

THE RAMS WAY FAMILY GUIDE

R

Communicate with Respect and Kindness

- Speak to staff, students, and other families in a courteous and professional manner.
- Assume positive intent and seek clarification before drawing conclusions.
- Model respectful language and behavior for children both in person and online.

Be a Partner

- Ask questions and seek understanding.
- Allow staff reasonable time to investigate concerns, gather information, and respond.
- Work together to support student success.
- Schedule appointments to meet with staff.

A

Address Concerns Responsibly

- Contact the person closest to the concern first (teacher, counselor, coach, etc.).
- Follow established school procedures for resolving concerns.
- Share concerns directly with school personnel rather than through social media or community gossip.

Support Student Accountability

- Encourage your child to attend school regularly, arrive on time, and be prepared to learn.
- Support school expectations and help your child take ownership of their actions, learning, and growth.

M

Partner in Your Child's Success

- Maintain regular communication with teachers and school staff.
- Participate in conferences, school events, and other opportunities to support learning.
- Celebrate effort, growth, and achievement.

Focus on Solutions

- Work collaboratively with staff to identify solutions when challenges arise.
- Keep conversations centered on what is best for students.
- Approach concerns with a problem-solving mindset.

S

Support a Safe Learning Environment

- Follow school procedures for visitors, arrival, dismissal, and student supervision.
- Share safety concerns promptly with school staff.
- Reinforce school expectations for behavior, citizenship, and digital responsibility at home.

Work Together as One Community

- Encourage children to report concerns to trusted adults.
- Help create an environment where all students feel welcomed, valued, and safe.
- Work together to support decisions that prioritize student safety and well-being.

The RAMS Way is our shared commitment to creating a respectful, accountable, motivated, and safe learning community for every student.
