

What's Next: Updates from Members of the Class of 2022

Members from the Class of 2022 visited MSS for their Senior Walk on June 1, 2026.

Monica Camac

Monica graduate Governor Thomas Johnson High School with honors. She received an $8,000 scholarship and will attend Towson University in the fall to study exercise science.

Madison Ball

Madison graduated from Catoclin High School. She plans to attend Frederick Community College for one year and then transfer to the University of Maryland to study Marketing and Communications.

What's Next: Updates from Members of the Class of 2022

Ben Caretti

Ben graduated from Delone Catholic High School. He will attend Towson University and major in Information Technology. Ben was a member of the National Honor Society and the Rho Kappa Social Studies Honor Society. He was named Student of the Quarter in both 2025 and 2026 in the Computer Networking program at Adams County Technical Institute. He received the Towson University Provost Scholarship of $2,000 per year.

Dani Eakle

Dani graduated from Middletown High School. She will attend Frederick Community College and work at the Frederick County Correctional Facility. During her senior year, she completed the Criminal Justice program through CTC. She earned an internship at the correctional facility, gaining real-world experience and securing her first job. Dani was actively involved in the Middletown High School FFA Chapter and served as Vice President during her junior year. She will earn her FFA State Degree in June.

Aubrey Harrington

Aubrey graduated from Delone Catholic High School. She will attend Stevenson University and study Counseling and Human Services. Aubrey received $27,000 per year in scholarships and was inducted into the Rho Kappa National Honor Society.

What's Next: Updates from Members of the Class of 2022

Cat Hatch

Cat graduated from Fairfield High School. She will attend Penn State Behrend and study Engineering. She was awarded a merit scholarship. Throughout high school, Cat earned Distinguished Honor Roll recognition every semester and was involved in the National Honors Arts Society

Grace Hewitt

Grace graduated from Delone Catholic High School. She will attend Slippery Rock University as a member of the Honors College and study Nursing.

Benedict Hochschild

Benedict graduated from Delone Catholic High School. He will attend Hampden-Sydney College and study Business Economics. He received a generous scholarship.

What's Next: Updates from Members of the Class of 2022

Kyle Kauffman

Kyle graduated from Littlestown High School. He will attend Shippensburg University and major in Mechanical Engineering. Kyle earned Honor Roll recognition every year of high school and received a local scholarship.

Gianna Kinnamont

Gianna graduated from Catoctin High School with High Honors. She was a member of the National Honor Society and Science Honor Society and was recognized as a Gold Star Scholar for completing six or more dual-enrollment college courses. Gianna will attend Duquesne University and has been accepted into its five-year accelerated Master's Degree program in Speech-Language Pathology. She received Duquesne University's highest academic scholarship, valued at $33,000 per year for four years.

Anya Laird

Anya was homeschooled and is graduating with an Associate Degree in Science from Frederick Community College. She plans to take a gap year before pursuing a bachelor's degree in Chemistry. She has not yet selected a college or university.

What's Next: Updates from Members of the Class of 2022

Thien-Y Pham

Thien-Y graduated from the International Business Program at Urbana High School. She will attend Northeastern University in Boston, Massachusetts, and major in Biology. Thien-Y plans to become a physical therapist and received approximately $60,000 in financial assistance from Northeastern University.

Maryn Rajaski

Maryn graduated from Mount Airy Christian Academy. She served as Student Government President for two years and participated in several clubs, including the National Honor Society. She also played volleyball, basketball, and soccer. Maryn will attend Liberty University and plans to study Law and Policy.

Joey Suthard

Joey graduated from Delone Catholic High School and will attend Stevenson University. He served as Vice President of Rho Kappa and Vice President of the STEM Club and was an active member of the Interact Club. Joey is currently undecided on a major but is considering Science and/or Business. He received scholarships totaling $26,000 per year for four years from Stevenson University.

What's Next: Updates from Members of the Class of 2022

Finnian Tayler

Finn graduated from Governor Thomas Johnson High School with highest honors. He attended the Teacher Academy of Maryland through the Career Technology Center while in school and will earn an Elementary/Special Education Associate's degree from Frederick Community College. He plans to transfer to McDaniel University to finish his Bachelor's degree in Elementary Education.

Caleb Thompson

Caleb graduated from Walkersville High School. He will attend the University of Delaware and study Business. Caleb was a member of both the National Honor Society and the English National Honor Society.

Dacosta Wivell

Dacosta graduated from Delone Catholic High School. He will attend Mount Saint Mary's University and plans to major in Business and Marketing. He received $40,500 per year in scholarships toward his education.

DELONE CATHOLIC HIGH SCHOOL

CLASS
OF 2026

