Richmond County Board of Education Statement on U.S. Department of Education Review

(AUGUSTA, GA) -- The Richmond County Board of Education supports the Richmond County School System as it cooperates with the U.S. Department of Education's review of 2023-24 Civil Rights Data Collection submissions.

The following statement is from Richmond County Board of Education President Shawnda Stovall:

“The Richmond County Board of Education remains steadfast in its commitment to the safety, well-being, and success of every student. We are confident in the Richmond County School System's commitment to following established policies, procedures, and all applicable state and federal laws as it cooperates with the U.S. Department of Education's review of the 2023-2024 Civil Rights data collection.

As a Board, we remain focused on our governance responsibilities by providing oversight, supporting strong policies that protect students, and ensuring accountability across our school system. We appreciate the trust our families and community place in us and remain committed to supporting safe, secure, and welcoming learning environments for every child.

We encourage our community to refer to the Richmond County School System's official statement for additional information regarding this review.”
