9.0 BOARD REPORTS & COMMUNICATION

9.1 BOG Report Chairman

- Justin starts off by recognizing the board members who have completed their terms and thanks them for their years of service. He highlights her role in helping transition the old charter to the new charter, as well as getting the location of the building where it currently stands. Justin continues by celebrating Ryan Mayeda and thanks him for helping him navigate the board during Justin's first years. Next, he thanks Scott for serving with him as vice-chair and helping him navigate during tough situations. Lastly, he celebrates Amanda and mentions how she was working as a teacher while he was a student. He also shares his appreciation for how much work she has done as the faculty representative.

9.2 Communication from the Board

- Carol begins by thanking the parents and staff who voted for her to serve on the board. She also thanks the student representatives for all of their hard work and engagement. She thanks Superintendent Weaver for all of their shared meetings, and encourages her fellow board members to meet with Weaver as well. Carol invites the board to think deeply about their goals for next year. Lastly, she thanks her fellow board members for their service and leadership.
- A.J. shares about graduation and how much he enjoyed the experience. He also shares some positive feedback that he got from a District 6 friend who also enjoyed the experience.
- Bill echoes AJ's positive feedback regarding graduation. He also asks the board on behalf of community members who are curious when the construction will be finished.
- Kaan thanks the board members who are leaving. He also shares that he heard positive feedback about graduation. Kaan then continues by sharing his excitement for his neighbor, Ruby's state championship.
- Scott shares his gratitude for the opportunity to serve on the board and the learning experience it has been. He shares his appreciation for the productive discussion and getting to know each of his fellow board members. He also shares gratitude for the staff here at University. Lastly, he shares some concerning feedback from several families regarding the elementary academic and behavior challenges. He mentions that his older kids have had a different experience than his younger kids. He encourages the board and the rest of the community to lean in and figure out how we can best serve our students.

- Eric thanks the leaving board members and shares his appreciation for the collaboration experience. Next, he shares about several students who are halfway through their internships and they're working on really exciting projects.
- Frank echoes the other members' appreciation for the leaving board members.
- Amanda thanks the faculty for trusting her to represent the staff at board meetings. She thanks Jennifer and David for making the meetings more accessible. She also thanks Sue and Jennifer for all of their work getting grants to fund projects.
- Ryan thanks the parents and staff members who voted him onto the board and appreciates the opportunity to be a voice on the board. He shares about over 30 years ago when the lab school was about to be shut down. The community fought for the school and decided to establish the charter school to keep it going. University has faced many challenges, and Ryan encourages the board members to work together to not only take on future challenges, but thrive and celebrate each of the successes. Lastly, he shares about a community sports physical opportunity to give affordable options to families.
