BCBA BID SPECIFICATIONS FOR TERM 2026-2027

1) These specifications require that the Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA) complete all the duties and responsibilities as described below for the 2026-2027 school year for up to 10 hours a week for 36 weeks for up to 360 hours total.
2) The provider will provide clinical and educational consultation based on the principles of applied behavior analysis to students at Mascoma Valley Regional School District from a Board Certified Behavior Analyst® (BCBA®). Consultation services may include:

    - Supervision of RBT's
    - Student / classroom observations, review of behavior reduction and skill acquisition programming including student performance data, consultation with educators on the development of programming to increase academic, social, communication, self-help, vocational, and independent functioning skills, consultation with educators on the development of programming to decrease problem behavior including, functional assessment, behavior intervention plan, and reinforcement systems, meetings with school-based staff to gather information, brainstorm solutions, and share recommendations across goal areas, consultation with district administrators on the development of systems to ensure efficient and effective use of resources, participation in TEAM meetings as needed, development of monthly summaries outlining consultation focus and general recommendations for consultation resource allocation, conducting of student behavior assessments, as scheduling allows, conducting of didactic and in-vivo staff professional development session, as scheduling allows.
3) Certifications for BCBA required. Additional certifications/training in special education, autism, specific learning disabilities highly desired.
4) Termination: If either party fails to comply with any of the obligations required of it in the contact, and following receipt of written notice specifying the failure, fails to remedy and cure such failure within a reasonable time then the non-breaching party will have the right to terminate the contract upon giving thirty days' notice.
5) Additional Terms and Conditions:
    - Insurance: The contractor must maintain at their expense Worker's Compensation Insurance as required by NH statute as well as $1,000,000 single limit/$2,000,000 aggregate General Liability and Comprehensive Auto Liability per policy.
    - The contractor agrees to hold the District harmless for any damage sustained by its vehicles or any injury to its personnel not caused by negligence on the part of the District.
    - The contractor agrees to repair at its own expense any damage done to any District property caused by its equipment or personnel.