graduates purchased special emergency medical equipment for the ahtletic program and the school nurse. In 1980 the Society of Graduates purchased new laboratory equipment to replace obsolete equipment to improve the quality of the basic science program.

Would it surprise you to know that of 785 graduates on the mailing list, approximately 100 to 125 pay their annual dues? This statistic is not included to arouse guilt or promote the payment of dues. This is included to inform the graduate body of how the above activities are financed.

The Board of Trustees and the school as a whole are constantly seeking ways to provide a quality experience for the students of today, and they are attempting to do this with sound fiscal credibility. When special needs arise within the school, the Parent Faculty Association, the Society of Graduates and the Thrift Shop are approached to finance these needs. As the school grows, the Society of Graduates will continue to be called upon to meet the challenges of the future and make our contribution as members of the school family.

Male Joins Committee And Board

As the only male to ever have te privilege of being part of the executive committee of the Society of Graduates of St. Mary Hall-Doane Academy, I feel that it is fitting to address the remainder of the graduate body on the importance of participating in this facet of the school life.

During the three years that I have been a member of the executive committee, we have attempted to change the focus of our alumni events. In the past, the focus has been on the female alumni of the school. This is apropos, considering the composition of the alumni body. However, as time goes on, we are adding to the number of male graduates. Therefore, we are expecting more participation from the men in the alumni body.

I is my personal opinion, as an alumnus trustee, and member of the executive committee, that the school will greatly benefit from the participation of all alumni, regardless of gender; but our male graduates must pitch in.

The school is finally operating in the black after suffering numerous setbacks and we must keep it moving forward for the benefit of those who will move through the Hall in the future. I am sure that if each one of us sits back and reflcts upon the days we spent along the Delaware in Burlington, we will conclude that our experiences were truly unique and that others should have the opportunity to benefit from life at the Hall.

Please contribute what you can to the school, not only financially, but in time. We need people to participate in alumni events and the more alumni we have the better these events will be. Contact me at the following address if you have any input on this or any other topic.

Notes On Male Graduates

The purpose of this article is to inform our male graduates as to the whereabouts and activities of their compatriots. I am sure that I will miss many of you, not by design but due to a lack of information. I will only be able to discuss the First Four graduating classes, again due to a lack of information. However, the Society of Graduates is going to be printing the Ivy Leaves on a regular basis so that if you will write to me and give me the "low down" on your latest activities I will make sure that you get a spot in here too.

My address is:

Here goes!!!

Class of 1969

Jay Abbott — is alive and well (I think) in sunny California working as a manufacturer's representative.

Fred Doolittle — no idea.

Thomas Rose — Is married and is living in Stratford, Conn. running his own auto repair business called Super Tune & Tire, phone is 203-378-6121

Frank Sleeper — last time I saw Frank, he was living in Mt. Holly.

Class of 1970

Chris Dugan — married to Margie, they live with their son Chris, Jr. in Pemberton Twp. Chris was teaching industrial arts until June of 1980 at which time he went to work with his brother in his business, T. E. Grimac, Inc., in Mt. Holly.

Gus Fromuth — Gus is working in conjunction with a federal agency in Washington — I think!

Glenn Haber — Rumor has it that he is married, living in the State of Washington and studying law. He could be a lawyer by now.

Ken Kowalachek — No idea.

Terry Rapp — working at Willingboro Chrysler Plymouth in their finance and insurance department.

Larry Rogers — not sure — hear a lot of different views — how about clearing up all this speculation, Larry?

Mike Shappack — no idea.

Class of 1971

John Borden — that's me — married to Debbie, living in the Burlington area. I am working at the First National Bank & Trust Company of Beverly as the Assistant Vice President in charge of commercial loans.

Mike Davis — Not sure but think that he is in Wisconsin.

Joe Durr — what's happenin', Durr!!! Joe is living in Moorestown and is a manufacturer's representative for a company that makes paints and industrial coatings.

Rick Kelly — he has graduated from Hofstra Law School, is a member of the New Jersey and Pennsylvania Bar, and is an associate in a law firm in Yardville. Rick is single and lives in Allentown,N.J.

Steve Kravitz — studying to be a podiatrist in Phildelphia.

Les Lamb — no idea

Steve Mann — ditto

Jeff Miller — Married, has at least one child, and lives in Maine as far as I know.

Brad Pickard — married and living in Trevose, Pa. Brad is self employed in the food industry and is quite successful.

Paul Worthington — several years ago Paul was a ranger in a northern Florida forest, was married and I think he had a child.

By the way, genetlemen,this coming Spring will be the tenth anniversary of the gradution of the Class of 1971. The annual Founders Day-Spring Reunion would be ideal for celebrating this momentous event.

Class of 1972

Steve Bernauer — lives in Colorado, skis, and rides a Moto Guzzi.

Glen Blakley — lives in New Hope.

That's all I know at this point. If you guys write, regardless of your class, we can make this better

Class Notes

'17 Martha Antrim Pettit continues to enjoy extensive travels each year. Her trip to mainland China revealed the openess of the people and their zeal to catch up in the modernization of their country. Martha represents the class of '17 each year at Founder's Day.

'18 Emma Perrine LeQuier is still active involunterism in her community and church. She looks forward to her sojourns in Europe yearly.

'19 We learned of the death of Jessie Porter Kirk Newton in February 1979 from Emily Wooley Goddard '21. Jessie had fulfilled the promise of long ago, being a woman of vision, enthusiasm and charm, she was the instigator of many innovations in her home town, Key West, Florida. She was responsible for the annual house tour through the Old Island Restoration Foundation and originated the white dress and red shawl worn by the hostesses. At a memorial service on February 18, 1979, Tennessee Williams read one lesson and Emily read another. In accordance with Jessie's wishes, her daughters held a reception in Jessie's garden to celebrate her entrance into a larger life.

'24 Natalie Priest Stiles
340 Hutchinson Avenue
Haddonfield, N.J. 08033

A letter from Marie Williams Beall indicated her dedication to three grandsons of her second husband. Marie is living in Charlotte, N.C. and would welcome letters or visits from classmates.

Elizabeth Grayson has been fully retired for four years after a very satisfying career as an occupational therapist in the field of cerebral palsy.

Dorothy Richardson volunteers at the Smithsonian Institue and National Consumer Assistance Center weekly. She also works for the "Boat People". She had a grand visit with Marie Beall on her way back from D.C. from Florida. Dorothy says Marie seems very much the same as when we were at SMH. She sees Clarissa Clark Seth '23 and hears from Jane Hill Meyer '23.

As for me, there are nine grandchildren who help to keep the summer house in Bay Head busy. I do volunteer work for the Red Cross Blood Bank, Cooper Hospital (Camden), Philadelphia Orchestra Association and Haddonfield Sewing League during the winter and All Saint's Church Guild during the summer.

'25 Helen Donnelly Hensler
Box H
Island Heights, N.J. 08732

Kay Johnson Kraft keep busy with lots of hospital volunteer work and traveling whenever possible. It is unbelievable that our class of 24 members lists only 9 of us today. If you know the whereabouts of some of our missing classmates, do let me know or notify the school.

'27 Susan Brodhead
520 Fifth Street
Catasauqua, Pa. 18032

From time to time I communicate with Virginia VanCourt Hibberd by phone and visit with Elizabeth Durell '28 each summer. I understand from friends in Allentown, Pa. that Eleanor Lawton Fish '22 is still living there and that her son passed away about three years ago. I would enjoy hearing from other

Washington Crossing, Pa. 18977

The class of '30 had a good time at our 50th Reunion in June. Three of us represented the class; Elizabeth Ridley came up from Washington, May Cumpston Dudley and me. Sorry more of you could not have been with us.

I see Isabel Ridge Guckes when I play golf at Huntingdon Valley Country Club. Golf is my major occupation during the summer now that I'm retired. John and I spend our winters at our condominium in Sun City, Florida.

We were all saddened by the death of Justine (Toppy) Woodall on August 6, 1979. Toppy graduated from Hood College and Drexel University Library School. For 39 years she was the school librarian at Wilmington Friends School. After her retirement in '73 to Georgetown, M.D. She became active in Kent County Conservation and the Georgetown Association. She will be missed by all of us.

'31 Mary Elizabeth Clayberger Burns has retired from her N.J. state job. One daughter and her family live with Mary Elizabeth. She says the house is full and there are way too many animals. She is active in the local historical society and is president of ECU at her church. Mary Elizabeth says she is always going to return to the Hall but never seems to make it.

Betty Heyl has retired from full time employment, but does continue to manage the business affairs of the Buttonwood Nursery School owned and directed by her sister. She has found more time to volunteer in the SMH-DA Thrift Shop and at the Burlington County Historical Society.

Charlotte Woodall Dennett has retired from her library work but manages to do TESOL tutoring and an odd course now and then at Manhattanville College. Her daughter is working for a management consulting firm in Washington. Charlotte and her sister, Toppy '30, were part of a SMH family for several generatins. Her mother, Justine Peverly in the class of 1905, her aunt Charlotte Peverly Hunkell in the class of 1915 and her cousin Charlotte Peverly Silver in the class of 1944. By the time her own daughters came along, SMH had become a day school and so it ended.

Annette Leigh Traub was an active volunteer and board member of the Mercer Medical Center in Trenton until about a year ago. She has written a weekly news sheet for the yacht club in Beach Haven, N.J. where the family has a summer home. Annette would love to hear from classmates.

Elizabeth Meirs Morgan is busy with the Ocean County Historical Society and is program chairperson and director of the Ocean County Nature and Conservation Society. She gives lectures on the Jersey Pine Barrens and continues to write for magazines when she can. Her husband, Luman, is retired, but still does supply work for the Episcopal Church. Their son, James is a philosophy professor at Villanova and son Nicholas is with the Interstate Title Co., in Toms River.

Libby Hunn Naisby notes that though she did not realize it at the time, SMH helped her develop self assurance, confidence and poise which has assisted her in leadership positions she has held in her adult life. Her activities have and do cover a variety of fields from hospital auxillaaries, to women's clubs, to county arts councils, to the board of the Harlem Philharmonic in NYC. She also collects old doll houses and judges doll house shows. She also designs and creates oriental doll house rugs which she says are handy to carry along when traveling. Each year Libby and her husband play Mr. and Mrs. Santa for the local community. Libby claims she lives a simple life in the country, but her activities indicate she is a curious, interested and involved person who lives life.

'35 Louise Hathaway Norman is a publicist for the South Coast Air Quality Management District, the smog fighting agency for Los Angeles. Her daughter, Stephanie, is an installer for Pacific Telephone and her mother is proud of her accomplishments.Louise reports that her sister Jean '41 loves the great Northwest where she lives in Everett, Washington. Louise says she never ceases to be grateful for her SMH education, it has often stood by her when the going got rough.

'39 Spring Reunion was a very spcial day for Charlotte Landreth Melville, it was also gradution day for her daughter Linda '80. Charlotte commented on her dual role of reuning grad and proud mother.

Priscilla Ireland Brower also returned for reunion to give the class of '39 two representatives.

'40 Eleanor Shoemaker Spencer
23 East Avenue
Swedesboro, N.J. 08085

Ann Pumyea is in her 34th year at the Springside School in Chestnut Hill, Pa. Trips to Scandinavia, Russia and the West Coast have consummed Ann's vacation time the last few years. She says she is agin amazed by the beauty of our country each time she sees a different area.

All is well with the Seaman family according to Catherine (Capozzi). With their 4 children spread in different time zones, travel has become a way of life.

'79 was a difficult year with the death of my mother, but '80 has been much better. I am teaching kindergarten and each year is a new experience. I have been elected to the vestry of Trinity Church here. John is still teaching 8th grade and was recently elected to Borough Council. Son, Terry is in California operating his own contracting business.

We have received notification of the death of Helen Barber Bates, who died at her home in Horseheads, N.Y.

'44 Charlotte Peverly Silva and her husband visited Lois Westby Valetta at her hotel-guest house in Stockbridge, England. They had a greand reunion and Lois is looking forward to other graduates traveling in the area and in need of a room for the night. Lois is also continuing to do miniature portraits on commission. She exhibits annually at the Royal Miniature Society in London.

'45 Mary Belleville Hart
4105 Nottingham Way
Hamilton Square, N.J. 08690

I heard from Joan Hornberger Jesperson and Emily Wright Holy, both saying they had no news and were just trying to keep up with everyday life. I wish I had heard from more 45ers, do send me your news from time to time.

'50 Toni Hulbert Hann
63 Catillian Ct.
Thousand Oaks, Ca. 91360

Alice Shoemaker is teaching classes in Special Education in the Seattle School District for her 8th year. In the summer she takes art classes and does exhibition work. She visited Eleanor MacDonald Worth in D.C. and Ann Ponges Ausnit when in the East for the holidays.

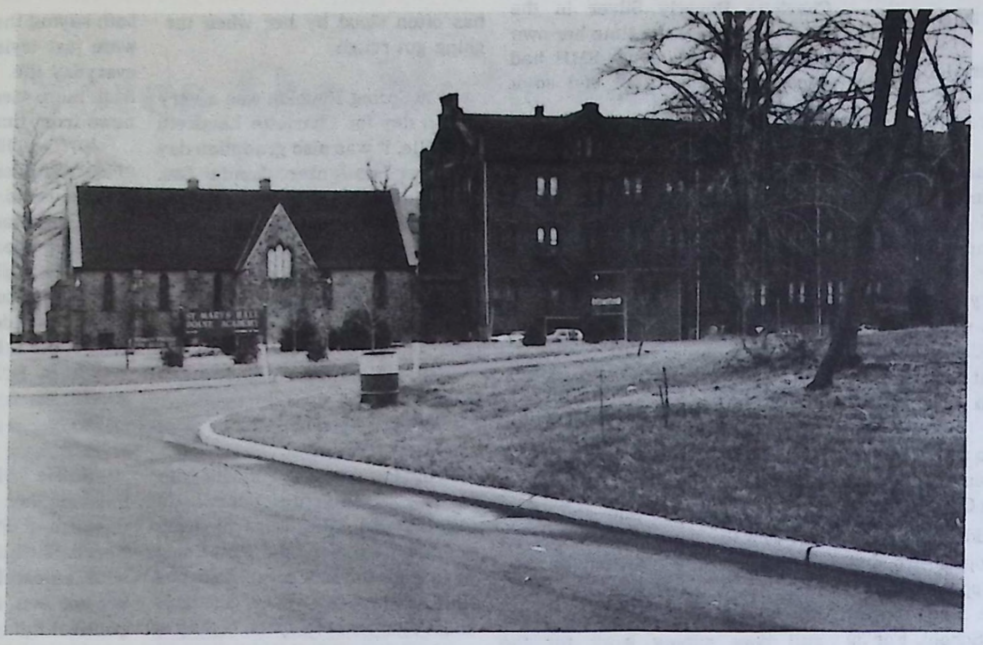

Sallie Siegrist Sypher is finishing her second term as a member of Putnam Valley Town Board. She also helps her husband with research, the most recent project was 16th century French political figures. The research trip to France for two months was great. The Sypher's camp, hike and canoe together. The children are now 16 (Jonathan) and 14 (Ann).

Anne Marie Porges Ausnit is involved with free lance business activities that husband Steve no longer has time for. He is chief executive officers of a campny that has had a great deal of growth and he has therefore been very busy. Anne sent news of Eleanora MacDonald Worth who is living in Alexandria, Va. and takes full advantage of the museums and offerings at the Kennedy Center. Eleo has continued various graduate studies and has traveled extensively to Nepal, Kenya, Japan, Thialand and Burma to mention a few of the recent spots.

Mitzi Crispin Elliott has only one child at home now. Son Jim, is in high school; the other children are in college and out in the world. Since the older ones are not married,there are no grandchildren to spoil. Mitzi is a 3rd grade teacher's aide and loves it.

I am currently working for a plastic and reconstructive surgeon here in Thousand Oaks. My daughters, Linda and Deborah are both married, the former lives in Utah. It was marvelous to receive all the news, do keep in touch about your activiites and wanderings.

'56 Susan Aaronson Hinkley's daughter Marjorie is a senior at the Hall this year. Marjorie is very involved in horses and shows. As a result Sue and Bill find themselves very involved in the horse set too.

Margaret Siegrist Laird spends a fair amount of time volunteering for school projects. Maggie is a firm believer in parents supporting their children and their school.

'57 Bob and Peggy Fenimore Morris have moved into their new home in Moorestown, N.J. They are located across the street from Charles and Katie Hutton Tweedy '59.

Alice S. Huang, a former member of the class , has been named director of the Laboratories of Infectious Diseases at Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston and promoted to Professor of Microbiology and Molecular Genetics at Harvard Medical School. Dr. Huang's major emphasis has been in molecular biology of animal viruses and she will be continuing with work attempting to understand the roles of DI particles in pathogenesis and disease. Alice received her BA and PhD from Johns Hopkins University. She has been a visiting professor at National Taiwan University and a year at the Salk Institute of Biological Sciences. She was a postdoctoral Fellow at MIT for three years. In 1977, Alice received the Eli Lilly and Co. Award in Microbiology and Immunology and has been a receipient of research grants from American Cancer Society, National Science Foundation and Damon Runyon Cancer Found.

'59 France Mulford Young was recently elected President of the Board of Directors of the Maryland Theater. The theater was built in 1915 and has been completely restored in the last few years.

Ed and Susan Probasco Olsen have decided the French really know how to have a great holiday after a vacation at the Club Med in Guateloupe. Susan has gone back to college at the University of North Florida in Jacksonville. She is majoring in management. The Probasco's had a family reunion at Sugar Loaf Lodge in the Florida Keys last year. It was the first time Susan, Janice '55, and Gail '57 had all been together in 20 years.

'60 Betsy Fineburg is back to work at her local high school after a sabatical year. During the year she traveled, toured the horse circuit with her niece and just relaxed as much as possible. Bets has bought a new house which she claims is a better size for her needs, so she is now cleaning out the old house.

Everyone who knew E.J. Stockton was shocked by the events surrounding her death in December 1979. Many of her friends and classmates attended the service held at Trinity Cathedral, Trenton.

It was indeed a sad year for the class, Ginny PcPherson Roberts died in December 1979 also, as the result of an automobile accident during the Christmas Holidays.

Former classmate, Linda Platt Parryis living in Medford, N.J. with her husband Charles and their three children.

'66 Leona Soltesz Maffei

Trenton, N.J. 08638

Claire Schaeffer was married to Barry Weart at Advent Luthern Church, Trenton in December 1977. Her husband is a carpenter and they spend time buying, remodeling and reselling houses. Claire has been working as a waitress at the Annex Lounge in Trenton. She has seen Nancy Garwood who is now a professional dancer.

Barbara McCree is taking post graduate courses at Trenton State in special education. She is a teacher-coordinator for the Northern Burlington County District Project Early Bird. In her spare time she designs her own needlepoint and enjoys photography, camping and hiking.

Lynn Hoelzer Jessup has returned from three years in West Germany. While there she and Jim traveled all over western Europe. They are now living in Tacoma, Washington and hope to be there for awhile. Their son Erik J. was born June 2, 1979.

Aliceann Walsh Haulenbeek keeps busy braiding rugs, gardening, caning, making wine and tending Tyler (6) and Amanda (3). She and Jim are active in local politics and have been working on zoning ordiances for there area.

Mona Fishman is living in Society Hill (Philadelphia) and is a Montessori teacher for the Philadelphia Board of Education. She is presently attending Beaver College where she hopes to get a masters degree in early childhood education. In her spare time, Mona works as a travel agent and has gotten a lot of travel as a result.

Mona sent news of Barbara Sharlin Berkman who is living in Trenton. The Berkman's have three children: Lindsey (8), Douglas (5) and Jillian (2).

Steve and Chris Meyer DePalantino took their children Jen and Stevie to Disney World, Chris is not sure who enjoyed it most, the children or their parents. Besides her very busy schedule as a mother, Chris does homebound tutoring for the Centenial Schools (Warminster, Pa.) and works for a market reserach firm in Horsham, Pa.

All of us know where to see Judy Light weekdays, but does anyone know how to get in touch with her? Letters from classmates have been answered with "fan" letters from the network. If anyone has a home address for Judy, please forward it tome.

