difference is a name, and where you are
In this crazy mixed up deal, there's so

Near and far it's where you are.

If you have a friend on whom you think you can rely —
You are a lucky man!
If you've found the reason to live on and not to die —
You are a lucky man!
Preachers and Poets and Scholars don't know it,
Temples and Statues and Steeples won't show it,
If you've got the secret just try not to blow it —
Stay a lucky man!
If you've found the meaning of truth in this old world —
You are a lucky man!
Takers and Fakers and Talkers won't tell you,
Teachers and Preachers will just buy and sell you,
When no-one can tempt you with heaven or hell —
You'll be a lucky man!
You'll be better by far
To be just what you are —
You can be what you want
If you are what you are

Red and White, blue suede shoes, I'm Uncle Sam, how do you do? Gimme five I'm still alive; I've been hiding out in a Rock and Roll band. Shake the hand that shook the hand of P. T. Barnum, and Charlie Chan. Shine your shoes, light your fuse, can't you use them ol' U.S. Blues? I'll drink your health, share your wealth, run your life and steal your wife. Wave that flag, wave it high and wide. Summertime done come and gone, my oh my.

Back to back — Chicken Shack.
Son of a gun — better change your act.
We're all confused, but what's to lose.
You can call this song: The United States Blues.
Wave that flag, wave it high and wave it high.

You gotta be crazy, you gotta have a real need
You gotta sleep on your toes, and when you're on the street
You gotta be able to pick out the easy meat with your eyes closed.
And then moving in silently, downwind and out of sight,
You gotta strike when the moment is right without thinking,

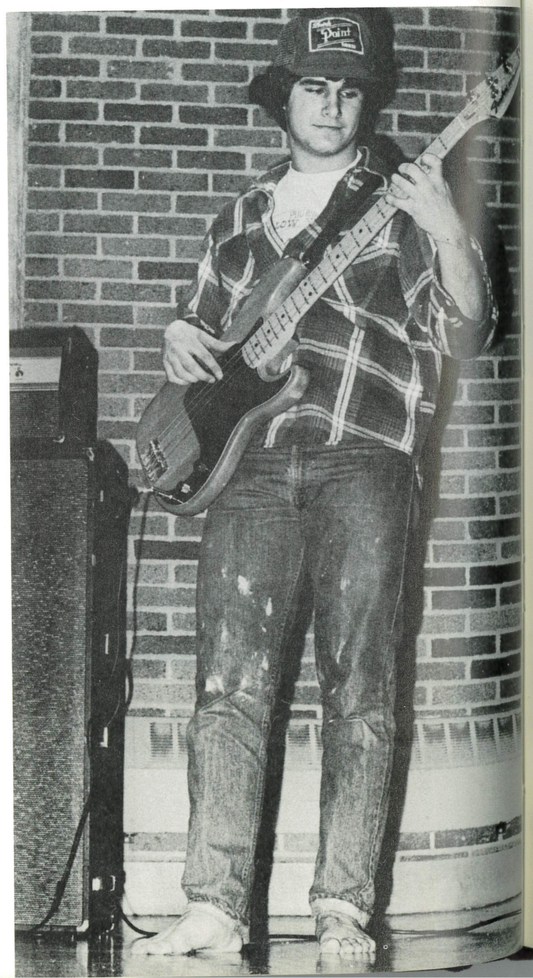

And after awhile, you work out points for style
Like a club tie and the firm hand shake,
A certain look in the eye and an easy smile.
You have to be trusted by the people that you lie to,
So that when they turn their backs on you,
You'll get the chance to put the knife in.

I gotta admit that I'm alittle bit confused.
Sometimes it seems to me as if I'm just being used.
Gotta stay awake, gotta try and shake off this creeping malaise
If I don't stand my own ground,
How can I find my way out of this maze?

"Who are you?" said the Caterpillar.

Thank you.

Did you ever sit and ponder as you walk along the strand,
That life's a bitter battle at the best!
And if you only knew it and would lend a helping hand,
Then every man can meet the final test.
The world is but a stage, my friend,
And life is but a game;
And how you play is all that matters in the end.
For whether a man is right or wrong,
A woman gets the blame;
And your mother is your dog's best friend.
Then up came mighty Casey and strode up to the bat,
And Sheridan was fifty miles away.
For it takes a heap of loving to make a home like that,
On the road where the flying fishes play.
