

Supplies for 5th Grade Students

1. Red and yellow composition books. The red composition book labeled with student name and Math. The Yellow composition book labeled with student name and Language Arts.
2. 2 pocket plastic folders in red, yellow, blue, green. Labeled with subject and student name and Math (Red), Language Arts (yellow), Social studies / Science (Blue), Homework (Green)
3. Gallon zip lock bag with name or hard pencil box to hold the following items.

Make sure the items fit in the holder. Some items may stay at home until needed.

- a. Ticonderoga pencils - Keep 3 to 6 at school at a time. NO mechanical pencils.
 - b. Black or blue pens (4-6)
 - c. red pens (at least 3)
 - d. Pencil eraser
 - e. Black or blue fine tip dry erase markers
 - f. Crayons
 - g. Felt tip color pens various colors (optional)
 - h. Colored pencils (optional)
 - i. Earbuds (recommended but optional)(no bluetooth)
 - j. Wireless mouse (optional)
 - k. Scissors
 - l. Glue stick (If you are in Mrs. Russell's class)
4. Small White board (optional)
 5. College ruled loose binder paper (1 package approximately 100 sheets)
 6. Box tissue
 7. Reusable water bottle (SINGLE use water bottles are strongly discouraged)

Optional - please donate to class after use

8. Paperback copy Esperanza Rising by Pam Munoz Ryan
9. Paperback copy Birchbark House by Louise Edrich (Ms. Lanich's class)
10. Paperback copy Blood on the River by Elisa Carbone
11. Paperback copy of Because of Mr. Terupt By Rob Buyea
12. Paperback copy of Unstoppable Us by Yuval Harari