As for me, I'm still teaching American History at Burlington City Middle School and I codirect the Student Enrichment Program. With the renovation of Burlington City, I have become active in the City Historical Program. For those of you who have not been in Burlington for years, there have been many changes. The Riverbank is a beautifully landscaped park area and many of the shops on High Street have been remodeled nd colonialized. David will graduate this year from NY Chiropractic College and will open his practice in Lawrenceville in early '81.

Doris Fischer Perry and her husband Steve enjoy painting and repairing their house when not canoeing. Steve is in law school at the University of Wisconsin.

Steve and Arlene Holman Harris became the proud parents of a daughter, Rebecca, in April 1979. Bob and Donna Griffing Dovi have also added to their family. Robert Matthew was born March 8, 1979 and joins his big sister Lisa (8). John and Pam Weddle Joyce are temporarily living in Virginia while John is taking a graduate course in Military Law. John Stahl was born March 1, 1979 and with three year old Lindsey Sara, Pam really has her hands full.

Kathy McMillan is also in the Washington area. She says her life is finally beginning to calm down a bit. Her current position as Deputy Director of Medicare and Medicaid offices at HEW is a very challenging one.

Janie Lawrence Faourvour is teaching second grade and husband Jack is working on his Lh-D in Physical Education. In every free moment they enjoy their two boys, Jason (7) and Jared (4).

Jacqui Thomas continues working at the Burlington County Welfare Board and is taking courses toward her Masters in Social Work. Jacqui is active in the Society of Graduates as the secretary.

Kate Tropp has her own jewelry shop, The Maker's Mark; on Shoper's Wharf in Bay Head. She is really enjoying it.

Chris Picard Olsen is taking grad courses in management. She wonders if there will ever be an end to her education process!

Ellen Sommer has been found, and only 10 miles from me. She is working for the Department of Agriculture in the Food Stamp Program. Traveling the ten state area is part of her job as a trouble shooter for the program.

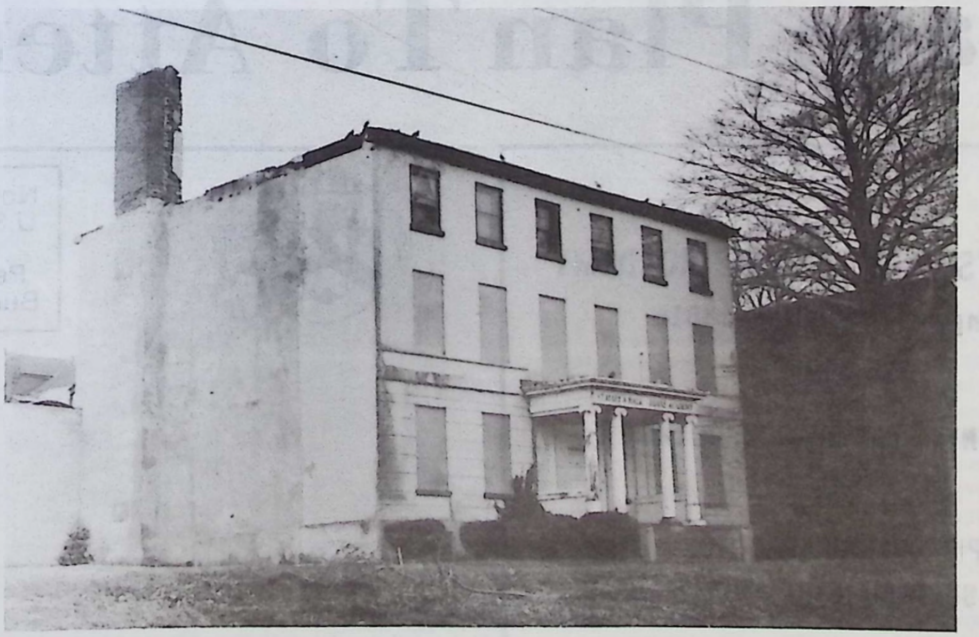

Lou and I have been in our home for a year now. We spent a lot of time scraping, caulking and repairing inside and out, but it's shaping up now. Lou is an accountant in Trenton and I'm still peddling insurance. If anyone knows the whereabouts of Linnie McLean Livingston, Karen Schaffer or Cate Small please let me. know

'72 Holly Wolf and Richard Fox were married May 3, 1980 in Langhorne, Pa. They are not living in Brighton, Mass.

'74 Paul McIlvaine got his degree in goverment service and communications from American University.

'75 Michael Wirtshafter has done the honors as bartender for the Society of Graduates Christmas Reunion for the last two years. He mixes well, ask any of the grads who have attended the reunion.

Susan Flamm received department honors in chemistry and English and was a Durant Scholar (magna cum Laude) upon graduation from Wellesley. She was accepted at Hahnemann Medical School and Northwestern University Medical School. She is now on her way to an M.D.

ST. MARY'S HALL-DOANE ACADEMY BURLINGTON, N.J. 08016 SPRING 1982

BOARD OF TRUSTEES SETS GOALS

At its February meeting the Board of Trustees passed a resolution, at the recommendation of the Development and Long Range Planning Committee, to commit itself to lead and support in every way possible a long term development program designed to insure the future of the school.

The program is based on what St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy has represented for 150 years academically, morally and spiritually and is meant to carry the school into the 21st century in a healthy and physically sound condition. Our needs and goals lie in four areas.

1) An endowment fund to insure the future.

2) Immediate renovation of the physical plant.

3) Immediate curriculum improvements.

4) Doane Hall and Nelson Corridor.

The committee will now engage in researching the methods and means for attaining these basic goals so survival can take place. As we move forward in the development of the program you will be advised, for you as graduates will have a vital and integral part of the play in bringing our design to reality.

A FREE LUNCH

Doesn't Exist! And just as a free lunch doesn't exist, neither can a small independent private school exist without the financial support of its graduates.

Do you know that there are 800 of us out there? Do you also know that only about 10% of us donate to annual giving? I was told that writing this article would have no positive effect. I disagreed. I think that once we all know the facts, the support will be overwhelming.

Fact I: Inflation continues to be everyones biggest enemy. The Hall is no exception. Operating costs continue to increase.

Fact II: The school is in need of many dollars to rebuild the physical plant damaged by the fire. Regular maintenance of the buildings continues to require large sums of money. 100 year old buildings are not easy or cheap to operate or maintain.

Fact III: The enrollment is increasing which requires additional classrooms as well as qualified teachers and staff.

Fact IV: Tuition cannot continue to rise to cover all operating costs. We need to update our programs in order to remain ahead of our competition and provide the quality education for which we are known.

Fact V: If each of us gives an average of $10 that would be $8,000. If we raise the average to $20 that would mean $16,000 and if we got it up to $30 that would mean $24,000 which is approximately the total of all annual giving contributions.

How about it? How about if we show the Administration and Faculty that we really care about what happens. Believe me, any contributions will go a long way towards achieving the school's long range goals.

To those of you who have already given, many thanks for your support! To you who will be giving, well done! To you who will not be giving. . .Well there ain't no free lunch. . .Think about it!

STOCKTON BEQUEST

In 1845 the cornerstone of the Chapel of the Holy Innocents was laid. The chapel has since been an important element as part of St. Mary's Hall/Doane Academy. Within her walls the Chapel has seen many traditions started and changed. The Christmas mystery, that once was an all female production, now includes upperclassmen from St. Mary's and Doane Academy; the annual graduation of Seniors takes place in the Chapel. It has been the site of many of our Society's weddings and christenings. To each student the chapel has a different meaning.

During recent years we who have been back to the Hall have noticed some deterioration within the Chapel. Through the generosity of a bequest to the school by the late E. J. Stockton, who was brutally murdered in her home in Trenton, the much needed repair and restoration has been accomplished. The Society is very grateful to Miss Stockton remembering her Alma Mater with such a generous gift that has restored the Chapel to its previous distinction. A plaque has been hung in the chapel as a memorial to Miss Stockton.

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

This year as President of our Society of Graduates has been a busy one. There have been and are many activities afoot such as the Christmas reunion, the planning of our upcoming Founder's Day celebration May 27, 1982 and the Spring Reunion set for June 5, 1982. I urge you all to write down these dates and plan to attend both, if possible.

I wish to stress most strongly that it is important to keep all our records up to date. This is the only way we can keep in touch which is our main purpose of "being". When you make a change, notify the school. When you come across a change of a fellow graduate notify the school.

In conclusion, please support the school monetarily to the best of your ability. There is still a lot of construction and maintenance needed in order to stay competitive in the private school area. Every dollar puts us closer to the goals and yours will help.

Is there something you wish to know about? Why not ask. This paper is for you the Alumni of SMH/DA. Let us know! Write in care of the school.

GRADUATES CELEBRATED TOGETHER

As it has been the custom for several years, these two occasions are shared together, Commencement and Founder's Day.

The Society of Graduates gained seventeen new members on June 6th, 1981, both male and female.

The day was typical with hot humid weather but beautiful overhead. The Society of Graduates began to assemble by 9:30 a.m. for registration. We were delighted to have many members with us for their 50th reunion. Also present were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Slater, Mrs. Slater Headmistress '53 to '74 as well as Mrs. Howard K. Shaw, Administrative Secretary during the 60's thru the mid 70's.

At 10:00 graduates, Board Trustees, faculty and parents gathered for the Commencement program in the Chapel of the Holy Innocents. The exercises began with the Invocation by the Reverend Dennis E. Norris.

Following was the Installation of The Reverend Peder Nils Bloom as Headmaster. Mr. Bloom is the third head of the school in its long history to be installed in an official ceremony. The installation was conferred by the Reverend Canon James Green, President of the Board of Trustees. The address to the graduating class was given by Douglas O. McClure, Headmaster Of Princeton Day School Conferring the diplomas was Assistant John W. Yale and Society of Graduates medals were presented by Judith Perinchief, President of the Society of Graduates. The Alma Mater was sung by the congregation and students. Benediction was offered by the Reverend Canon Green, followed by a hymn and recessional.

Next on the agenda was a reception held in Scarborough Dining Hall for the current graduates, Board of Trustees, faculty, parents and friends.

At noon the Society of Graduates assembled in the chapel for the annual Memorial Founder's Day Service and Communion. The celebrant for this service was the Reverend Canon Randall J. Conklin, who received honorary membership in the Society. During the luncheon that followed, Reverend Bloom spoke to the Society on the improvements in the last year of both the physical appearance scholastic standing and the goals for the future of St. Mary's Hall/ Doane Academy.

Our annual business meeting followed during which Elizabeth Codding Borden '44 was installed as our President. To all involved it was a very special day.

CHRISTMAS 1981

By now we are all hoping that spring is just around the corner, however, let us not forget the overwhelming turnout and success at this years St. Mary's Hall/Doane Academy Christmas reunion.

The holiday season brought many alumni back for the first time in years and the Christmas festivities rekindled the Alumini's spirit. Commenting on the festive crowd, Headmaster Peder Bloom suggested that this years reunion experienced the highest attendance since his association with the school. Many Alumni present echoed his sentiments by actively encouraging more classmates to support next years reunion.

However, will Steve Gravatt bring along more of the California sunshine next year and will Mike Davis please leave his snow in Wisconsin.

Alumni, keep posted, keep in touch with your classmates. There will be another reunion soon. Alumni support is essential for continued growth and development of St. Mary's Hall/Doane Academy.

HAVE YOU PAID YOUR DUES

MADE A CONTRIBUTION TO ANNUAL GIVING?

PLEASE DON'T FORGET

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Now that you have finished the part of the paper that most everyone looks at first, Class Notes, let me thank you for reading on. Of course there are some that don't read past that part of the paper, but I am sure that there are many others who are just as interested in other aspects of life at SMH/Doane Academy than just what classmates and friends are doing. It takes quite a bit of time and effort to coordinate this area of Ivy Leaves. Letters must be written to class agents, class agents must write to classmates who inturn must respond, and all this must be completed within a certain amount of time. Then the coordination begins. But lets back up a bit. Below you will find a current list of people who are willing to act as agents. You will see that there are some years missing. That is because no one has volunteered to help us in preparing the most popular area of the paper. If you wish to volunteer for your class or more than one class, please write in care of Society of Graduates St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy. Maybe you will be the one that will submit information about someone everyone is interested in hearing about.

The class extends their sympathy to Teresa Pearcy Blodgett who's husband, John passed away April 30, 1981 in Vista, CA.

Marcia Kitchell Francis reports that she still lives in her own home but due to arthritis and cataracts she rarely goes out. She delights in her three grandchildren (two girls and a boy). Her daughter is with AT and T where she has been employed since her graduation from Mary Washington College in 1963.

Martha Antrim Pettit moved from her home in Willingboro, NJ to an apartment in the Cadbury Retirement Complex in Cherry Hill, NJ. One month after the move, Martha fell and broke her leg. This event put her in the new Cadbury Health Care Center for three months. She is now back in her apartment, but has to take care on foot due to an arthritic knee.

Mary Loranger Forhan's youngest daughter, Jean F. Berry sent word that her mother is a resident of Forest Retirement Center in Drexel, NC. Jean lives nearby so she can visit her mother several times a week.

The school has been notified of the death of Louise Emerson Ronnebeck in Denver, CO.

Ruth Dill Johnson was married to Philip Crockett, June 22, 1940. He is a retired investor and a Rhodes Scholar. Ruth had four children by her first husband, Seward Johnson and she has fourteen grandchildren and one great granddaughter. The Crockett's travels in 1981 took them to Florence in October to celebrate her 78th birthday, then they spent a week in Paris to top off their holiday.

Elizabeth Baird Sullivan has nine grandchildren and is looking forward to a great grandchild in May. She is active in her garden club and is secretary of the Episcopal Church Women in her parish. Last September she had a trip to Spain followed by a week long Mediterranean cruise. This year she is spending the winter in Florida.

I was 80 in January and had quite a few birthday celebrations. The first, on the day, was a luncheon and bridge given by a friend at Judson Park, a retirement home nearby. The next, given by the Cuyahoga County Grand Jury Association, was a real surprise. About 25 - 30 persons attended a luncheon arranged by the President of the association. the party was complete with birthday cake, presents and a generous gift for my years of service to the association. Last summer, my sister and I visited friends and relatives in New England. We also visited schoolmate Helen Downes in Somers Point, NJ with whom I've kept in touch over the years.

Peggy Long Barton and Joe are living in Silverdale, PA. Peggy raves about her third glorious trip to Greece and wonders if one ever gets that country out of one's system. She is presently in a cast with a broken leg and refuses to call it a sign of age. At the same time she is bemoaning the fact that she must be the only class member sans grandchildren. Peggy admits to feeling deprived, but cannot blame her theatre-oriented children who live in New York.

Ruth McDonough Jay keeps running paddle tennis tournaments and doing volunteer work in a remarkable nursing-convalescent facility in New Canaan. She spent Christmas in California with her four children but did not mention her grandparent status.

Libby Herr Storb and Bill have recently left the country life after 26 years and have moved into Lancaster where Bill has his law practice. They have bought Mr. Herr's old house at 451 State Street and he lives there with them. He is 92 and very well.

Polly Miller Speace and Bob are really enjoying retirement in New Bern, NC. They play lots of golf with all the friendly people they have met there and they have become actively involved in Christ Episcopal Church. She and Bob belong to THE METS, a group which means MEET, EAT, TRAVEL SOCIETY. The Speace's take part in all three activities. Polly says that any SMH graduates in the area should please look her up - 3402 Wedgewood Drive.

Gordon and I have four grandchildren, two of each sex to make things symetrical. Three of them are in Philadelphia and the fourth lives smack around the corner from us in Princeton. Gordon is still enjoying life as a country lawyer but we make time for annual trips together.

My letter to Ann Latta Benisch in Greenwich, CN was returned to me marked not forwardable. Does anyone have a new address for Ann?

Margot Gooch Phillips' husband is a Captain USN, Ret. Their son, Peter married Sarah Benz on March 23, 1980 in Mobile, AL. On October 19, 1981 Lauren Benz Phillips was born. Margot is busy with her own business, Margot Phillips Public Relations. Margot says there is a small SMH group in the area and they keep in touch.

Betty Kunzi Pierson writes that all three children have flown the coup! They are married and there are two grandchildren. A boy, Jason (7) and a girl, Sarah (14 mos.). Now that Betty K has some free time, she is doing volunteer work. At present, she is President of the Board of Trustees of the Princeton Community Homemakers - Home Health Aides. She says that this takes up a great deal of time with state meetings as well as those on a local level.

Earlena Morton Daniel is as grateful as I am for our years spent at SMH. Her daughter, Kathy and husband, Brett Blizzard of Wrightsville Beach, NC. adopted a baby girl on November 25, 1980. Earlena says "She is our first grandchild and we are loving every minute of it."

Ann Pumyea Siner is busy with her job at Springside School. She mentioned in her note the day before Christmas vacation happenings at the school. Christmas is such a magical time and you catch the spirit from the children. Last summer, Ann visited a friend on a ranch near Dubois, WY and also spent ten days in New England. Ann writes, "Sad to say my Mother died November 14, 1981. She always was interested in my classmates and as they may remember she was a vivacious and energetic person." I remember her well, Ann, and I am sure most of our class remembers too. We are saddened by her death and send our sympathy to you.

Like Ann, we have been through some sad times. My Mother died in May 1979 and on December 1, 1981, I lost my only brother, Henry to cancer at 56 years of age. He was a practicing neurosurgeon in Salisbury, MD. I am sure some of you met him while I was at SMH. Our son, Terence (29) has his own construction business in California and really enjoys what he is doing. John and I are still teaching (8th and kindergarten respectively). We do try hard to keep up on new ideas and techniques. Education is constantly changing, it seems.

Betty K has volunteered to be our new class agent. Her address is: 241 Fisher Place, Princeton, NJ 08540. Thank you all for your news this year and I do hope Betty hears from the rest of you next year.

Katherine Woodward Ammentorp reports from Middletown, OH that she is active in church and volunteer work, especially with a local Hospital. Two of her girls are nurses and she proudly announces an 18 month old granddaughter! Her son is a freshman at Ohio State. Kathie and her husband, Peter, plan a trip to Morocco with the Cincinnati Medical Group. They also enjoyed a wonderful visit to China last year.

Anne Bausman Brubaker lives in Harrisburg, PA and keeps busy with family, friends and "the usual stuff of living."

Joan Burdge has been traveling around Vermont where she hopes to relocate sometime in the future. She enjoys seeing the Rev. Frank E. Wismer, rector of St. Mary's Epsicopal Church in Northfield, VT. He is the son of Nancy MacFarland Wismer. Joan reports he is a fine man and doing a marvelous job in his parish. She has been in Circulation for two years at Conde Nast Publications in New York, but plans to change her job and company within the year.

Elizabeth Wright Meirs is living in Princeton and is very busy taking care of her mother and a large house. Her children are fine: Meg is in the personnel department on the Forrestal Campus at Princeton, Rodney has a new job with computers and Christine is a housewife in Red Bank, NJ. Liz had a wonderful visit recently with Priscilla Ireland Brower '39, Nona Clapp Price and Cam Compton Caldwell '44's.

Carolyn Spencer Megargee writes from Levittown, PA that she is still Director of Social Services in Bucks County for the Salvation Army. She also chairs or is on the board of various committees for assistance and emergency relief throughout the county. She usually goes to Florida twice a year for a rest! Carolyn's son, Craig, is in business selling medical supplies with his main office in Cinnaminson, NJ. Her daughter, Susan is waiting to go into Air Traffic Control work.

As for me, the news is that my husband Henry, retired from government service in April as an Administrative Law Judge with the Civil Aeronautics Board. Our son, Coleman, is a lawyer in Philadlphia and our daughter, Nancy is working as an IRA specialist with the First Virginia Bank and is living at home. I keep busy with the usual community and church activities, am the parish librarian, work on St. Clement's Thrift Shop, etc. Thank you for all your news, it was wonderful to hear from so many of you.

Nona Clapp Price spent several weeks touring abroad, incorporating a visit with Lois Westby Valletta who seemed well and planning a new address involving a new "flat" in London. Nona keeps busy as a Tour Guide with the Graylines in Philadelphia.

Alphabetically, I'm next. I'm presently working part time at a very stimulating job with our local travel agency. Otherwise I'm busy with clerical work for my husband's business, President of you graduate society and as of October, Trustee of SMH/DA. My one grandchild, John Winfield Heckert is now two and lots of fun.

