2026–2027 Media Release & Consent Policy

YingHua International School may photograph, record, or publish student images, student work, or basic identifying information (first name, grade, school) for use in:

- School publications (e.g., newsletters, brochures, yearbook)
- The school website and official social media platforms
- Public presentations or displays (e.g., art shows, class trips)
- Press releases and coverage by local media outlets

This may include:

- Photos or videos of your child participating in school events or classroom activities
- Publishing student work, including writing, artwork, or academic projects
- Inclusion of first name, grade level, or school (no addresses or personal contact info will ever be shared)

Note: Reproductions of student images or work will be used without compensation.

YingHua International School is committed to protecting student privacy and will never publish home addresses, personal contact information, or specific trip/event locations in advance. No personally identifiable information will be shared without prior written consent unless it is part of a public group event (e.g., performances, competitions).
