Billings School District 2

STUDENTS

Student Rights, Responsibilities, and Code of Conduct

The District recognizes that all students are entitled to enjoy the rights protected under federal and state constitutions and law for persons of their age and maturity in a school setting. The District expects students to exercise these rights reasonably and to avoid violating the rights of others or disrupting the education environment. The District may impose disciplinary measures whenever students violate the rights of others or violate District policies, procedures, rules, or handbooks, on school premises or at any school function or activity. School premises means all property owned, leased, or used by the School District for instruction or student activities. The District reserves the right to impose disciplinary action when a student's conduct, whether occurring on or off school property, substantially disrupts or interferes with the educational environment, the safety of students or staff, or the orderly operation of the school.

Each student is expected to strive to take full advantage of educational opportunities and to do the student's best in all areas of school life. Each student has the right to an education in an orderly, safe, and sanitary atmosphere and is expected to contribute to the school environment.

All students who attend the District's schools, programs, or activities shall comply with the written policies, procedures, rules, and handbooks of the schools, shall pursue the required course of studies, and shall submit to the authority of the Superintendent, principals, other administrators, teachers, or other designees of the District. Violation of any of these expectations is a violation of school policy and will result in discipline.