Camille Compton Caldwell sends news mostly of her five children and three grandchildren. That's enough to keep her busy! Her daughter, Heather, is still home, but planning on college, class of '83. Cam is waterfront director for Keystone Tall Tree G.S. Council, and she and Heather have taken up white water canoeing. She saw her cousin, Gwen Compton '41 and Emily and Elizabeth Wright in October.

Mary Louise Hering keeps busy as a legal secretary for a Philadelphia firm. She is in the process of refurbishing her newly acquired condominium in the city. She's planning a trip to the Northwest this summer with her son, Mark.

Dottie Mark Arbogast's big news is the engagement of her son, John with an August '82 wedding planned. Enjoy, Dottie, they're lots of fun.

Tottie Taylor Currier keeps busy with sons in college, Stanford, Princeton, M.I.T., and Cornell. Glad it's your tuition bill and not mine. Your reporter enjoyed seeing Tottie and Dick at the Christmas Reunion and we sure did catch up on news!

'45

Barbara Warner Dole has a new apartment at her old address. The number has changed to 712C.

Mary Belleville Hart has moved across the Delaware from Trenton to Morrisville, PA.

Priscilla Hall Moore is anxiously awaiting the results of the Canonical Examinations for the Deaconate. She is looking forward to becoming a Deacon in the Episcopal Church in California.

Bobby Mills Fergerson has had a busy year and also ended her term as secretary for the area chapter of the National Hair Dressers Association. She now owns her own shop at home. Bobby and Jake were very proud parents when Suzanne and Jerry graduated from high school in June. Suzanne won a scholarship for college and has enrolled at the State University of New York at Oneonta. Their oldest daughter, Sandra, is now working for the Delaware County Agency for the Aging. July was an anxious time for the Fergerson's, Jake was injured in a motorcycle accident. He was laid up for several weeks but has made a good recovery, in fact he is once again on two wheels!

After three sons, Evie Hardcastle Reister now has a daughter (in-law). Son Walt, Jr. married a Michigan girl in August. All reports indicate that Athena Ann is an excellent cook. . .Walt has gained 15 pounds.

Both of Nancy Fuller Wright's girls are in New York City. Alex graduated in June and is now employed as a textile designer. Heather is on a special program at Skidmore which allows her to study at the Institute of New York. Then there is Nancy, in a year when realtors are wringing their hands and pulling out their hair, guess who had her best sales year ever?

February was a special month for Jean VanDyke Clarke. Inspite of full time work in social services, she received her graduate degree from Cambridge Institute. Son Andrew (23) will be married in May. June will be a very special month for Jean and Tom as they celebrate their silver wedding anniversary.

Sally Sue Hulse still puzzles over the fact that we '55ers continue to put up with cold winters when we could visit her south of the border in Mexico where the sun is always shining.

Here in Ashville, life is very busy. John, in addition to his landscaping at 6 Associates, has now been elected president of the Univerity Botanical Gardens. John Karl (15) is finding ninth grade Latin fascinating but Algebra a drag. He needs Mr. Rothermel to put some pep into those equations. He is an avid scout, as acolyte at church and works for a veterinarian whenever he has time. I still love my substitute teaching and have taken up weaving. The whole family spent Christmas in St. Petersburg with my mother, who is in a retirement home there.

My letters to Mary Little Kennedy and Ann Hollings Kenna were returned. Does anyone in the class know the whereabouts of these two classmates?

Sidney Hagert McNamara and John Gommel were married, December 1, 1981, in Boca Raton, Florida. John and Sidney are living in the Society Hill area of Philadelphia and are busy restoring their home. Sidney is attending Temple University majoring in Religion. Her daughters are at St. Peter's school in Philadelphia. Charles, her oldest son, is studying radio, TV and film in London with the Temple University Overseas program. Ben is apprenticing as a cook at the Dicken's Inn in Society Hill.

The class extends their sympathies to Peggy Fenimore Morris who's father, W. Allen Fenimore, died in June 1981 after a prolonged illness.

Donald and Ginger Shaw Grayston and their three children returned to NJ in June for "Mama" Shaw's 70th birthday celebration. They included a visit to the school so the children could see Mother's Alma Mater and Ginger could attend the SOG Eucharist as part of the Spring Reunion. Ginger and I had a nice chat, albeit brief. She is chairperson of the 1983 World Council of Churches to be held in Vancouver, BC. She is also a Brownie leader, which she loves because she is in charge of music!

Jon and Cynthia Johnson Floria spent Christmas '81 in Cozumel, Mexico with their four children and their Australian Rotary Exchange student. Katie, their oldest daughter is a freshman at Texas A and M, majoring in geology and a pledge of, what else, Alpha Phi. The twins Judy and Janis, are high school seniors, currently involved in college decision. Son, Jay, at 13 is very involved in athletics and reportedly shoots a mean game of golf. Cynthia continues her business under the name of Wallace and Laver Interior Design. (She notes that W and L are family names.) She located Ann Wycoff Hayes for us, and has volunteered to be our class agent. Her address is 401 N. Ela Rd., Palantine, IL 60067.

Sally Garrison Thomas is in her 19th year of school nursing for Baltimore County and is involved in graduate school courses for her Master's degree. Besides his teaching responsibilities, Marvin is the sponsor for the Student Council at the high school where he teaches. Their daughter, Jessie, is very involved in art school and Future Homemaker's of America. Jim takes piano and saxophone lessons, in addition to his Boy Scout activities. The Thomas' had to curtail their camper trips in 1981 because of other demands and tight individual schedules. They did enjoy occasional "short" trips close to home during the summer.

Dianne Warwick Higham has returned to teaching kindergarten after three years of "loafing". How could you call raising two boys loafing, Diane? She accompanied Jim to Hawaii in November for a banker's convention.

Mail to Judy Walters Rosenberg in Florida was returned. Does anyone have Judy's current address? We will need it so Peggy and Weizie Harnischfeger Johnson can contact all of us regarding our 25th Reunion. They have volunteered to plan and organize the event scheduled for June 25th and the Harnischfeger's have agreed to let us use their home. Wez and Peggy will be contacting each of us with further details.

Wezie admits to more than pangs of jealousy when daughter Elizabeth got to accompany Grandma and Grandpa Harnischfeger on their trip to England last summer. They even timed the trip so they would be in London for "the wedding"!

I have returned to school at Temple University, part time, to work towards an advanced Master's degree in Occupational Therapy. Along with chairing a committee for the annual OT convention to be held in Philadelphia in May, SMH/DA Board responsibilities and local geneological work, I find little time left to get into trouble. Thanks to those of you who responded to my letter and I hope to see all of you in June.

NEED A CLASS AGENT!

A warm hello to all and a sincere hope that 1982 will be a gratifying year.

Congratulations are in order for Lynn VanDuzer Ryan who was married in September to the Rev. Donald J. Muller, an Episcopal priest. Turba Kanter Steinberg was matron of Honor and sister Gayle VanDuzer Carson was also in the wedding party. Lynn and Donald and her two boys, David and Darron, are living in Pelham, NY.

Aliceann Walsh Haulenbreek visited Chris Meyers DePalantino this summer on a vacation from the White Mountains of NH. Alice has been appointed for a one year term to the Child and Youth Program and is also a secretary/receptionist for an orthopedic surgeon. Jim is exploring possibilities in real estate while holding a position in precision machine tooling. Tyler (7) and Amanda (4) are fine and real helpers in the garden.

Mona Fishman received her Master's degree in Early Childhood Education from Beaver College and is teaching Montessori for the Philadelphia School board. Mona spent the summer of 1980 in Europe with Bonnie Warren '65 visiting Switzerland, Austria and Germany. Last summer Mona was in San Diego. Mona writes that Sheldon and Barbara Sharlin Berkman are presently living in Pennington with their three children, Lindsay (9), Douglas (5) and Jillian (3).

Diana David Reneham wrote to announce the birth of daughter, Karyn Lindsay on May 22, 1980. Husband, Kevin is a comptroller of Tomlin Chevrolet in Trenton and Diana is running a personalized stationery business from home in East Windsor, NJ.

1980 and 1981 were banner years for Judith Light. She won the Soap Opera Digest Soapy Award for the Most Favorite Actress for the second year in a row. She followed that with an Emmy Award for her performances as Karen Wallach in ABC's "One Life to Live". Judith also had a feature interview in People Magazine in late 1981. Congratulations on your outstanding work, Judith.

Angie Mastoris called before the holidays to discuss a reunion. Angie is still teaching special education at Bancoft School in Haddonfield, NJ.

As for me, I'm still at the Middle School teaching 8th grade American History. I am presently co-director of the Student Enrichment Program and President of the Central Lawrence Civic Association. I am trying my hand at writing history by researching a chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, an honor society of women educators to which I belong. David is a chiropractic physician and applied Kinesiologist with his office presently at home. We are in the process of building an office down the street from us.

Many of you expressed an interest in a reunion. It sounds as if summer would be the best time. Please let me know and I will try to coordinate a time when we can all get together for some good memories.

Hello to the Class of '67! Many thanks for all your replies! Our classmates are active and busy as ever. Karen Berger Levin moved to Texas in June '81. Husband Bob is Business Manager of Trinity School, an Episcopal Day School in Midland. Karen had taught at the Chapin School in Princeton and is now teaching 4th and 5th grades in the Midland Public Schools. Son Greg is in 3rd grade and Jeremy is in Kindergarten. Karen saw Miss Lynch and Mrs. Mulford last year at a teacher convention.

Jody Hardenbergh Tucci is an assistant personnel officer at First People's Bank of New Jersey. Jody and husband, Chip live in Cherry Hill.

Barbara Pierce is a free lance television producer-director. Barbara has done work for Johnson and Johnson and AT and T among others and is now teaching at Bucks County Community College. Barbara lives in Langhorne Manor and is also busy redecorating a 100 year old carriage house.

Pam Borden Heckert is busy writing a thesis proposal for her Master of Science in Nursing. Pam and Clark welcomed son "Windy" 9/19/79. Pam and Anne Gold Shapren were the only members of the class at the Christmas Reunion Cocktail Party. Next year let's all be there!

I see Anne each August when she, husband Dick and children Annie and Ricky visit Anne's parents nearby. We always have a great visit.

A reminder, this Founder's Day will be our 15th! Let's make an effort to be there. Also I plan to have a party in August. I'll be sending each of you an updated address list and further details of the palnned events.

As I stated in my letter, Jeff and I were married October 11, 1980. Jeff is a biologist with the N.J. Environmental Protection Department, Division of Fish, Game and Wildlife. I'm a design draftsman at a local civil engineering firm and active in local politics and civic affairs. We have bought a house, where else — Seaside Park!

It was great to hear from all of you. We have lost track of Janet Rosenthal Schoor, Donna Lanting Davison, Louise Yard Tucker, Cordelia Crane. Any addresses will be appreciated.

As your class agent this year, I was very pleased to hear from those of you who responded. I would like to thank you for taking time to share your news with all of us.

Until Reagan decides otherwise, I'm still a social worker with the Burlington County Welfare Board. Last August I had a great time showing my cousin from Portugal the sights and trying to perfect my rustic Portuguese. Certainly makes me think that another trip to Portugal is not far away. That mini reunion in October, mentioned earlier, was a practice session for our 15th. Anyone interested in pursuing this do write and we'll see what we can come up with for the class. For those of you we did not hear from this year, please send your news to either Barbi Leigh or to me, so we can include your update in the next classnotes. Thank you again from those who did write, it was really nice to hear from you.

In October Doris Fischer came for a brief visit. Along with Doris and Janie Lawrence Forvour, I went to see Barbi Stults Leigh in a local production of "The Whiz". Needless to say, Barbi was marvelous! Afterwards we had a mini reunion at my house. Doris informed us her husband Steve had graduated from law school in June. She quit her state government job and they headed west pulling a twenty foot trailer. They set up a six week residence at Yellowstone National Park, where Steve took a temporary job as a Park Ranger. Doris took long walks and 'loafed'. They returned to the northern part of Wisconsin where Steve has taken a job as a Public Defender for the State. Doris after a lengthy job hunting experience, is working with an architectural-engineering firm. She may also teach psychology at the local vocational school next semester. Her new address is Rt. 6, Benrud Lane, Eau Claire, Wisconsin 54701. She would love to see anyone in the area or passing through.

Suzann Condorousis Halstuck and husband, Jack, have two sons; Jonathan (4) and Jordan (1).

Bonnie Dix Cavanaugh will begin nursing school in the fall. Husband Thom presented a paper at an offshore oil technology conference in Spain this past fall. They are awaiting a transfer with Gulf Oil Company soon. Son Sean is now an eight year old.

Had a great letter from Ann Howard Chantry. Ann was a medical secretary at a large teaching hospital until she changed her career — to motherhood! Ann met Roy through a wrong number on the phone, it's true, what luck! They were married in June 1974 and son Simon was born March 27, 1979. Ann corresponds with Joan Urken Zimmett who lives in NYC with husband and four year old Nora. Ann says that she has fond memories of her year at the Hall.

Janie Lawrence Forvour has taken a leave of absence from her teaching job to take the big plunge into the business world. She is presently working for a privately operated McDonald's. She is creating a training program along with the many courses required for it's management. Her husband, Jack has been very supportive and is helping care for their two sons, Jason (8) and Jared (5).

Barbi Stults Leigh greeted us with some exciting news in October; a move to Hollywood to pursue her show-biz career. Her letter indicates that she and her Maverick arrived safe and sound. Her address is 3636 Barham Blvd. No. 5-303, Los Angeles, CA 90068. Though she is not sure which aspect of show-biz she will pursue, I have been watching the commercials more closely these days.

Kathy McMillan writes that she will be married on March 27 to Hamilton Marshall Hoyer. She and Marshall built a 26 foot fiberglass sailboat last summer. Kathy has become an outdoor girl, enjoying jogging, bicycling, cross country skiing and of course, sailing. Last October, Kathy accompanied her parents to Batswana and Zambia, Africa for three weeks. Kathy found Batswana to be a dream of a place. According to Kathy her position as a deputy for Toxic Integration Project for the EPA has survived the Reagan axe, she fears that the time has come to get out of government, but what is a bureaucrat to do?

Kate Small is alive and well and living in Geneva, NY. She is presently the Director of Residential Services of the Ontario County Chapter of N.Y. State Assoc. for Retarded Citizens. Kate is also busy taking courses towards her Master's of Public Administration at SUNY, Brockport.

Pam Weddle Joyce and her husband, John are living in Charlottesville, VA. John teaches administrative law at the Judge Advocate General School at UVA. Pam has her own cosmetic company and teaches classes on skin care and makeup application in addition to free lancing as a makeup artist for local fashion shows. Four year old Lindsey keeps herself preoccupied at preschool three times a week and at ballet lessons, too. John (2½) loves tennis and wanted a pool table for Christmas. Barbi Leigh stopped for a brief visit on her way to California; they had a 48 hour non-stop dialogue!

Arlene Kolman Harris writes she and Steve moved into their own home in December '80 where they and daughter, Becky (2½) are really enjoying themselves. Arlene is substitute teaching and likes the time this affords. Last September she and Steve traveled to Denver and found it quite beautiful.

Donna Griffing Dovi and Bob continue to live in Merchantville. For those of you who don't know, Robert Matthew Dovi, Jr. on March 8, 1979. Now daughter Lisa has a brother. Donna has been keeping busy doing a lot of sewing in addition to being the assistant secretary to the Bishop of her church.

Cindy Rhodes Bailey now resides in Glen Mills, PA just outside Philadelphia with her husband Rich, son Richie (5) and daughter Lisa (2). Rich works for Armack Pioneer Chemical Company. They can be found at Beach Haven most of the summer. They went to Opryland, Nashville and the Poconos for business trips during the past year. Cindy has been doing handicrafts for the holidays to help fight inflation! She did a lot of sailing on Long Island Sound before they sold their 22' sailboat when they moved to PA.

Vicki Greene Aldrich is still working at Skidmore as Assistant Director of Alumni Activities. Her husband Gary, is busy teaching and coaching. They are currently working on remodeling their house or as Vicki puts it "building a palace on a pauper's budget".

Suzanne Mulldowney saw several classmates at the Christmas Reunion at SMH/DA. She has made more "Dracula" dance appearances in Oregon, NY, California and Las Vegas. She's made up three "show-off" sports involving jogging and upright balancing which have been demonstrated in local TV shows from Montgomery Alabama and Las Vegas. She resides with a feline family of three — Nova, Frankie and Chocolate at Hunter's Glen Apts., in Delran, NJ.

I was very happy to receive notes from several classmates, but would love to hear from more of you. In September I resigned my job as Comptroller of Lapper Products, Inc. as I was at long last offered a job in my field - the family. I am teaching two Please Teach Me workshops, an educational and cultural enrichment program for parents of preschoolers. In November, the Center for Family Enrichment offered me a staff position as Coordinator of Volunteer Services. I have spent a good portion of the year creating many children's books and games which has been great fun. Phil is still with Certainteed Corp. Ryan has started kindergarten at Plymouth Meeting Friends and Aren is now at Gwynedd Friends Nursery School.

Sabrina Page's new address is 95 Coningham Road, London W12, England.

Please send any change of address so we do not lose touch. If anyone is interested or would like to organize a reunion let me know and I'll gladly have it in my home. We had such good time in 1980.

The year's big news of course, is the wedding of Jim Marsch to Maggie Murphy of Woodbury, NJ. Maggie and Jim were married November 21, 1981 at St. Patrick's Church in Woodbury with John Mutch, Paul Story and myself in attendance. The Marsch's spent their honeymoon in sunny St. Martens and have taken up residence in Saddle Brook, NJ where Jim is employed with the Ebasco Corporation.

Paul Story has moved from Burlington to Huntington, NY where he is pursuing his music career and managing a retail food and convenience store. Paul demonstrated that he still has great musical talent by performing a song at Jim and Maggie's reception.

John Mutch has been concentrating his efforts on increasing the sales of his employer, Whittle and Mutch of Mt. Laurel. John has been continually adding to his collection of antique Lionel trains and is also pursuing his other hobbies of flying, stereo equipment and antique automobiles.

Paul Lanza is continuing his medical studies. He is in his second year of medical school in Des Moines, Iowa. Paul was East for the holidays to give his father a hand starting a new family business in Bristol.

Hal Bradford is living in Marlton and is working in Philadelphia at the University of Pennsylvania as a medical technician. Brad is still active in the Revolutionary War Regiment and still has an avid interest in automobiles and stereo equipment.

Audrey Winzinger has taken up residence in Medford, NJ and has started legal studies at the Delaware Law School of Widener College.

As for me, I am continuing my law studies at the University of Dayton School of Law here in Ohio. I am presently employed in the legal department of the Phillips Corporation here and have recently begun serving as an intern for Federal Magistrate, Robert Steinberg.

Jeannette W. Koch has completed her sophomore year at the Philadelphia College of Art. Still very enthusiastic about her studies although the work load has been hectic! In between her busy schedule she managed to find time to work part time in the Dean of Admissions' Office. Busy Gal!

Kenneth Clay, we hear, has been studying hard at Rutgers in New Brunswick.

Dawn Girard - busy continuing her studies at Burlington County College.

Gary Yetter - has left college and has presently announced his engagement to be married - when is the BIG DATE?

Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

ST. MARY'S HALL-DOANE ACADEMY BURLINGTON, N. J. 08016 SPRING 1983

ADVANCE NOTICE OF IMPORTANCE--FOUNDER'S DAY WILL NOW BE THE FIRST FRIDAY OF MAY. THIS WILL BE IN COMMEMORATION OF THE FOUNDING OF THE SCHOOL ON MAY 1ST AND BISHOP DOANE'S BIRTHDAY, MAY 27TH. THE REASON FOR THE CHANGE IS THAT, IN AVOIDING MEMORIAL DAY WEEKEND, HOPEFULLY, MORE CAN ATTEND. SO WRITE DOWN THE DATE FOR NEXT YEAR--MAY 4TH, 1984.

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

With this issue of Ivy Leaves it seems a good time to review our year. I believe it has been one of accomplishment on the part or your Society of Graduates board. We sent you your date cards which, according to the feedback, were appreciated. The Christmas Reunion at the school was well attended and many classmates renewed friendships and caught up on the news. Another area which shows growth is that we have heard from additional graduates with up-to-date names and addresses. Keep up the good work and send in the changes as you become aware of them. One by one we're adding to our rolls. The one big item this year was the replating and repair of candelabra which had originally been a gift to the school by former Principal, Elsie Slater. They graced our table at the annual Founder's Day celebration, May 27th. We were gratified with the attendance of approximately 34 graduates, the Clergy, 25 Seniors and their advisors, Madame Josette Melman and Mrs. Roberta Raefsky. So, it's on to another spectacular year and your contributions, whatsoever, will help to make it so.

