The Board of Education added to the student board members report by thanking them and congratulating them on their future endeavors .

V. Superintendent Report

A) Updates
1.Student Recognitions
Dr. Alexa Doeschner acknowledged our First in Math Deasy second grade students again that she had been previously recognized at an earlier Board of Education meeting. This time she congratulated them on their first place state champion title win.

Dr. Doeschner continued her report by calling up Ms. Criblez, Elementary Music Team Leader, who introduced all of the students that participated in this year's NYSSMA. Ms. Criblez continued by presenting certificates to this year's All County, All State Ensembles students. Photo's of each group were taken.

The Superintendent of Schools, acknowledged our two Ex Officio Board Members, who split the responsibility.

Ryan Martino was recognized on being awarded the Charles "Chick" Evans Caddy Scholarship, where he is receiving a full scholarship that includes tuition and housing for four years while attending the University of Delaware. Ryan is a childhood cancer survivor and was featured in People Magazine and on a live segment of Fox News. Dr. Doeschner presented Ryan with a certificate and a photo was taken.

She continued with recognizing Michael Mecca on his Eagle Scout project where he created an outdoor classroom at Connolly school, which is where he attended elementary school and this was his way of giving back. He earned the Eagle Rank by the Eagle Scout Board of Review and will be attending Clemson in the fall. Michael was presented with a certificate and a photo was taken.

Dr. Doeschner continued her recognitions by introducing Mrs. Viscovich, who is all over the district taking photos of all our students and events. This year Mrs. Viscovich was named as a NASTAR winner at a celebration luncheon. She was presented with a certificate and a photo was taken.

Additionally, Ms. Laruen Lavelle, was recognized by the Superintendent of Schools on being selected as an Apple Distinguished Educator. Ms. Lavelle was one of three educators to receive this distinction. She was called up to the podium to receive a certificate and have a photo taken.

2. Student Presentation: Statewide Mental Health Initiatives
Dr. Doeschner introduced Michael Renga who presented via a PowerPoint on work he has been doing at the state level with the Governor's office on the youth mental health crisis. At the completion of his presentation he was given a certificate and a photo was taken.

XII. Board Comments:
Discussion Items - Board of Education

1. School Calendar Discussion 2026-2027

The Board of Education has decided that the school district calendar will stay as it is for this year showing holidays listed including any holidays that start at sundown.

Draft

Trustee Brett Miller expressed his gratitude for the donation on behalf of his late wife and will have more to say at the dedication. He continued by additionally expressing his gratitude to President Raimo the time they spend together during his first year on the Board of Education and during the challenging election season.

Trustee Angela Raimo thanked the community for electing her five years ago and again three years ago. She thanked the late Monica Miller as well as Trustee Maureen Jimenez for encouraging her to run. She stated that she has learned a lot. Trustee Raimo thanked central administration and the Board of Education and she acknowledged Mr. Robert Nosek who will be joining the Board of Education in July. She concluded by thanking her family for supporting her in her absence.

Vice-President Anne Markoulis took to the podium acknowledging her presence on the Board of Education not being possible without the late Monica Miller. She continued her acknowledgement of President Angela Raimo while a slide show played on the projector in the background. She acknowledged Raimo's commitment to the district on behalf of the Board of Education. She presented President Raimo with a bouquet of flowers and a group photo was taken.
