Teachers have completed LETRS training. LETRS stands for Language Essentials for Teachers of Reading and Spelling. It is professional, evidence-based training that teachers take to learn the best ways to teach children how to read. The training focuses on how the brain learns to read and important skills like sounding out words, building vocabulary, and students understanding what they read. Ninety percent of our teachers have completed Volumes 1 and 2. Ten percent of our teachers are currently enrolled in Volume 1.

Student Assessment

i-Ready Diagnostic

The i-Ready Diagnostic is an adaptive assessment that adjusts its questions for each student. As a student answers correctly, the questions get more difficult. As a student answers incorrectly, the questions get easier. This adaptability allows the i-Ready Diagnostic to identify the strengths and opportunities for growth of each student.