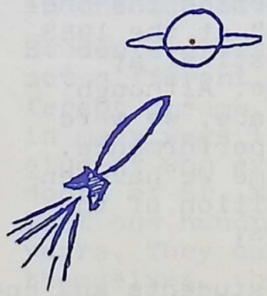

GRADUATE RESPONSIBILITIES

The following is a direct quote from an old Ivy Leaves--"With graduation and the conferring of the Graduate Medal comes responsibility as well as membership in the Society of Graduates, and the promise of new experiences. When graduates are inducted into the Society they assume a responsibility toward St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy and a willingness to support the Society of Graduates as it endeavors to perpetuate St. Mary's philosophically, traditionally and financially. These responsibilities include:

1. Supporting Society of Graduates functions and publications.
2. Having a willingness to serve when requested as an officer or committee member, a class agent, a Trustee of Burlington College.
3. Recruiting students for St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy.
4. Supporting St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy special functions when feasible.
5. Contributing financially to St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy Annual Giving and Society of Graduates annual dues."

The responsibilities listed above are as fitting today as they were fifty or one-hundred years ago.

NINTH GRADERS IN SPACE WORK

Mark Hall and Mark Bucher, both ninth graders, were chosen as two of the possible twenty winners from five Mid-Atlantic states in the Space Shuttle Student involvment Project sponsored by NASA. To have two winners from one school in this multi-state contest is rather remarkable. Our two "Marks" traveled with their advisors, Miss Lynch and Mrs. Griech to the Goddard Space Center in Md. for an all-expense paid visit with NASA scientists. They will be required at this time to present their experiments which involve the zero-gravity effects on regeneration of planeria and the development of frog eggs in such an experiment. St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy has been enormously successful in these outside student-level competitions. Involvement has come from all grades. Along with the other students, I have been very proud of our teams. (David George, Class of 1984)

TODAY'S STUDENTS IN VARIOUS ACTIVITIES

St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy has been very active in extra-curricular competitions this year. The contests have varied from academic to creative fields including art, drama, science and law. We are very pleased that our small school has competed so successfully against much larger parochial, private and public high schools.

An Eleventh grade student, Cecelia Juliano was one of the twenty-one regional finalists in the First Annual Delaware Valley Tri-State ARt Exhibition. She received a gold key award and a blue ribbon for her pencil sketch of a stairway at St. Mary's.

Twelve students presented the one-act play "Persephone" at the 1983 High School Drama Festival at Trenton State College. Although our group did not place, we were very proud of their performance. This is the first time we have entered a drama competition of the type in several years.

With a team of four students and one alternate, we traveled to Rutgers University in the fall to compete in the televised "Rutgers Bowl". Our group reached the quarter finals defeating very strong teams. Our second televised appearance on Public Television will be in early April.(1983-Ed.) Our contestants were Mark Hall (9th),Jeff Ugoretz (10th), Alvar Matter (11th), and Elizabeth Sharrier (12th). A great deal of time prior to the competition was spent practicing and in answering questions in all academic areas.

Our Mock Trial team, unlike most from other schools, also consisted of several younger students. The New Jersey State Bar Association sponsors this program for all high schools who wish to participate. Each school is given an outline of a court case. The team must then prepare to represent that case from both sides in front of a judge in a real courtroom. After long weeks of preparation, our team competed successfully in four rounds to win the County Championship-defeating in the eliminations, eighteen other schools including Willingboro, Moorestown Friends, and Holy Cross. Our group is now preparing for the Regional trials which will be held on Saturday, March 19th (1983-Ed.) in Woodbury, New Jersey. If they win this, they will go on to a state and possibly a national competition.

Despite successful seasons in soccer over the past two years, the girls of St. Mary's have decided to return to Field Hockey as their fall and spring sport in 1983-1984. Twenty-three girls have signed up for the team, and they are planning on starting practice in August. As field hockey has long been a tradition at the Hall, we welcome a return to this sport. The team will be coached by Mrs. Anne Yale and Miss Linda Weidemoyer, two teachers who played hockey in their high school and college years.

TRADITIONS,TRADITIONS

"The youth of America is their oldest tradition. It has been going on now for about three hundred years." (Oscar Wilde)

Youth has been a tradition at St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy, not for as long as Wilde's three hundred years, but for almost one hundred and fifty years youth has been the reason for our existence. As we approach our sesquicentennial I have been giving much thought to the history and traditions of the school. Over the years there have been many changes in the school. We are a day school rather than boarding, we are coed rather than all girls, we are K-12 rather than just high school. There have been changes and this is as it should be. We cannot be the same school that Bishop Doane founded one hundred and forty-six years ago. The world has changed and "The Hall" has had to change as well.

I had a visit, not long ago, from a former student who was here some forty-two years ago. She confessed to me that in her days here she was a bit of a practical joker and many of the stories she told me could have been told about the students of today. She also had some more serious thoughts about what the school had meant to her while she was here and how it helped her get through a family tragedy. The love and support given by her classmates and the faculty, the quiet chapel where she could retreat for moments of peace, the calm and structure of the daily life of the school all helped to get her through the bad times. These are still with us, and within this year the same elements combined to help another young student work through a bad time. This is the most enduring of the traditions of "The Hall". Bishop Doane established the tradition of the St. Mary's Hall Family and the Family still rallies around the members in time of joy and sorrow. There has never been a family without problems, without arguments and disagreements, but the family always comes together again. Those in the family grow up and move away and change in many ways but they are still family and the family tradition has a powerful effect on the members.

Elsewhere in this issue you will read about some of the old traditions that still exist at St. Mary's Hall. The Christmas Mystery and dinner, though not quite the same as when it started in the early thirties, still exists and has an important place in the hearts of today's students as it had for those in the past. The Chapel is still the heart of the school and the important moments of a student's life in the school are marked by its ceremonial, Thanksgiving, Christmas, Founder's Day, Commencement, times of special awards and recognition. After the students leave the school, many return to be married, or to have their children baptised in the Chapel. And finally when members of the family die, they are remembered in the prayers of the students of this day, in the services in the Chapel.

In the classrooms as well, there have been changes, but much remains the same. The students of today still are taught by dedicated faculty who give of themselves far beyond the call of duty. The students take courses and learn material that never existed in earlier times, but the desire to learn and the seeking for excellence has not changed. When our students leave to go to college they are better prepared than they have ever been. Bishop Doane's dream of excellence still lives on in the school.

Students dress differently, they act differently, they dream different dreams, but they are still in many ways the same as every student who ever walked in the doors of St. Mary's Hall over the last one hundred and fourty-six years. They care. They care about themselves, their classmates and they care about their school. This, in the final measure, is the most important tradition of the school. Bishop Doane and the graduates of the past might have problems recognizing many of the physical features of the school. They might mourn the passing of some of the customs of the past, but they would have no problem recognizing the feeling and personality of the school. The spirit of George Washington Doane is still alive and present in the classrooms, corridors and the Chapel of his school. The heart is still sound and beats on.

CHRISTMAS MYSTERY AND DINNER

Since the founding of St. Mary's Hall in 1837, the Christmas Mystery has become a special tradition in our School family. It is faithfully carried out each year by a select group of Upper School students. After auditioning for a part in the Mystery, cast members are chosen on the basis of speaking ability and talent. Many weeks are spent preparing for the final performance which is a re-enaction of the birth of Jesus.

In keeping with tradition, little change has occurred in the actual presentation of the Mystery. Minor revisions have been made to update and repair worn costumes, but the setting and dialogue have remained the same. One special "addition" to the Mystery, however, was made just recently, in 1981. With the kindness of Mr. & Mrs. George Banfer, we were able to portray the Baby Jesus using their newly adopted daughter. This provided for a more personal and poignant outlook in the Mystery presentation--she gave much more vitality and realism to the Christmas Mystery of 1982. Perhaps, someday, this young baby will have the opportunity to assume the role of Mary in one of the school's Mysteries. The year 2000?

Because the Mystery represents a most sacred event, it has always been regarded as a formal affair and treated with utmost respect. To create a proper atmosphere, the Chapel is always decorated with greenery and flowers. This year's class of 1983 did a beautiful job!

While the chapel was decorated by the Seniors, the Dining Hall was left to the Juniors. This year's theme was "A White Christmas". The tables were donned with lace tablecloths and white rose centerpieces. Candlelight made a white, glowing atmosphere.

Keeping up with traditional formality, the Junior class girls wore white gowns and gloves, while the boys wore black tuxedoes. Hors d'oeuvres were served while chamber music was played in the background. The traditional Mystery dinner followed.

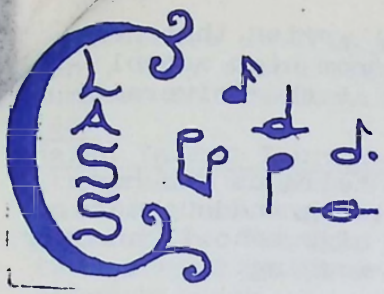

A dance was prepared for entertainment after the Mystery proceedings. To get ready for this, quite a few St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy students undertook waltz lessons early in December.

It was a night that combined the old and the new, and it was lovely everywhere.-Maria Ragni '84

THE GRADUATE MEDAL

The Graduate Medal is made of silver with a bas relief of the Madonna and child against a cross, surrounded by the inscription "Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it unto me according to thy word." On the back the Latin inscription reads St. Mary's Hall, Burlington, N. J., Society of Girls, George Washington Doane DDLLD Episcopal... AX 1837 founded. The first mention of the Graduate Medal is found in the records of the Society of Graduates in 1880. The association decided to institute a memento which would be the "society's badge". In1885 Caroline Mitchell, then president of the Society of Graduates, had her medal gold dipped and it is the medal worn by the president of the Society, having been handed down through the succession of presidents. Each silver medal is inscribed with the graduate's initials, year of graduation and graduation number. The numbers began with the first alphabetized graduate in the class of 1845 and have continued into the thousands today.

Associate Dr. Alice S. Huang was the daughter of Bishop Huang of China during the World War II years. He was taken prisoner and Alice, then in grade school, came to SMH as ward of Miss Florence L. Newbold, Headmistress at the time. The latest news from Alice Huang is that she was awarded the honorary degree D. Sc. from Wheaton College on May 28, 1982. We would like to pass on to you her response at the time. "It is fitting that Wheaton has honored me today. Not because I deserve it, but rather because the citation pays tribute to those institutions that take seriously the education of women. Those institutions for me were: St. Mary's Hall for Girls, National Cathedral School for Girls, Wellesley College for Women, and the Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine. They have provided not only basic skills and knowledge, but have consistently treated women as complete individuals; as individuals who could explore and aspire without limitations; as individuals who could become more than the sum of the roles: daughter, spouse and mother. Wheaton has given you the same sense of individual worth. Until our society can fully accept the constitutional rights of all persons irrespective of gender, such institutions like Wheaton are necessary and deserving of our support. And-as you make your way in the real world, I hope you will be as lucky as I have been, to find in both your personal and professional lives, those individuals who support your full development".

OUTSTANDING REUNION CLASS

The five "girls" of the Class of 1923 who returned to St. Mary's on Founder's Day for their 60th reunion were mirabile dictu!--recognizable. True, there were more white hairs and slower steps but no one had changed beyond recognition.

They were Gertrude Reynolds Knight, Jane Hill Meyer, Rosalind Dubell Wiltberger (who returned from Switzerland just in time) and the perennials --Sally Tattersall Jessup and Bettie Fell Siegrist. Our regrets were for those who were unable to be with us. They missed a very good time.
Bettie Siegrist.

YOUR ATTENTION PLEASE!!

Question from your Vice President of Class Agents. What has happened to our Class Agents? The return of forms requesting information from you was few! If it were not for the route of the grapevine and the FEW that used the space on the reverse side of Annual Giving cards, news would have been sparse. It is most difficult to know just where to place the blame, as to who does not follow through on their job. Does the Class Agent not contact former classmates or are the Class members neglectful in replying to their agent? Oh, yes--I hear your cry that SMH/DA mailing never reaches you. True, we do have postal service problems, but at this end we do our best to keep addresses current. Without each graduate alerting us promptly of any changes SMH/DA can lose contact with you. If each one does his part in the ONCE a year request we can keep in touch in both news of our graduates as well as address changes. THINK ABOUT IT--FOLLOW THRU NEXT YEAR! As Vice President of Class Agents, I do want to express my appreciation to the FAITHFUL Class Agents who did their job!

Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

ST. MARY'S HALL-DOANE ACADEMY, BURLINGTON, N. J. 08016 SPRING 1984

MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

I sincerely hope that as you peruse this issue of "IVY LEAVES" you will keep in mind the terrific job the administration, faculty, parents, students and staff members of SMH/Doane are doing. They are working against many odds; the economy and the destruction of the property from the 1974 fire. These groups need all the encouragement, loyalty and financial support that you all out there can possibly give. Unfortunately, as your president these past 3 years, I have gotten a bit of feed-back that some graduates are not pleased with what they see when they come back. I wonder how much in constructive criticism they have contributed since they graduated, not to speak of monetary support. We would love to be back to the days of Henry and the flaming plum pudding and Willie polishing the brass door knob in Nelson Corridor, but unfortunately that day is gone. Let us look to the future and the continuation of good education for the young people of the '80's.

OUR THANKS TO THEM

During late summer of '83, a group of interested parents and friends, organized by William Hendricks, President of the Parent-Faculty Association, contributed money for the renovation of the exterior of Doane Hall. This part of the school was heavily damaged during the fire of 1974. Peter Abdill of our summer maintenance staff spent long hours sanding and painting the porch and building and pointing the marble steps. Malcolm Sprague donated his time in glazing and replacing the windows. All those who enjoy the riverbank or pass by the school appreciate the fresh, new look of Doane Hall and generosity of those who made it possible.

HORSESHOW 1984

Remember the date--May 5th--day after Founder's Day. This is a Parent-Faculty project and deserves support.

MESSAGE FROM THE HEADMASTER

Spring has come, and as we get closer to graduation, I find myself in a reflective mood. After twenty-one years as an educator, nine at St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy, I confess that I still feel a thrill as I hear the first notes of the organ and I watch the graduating seniors start down the aisle for their last activity as students and their first as alumni. I find that I become very close to the senior class, and as I look at them, the girls in their white capes, holding their red roses, the boys in their blue robes, I wonder what will become of them. What have we given our graduates? Will we see them again? What has their life at St. Mary's/Doane meant to them?

At one time or another, I will have faced each senior, in class, in chapel, in activities, or in a one-on-one conference. Our lives have touched, and we both have gained something from that meeting. I know that as I reflect on my relationships with the students, I find that I come to appreciate their differences. Some come in, shy, hesitant, a bit afraid of what might happen to them in some new experience. Others come in poised and self-confident, ready to take on the world with no fears. Some are takers and some are givers: most, fortunately, are both. What will become of them?

They process into the chapel and take their seats in the front row of the choir. They sing the hymns and they bow their heads for the prayers. They listen politely as the commencement speaker talks of the past and their future. They applaud their classmates as the awards are given. Then the magic moment, "The Candidates will rise. 'Sir, We present unto you these persons, our students who are candidates for graduation.'" The Headmaster reads the name: the student comes forward to receive the diploma from the President of the Board of Trustees. The President of the Society of Graduates presents the medal, and the student, now a graduate, turns to walk down the aisle. What thoughts are going through the mind of the new member of the SOG? I know my own thoughts at that moment as I see the student turn away. I am a very sentimental type, and I care very deeply that the students who leave here leave with the feeling that they will always be a part of "The Family of 'The Hall'". The graduates are always in the thoughts and prayers of those of us who remain. We look forward to hearing from our students of the past. This is the way that we have succeeded in not just teaching, but educating. We hope that the graduates will leave, not just with a body of facts that will get them into the right college and later into the right job, but with a sense of being part of an on-going family which loves and supports them.

We wish that we could hear from every graduate out there around the nation. We hope that when you are in the area you will come and visit the school, for there is much that you can be proud of in SMH-DA today. We are deeply grateful for the support of the Society of Graduates and we hope to hear from many more of you in the coming year.- Peder N. Bloom

GRADUATION HISTORY

Jane Stephan, former Art teacher, has brought the following to our attention from the book entitled "Burlington: A Provincial Capital" by George DeCou. "The first graduating class, 1844, consisted of ten girls, all of whom were similarly dressed in simple yet attractive gowns. The only ornaments permitted were three ivy leaves taken from the wall of the Chapel of Holy Innocents. This beautiful practice is commemorated by the name of the School Paper, "Ivy Leaves", established in 1892.".

NEWSBITS OF THE SCHOOL

A feather in our caps is the report of a December trip made by a group of our students to the Boston area. They not only got a lot out of the trip and enjoyed it immensely, but the folks at Howard Johnson's Motel evidently enjoyed them. A quote from a letter from the manager of said motel is as follows: "I would like to say what a pleasure it was to host your group. I have had many comments from various staff members expressing their delight with the students' behavior." This is a lovely return on our investment.

The Drama Club at the time of Halloween weekend presented for the first time, "Doane's Dungeon" which was a haunted house set up in the cellars of SMH/Doane. It was open to the public, was a "howling" success to the extent that they earned over $1200.00 which makes possible to present "The Wizard of Oz", a musical. Also, they plan to send a make-up crew to attend a workshop.

On Saturday, January 21, 1984, four students won honors at the county Scholastic Art Awards competition at the Smithville Mansion. The students were Cecilia Juliano, 12th grade; Steve Toner, 12th grade; Dorian Webb, 9th grad; and Paul Sheehan, 9th grade. Cecelia, Steve and Dorian went on to be honored at the Philadelphia College of Art on Saturday, February 18 and now will have their work entered in the national finals of the Scholastic Art Contest in New York. Winners of this competition will have their work exhibited at the Corcoran Gallery in Washington.

Miho Nogami of Tokyo will join the Junior Class as an exchange student sponsored by the Rotary Club. She is interested in Art and has a good mastery of the English language.

SCIENCE DEPT.

Jeff Ugoretz, Mark Hall, Becky Rockko and Maria Ragni and one faculty member were invited to attend a conference Feb. 9 at the Fox Chase Cancer Center.

Mark Bucher and Mark Hall, 10th grade, entered the Space Shuttle Student Involvement competition again this year. Mark Bucher has proposed and experiment to test the effects of various strengths of antibiotics on bacterial growth in zero gravity and Mark Hall submitted a proposal to test regeneration, cancer, and aging in zero gravity, the latter being one of the twenty winners. He will spend March 21-24 at the Goddard NASA Space Center in Greenbelt, Maryland. Both "Marks" have entered the $30,000 Duracell Scholarship Competition for 9-12th grade students.

Guiy Provenzano of the 7th grade has planned to enter his project, the behavior of three microscopic organisms, in The Stockton State College Science Fair on March 24. Mrs. Greich and Miss Lynch will be among the judges. Winners may enter their projects in the Delaware Valley Science Fair.

CUM LAUDE

On Friday, February 24, three seniors were installed as members of the St. Mary's-Doane Chapter. Caridad Diego, David George and Alvar Mattei were selected by the Electors of the Chapter. In addition, Mr. John Yale, Assistant Headmaster for Academics, was voted in as a member and elector.

RUTGERS SCHOLAR

Robert C. Bodine, a Junior, was selected as this year's Rutgers Scholar. Each high school in New Jersey is asked to select a ranking student to be designated as Rutgers Scholar. This honor entitles him to participate in special programs at Rutgers and gives him a priority on admission should he choose to attend Rutgers.

COLLEGE ACCEPTANCES

Early acceptances for our Seniors have been received from the following colleges: Hood College, Lebanon Valley College, Immaculata College, Beaver College, Rochester Institute of Technology, Valparaiso University, University of Dayton, University of Bridgeport, George Washington, Temple University, University of Arizona, University of the South, Ursinus College, Rutgers University, Rhode Island School of Design.

