- a. Accept Annual Audit: I am recommending that you accept the audit as presented by Kevin Sylvester from Dana F. Cole and Company, LLP
- b. Policy Review: Starting in December we will resume the process of systematically reviewing policy.
- c. Negotiations Minutes: I did speak with Eric Snitily regarding the superintendent sitting in on the negotiations meetings solely as a notetaker, as strongly suggested by Marcia Herring from NASB. After the minutes are typed, they will be shared with the Board Committee and the Teacher Negotiations Committee to be approved. The superintendent will not be involved in conversation during the meetings, they are solely to take notes. If the board needs to consult with the superintendent, they will go into caucus.
- d. PAC Music: Crawford will be hosting PAC Music on March 30, 2025. In order to do this, we need to have various places for groups to practice, perform, and use as a "home base" for the day. I have talked to other schools and several of them cancel school when they host this event to accommodate the event. I would like to have discussion regarding this so a decision can be made and shared with staff and families in a timely manner.
- e. Rule 10 Compliance Visit: We had our Rule 10 Compliance Visit on November 4, 2025. There was only one area that we did not meet. I will receive a formal report in about a week. At that time I will have to respond in writing with a plan of action. Once it has been corrected, we will have met in all areas (66).
- f. LB 390: I received a memo from Justin Knight, the school attorney, outlining the the new law that will go into effect for the 2026-2027 school year. We will need to adopt a policy that requires a "catalog" of all books in the school district's library. (We already have this).

We will also need to allow all educational decision makers to be notified when their student checks out a book from the school library, including the book's title, author, and due date. I have already started talking with Karin about how this might look. We are only required to provide them an opportunity to be notified of students' checkouts. We will need to have a process outlined in our policy, but it can be an "opt-in" process.

- g. Holiday Meal/Activity: There is a committee who is working on planning the annual Holiday Meal (Activity) and what that looks like this year. I will update you as the plans are more concrete. The committee is made of staff members who were interested in planning the event, all had the opportunity.
