FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

July 1st, 2026

University City, Mo.-The School District of University City is pleased to announce that Coach Jeff McCaw, Sr. has been hired as the University City High School Head Boys Basketball Coach. Coach McCaw brings 25 years of coaching experience to the position. As a coach at Trinity Catholic High School, his teams have won four district championships, three conference championships, and numerous tournament wins. McCaw was also named Coach of the Year while at Trinity. McCaw's coaching has produced multiple NCAA Basketball Players and two NBA players, including his son, who won two championships with the Golden State Warriors and a third with the Toronto Raptors.

Dr. Mike Peoples, Principal of University High School, is proud of the hire, and said "Coach McCaw brings a wealth of experience to our basketball program and is the father of a three-time NBA champion, having served as his son's first and lifelong coach. His professional standards for himself and our basketball program align strongly with our district values, and he will help build great players and young men."

Lawndale Thomas, University City High School Athletic Director, said of the hire, "Coach McCaw brings a wealth of experience, leadership, and success to our basketball program. As both a standout player and successful head coach at Wellston High School and Trinity Catholic High School, he has established himself as one of the most respected figures in the St. Louis basketball community."

Coach McCaw, Sr. said he is "elated and really excited about coming on board and the opportunity to be a UCity Lion. It's going to be an exciting year, and I'm looking forward to helping establish tradition and a winning culture with the basketball program." In addition to serving as Head Basketball Coach, McCaw will also teach in the Career and Technical Education program at University City High School as an Industrial Technology Teacher.

The University City High School Boys Basketball team played in the High School Live event last weekend at Edwardsville High School. The Fall season begins in November. The season schedule will be released this Fall, and will be posted on the Athletics Department website at <https://www.ucityathletics.com/>.