CHRISTMAS MYSTERY 1983

On Wednesday, December 21 grades 9-12 had their "Christmas at the Hall". Many traditions have survived over scores of years. It is a Senior privilege to decorate the chapel for the Mystery Play which has been presented in the Chapel since 1933. This annual retelling of the Old Testament prophesies and the Nativity story is one of the high points of the season with many graduates returning to see it. The Christmas Mystery 1983 was both old and new. The script which had been handed down through the years was filled with the traditional pageantry and spirit. The actors who were new to their parts carried on in the spirit of their predecessors. The Senior Class of '84 donated the money for new crowns and the Class of '85 donated money for new costumes for the kings and shepherds. Jenny Sehorn,'85, designed and made all of the costumes. Those who saw the play felt the true spirit of Christmas thanks to the fine performances given by our students.

FORMER TEACHER

Miss Elizabeth Jackson, a former teacher in the lower school, retired in 1954 and is now in her 103rd year. She lives at the Friend's Home,Kennett Square,Pa. 19348. In 1981 several of our graduates attended her birthday party. Graduates from that era have been corresponding with her and she is still vitally interested in all and feels her students are her children. She writes that she has beautiful care at the home. She keeps busy with her reading of magazines and newspapers. Surely, she would love to hear from us. Her birthday is September 10.

PORTRAIT RESTORED

Mrs. W. Craig Wright, a former member of the Board of Trustees, has made a donation in memory of her daughter, Carolyn Wright Browne,1945, to cover the cost of the restoration of Bishop Odenheimer's portrait. The condition of the portrait was called to our attention by Vi Lewis.(The only description that can be given is "Dorian Gray"-ed. note). The portrait was restored by Newman Galleries of Philadelphia who obviously did so with loving hands. The dedication will take place during the Founder's Day program.

Becky Rockko, Class of 1985

On the morning of December 2, 1983, twenty-three students and four advisors set off in our yellow bus on a trip that was to prove to be one of the highlights of the school year for all of us. We were undertaking a three-day excursion to the Boston/Salem area to supplement material we were covering in our English and history courses. Only stopping a few times on the way up, we continued straight through until we reached the Howard Johnson's in Danvers, Massachusetts (a suburb of Boston) and had a nice dinner and slept after being exhausted from the long trip up.

Our peaceful sleep was ended quite abruptly early the next morning by wake-up calls and, after a 7:30 breakfast, we set off for a tour of Concord/Lexington and Boston. We saw many great sites such as Revolutionary War battlefields, the Old North Church, Harvard Yard and the U.S.S. Constitution. Our tour guides made all of this interesting. We had our choice of places to eat and shop since we stopped at the famous Quincy Market which is a large, mall-type area covering several blocks in Boston.

That nights, we had dinner and were able to relax. Some of us went swimming in the motel's heated pool and this was highlighted by an advisor's appearance in a fashionable paper bathing suit he had just purchased from Howard Johnson's. Others went to the sauna and a group was taken to the local mall. Some decided to stay in the rooms and rest, order room service, watch T.V., and listen to the radio.

Sunday morning, after wake-up showers and breakfast, we started on our final tour of Salem which included the Witch Museum, The House of the Seven Gables, Melville's Custom House, and finally the area of Marblehead which had many beautiful homes and a fantastic view of the ocean.

By the time we left for Burlington, the weather was not the best. Before we got out of Massachusetts, we were caught up in what seemed to be a small blizzard. The bus broke down temporarily in Connecticut, and we had to get escorted to a nearby gas station by the State Police. However, repairs were soon made and we finally started again for home. On the rest of the way, most of us slept and it was dark. We finally made it to school at about 12:00 a. m. and we were exhausted. Despite our fatigue, however, we had had a wonderful and enlightening time.

Drama Club Production

March 23, 24 and 25th the Upper School Drama Club production of "The Wizard of Oz" took place with standing room only crowds in the diningroom. The director, Mrs. Jean Dodds and cast obviously enjoyed the whole thing, not to speak of those who attended.

FROM V.P. OF CLASS AGENTS

First, I want to thank the Class Agents who performed their jobs so well. It is now coming to the attention of the Executive Committee that our current system of obtaining news is not as effective as it was in years past; not getting enough response. It is now before the Board of the S.O.G. that we may be changing our method. If this new method is approved, you will be made aware of same.

"THE FAMILY OF 'THE HALL'" HAS BEEN DEEPLY SHOCKED AND SADDENED BY THE SUDDEN AND UNTIMELY DEATH OF OUR BELOVED HEADMASTER, THE REV. MR. PEDER N. BLOOM. THE FOLLOWING EXCELLENT ARTICLE FROM OUR LOCAL PAPER MORE THAN TELLS YOU THE STORY.

The Rev. Peder Bloom, headmaster at academy

The Rev. Peder N. Bloom, 51, headmaster of St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy in Burlington City, N.J., died yesterday at the school.

His body was found in his residence by assistant headmaster John Yale. The Burlington County medical examiner's office found that Mr. Bloom, a diabetic, had suffered heart failure. He had been ill for some time.

A deacon of the Episcopal Church, Mr. Bloom was associated with Christ's Church in Riverton, N.J. He had been headmaster of the 145-year-old private school since 1980.

He was a graduate of the University of Minnesota and held a diploma from the Wellington Teachers Training College in New Zealand and pursued graduate studies at Victoria University in Wellington and at Canterbury, England.

Mr. Bloom served as a counselor in the psychiatric adolescent department of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., before beginning a career in education. He served as assistant headmaster at the Shattuck School in Fairbault, Minn., before accepting the headmaster's post at St.Mary's, a school on the bank of the Delaware River a short distance from the Burlington-Bristol Bridge.

The Rev. G. P. Mellick Belshaw, Episcopal bishop of New Jersey, will officiate at services at 11 a.m. Monday in the academy's chapel. Burial will be in Christ's Churchyard in Riverton.

Contributions in the memory of The Reverend Peder Bloom
may be sent to the school
c/o Mrs. Barbara Kimmel

Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

ST. MARY'S HALL-DOANE ACADEMY, BURLINGTON, N.J. 08016 Fall 1985

MESSAGE FROM YOUR S.O.G. PRESIDENT

This year, for the first time, you will be receiving the monthly Newsletter from St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy on a regular basis. This publication is prepared on campus to keep members of the SMD family better informed, and we hope that you will welcome the opportunity to receive current news about life at the Hall. During the past few months, there has been an air of optimism, energy and purposefulness on the campus. The school has long provided a warm and structured atmosphere in which young people can learn and grow - to this has now been added new ideas, new approaches, and a renewed commitment to making the SMD experience the best it can be.

Growth involves change. Our Ivy Leaves has had its changes over the years. Now we are about to initiate a new format. Instead of a single publication once a year, you will periodically receive copies of Ivy Leaves included with the Newsletter. This approach will enable us to send you current information of interest to you as graduates.

We on the Executive Board hope that you will welcome the change in format and will enjoy hearing more about life at SMD. Please let us know - your feedback is important.

You should have already received your 1985-86 date card listing S.O.G. events scheduled throughout the year. Please do take the time to complete the information portion of the card and return it as soon as possible. Your news can now be issued as soon as it is received and edited for publication. With your help, we will be able to give you the news you and your fellow graduates are eager to receive.

SOCIETY OF GRADUATES EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

S.O.G. CHRISTMAS REUNION

December 28, will once again find graduates and their friends gathered in the dining room for the annual Christmas Reunion. It is becoming a real Society of Graduates tradition, and we urge one and all to contact classmates and mark it on their holiday calendar. Refreshments and cash bar - See you there! 5-7 P.M., December 28th in the dining room.

S.O.G. MEDALS CAN COME HOME

S.O.G. medals left in an estate can be reissued by the school to new graduates and honorary members of the S.O.G. Receiving one of these medals is a mark of special distinction, and recipients always appreciate the sentiment and background. The reissuing of S.O.G. medals also underlines the school's continuity and traditions.

If you wish to leave your S.O.G. medal to the school, be sure to mention it in a will or in a note to executors.

CLASS NEWS

1913 Olivia Beddoes Waddington is still living in her own home and has general live-in help.

1931 Edith Greene Elko regrets missing Founder's Day, but her husband had a stroke and could not be left alone at that time. Hope to see you this year, Edith.

1931 Elizabeth Meirs Morgan is active in the Ocean County Historical Society and the Ocean Nature Conservation Society.

1935 Ruth Leech Donaldson is still working part time and keeps in touch with Peggy Reese Gainer '33 and Barbara Congdon Littlefield '34. Ruth advises us that Peggy recently lost her husband to cancer. Our sympathy goes to Peggy. Ruth also advises that her sister, Mary Leech Ellsworth '33 is battling cancer. Our prayers and thoughts are with you both.

1943 Marilynn Carr Cannon is busy traveling to various medical schools so Dan can initiate new members into Phi Chi, of which he is the Grand Presiding Senior.

1950 Sallie Siegrist Sypher has been serving a second term as Supervisor (Mayor) of Putnam Valley, N.Y.

1957 Sidney Hagert Gommel was graduated Phi Beta Kappa in 1985 from Temple University (English major). Sidney is now a full-time PhD candidate in Religion at Temple and is working as a research assistant.

1964 Jennifer Schwed Kellum has started a small business with a friend designing and manufacturing jewelry. As a hobby, she grows and shows African violets and recently was elected President of the Broward County Violet Society. "This, my husband and 16 year old daughter keep me busy," Jennifer reports.

1965 Susan Brotz Lippincott writes that she is godmother to the daughter of Sherry Shaw Butterworth. Susan visits with Andy Pierce Bigelow often as they live near each other. Martha Mulford Gray and family were expected for a visit Memorial Day weekend.

1967 Barbara Branche writes that she and her son Benjamin Thunder are enjoying life in New Mexico. Barbara is doing freelance drafting and advertising while waitressing at a local tavern. She is looking forward to a trip to Norway within the next few years.

1968 Arlene Kolman Harris is living in Windsor, N.J. She and her husband Steve have a 22' sailboat that they sail in Barneget Bay during the summer. Rebecca is now 6½ years old and in first grade, and Richie is 3½ years old. Arlene saw Ellen R. Sommer who is married and has a 1 year old son.

1969 Linda McMillan Oldfield was made Assistant Vice President, Product Development and Research, at Neworld Bank in Boston. She and her family are busy as well fixing up their turn-of-the-century New England home.

1972 Melinda Schorr has received her M.B.A. from Wharton School at the University of Pennsylvania August, 1985.

1974 Andrena Burgess Wishnie is proud to announce the arrival of a second son, Eric, on Sept. 5. Alex, 2½ years, is fine, but jealous. Hubby Bob is busy with CBS sports. Andrena would enjoy hearing from classmates.

1975 Nancy Wegard spent a total of 2½ years in Israel and is doing freelance photography work.

1977 Ralph D. Davis last year began his internship at Sherman College of Straight Chiropractic Health Center. His wife Linda is also a doctoral student at Sherman College. Ralph will enter private practice in December, 1986.

HEADMASTER'S CORNER

In the past few months I have received some very nice letters from alums who are enjoying keeping up on life at the Hall through the Newsletter. The large number of you sending in information for class news suggests that you are also finding the shift to a more frequent mailing of Ivy Leaves a step in the right direction.

We value your interest and support, and I know that your classmates are interested in your activities, so do keep us posted on your whereabouts and activities! If there are questions you would like to have answered or issues you would like to see addressed in the Ivy Leaves, do let us know.

Best wishes for happiness and good health in the year to come from all of us here at the Hall.

Cordially,

Charles Toll

Charles H. Toll

CAMPUS IMPROVEMENTS

Large portions of Odenheimer and Scarborough are scheduled to be painted in the coming months, and additional renovation and improvement is under study. See the March issue of the Newsletter for fuller details.

THANK YOU!

Many thanks to all those of you who have already sent in your contributions to this year's Annual Giving program. Graduate participation makes an important difference, and we appreciate your continuing interest and support.

CHRISTMAS FESTIVITIES AT THE HALL

On December 20, a cold, windy snowy evening, several alumni made their way to SMD to join the faculty, students and parents in observing the traditional Christmas Mystery.

The entire interior of the school had the atmosphere of the season, with corridors decorated with greens, wreaths and twinkling lights. Making their way to the chapel, we entered into a place of great peace and beauty. The seniors had decorated the chapel with the traditional decor of laurel garland, greens and poinsettias. The performance of the Mystery was assured and enthusiastic - and particularly compelling in that a live baby boy represented the Christ child.

The dining room, decorated by the junior class for the junior/senior dinner and dance, gave the feeling of a sparkling fairyland!

SOG CHRISTMAS REUNION

The SOG Christmas Reunion on December 28 saw the return of approximately 30 graduates. There was good turnout from the classes of '69, '70 and '71, and a noticeable increase in Doane Academy graduates. The Class of '83 was particularly well represented as they had a dinner party scheduled following the gathering at school. It was noted that the '83ers particularly enjoyed a platter of hors d'oeuvres - how about providing the reunion next year with one of your own specialties!

NOTE

Would the alum who has been working at the U.N. and who sent a friendly letter to the school prior to the holidays please contact the Headmaster. Thank you.

CLASS NEWS

1912-Marjory Royce Halstead writes that she enjoys receiving the Newsletter and Ivy Leaves and learning all about the doings at the Hall.

1923-Gertrude Reynolds Knight had hip surgery but is now getting about after much therapy. Gertrude no longer winters in Florida and is now living in Medford Lakes and enjoying it. She hopes to attend Founder's Day this spring.

1934-Barbara Congdon Littlefield has retired and is still living in Raymond, Maine. She keeps in touch with Ruth Leech Donaldson '35, Adelaide Ward '35, Edith Greene Elko '31, and Ruth Scott Bird, former music teacher in the '30's at SMH.

1935-Ruth Leech Donaldson advises us that her sister Mary Leech Ellsworth '33 passed away in July after a bout with cancer. Our sympathy to the entire family.

1939-Priscilla Ireland Brower's younger son James married in September, followed in November by elder son Lawrence. The school was represented at both weddings by Elizabeth Williamson Gordon, Christine Ridley, Nona Clapp Koch/Price '44 and Patricia G. Brown '46.

Onnolee Brace Nurguiondo is wrapped up in a companionship job with a lady in Ventnor, New Jersey but hopes to find time at some point to visit the school.

1940-Eleanor Shoemaker Spencer retired from teaching two springs ago, her husband last year. They are both involved in church work at Trinity Episcopal Church in Swedesboro. Their son is in business in California. All are well.

1942-Eloise Woodward Gardner is enjoying life in New England and old England when the family can get there. The family grows and grows and her oldest grandchild started first grade this fall.

1943-Marilynn Carr Cannon tutors in a program for dyslexic children. She and her husband travel quite a bit as he is president of his medical fraternity. The four boys are grown and gone, but she and her hubsband still maintain the homestead in Indiana. Marilynn writes, "I miss the East very much."

Elizabeth Wright Meirs is still in Princeton caring for her mother and working part-time in a fabric shop. "I never get time to come up for air!" says Elizabeth.

1944-Dorothy Mark Arbogast had a busy fall: two weeks in Italy, a second grandchild born in November, and son John accepted to Temple Medical School. Her daughter is a nurse at the VA Hospital in Tampa, Florida.

Jo Anne Clark Barlow writes that she has no new news, but a new address in Columbus, Georgia.

Elizabeth Codding Borden recently had a luncheon with Mary Louise Hering and Nona Clapp Koch/Price in Philadelphia. Lots of good talk, particularly about Louise's December retirement after twelve years as a legal secretary at Rowle and Henderson in Philadelphia and her upcoming move to Colorado to be near her son.

Mary Cox Morrison writes, "Bob and I are back in Wolfeboro, New Hampshire switching gears into semi-retirement. Our daughter is spending her junior year in England and our son is facing life after receiving his BA in May."

Nona Clapp Koch/Price is still working in human services, doing free-lance artwork, and serving as Vice President of the SOG and Editor of Ivy Leaves. Nona takes time now and then to visit her three daughters in Maryland, Massachusetts, and Florida.

Lois Westby Valletta is now, after much remodeling and decorating, settled into her house in London. Lois, who is still working for Sion College, recently spent two weeks in South France painting and is considering a visit to the states in the near future.

1957-Sidney Hagert Gommel graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Temple University. Sidney is now employed as a research assistant in the Temple Religion Department and is a full-time PhD candidate.

Julia Gleason Rhoads advises that her husband joined the Surgery Department at York Hospital in York, PA, where they are now living. One of her neighbors turned out to be Ann Crammer Hoover '59, whose daughter is at Princeton rooming with the daughter of Katie Hutton Tweedy '59. Small world!

1961-Diane Wilson Koger and family have moved into a new home on the Delaware River a mile downstream from SMD. Diane still works at Walson Army Hospital at Fort Dix, and her husband Dwight is Executive Vice President of Sterling Animal Health Division.

1962-Gwendolyn Snover Scott, grandmother of a five year old, currently holds a second degree Black Belt in judo and is serving as Editor of the Pennsylvania Judo News Letter. Working as an R.N. at Hahnemann University, Gwendolyn is also an adult psychology volunteer instructor and pursuing a BSN program.

1966-Wonder how many alums saw Judith Ellen Light being interviewed on the Merv Griffin Show on January 13?

1968-Jane Lawrence Forvour writes that her husband received his doctorate and is lecturing and teaching physical education to the handicapped. Jane herself is working full-time in McDonald's office, and is a Den Mother, Sunday school teacher in Fr. Conklin's church, and treasurer of the SOG. Jane, her two sons, and husband all enjoy camping trips, and she attended the 1985 Boy Scout Jamboree in Virginia. This fall she saw Doris Fischer and is looking forward to hearing from Linne McLean.

Arlene Kolman Harris writes that she and her husband have a 22' sailboat and do a great deal of sailing in Barnegat Bay with their two children during the summer months.

Pam Weddle Joyce and her family are living in Indianapolis, where her husband John is an attorney. Pam is parent coordinator for the Gifted and Talented program and Chairwoman of the library volunteer program at the local elementary school. The Joyces' two children are now eight and six years old.

1970-Suzanne Muldowney enjoys her two cats - great company! Suzanne sells artificial flowers and floral arrangements.

Barbara Duncan White announces the birth of daughter Madelyn Janet on August 28, 1985. Congratulations!

1971-Wendy Elliott says that she and Gail Davies sent out a newsletter on their own to former classmates. Great! Keep in touch with them, and any information you receive will be welcome in the Ivy Leaves.

1972-Ann Fanelli Hainsworth was married in July of 1983 and is living in Berlin, New Jersey. Ann works at Gloucester County College and husband Michael at the Occupation Training Center. They had a lovely trip in the fall visiting her mother and are now looking forward to going to the Caribbean this spring.

1974-Anna Eggleston, currently employed in a hospital laboratory Sacto and at the Army Reserves in Sunnyvale, California, is applying to the Air Force Officers Training School.

Carol O'Neill is working in Latham, New York and working as assistant to the general manager at Holiday Inn. Carol represented Holiday Inn at the New York City Hotel Food Show. Carol tells us that Pam Brown Bryant had a baby girl and is now teaching at Indiana State.

1975-Julia Duncan Rinehart was married last November to Michael J. Rinehart in Catoctin Furnace, Maryland. Her sister Barbara Duncan White '70 was maid of honor.

1976-Michael D. Thomas was married last May to Rita Kemper, a recent graduate of the University of Dayton School of Law and currently setting up practice. The couple have bought a new home in Miamisburg, Ohio, where Mike is working as manager of Lexis Legal Products. Mike and Rita were in Moorestown recently visiting with John and Patty Mutch.

1977-Joy Aldridge recently accepted a position at Chemical Bank in Manhattan as Assistant Manager of mortgage backed securities. Joy keeps in touch with Julia Batten, who is a free-lance writer.

1978-Jodi Gregersen will be graduating from West Chester University this spring and plans to go on to graduate studies in computer science in the fall. Jodi earlier completed an Associates Degree in business data processing at BCCC and worked for Paige Steel Company as a computer operator.

1979-Julie Eisele DiPatri was married last June to Joseph DiPatri, a history teacher and basketball coach. Since receiving her BA from Rutgers University in 1983, Julie has worked as a sales marketing administrator with R.F. Products, Inc.

1980-Dawn Girard we hear was maid of honor at Julie DiPatri's wedding. Dawn, where are you? Let's have an address!

Jeannette Koch received a BFA degree in Illustration at the Philadelphia College of Art and last August moved to West Palm Beach, Florida, where she is now adjusting to the Florida lifestyle. Her mother Nona Clapp Koch/Price '44 visited with her during the Christmas holidays.

