TOLLESON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 17 ADMINISTRATOR'S GUIDE

Discipline Matrix

This is a guideline for administrative use as the situation warrants. Based on the situation Transformative Justice strategies including mediation may be implemented.

Parent contact is required for office referrals and contact can be made by school administration, teacher, or staff member.

Discipline, suspension, or expulsion of pupils SHALL NOT be based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, or ancestry.

Administration will communicate with parent/guardian when referrals result in consequences. Communication may be written, held in person, or by telephone.

The discipline matrix serves as the due process notice for Behavior/Violation standards in the Tolleson Elementary School District and is a guideline for administrative use as the situation warrants.

This matrix is a range of consequences that may be imposed for Behavior/Violations and violations of student conduct rules. Consequences for offenses are listed in the matrix, but based on severity of the Behavior/Violation, consequences may also include, but are not limited to:

- Warning and informal conference with school administrator discussing acceptable school Behavior/Violation
- Warning and formal conference with school administrator discussing acceptable school Behavior/Violation, formally documenting Behavior/Violations
- Temporary removal from class. Student will complete academic assignments during this time.
- Out of class detention
- Loss of privileges
- Individual assignment that is aligned to the offense
- In-school suspension where student is removed from class but remains on campus and under staff supervision. Students receive academic assignments to complete during this time.
- Short-term out of school suspension (1-10 days). Student is removed from school and placed in the custody of parents/guardian. A student who is out of school on short-term suspension is not allowed to attend any district functions or be on school campuses. Due process must be followed.
- Transformative justice strategies including mediation
- Removal from transportation
- Alternative placement

TOLLESON ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT NO. 17 ADMINISTRATOR'S GUIDE

Discipline Matrix

This is a guideline for administrative use as the situation warrants. Based on the situation Transformative Justice strategies including mediation may be implemented.

Schools will use all available resources to support student Behavior/Violations and collaborate with parent/guardian on possible additional services. Special Education Students may not be suspended for a cumulative total of more than 10 days per year if their Behavior/Violations are a manifestation of their disability.

Incident considerations:

cultural audience	directed toward staff	student attitude	number of victims
age of victim	level of disruption	potential of danger	attendance/truancy
age of offender intent	intent	police involvement	verbal provocation
extent of damage	student safety	special needs victim
value of item(s)	location	sale or distribution extent of injury	frequency	level of threat

The ability to understand that the conduct was prohibited.

The ability of the student to understand the potential risk of misconduct to the health and/or safety of others and their property.

The ability of the student to understand the potential of the disruption of the institution.

The ability of the student to understand the potential for disciplinary consequences.

Reasonableness of use of physical force in self-defense, defense of others, and defense of property.

Interventions: Child Study Team/RTI process, possible schedule change, referral for services, mediation, Behavior Support Plan, Behavior Support Plan modification, Behavior Academies, 504 considerations, change of placement and/or CSTAG (comprehensive student threat assessment guidelines) Behavioral Threat Assessment.

 Mandatory Reporting - Physical Injury: When there is a reasonable belief that a student has sustained a non-accidental physical injury, law enforcement will be contacted immediately in accordance with Arizona mandatory reporting requirements.
