CLT

Liberty Common High School gives students in 10th grade a chance to participate in the CLT10. The Classic Learning Test (CLT) exists to reconnect knowledge and virtue by providing meaningful assessments and connections to seekers of truth, goodness, and beauty.

Please visit the CLT website to learn more: https://www.cltexam.com/about/

During testing, students may choose to provide some additional information about themselves. All questions are optional. Additional information you may provide includes:

- Household Income
- Race/Ethnicity
- Gender
- Religion
- Graduation Year
- Previous Test Scores (SAT/ACT/PSAT)
- Are you interested in being recruited by CLT Partner Colleges? (Yes/No)
- Preferred College Size
- Intended Major
- Interest in Liberal Arts (Yes/No)
- Strong Catholic/Christian Culture? (Yes/No)
- College Financial Aid/Scholarship Dependency

Test publishers, including CLT, collect demographic information on test takers to ensure the test is fair and unbiased, to detect possible subgroup differences in test performance, and to evaluate the impact of test results on different groups. By collecting demographic data, they are able to conduct analyses and research in support of these standards in order to provide a fair and valid assessment of all students. All demographic data is shared voluntarily with CLT and students may opt-out of answering any questions.