Dan Rushton received his BS degree in political science in 1984 and is now pursuing a political career in Washington, D.C. He plans to attend graduate school in the future.

1982-Melissa Ann Charleroy will receive her BA in history and religion from Muskingum College this spring and intends to go to law school in the mid-west in the fall.

1983-Rhonda Bennett is currently studying at Trenton State College as a biology education major.

1984-Alvar J. Mattei is currently in his second year at Harvard, finding the experience a struggle but worthwhile and rewarding.

Thanks to all of you who sent in items for CLASS NOTES. We hope to hear from more of you in the months to come!

Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

ST. MARY'S HALL-DOANE ACADEMY, BURLINGTON, N.J. 08016 April 1986

1931 Mary Clayberger Burns is still living in Vincentown, and would enjoy hearing from classmates. She writes, "Hope to get to SMH/DA but always something happens, will keep trying." (Tel. #609-859-2071)

1939 Charlotte Landreth Melville advises us that she spent five months last year backpacking through India (Ladakh near Tibet and China), Germany, Czechoslovakia, Sweden, England and France. Her daughter Linda '80 joined her on the tours of France and Czechoslovakia. Charlotte is now home and working in Mt. Laurel for Applied Tech.

1957 Julia Gleason Rhoades writes that she will be moving to York, PA., where her husband has accepted a new position.

1972 Susan Jones Schott has been living in Peachtree City, GA., with her husband and four year old son for the last five years. Susan is no longer a flight attendant with Delta Air Lines but is now working part-time as an assistant teacher at the Presbyterian Pre-School Kindergarten in Peachtree City. Her husband Jeff is a pilot for Delta Air Lines. They visit New Jersey several times a year and usually get to see Kathy Black Wright.

Harry Van Sciver is moving to East Strousdburg, PA., where he has accepted a job as Collection Manager at Shawnee Development, Inc. He is also treasurer of the Beverly Building and Loan Association, and working as a free-lance commercial writer. Recently he vactioned with Gregg Nixon '77 in the Florida Keys. Gregg lives in Orlando and works as a quality engineer for Marlton-Marietta Corporaton. Both remain dedicated to "the pure life."

1980 Linda L. Melville will graduate from Stevensen College of the University of California in Santa Cruz in June and then will leave for China, where she will be teaching English.

Steven Flamm has received his BFA degree from Philadelphia College of Art, and is now doing free-lance artwork in New York City for a commercial art firm.

ANNUAL GIVING

The 1985 Annual Giving program is well launched with contributions from faculty, parents, trustees and alums well over the $20,000 mark. We still have a way to go to reach our goal though - so if you have not yet contributed, please do send in your donation soon!

Ivy Leaves Graduate Edition

ST. MARY'S HALL-DOANE ACADEMY, BURLINGTON, N.J. 08016 May-June 1986

1913 Olivia Baddoes Kladdington writes that she has many happy memories of St. Mary's and enjoys receiving the Ivy Leaves and Newsletter. Olivia celebrated her 90th birthday recently - CONGRATULATIONS!

1916 Genevieve Thomas regrets being out of touch with everyone but she enjoys Ivy Leaves and the Newsletter.

1918 Mary Coffin Griffith is now widowed and lives alone but enjoys her children, grandchildren and great grandchildren. She hears from Mary Phelps Fawcett. Mary has many photos from the era of Mr. and Mrs. Fearnley. Yes, we would like to have them! (Please mail to the Society of Graduates c/o the school.)

1919 Kathyrn T. Salmon says she hears from classmates: Constance Piersol Montgomery spent last summer with her son in Maine, and Margaret Montgomery Chalif is on a cruise on the Nile in Egypt. Kathryn spent two delightful months last winter at Ilsa del Sol near St. Peterburg, Fla.

1920 Elizabeth Read Tomlinson keeps in touch with Elizabeth Coles Morley who is now widowed and living in Alabama.

1923 Gertrude Reynolds Knight regretted not being able to attend Founder's Day due to a hip replacement recently. Our best to you for a speedy recovery.

1926 Elethea Waters May may be the "busiest old lady in South Jersey," volunteering two days every week at West Jersey Hospital, etc. Elethea reports that she is a great-grandmother five times.

1931 Edith Greene Elko is sorry she could not attend Founder's Day. Her husband had a severe stroke three years ago. Edith sends hello to everyone from the Class of 1931.

1931 Elizabeth Meirs Morgan wants to know if there are any SMH grads of her vintage in the Forked River - Long Beach Island area. If so, she would enjoy hearing from you.

1933 Elizabeth Seckel MacCornack is in touch with Frances Day Rice. She is currently busy preparing to visit Paris to see her daughter, who attended SMD for 10 years and is now teaching at a university there and will be returning home to complete studies at Brown University for a Ph.D in French.

1935 Mary Virginia Boswell Conklin and her family spent Thanksgiving with her sister Jane Boswell Quin and family in Flint, Michigan.

Louise Hathaway Norman is now retired from her career as a writer for radio, newspapers and as a publicist. Louise hopes to return to the "Hall" some day.

1937 Helen Tasman Tourigney writes that both she and her husband are planning to return to Brown University for their 45th reunion of the Class of 1941.

1940 Jeanne Leach Scott is a year-round resident of Long Beach Island and has her real estate license with Lackey Realty in Ship Bottom. She would love to hear from her classmates!

1941 Jean Hathaway Benson. We just learned from your sister Louise your whereabouts. You'll be hearing from SMD now!

1942 Hazel Lister Tracy, a retired teacher/librarian, advises us that her marriage has been dissolved. With seven children and sixteen grandchildren, Hazel does a lot of baby sitting!

1942 Vivian Atkinson Bird is looking forward to a reunion in April or May with Gwen Goodridge Wilson who has been living about three hours away in Florida for several years. Thanks, Eloise Woodward Gardner, for sending on "Tommies" address. (We would like to have your address too).

1943 Katherine Woodward Ammentorp has had two fascinating trips with the Cincinnati Zoo Safari Club, one to Kenya and Zambis, the other to Indonesia.

1944 Dorothy Mark Arbogast advises that her daughter made her a grandmother for the second time: a grandson born last November. Her son John will enter Temple Medical School in September. Dorothy recently returned from a trip to Florida. She was in touch with classmates during Christmas holidays and is looking forward to seeing them at SMD in '87.

Nona Clapp Koch/Price recently accepted a position as parish secretary for Christ the King Episcopal Church in Willingboro, N.J. and is finding it most interesting and stimulating.

Elizabeth Codding Borden is visiting her son Doug and his family and will be celebrating grandson Adam's first birthday.

1948 Mary Kime McCracken reports that since four children have left home, she has been doing a great deal of traveling. Mary enjoys her two grand children and is a member of two bridge clubs.

Marleigh Morland Baratz is still on the farm in Maryland. She became a grandmother of twins in March. Her daughter is in N.Y.C. working for Commodity Research Bureau and her son is with the Port Authority there.

1951 Constance Fellows Knolt is enjoying her two grandsons. "Keeps you on your toes," she observes.

1955 Jane Tucker Broadbooks, class agent, writes that she would like to know how to handle Ivy Leaves information and update SOG addresses. (Jane: note article regarding this matter).

1957 Sally Ann Garrison Thomas writes that she is kept busy working as a school nurse, teaching school, and helping run a family business. She and her husband have returned to college at night pursuing new interests: accounting and paralegal work, respectively. In February, Sally had a nice visit with Peggy Fenimore Morris and her husband.

1959 Joan Wright Konecny recently visited Diane Wilson Koger '61. Joan is serving as Chaplain of Bluebell Chapter No. 856 O.E.S. in Houston and also as Clerk of the Vestry at Calvary Episcopal Church in Richmond, Texas. She also works as Operations Manager for Home Insurance Company.

Ann Cramer Hoover is currently employed at Strand-Capitol Performing Art Center as Group Sales/Community Outreach Associate. She does volunteer work at church as coordinator of The Future Fund. Her oldest son is at Princeton, Class of '88, as is her daughter, Class of '89, who rooms with Katie Hutton Tweedy's daughter.

Beth Davis Birch advises us she has remarried. Beth is Assistant Corporate Secretary of Montgomery National Bank, Rocky Hill, N.J. She has a 16 year-old daughter by her first marriage and three stepchildren 20, 23, 25 years.

Susan Probasco Olsen has three sons, one in law school, two in college. She keeps busy with tennis, aerobics and sailing. Her husband is District Manager for Southern Bell.

1961 Cynthia Bonnett Fortune advises us that she just moved to Billings, Montana. "Glad to be back in the Big Sky Country," she reports. "Denver was good to us - but like it better here."

1963 Jeanette Smith Cureton: "The Catskill Choral Society, of which I have been Business Manager and whose presidency I assume in June, traveled to Boston in February at the invitation of the American Choral Directors Association to sing in a concert program as part of their 1986 Eastern Division Conference. The concert took place in historic Trinity Church, Copley Square ."

1963 Arleen Howe Ward writes that she and Bonnie Clark Lenhard '63 have opened a cheese shop ("The Cheese Wheel") in Beach Haven, N.J. (Summer months only.) Says it is such fun. How about an address for Bonnie?

Shari Reilly went skiing in five European countries in March. She and the children spent Christmas skiing in Canada. All are well and happy living in Williamsburg. Where is Ibby Stratton? Somewhere in Virginia?

1965 Janet Whiteside Genosky is presently a student at the Rutgers University School of Law. Janet has a degree in Psychology and teaches typing at SMD where her son is in the 4th grade. She is secretary of the Executive Board of the S.O.G.

1966 Lynn Jessup Hoelzer just moved with her family to Hainesville, Georgia, where her husband is stationed at Ft. Stewart. Lynn reports that she really likes it there.

Leona Soltesz Maffei retired from teaching in Burlington City to become Business Manager for her husband's Chiropractic Clinic. She is currently attending physical therapy seminars and working six days a week. Leona is still active in Delta Kappa Gamma (Honor Society of Women Educators). She wants to know if anyone is interested in a 20 year class reunion? (call 609-883-3334)

1967 Anne Gold Shapren is a homemaker with two children. She enjoys traveling with her husbvand, who is sales manager for Syntex Labs.

1984 Stephen E. Toner who spent last year at the University of Florida and worked for the local police department, is currently at the University of Central Florida. Steve has been granted a Class CC private investigator license and is working in Orlando. Steve made it back for Founder's Day!

NOTE - CLASS AGENTS

It was approved by the Executive Board of the S.O.G. that all class news be sent directly to SMD, Attn: SOG, to cut cost for both the Society and the class agents. Alumni are sent a schedule card of activities at the beginning of each school year with a request-for-news card attached. Periodically news is requested in Ivy Leaves as well. Hopefully this will answer the questions of so many class agents. Your function now is to keep in touch with your classmates. Addresses can always be obtained at SMD, Attn: SOG.

FOUNDER'S DAY

Friday, May 2, 1986 registration began at 9:30 A.M. and was followed by the chapel service with Holy Eucharist in memory of Bishop George Washington Doane and the crowning of his portrait with pansies in rememberance. A reception followed, welcoming this year's senior class into the S.O.G. A luncheon was served in the dining room. The annual business meeting followed and was presided over by President Patricia Michael Stevenson. The six brass memorial candlesticks (in memory of the deceased members of the Class of '45) were displayed at the meeting and will be consecrated on Ascention Day, May 8.

150th ANNIVERSARY YEARBOOK ON SALE

This year, St. Mary's Hall-Doane Academy is celebrating its 150th year. Because the yearbook will have an underlying theme celebrating the school's anniversary, it will have special historical value. The price of the book will be $22.00. If you would like to purchase a yearbook commemorating the sesquicentennial anniversary, please send a check payable to SMD Yearbook and mark the envelope attention: Kathleen Walton. This year's deadline for orders is December 1, so order soon!

CLASS NEWS

1916 Sarah McCulloch Zeth says she feels 90 years young, keeps busy with church and social functions, and is planning to attend her granddaughter's wedding in Minnesota.

1917 Marcia Kitchell Francis celebrated her 88th birthday June 9th. Arthritis and poor eyesight are a challenge, but Marsha reports that she enjoys the Ivy Leaves very much.

1928 Ruth Paynter Parachini is finding retirement "quite busy" as she serves on various boards, does volunteer work at the local library, and tends to her gardening. Having one son and family in Minneapolis and another in Los Angeles makes for considerable traveling as well.

1930 Rebecca Styer Hoffman hears from classmates May Cumpston Dudley, Elizabeth Ridley and Dora Pugh. Her youngest son and family just moved into a new home in Washington Crossing; her older son is still in Yardley. Rebecca reports that Father John and she spend winter months in Sun City Center, Florida.

1933 Mabel Welles Owen reports that her husband has now retired from the University of Connecticut English Department. They still spend winters in Storrs, Connecticut but are able to have longer stays at their summer home in Freedom, New Hampshire. "Would enjoy a visit from any SMHer's at either place," Mabel writes.

1939 Priscilla Ireland Brower is busy tutoring in English, math and reading now that she has retired from school teaching. Priscilla and her husband Ed took a trip in June during which they saw Nona Clapp Koch/Price '44 and attended a gala birthday party put on by Elizabeth (Libby) Williamson Gordon for her husband at their home in Fort Defiance, Virginia. Libby's husband Mickey was, like so many of us, celebrating his 39th birthday!

1940 Emily Van Sciver Merk and her husband Bob joined Elizabeth (Sis) Codding Borden '44 and her husband Jack on a cruise to Alaska aboard the Royal Princess in September.

1942 Barbara Jutson Yarlott is working as secretary to an orthopedic surgeon who is the medical director of Children's Hospital in Baltimore, Maryland. Her hobby of quilt making keeps her fingers busy, and she sings in the choir at St. John's in Baltimore - "my favorite activity."

1943 Joan Burdge recently retired after 30 years with Conde Nast Publications. She took a few months off, then bought a car, rented a condo, and started job hunting. Joan is now working part-time for the Woodstock Chamber of Commerce and serving as hostess at the Woodstock Inn and Resort. She also finds time to keep busy with her various handcrafts.

Elizabeth Wright Meirs recently returned to Princeton after spending most of the summer at the family homestead in Clayton, New York.

Elizabeth (Sis) Codding Borden and her husband Jack joined Emily Van Sciver Merk '40 and her husband Bob on a 10-day cruise to Glacier Bay, Alaska. Sis recommends it highly -super trip!

When last heard from, Jeanne Hornberger White and her husband Bill were planning a cruise through the Panama Canal. Hope it proved an enjoyable trip, Jean!

Mary Louise Hering writes that she is really enjoying her new location in Colorado and is keeping extremely busy with volunteer work at the local library in tutoring Mexican-Americans in reading and English.

Nona Clapp Koch/Price underwent major surgery in late August and has enjoyed a good recovery period. Her three daughters were with her during most of the time. Nona is now back at her job.

1952 Barbara Marter MacFalls advises us that she was recently divorced but still remains in the Philadephia area.

ARCHIVES ROOM

During the sesquicentennial year, school memorabilia are being collected and collated in a newly created Archives Room on the third floor of Odenheimer. Mrs. Lewis, Lower School Registrar, and Mrs. Hall, Director of Admissions, will be working with the Headmaster on this important project. Parents and graduates with interesting photos, correspondence, old publications and other school memorabilia are urged to bring them in to Mrs. Hall.

1963 Meredith Ates Gray, married to Hamilton (Sonny) Gray, is working toward a degree in accounting. Meredith reports that she has her own small business complete with office in her home teaching skin care and make-up artistry. Her favorite past-times include searching out copies of '50's "golden oldies" to put on their vintage Seeburg jukebox, collecting original memorabilia from Coca-Cola, and doing cross stitching. "I would love to hear from any and all classmates," says Meredith, whose address is 4823 N. 24th Road, Arlington, Virginia 22207. She would especially like to know how to locate Mrs. Kite, Mrs. Strahan, and the parents of Beverly Rhawn.

1970 August G. Fromuth III was recently appointed Deputy Assistant Secretary of Commerce for trade adjustment assistance in the Commerce Department's International Trade Administration. Congratulations!

1978 Stewart Low has moved back to the family home in Williamsburg, Virginia and hopes that any SMD grads visiting the Tidewater area will get in touch. Stu reports that he usually runs into Ken Bradford when returning to the University of the South for homecomings. He is also keeping in touch with Lamar Jasper and Joe Cavuto, who graduated from Philadelphia Osteopathic Med School last June.

1980 Kenneth Clay is currently in a six-month training program to become a computer programmer for the Chubb Group Life Insurance Company. He visited with Jeannette W. Koch, who was in Burlington visiting her mother.

Jeannette Weston Koch is currently working as a programmer for Allied Computer Graphics in Lake Worth, Florida. Recently in Burlington visiting with her mother, she got over to SMD for a visit as well.

NOTE: We are looking forward to expanding Class News in upcoming Ivy Leaves editions so do take a minute to jot down what is going on in your life and send it on to SMD.

RECAPPING THE 150TH

The 150th celebration of the founding of St. Mary's Hall/Doane Academy has been and will continue to be a year long affair. We are including a recapitulation of the events of the year thus far so that you can truly appreciate the wonderful celebration that is taking place on the Riverbank in Burlington.

On Tuesday March 10, 1987, the first official celebration of the 150th Anniversary was held at St. Mary's Church, Burlington at 3:30 PM. The special Evensong service was arranged as it had been 50 years earlier at the 100th Anniversary of the school. The service started with a procession of visiting clergy, the Board of Trustees and the faculty from the Guild House to the Church. Everyone was robed in academic regalia and it was quite an impressive sight as the procession moved to the church on a crisp, sunny afternoon. The 9th Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey, the Right Reverend G.P. Mellick Belshaw, was the preacher as had been the 5th Bishop, Bishop Mathews in 1937. Other participants in the service were the Reverend Canon James J. Greene, rector of St. Mary's Church and President of the Board of Trustees, and the Reverend Alan Salmon, rector of Christ Church, Riverton and a member of the Board of Trustees.

The service was attended by students, graduates, parents and local dignitaries. Bishop Belshaw's address to the congregation included anecdotal remarks about Bishop Doane and his concepts and beliefs about education. The address was not only educational but entertaining.

Following the service, everyone adjourned to Scarborough Dining Hall where an enormous cake with 150 candles was served. All enjoyed the kickoff for the 150th year of our school.

As part of the 150th Anniversary celebration, the student body participated in a weather balloon release on April 6th sponsored by the Society of Graduates. The 1000 balloons carried cards identifying the launch site and the time of release as part of a meteorological study of wind patterns. The school was selected as a national launch site, one of only 50 so designated from hundreds of participating schools. When the ballons were launched they floated north up the river. The first balloon reported found that evening was sited on the Chesapeake Bay shore some 150 miles to the south. The students thoroughly enjoyed the occasion for the unusual experience as well as the educational benefits.

Founder's Day, May 2, 1987 was the day of the grand celebration of the 150th by the Society of Graduates. The day started at the school at 10 o'clock in the morning and did not end until midnight that night. From 10:00 AM until 3:00 PM there were various activities at the school. Mrs. Helene Hall, Director of Admissions, led a tour of the school for returning graduates. Everyone was fascinated by changes that had occurred and all were anxious to see areas that they remembered during their time at the Hall. Mr. Charles Toll, Headmaster entertained in the antichapel which is decorated with the furnishings from the previous living rooms maintained by the graduates. During the sherry and cheese party, graduates were afforded the opportunity to meet and discuss the present day school life with the Headmaster. A piano recital by Mr. Shawn was a nice interlude in the early afternoon in Scarborough Dining Hall. Of special note was the display in the Conference Room that fascinated graduates. Mrs. Sue Lowe, a former faculty member and now a member of the staff, had arranged a wonderful display of memorabilia. The display garnered from the archives, included photographs of student activities, newsclippings and yearbooks. Many of the items were displayed on portable vertical bulletin boards in a very attractive manner. The graduates thoroughly enjoyed walking through the exhibit and sharing "remember whens" with other classmates and friends.

