Media Release Opt-Out Notice

The North Rose-Wolcott Central School District utilizes student photos, video, audio and information to keep the community informed through various district-produced materials including district newsletters, publications, websites, social media, ParentSquare, and outdoor signage. Student photos, video and information may also be shared with local news media outlets. Parents and guardians may request that their child's photos, video, audio and information not be used by completing this Opt-Out form and returning it to the student's school office or to the District Office.

IMPORTANT: Please only sign and return this form if you DO NOT want your child's image or information to appear in District publications. If you do consent to your child appearing in District publications, no further action is required.

This form must be resubmitted every school year.
