

Sensory Nature Walk And Education Seminar

A free inclusive outdoor recreational experience for individuals 14 and older with Intellectual and Developmental Disabilities, their families, or caregivers.

EVENT DETAILS

 Location: Frick Environmental Center 2005 Beechwood Blvd,
Pittsburgh, PA 15217

 Time: 11:00 A.M. - 12:00 P.M.

TRAIL ACCESSIBILITY

The Sensory Nature Trail is a 1/3-mile ADA-accessible trail designed for sensory exploration.

WHAT TO EXPECT

Guided Sensory Walk: A brief, accessible walk on the Sensory Nature Trail.

Parent/Caregiver Seminar: A short session on post-secondary inclusion opportunities.

EVENT DATES

Fourth Saturday of each month from July-October.

July 25

August 22

September 26

October 24

REGISTRATION

One registration covers all dates. Families are welcome to attend as many sessions as they can. Scan the QR code to register.

Hosted by Pittsburgh Parks Conservancy at Frick Park and The Institute for Disability Empowerment and Advocacy at Duquesne University.

Pittsburgh
Parks Conservancy