Evensong was held at 5 o'clock in the Chapel. The celebrant was the Right Reverend Albert VanDuzer, retired 8th Bishop of the Diocese of New Jersey and a former parent. The Reverend Donald Muller, rector of Holy Innocents, Beach Haven and son-in-law of the Bishop,served as the Bishop's rector. The homily was given by the Reverend Canon James J. Greene also a former parent. The traditional hymns for Founder's Day included "Ten Thousand Times Ten Thousand" and "Fling Out the Banner". The portrait of Bishop Doane was crowned with pansies by the President of the Society of Graduates, Patricia Michaels Stevenson,'70. The memorial candlesticks given by the class of 1945 in memory of deceased classmates were used on the altar. These had been dedicated at Founder's Day the previous year.

Following the service, the Annual Meeting of the Society of Graduates was held in the conference room while other guests enjoyed cocktails in Nelson Corridor. At the business meeting, the Treasurer's report was received and reviewed. The President discussed activities of the Society over the last year and answered questions from the floor regarding the state of the school, future plans for the school and the Society of Graduates. Everyone was encouraged to see the refurbishing of the Sacristy which was financed by the SOciety of GRaduates. The results of the election were as follows: President: Patricia Stevenson, Vice President: Judith Perinchief (filling an unexpired term) and members-at-large: Anne Pumyea Siner, Pamela Guerds, Pamela Borden Heckert, George VanSciver and Marcia Crosman Wompierski.

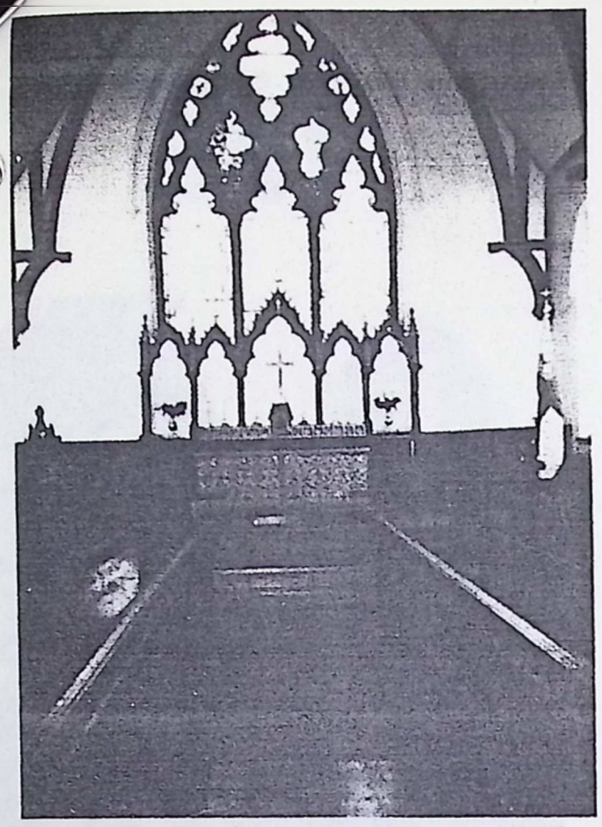

Following the meeting, the graduates joined other guests in Nelson Corridor where there was a chance to visit with former Headmistress, Elsie Slater, former faculty Jane Stephen, Louise Decker Deacon, Ruth Kite, Betty Perinchief and Frances Mulford. Current trustees of the school, current faculty and staff and former parents were also seen chattering among the crowd.

Dinner was served in Scarborough Dining Hall by Candlelight Caterers. Graduates and guests were grouped at tables which covered the years they had attended the Hall. There was a great deal of table hopping as the 30's visited with the 40's and the 60's visited with the 70's. Music for dancing was provided by the Jersey Devils throughout the evening. All the guests were entertained by Bishop VanDuzer and Canon Greene dancing with their daughters Lynn and Susan.

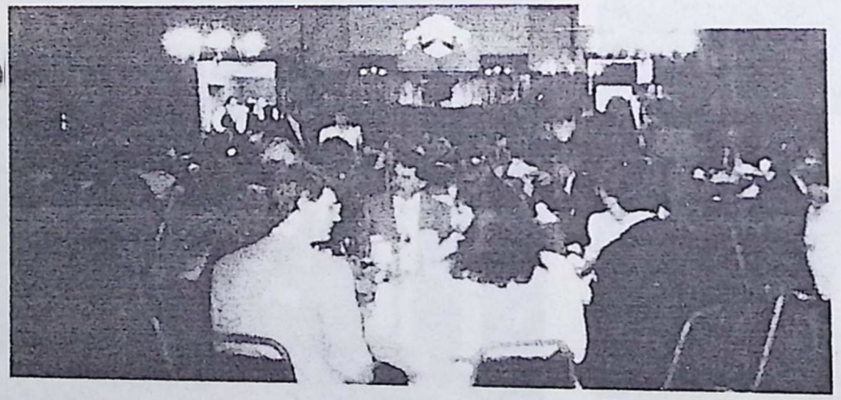

The credit for the spectacular evening, cocktails, dinner and dancing, goes to the co-chairpersons for the event: Elizabeth CODDING Borden and Nona CLAPP Price, members of the class of 1944 and of the Executive Board of the Society of Graduates.

The breaking with tradition in planning Founder's Day 1987 was done in celebration of the 150th Anniversary. Over the last 10 years the attendance at Founder's Day wad dwindled due to inability of graduates to attend because of work schedules and family committments. With the outstanding success of Founder's Day 1987 and the enthusiastic support for continued events of this type, the Executive Board is already at work planning for next year. Graduates who wish to express opinions or ideas or who may be interested in working on committees are asked to contact Mrs. Francis Stevenson, President, Society of Graduates in care of the school.

FOUNDER'S

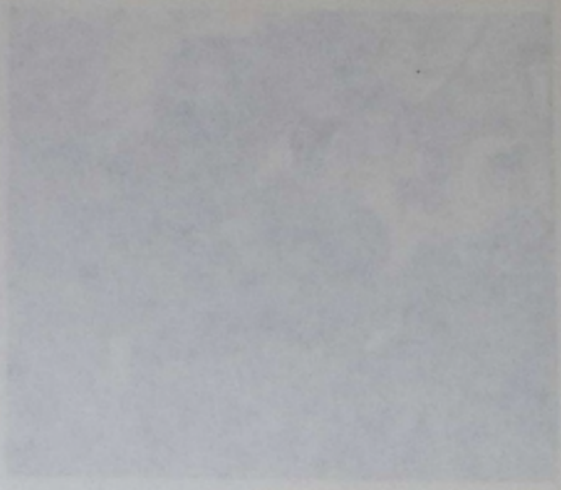

DAY

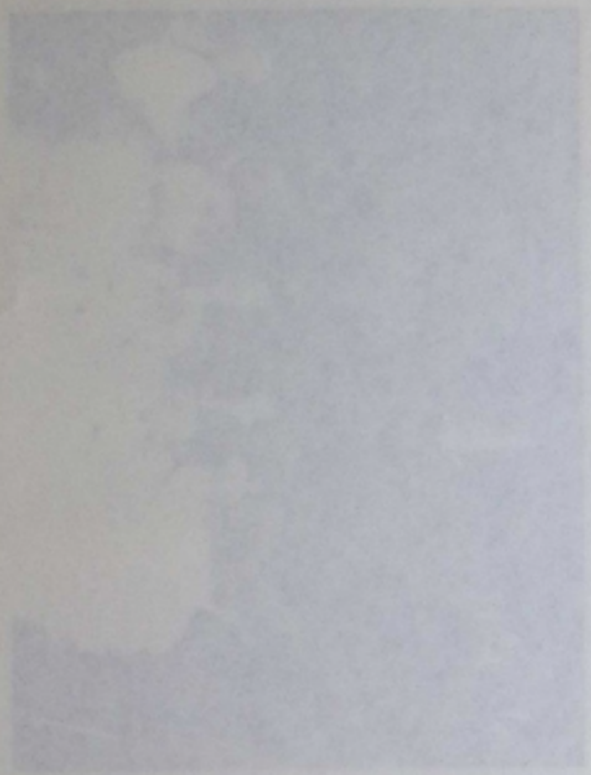

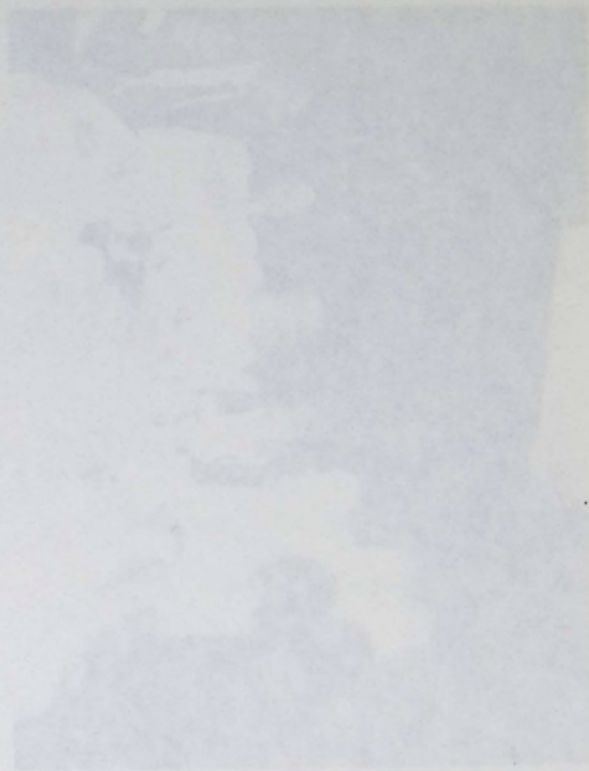

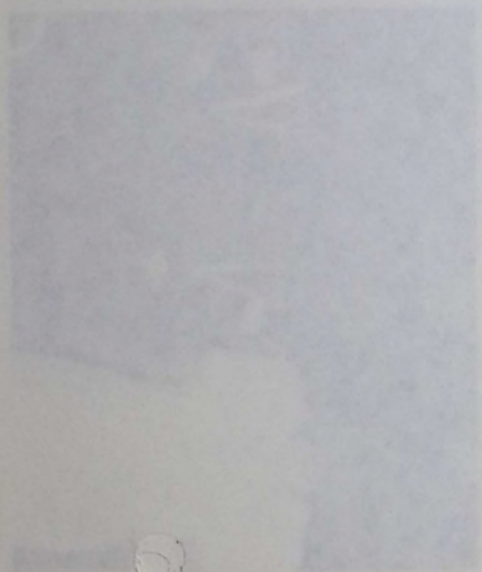

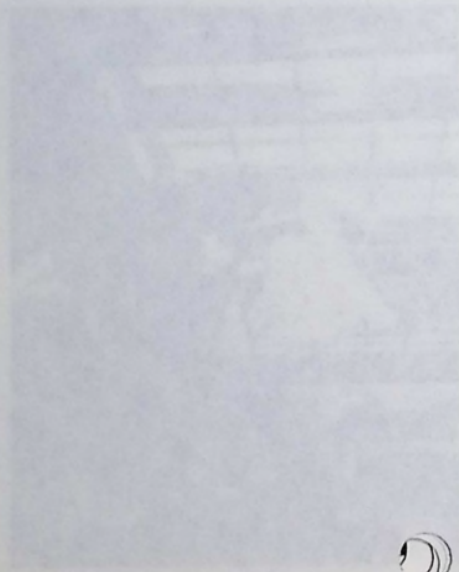

CLASS NOTES

'13 Olivia BEDDOES Waddington celebrated her 91st birthday with her son, two granddaughters and 7 year old great grandson. She is living with a companion in her own home in Colorado Springs.

'24 Natalie PRIEST Stiles enjoyed her trip back to the Hall for Founder's Day.

'25 Fred and Anna Bell HUTCHINSON Phillips celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary with a party at the Nassau Club in Princeton on June 12, 1987. Their guest list included a number of St. Mary's Hall graduates among them Kay JOHNSON Kraft '25, Bettie FELL Siegrist '23, Elizabeth HEYL '31 and Sue AARONSON Hinckley '56. Mr. Charles Toll, Headmaster, was one of the speakers honoring Anna Bell and included in his remarks items that would spark memories of her days at the school. Fred and Anna Bell were also honored by speakers and presentations from Princeton University and other societies and organizations of which they are members.

'30 Becky STYER Hoffman and her husband vacation annually for 5 months in Sun City Florida. She has completed her memoirs with a fine chapter on the "Traditions of St. Mary's Hall". Two members of the class returned for Founder's Day; they were Elizabeth RIDLEY and May CUMPSTON Dudley.

'36 It was nice to see Margaret LONG Barton back at the Hall for Founder's Day.

'39 Charlotte LANDRETH Melville left in June to join her daughter, Linda '80, in Xian, China. They plan a four month trip through China, Nepal, India, Burma and Thailand. Charlotte attended Founder's Day and had a chance to visit with Christine RIDLEY who had come up to Burlington with her sister.

'40 Barbara SPEACE Grice brought a book on Gothic Architecture with her when she came to Founder's Day. Several pages in the book are dedicated to John Nottman, the architect for our Chapel and there are excellent interior and exterior photographs of the Chapel, too. Barbara donated to book to the school and it will be placed in the library for all to see. Thank you Barbara.

'43 Elizabeth WRIGHT Meirs attended Founder's Day 1987. Liz lives in Priceton with her mother. Mrs. Wright and Liz have remained devoted and very generous to the school in helping resotre portraits and obtain draperies for the Conference Room. We are grateful for their continued interest and support of our school.

'44 Doris WEST de Neergaard lives in Huntington, Long Island. She lost her husband to cancer a few years ago, but says her 4 grown children and 3 grandchildren keep her busy.

'45 The class was represented by Joan NORNBERGER Jesperson and Frances ATKINSON Crowley at Founder's Day. The candlesticks given by class members in memory of deceased classmates were used on the altar for the Evensong service. They are absolutely beautiful and such a wonderful way to remember those no longer with us. We record with sorrow the death of Margaret HIRSHON Austin in 1982.

'47 Marilyn WEST Hammel sent news earlier this year about her wonderful family; a son, 2 daughters and a 3 year old grandson. There are two more grandchildren on the way she tells us. Marilyn and her husband Dick had spent the last 6 years traveling in Africa. Dick was a member of the East Africa Wildlife SOciety and the Rwanda Gorilla Project. They actually went to Rwanda and sat with the gorillas of the mist. We were saddened to learn of Dick's death in March and send our sympathies to Marilyn and the children. Scnya LEACH Apostolos returned to school for Founder's Day on May 2.

'48 Mary Meade OSBORNE Christensen has been promoted to Manager of Editorial Production at Medical Economics, a health care publishing company. Mary and Mary Ann KIME McCracken are spearheading the organization of a 40th reunion for the class next year. Classmates are urged to contact either one regarding plans.

'50 1987 marks Kay STRAHLE Rogers 25th year with the State of New Mexico's Department of Human Services. For the past few years, Kay has been in an Investigator II position which she finds challenging and interesting. Exactly what does an Investigator II do, Kay?

'56 Sue AARONSON Hinckley has turned her gardening hobby into a small business. Sue can be found working the soil on the Buddtown farm she and her husband purchased several years ago. The roadside stand at the foot of the lane is laden with flowers and vegetables Sue has grown from May to October.

'57 Sally GARRISON Thomas and Judie Perinchief represented the class at Founder's Day. Sally is still a nurse with the Baltimore School System, but plans to retire within the next five years. Judie has completed a chapter on Health Care Systems and Issues for a text in Occupational Therapy which should be out within the year. Peggy FENIMORE Morris was not able to attend as she had to drive to North Carolina to bring daughter Jean home from college for the summer. Jean has just finished her freshman year at Duke University.

'59 Katie HUTTON Tweedy came to the Evensong service but had to rush home in time for daughter Kay's thespian production that evening. Joan WRIGHT Konecy got the award for the greatest distance traveled to attend Founder's Day. Joan made the trip from Houston Texas and stayed with Dwight and Diane WILSON Koger '60 at their new home in Burlington Township. Joan and Diane got together again one month later when the Koger's and the Wilson's went to Texas for a visit with friends.

'61 Trudi SCOTT Lefavour is still practicing medicine in New York City. She returned to Founder's Day armed with pictures of the family. Trudi saved the day when she stepped in to play the Alma Mater (old tune) since the music had been misplaced. The tune was changed several years ago because the students had a difficult time singing, particularly the young men.

'62 Gayle SILVERSTEIN Yaede has been teaching biology for 9 years in Cincinnati, Ohio. Her son, Todd, 17, is a junior in high school. Gwen SNOVER Scott made it back to the Hall for Founder's Day.

'64 Meg PPERRY is living in CAmbridge, Mass and was not able to come to Founder's Day. She sent a note saying how special her time at SMH-DA was and how much she hopes the student of today experiences the same wonderful learning that she remembers.

'65 The class was represented at Founder's Day by Marsha MEGARIOTIS McCue and Gail WILSON Murray.

'67 Suzanne EVANS Hoyle-Rhodes and her sister Elizabeth '70 were both back for Founder's Day and to view the changes that had occurred since their time at the Hall. Anne GOLD Shapern also represented the class at Founder's Day.

'69 Terry LITSAS Cologredes had hoped to see more of her classmates at the celebration of the 150th Anniversary. '69er's, where were you?

'70 Suzanne MULDOWNEY danced the role of Dracula in New York twice this past spring in honor of Bramstoker's Dracula 90th year. Suzanne is also into ornamental cake decorating. The class of '70 gets the award for the largest number of returning classmates for Founder's Day. For those classmates unable to attend, can you name those in the photograph on the picture page?

'71 Peggy EDWARDS is living on Lake Harmony, a resort community in the Poconos. John Borden and Cynthia Marshall were married on June 13, 1987 at home on the Riverbank. John and Cindy were also in attendance at Founder's Day.

'75 Sunny HALLANAN McMillan sneds word that she was married in August 1986. She recently completed her Master of Divinity at Yale and was ordained in June. The McMillan's live in Ithaca, NY.

'77 Nancy Wegard is a photographer/reported with the Philadelphia Inquirer. The school is very appreciative of Nancy's efforts in getting space in the Inquirer and for taking many of the photos you see on the photo page.

'78 Will HALLANAN graduated from St. Lawrence University in 1982. He and his wife were married in September 1985 and live in the Washington DC area where Will is a competive cyclist.

EDITOR'S NOTE: For those of you who attended Founder's Day and were not mentioned in the Class Notes section, please do not be offended. Lists of those attending were incomplete since some people neglected to sign in and there were last minute cancellations. We apologize for any oversight in not including everyone's name.

ALUMNI GATHERINGS

Adolescence is an important and memorable time for most of us. We remember scenes and episodes - and people - from our school years with an intensity and clarity of detail that eludes us as we look back on great stretches of our adult lives, however full and happy they may have been. It is exciting when alums gather together and share their memories of life at the Hall.

Visits to the island With Mrs. Pearson... Inspections before chapel...Canoe races on the Delaware...Formal teas...Al fresco performances of the spring Shakespearian comedy...Chaperoned walks into town wearing gloves... Henry's delicious trifle...Dreary Fridays of civics and drills...Wild doings in the Annex or Senior House (or across the river)...House mothers like Dougie... Prohibition against bobby pins to keep one's veil in place...Willie's demonstration of his last name (Hugg)...A vision of a classmate heading off for a riding lesson in a smartly tailored outfit with her red hair flashing....

When alums talk, the differences at various times in the school's history are obvious: uniforms change, buildings are used or not used (or depart), restrictions and freedoms are altered, new staff arrive and others depart, the curriculum changes. Yet alums also find common threads joining their experiences. They share a vision of the school providing a rich yet structured experience, not static but responding to the times, believing that civility and grace do matter. Whether they attended in the 20's or the 70's, most remember their years at the Hall vividly - and with affection. Alumni gatherings are proving an enjoyable opportunity to share reminiscences and catch up on life at the Hall. Spouses are most welcome too!

VISITING THE HALL

One of the pleasures of teaching at the Hall is being visited by former students. Over the course of the fall, quite a few stopped by to say hello, including: Don Tocci '77; Gene Barretta '78; Steve Sak '81; Chris Cecchi and Rob Bodine '85; Chris Banfer, Chris Dillon, Liz McShea and Adam Tarantini '86; Alvin Dickinson '87; and Paul Salter, Amanda Addis, Walt Sherwood, Mitch Finer and David Johnston '88. Jack Hall also visited the campus on a number of occasions.

