Type of Title I.A program

☒ Schoolwide

☐ Targeted

☒ This school parent and family engagement policy is developed jointly with, distributed to, and agreed on with parents of participating children, including parents of migrant and EL children. Section 1116 (b)(1)

Describe how the school seeks and obtains the agreement of parents to the parent and family engagement policy.

Johnson-Wabash invites family input through meetings and surveys. We hold an annual Title 1 meeting and at least four parent advisory meetings to gather input. We also share schoolwide data and upcoming events via ParentLink (phone calls, text messages, and emails), Peachjar, school marquee, fliers, and Johnson Wabash Facebook page.

We collect signatures to the parent compact to ensure parents and school are in alignment with expectations. The School/Parent/Student Compact Agreement is sent home with every student for parent and student signatures. The principal and teachers have already signed the Compact before it goes home. The Compact Agreement states in simple, easy to read the language the responsibilities of the school, the responsibilities of the parent, and the responsibilities of the student. In an attached note, parents are asked to read and go over the Compact with their child or children so that every party understands his responsibilities.

The school will continue to involve parents in an organized, ongoing and timely manner in the planning, review, and improvement of Title I programs including involvement in the decisions regarding how funds are spent within the school. Meetings will remain open to all staff, parents and community members who wish to attend. Attendees are invited to join the parent advisory group and participate in school-wide planning sessions through the use of the school website, during teacher/parent "Meet and Greet" orientation, the school marquee, fliers, and ParentLink. Broadcast phone calls are also made to notify parents of special activities.

Notifications for meetings are published on the school website, marquee, Class Dojo and calendar. Parent input will be documented in the minutes of all meetings and all parent involvement sign-in sheets will be kept on file.
