Dear Voters,

We have dedicated much of our volunteer work in the community to education. Education is the key to success. We have watched in dismay as Arizona's per pupil spending has continued in a steep decline from middle of the pack to the bottom in the nation since 1980. Arizona has some of the country's lowest high school graduation rates and post-secondary educational attainment rates. Low taxes may attract companies to the area, but the lack of a qualified workforce will pose a challenge to retaining businesses in our area. A strong educational system is critical for the development of a talented workforce and a vital local economy.

The CGESD is underfunded by $40 million compared with the national average for educational funding. The failure of the Override will put the District an additional $45 million behind. Our students and staff deserve better. A "YES" vote on the Override will not increase your property taxes. This is a vote to continue the existing Override.

Please join us in enthusiastically voting "YES" for the Override.