December and January are important times for visits to SMD, for many colleges and universities begin their Christmas holidays earlier or extend them later than we do. Seen around the holidays were: Dave Wirtshafter '80; Kim Fuldner '82; Mike Zielinski and Timothy Hall '83; Alvar Mattei '84; Jenny Sechorn, Joe Garemore and Cindy Ferguson '85; Kevin Richardson (back from a year in England), Rob Bonner and J.J. Bodine '86; Tom Coceano, Shelton Austin, Laura Duffy and Paul Sheehan '87; and Kristen Schwarz, Bram and Steve Teitelman, Travis Raney, Jim Millson, Chance Van Sciver, Brian Powell, Kathy Lisehora, Stacey Dix, Andrew Pietrangelo, Christina Richards, Kevin Wright, John Kunyczka, Karen McAlpen (back from Germany) and Bernie Rump '88. Rob Bonner, back at Haverford after a very successful semester at Harvard, returned to campus shortly after his first visit to give some seniors pointers on the college admissions process. There have been a number of alumni gatherings off campus as well as on. Doc LaVia has figured prominently in several of these.

It's fun to catch up on your activities - so if you are in the area, do stop by!

ARCHIVAL ANTIPASTO

Recent news items about the Bridge, Fort Dix and the death of Emperor Hirohito trigger memories of another time in the life of the Hall.

THE WAR YEARS

With the advent of World War II, Bristol students were not the only ones who often "walked the bridge." In "An Autumn Reverie," Headmistress Florence Newbold provides a vision of her thoughts that transcends specific time and details:

Clear sunlight, rippling water, and a steady breeze lured me to a brisk walk over the bridge on a crisp October afternoon. As always, the height of the bridge, the expanse of water, the far horizon cleared the cobwebs from my brain and brought a new sense of proportion, new values, and an increased zest for living.

Returning from the Pennsylvania side, my gaze dwelt long and lovingly on the green bank where the ivy-covered buildings of the Hall appeared through the heavy foliage of the trees now tinged with autumn color. Riverside, on the right, seemed to typify the learning for which the Hall has always stood; Fairholm, on the other side, symbolized for me the home-like quality which has always been so much a part of the life of the School; behind and beyond this panorama rose the slender spire of St. Mary's Church crowning and dominating the scene just as the influence of the chapel permeates the life of the School. 'Has it ever been lovelier?' I thought. 'No, it couldn't ever have been - this is what all those who have been here through the years as students and teachers love so much.' And inwardly I gave thanks that for a brief span I am permitted to serve St. Mary's as its leader.

After a space my eyes wandered to the right of the bridge where almost overnight the War Effort has reared its ugly head. The erection of the magnesium plant by the Aluminum Corporation of America has changed the marshy landscape, on which for so many years had stood the old vacant brick building that once housed the Burlington College for Boys, into a modern streamlined version of Industry, 1943 style. Could there be anywhere else so clear a contrast? On the one side of the bridge stands that which the Church offers - St. Mary's Hall, rich in the culture and tradition of the 1913 - Mildred Johnson is living in Medford and viewing life as a post graduate course!

1920 - Virginia Price Damon reports that she has four children, fifteen grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren - all living near by. "I am indeed lucky!" Now widowed after 56 years of marriage, she would love to hear from her classmates.

1922 - Elizabeth Day Barker is living in quiet retirement in Florida. Betty's current activities center around visits to her now middle-aged children and grown up grandchildren variously based in Arizona, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Connecticut.

1923 - Elsie DeVoe Fick, living in Highland Park, New Jersey, writes that she supports the school and the activities of the SOG.

1929 - Elizabeth Shoemaker Coles reports that she is "comfortable and in good health." She remembers her years at the Hall as "very important and happy."

1930 - Rebecca Styer Hoffman winters in Sun City Center, Florida and comes north to live in Washington Crossing, PA for the summers. Rebecca has invited classmates Elizabeth Ridley, Mary Simpson Dudley, Isabel Ridge Guckes and Dora Pugh to her home for a 60th reunion in 1990 and would like to hear from other classmates. Her Florida address is 1018 Pebble Beach Blvd., Sun City Center, FL 33570. Edith Greene Elko reports that she has two great grandchildren and is expecting three more soon.

1935 - Ruth Leech Donaldson is in good health, working as a volunteer at her local library, and doing lots of running around.

1938 - Caroline St. Claire attended Founders Day last spring. She was sad not to see more classmates but pleased to visit the Hall and attend Eucharist in the Chapel which holds so many memories!

1939 - Elizabeth Williamson Gordon writes that the class of '39 will hold their 50th reunion at Founders Day this spring. Details later. Please contact Mrs. Edwin (Prissy) Brower, 21 Navesink Drive, Monmouth Beach, NJ 07750. Charlotte Landreth Melville took a marvelous trip of global proportions last year, spending a number of weeks in China. After an additional three weeks in Thailand, she visited relatives and friends in New Zealand and Australia. She was joined on much of her excursion by daughters Ann and Linda. Charlotte sends greetings to her friends and hopes she "will have an opportunity to visit you in your country or you will be able to visit with me in Bristol. You are all welcome - only don't all come at the same time!"

1940 - Nancy Eckman McPartland is living in Palmyra, NJ and teaching part-time. Nancy's grandson is a 2nd grader at the Hall, and she and her husband attend school functions frequently. "St. Mary's is dear to my heart," reports Nancy, who "spent a wonderful evening doing the Phonathon last spring, which resulted in a lunch and school visit with a classmate." Nancy also helped at this year's Christmas Bazaar. Eleanor Shoemaker Spencer and her husband John are retired from their teaching careers and are now involved in many volunteer activities in Trinity Episcopal Church in the Swedesboro community. "Somehow, we seem busier now than when we were both working!"

1941 - Gwendolyn (Penny) Compton is now retired " and thoroughly enjoying it!"

1942 - Eloise Woodward Gardner is active in Trinity Church in Boston and at Sherrill House, an extended care facility. She is also pursuing her art interests by collecting illustrations, particularly children's books. Eloise stays in touch with classmate Vivian Atkinson Bird, who has been living in Florida. Eloise and her husband Frank recently hosted a gathering of alums in the area, which Mr. Toll attended.

1943 - Last fall Marilynn Carr Cannon hosted a medical fraternity annual convention. She composed the convention's program/bulletin, collected signatures for a sharing Christmas card, and chaired a committee sending 1200 invitations to the Golden Evening Gala.

1944 - Helen Taylor Currier has been living in Cape May for a year and still enjoys the sun, sand and sea. Classmate Mary Cox (Newt) Morrison is settling into the slower pace of being semi-retired and setting different goals. Camille Compton Caldwell, injured in an accident last May, writes that she is "now in physio-therapy, and should be in good shape by May. Meantime, I'm trying to behave myself and stay out of trouble." Frances Cassedy is now back home and "doing more each day" after being seriously ill and spending four months in a hospital and then a nursing home. "I am truly grateful to all who prayed for my recovery - it was truly a miracle," writes Frances. Jo Clark Barlow reports that retirement from the Army hasn't changed much for herself or her husband. "Watercolor painting classes and golf keep me busy," Jo reports. "We take many golfing trips with friends. Our two daughters and three grandchildren are constant reminders that ours is a good life! We are active members of the Anglican Church (1928 Prayer Book) here in Columbus, Georgia." Ann Pearson Dover writes from South Carolina that Helen Miller's nickname was "Winkie" and asks what happened to Jane Loucks.

1945 - Frances Atkinson Crowley was recently widowed but keeps busy recording for the blind for the Connecticut Audio-Book Library in Milford. Akie also works as a volunteer in the local soup kitchen for the Council of Churches, serves as president of the Milford Land Conservation Trust which she founded in 1969, and is currently taking a course in chair caning. Her grandchildren are often overnight visitors, and Akie notes, "I am slowing down a bit - my two grandsons can now outrun me!" Mary Belleville Hart reports that she is now retired after 26 years of working with the hearing impaired in the Bucks County Public Schools. Classmates Arlene Spencer Waddell and Joan Hornberger Jespersen attended her retirement luncheon.

1946 - Molly Walter-Burnham earned her Ph.D. in English from the Indiana University of Pennsylvania in 1988. As a graduation present, her five children presented her with a round-trip ticket to England, where she spent a wonderful three weeks. Next year Molly will be on a sabbatical leave and return to England for research.

1948 - Marleigh Morland Baratz recently moved to Lake of the Woods in Locust Grove, Virginia, and reports that she has acquired five grandchildren within five years ("can't believe it !"). Marleigh is singing with the Culpepper/Piedmont Choral Society and trying to start a Central Virginia Opera Company. Her husband is editor of Managed Account Reports in Columbia, Maryland. Their son Mark and his wife are finishing their residency in orthopedic surgery and radiology at the University of Pittsburgh.

1950 - Nancy Merz Moore has lived in California for 23 years, and the welcome mat is out to all classmates. Nancy works part-time in retail and holds down three "Girl Friday" jobs - plus volunteer at a local garden establishment. She is fortunate to have five grandchildren close by.

1951 - Marie L. Walbridge is Vice President of Student Affairs at the City University of Los Angeles. The university has students in 17 countries, and Marie visits several of these countries yearly. She also started up a Ph.D program in Biblical Psychology this past year. "Life has been wonderful and I find myself very happy."

1952 - Ann Potter Wetmore lost her dear husband Lee in 1986 and her mother, Marian Gallup Potter '14, last year. Ann keeps busy traveling, visiting her three children, and working part-time at a boutique in Essex, Connecticut.

1955 - Jane Tucker Broadbooks is working as bookkeeper for her husband's landscape firm and travels with him on business. Their son will graduate from King College in May with a major in history/political science and minor in business.

1957 - Diane Higham Warrick is teaching kindergarten and continues "to receive much self-satisfaction from my job." Her family like to ski and took a trip west over Christmas. Sally Garrison Thomas, recently moved into a new home, is planning quite a bit of traveling - to Florida, Ohio, and England this summer. Her husband Marvin will retire this spring after 25 years teaching, then attend college full time to finish his paralegal studies and embark on a second career! Sally's daughter Jesse is a junior at the Maryland Institute and her son Jim is a freshman at James Madison University. Julia Gleason Rhoads and her husband Jack have moved to York, Pennsylvania where Jack directs the surgical residency program at York Hospital. "With so much 'spare time' I have opened a shop featuring 'gourmet sewing' and Bernina Sewing Machines," reports Julia.

1959 - The class of 1959 is planning a 30th reunion in the spring. Class agent Joan Wright Konecny will be sending out more information on date, place, etc.

1963 - Martha Conway Gabriel works as a secretary and rental agent for a land development firm in the Manchester, New Hampshire area. Her son Chuck is a freshman at Berklee College of Music in Boston, where he is studying composing and arranging. "Does anyone else wonder where the last 25 years have gone?" inquires Martha. Sharon (Shari) Reilly will be moving to the Washington D.C. area and reports, "It looks as if marriage will be a part of my life starting this summer.....After a long rainy season in my life, the sun now shines and a full spectrum rainbow is in view!"

1964 - Barbara Sackin Berger and her husband Bruce, a dermatologist, love to travel. They visited Papua, New Guinea last year. Black and white photography is a favorite hobby. Barbara occasionally sees classmates Rebecca Deitz Levy, Patricia Albert Cohen and Myrna Blank Herz.

1966 - Leona Soltesz Maffei has moved to Princeton and is "loving every minute of it." Leona serves as business manager for her husband, a physican, and has her 16 year-old niece living with her for the year.

1967 - Karen Berger Levin has just completed her Masters degree in Computer Technology at Johns Hopkins University. She works as Lower School Coordinator at Gilman School in Baltimore, where her husband is Director of Finance and Management. Their sons Greg and Jeremy attend Gilman and are active in soccer, wresting and Lacrosse.

1970 - Barbara Wise is living in Arizona with her husband Jeb and five children, four boys and one girl. Barbara rides, is active with the Little League, and spends lots of time driving kids from one place to another! "My biggest problem these days is believing that I am old enough to have a teenage son - it just can't be!" Classmate Victoria Greene Aldrich is Director of Alumni Affairs at Skidmore College. Her son Jim is already four years old. ("I can't believe it!') Marilena Martins has opened her own business: Rx Temp, a temporary agency placing pharmacists and technicians in hospitals and retail stores. "I love the flexibility and being my own boss," reports Marilena.

1971 - Margaret (Peggy) Edwards is enjoying the lifestyle of peacefulness, skiing, nature and feeding the deer in the Poconos. She is Director of Marketing for Majestic Athletic, and she stays in touch with classmates Nana Eggleston Mayer and Wendelin Lippincott Tongyai. Wendy Shapack Adamson is living in Florida and "enjoying being a full-time mommy and wife." She now has two children, Bryan and Corey.

1973 - Michele Filling Katz will be at the NIH for six more months, then will take over the Department of Neurology at the VA Hospital in Louisville, Kentucky. Denise DeMore-Keohan was recently married in Boston's Old North Church to Peter Alexis Keohan, owner of a systems design and consulting business in Boston. Denise works as assistant manager for the company and is also attending Suffolk University Law School at night. Sarajane Gerofsky Blatt is living in Cincinnati with her husband Martin and two children Elaina and Jason. She is teaching Obstetric and Pediatric Nursing, and she has been in touch with classmates Lynn Lamb Grancell and Caroline Shaw Oliver.

1974 - Anthony (Tony) Kithcart is currently working as manager of the 24 hour Gospel Radio Station WIMG in Ewing Twp., NJ. Carol O'Neill Hodgkins is helping to organize a 15th reunion for the upcoming summer. She has already contacted quite a few people and would like to hear from Robin Ungaro and Mark Slocum.

1977 - Joy Aldridge is working as a database manager at Chemical Bank in Manhattan and is completing her second year of part-time study at New York Law School where she is a member of the Law Review. She keeps in touch with classmate Julie Batten.

1980 - Linda Melville, attending graduate school in linguistics at San Jose State and living in Santa Cruz, California, would like to hear from any classmates coming through the area. Classmate Amanda McCutcheon is working as a sous-chef at the 22 Lincoln Restaurant in Brunswick, New Jersey and is showing" - and occasionally selling" - her paintings. Last fall Amanda ran the town Democratic headquarters. Robert Holtzman, currently working on the TV show Double Dare in Philadelphia, has been working in theaters all over the country - including the Yale Repertory Theatre, Julliard School and the Spoleto Festival in Charleston, SC. Andrew Winner has been watching the Presidential transition from the "inside" at the State Department. He reports that most people in the building are happy with the choice of James Baker as Secretary of State.

1981 - Christopher Hall was graduated from Reed College in 1986 with a B.A. in English Literature. After remaining in Portland for the next two years working primarily as an archaeologist, he enrolled in the University of San Francisco, where he is currently pursuing a law degree.

1983 - Elizabeth Sharrier has been working for Prentice Hall/Simon and Schuster since her graduation from Bryn Mawr in 1987. With a recent promotion, Elizabeth has relocated to Los Angeles. Rhonda Bennett was graduated from Trenton State College last spring and is now working for the New Jersey Department of Agriculture. Nancy Cramer, pursuing a degree in Elementary Education at Glassboro State, reports that she is "basically enjoying life and not in any hurry to grow up." Jim Tollefson is juggling playing rock and roll and working as a medical service technician.

1984 - Stephen Toner is living in St. Petersburg, Florida and in his second term at Stetson University Law School. He reports that all is going well, and would like to hear from his friends.

1985 - Cynthia Ferguson juggles attending Drexel University with a job at AT&T in King of Prussia. Cynthia was recently engaged to Bill Fischer, also employed by AT&T. She reports that classmate Bob Schwarzwalder is currently attending school in Hawaii.

CLASS OF '83 HOLDS REUNION

Eighteen members of the class of '83 gathered at the Hall during the Christmas holidays to reminisce, catch up on one another's activities, and usher in the New Year. The reunion party, arranged by Timothy Hall, featured a short business meeting, drinks and hors d'oeuvres, and a variety of door prizes. Most of the classmates work or study in New Jersey (though Joe Sapp flew in from Atlanta for the holidays), but many had not seen each other since graduation.

In addition to Timothy and Joe, there were Mike Zielinski, Sue Tocci, Rhonda Bennett, Nancy Cramer, Jim Petrucelli, Bill Lewis, Jim Tollefson, John Stockton, Ernie Lawson, Sandy Oasin,Dawn Stiltz Noble, Lucy Sharpe, Sheryl Lynne Williams-Grice, Ed Driscoll, Joe Cauffiel and Kurt Hendricks. Also present were Ben McCutcheon and Chris Krusen '82, friends of many of those in the class of '83. All agreed that it was a very enjoyable evening, and that additional get-togethers should be forthcoming.

ADDRESSES NEEDED

In April we will be printing a new Alumni Directory, and we would like it to be as complete and up-to-date as possible. Over the years, unfortunately, we have lost touch with some of our alums. If you are in touch with any of these people and can provide an address (and phone number), do let us know. If any are deceased, please let us know too.

USE THE POSTCARD!

The stamped, self-addressed postcard is stapled to this issue of the Ivy Leaves. It is included to help you keep your classmates and us up-to-date.

Please take a moment or two to let us know:

(1) Any information about yourself, your family and classmates you would like to share in classnotes.
(2) Your phone number and any change of address.
(3) The whereabouts of a classmate whose address we have lost.

Just drop the postcard in the mailbox - no postage necessary.

Note: The Directory will be ready for Founders Day on Saturday, May 6. Plans also include a Headmaster's sherry, a chance to meet present students, and the option to see the Spring Play.

ARCHIVAL ANTIPASTO CONTINUED

past, striving to be faithful to its heritage while yet keeping abreast of the times in its educational achievement; on the other side, rapidly rising, stands the answer of Industry to the Government's War Effort.

The conflict in Europe had touched the Hall almost immediately. The October 1939 Ivy Leaves noted that Londoner Mrs. E. C. Ainlye (Eleanor Titus '08) had "helped with the evacuation of the hospitals in those days just before war was declared." And front page news in the July 1941 Ivy Leaves was: "STUDENTS ADOPT CREW OF H.M.S. ST. MARY'S." (The ship was one of fifty destroyers traded to Great Britain and renamed after towns common to both countries.) By March 1942 the students were doing their part in such activities as Young American Wants to Help, the British War Relief, Bundles for Britain, the Red Cross and the H.M.S. St. Mary's. The amount of knitting going on must have been prodigious!

The Class History in the 1943 yearbook notes that the students "found several changes made necessary by the war. One of the most important was the institution of student waitresses due to the fact that most of our A-1 waiters were classified as 1-A, and left S.M.H. for U.S.A." The history continues:

Every other Monday afternoon, a group of faculty and sometimes members of the senior class, - their muscles braced and their patriotism burning brightly - start off for a gruelling six straight hours of work in the Fort Dix Volunteer Canteen. Henry puts up the packages of sandwiches, fruit and cakes which will be our only nourishment - or, you say, our 'K' rations - during the furious battle of 'Mocha' in which we are entrenched behind a gleaming counter and the troops storm the battlements. We fend them off with gallon after gallon of boiling coffee and the heavy artillery of dough-nuts, sandwiches and cake. It is a desperate conflict, but the troops always win because while we are drooping to the point of utter exhaustion by 10:15 p.m., the men are still as fresh, fit, and hungry - not to mention thirsty - as when we opened up on them hours before.

Rumor hath it that the fresh and glowing beauty of our maidens has drawn many a rash soldier to the counter so often and for so much coffee that later he has had to be resuscitated at the station hospital and have never been able to face a cup of coffee since. This may or may not be accurate, but I can say under solemn oath that I have seen one desperate youth, his heart pounding and his eyes glazed with rapture, putting down ten cups of coffee, eight dough-nuts and six sandwiches. I trust they buried him with full military honors! At any rate, we really do enjoy our evenings at Fort Dix and have just about recovered from the last, when we find another Monday at the Front is due. We only pray that our legs will last out the duration.

PIANO LESSON CLARIFIED

We had several different identifications of the teacher and student pictured in the photo of the piano lesson. The most conclusive:

"In regards to your 'mystery picture' in the Ivy Leaves, the budding pianist is I - E. Ann Deibert Henry '49 (circa 1943). The instructor was Lota Winchell Curtis, with whom I studied piano through graduation. Miss. Curtis was also the chapel organist and later married the Rev. Wilbur Hogg, the school chaplain as well as rector of St. Mary's Church."

"I would be interested in knowing," writes Mrs. Henry, "how many others will identify the picture. What a shock to see my face in an '88 edition of Ivy Leaves!"
