My name is Joanne Kramer and I have been an educator and administrator in the Casa Grande Elementary School District for the last 40 years. We have an award-winning district in our community and we are very proud of it. I am asking you to vote "Yes" when you see "budget increase yes" for the Casa Grande Elementary School District on your ballot this November. Thanks to the support of our community we have seen the impact of the extra funding over the past 20 years. All of the educators in our district work hard every day with limited resources. Without these funds, our district will cut resources and lose teachers, which in turn will increase the achievement gap. We cannot afford a 5 million dollar reduction in funds. This investment is good for our students and will keep class sizes down. This will not be a tax bill increase for you. It is a continuation of a previous override election pass. Please vote "Yes". Thank you.
