

Writers in the Schools

CLUB WITS

PROGRAM DETAILS:

Club WITS is designed as a stand-alone, parent-funded program for 2nd grade and up to be held on a school campus during after-school hours. WITS writers work with a group of 6-15 students one afternoon per week in a variety of genres — fiction, poetry, and non-fiction — that help students develop their voices and imaginations to become published writers and storytellers.

COST:

$300 per student for 15, one-hour classes

STUDENTS LEARN:

- Critical thinking skills
- Confidence
- Self-expression
- Creative exploration

For more information, contact:

Summer Magee
smagee@witshouston.org

At Kolter ES, Club WITS meets on Mondays from 3:15-4:15 pm for 2nd through 5th grades, beginning August 17th and continuing through December 14th.

WHAT IS WITS?

Since 1983, Writers in the Schools has paired students with professional writers and spoken word artists to unlock the joy and power of storytelling and creative expression. Founded by students in the University of Houston's Creative Writing Program, we work with students during the school day, in after-school programs and in summer camps during the summer.

REGISTER HERE

