A MESSAGE FROM THE SUPERINTENDENT

Dear Fox Chapel Area Community,

Here in the Fox Chapel Area School District, we believe that meaningful success is built through our four pillars of purpose, passion, care, and community. This spring, our district received two extraordinary recognitions that reflect the collective commitment and dedication of our students, families, staff, school board, and broader community.

The Pittsburgh Business Times recently ranked the Fox Chapel Area School District as the No. 1 public school district in both Southwestern Pennsylvania and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This marks the third consecutive year that Fox Chapel Area has earned the top spot in both rankings.

In addition, the Education Scorecard – a joint initiative of Stanford University’s Educational Opportunity Project and Harvard University’s Center for Education Policy Research – designated Fox Chapel Area as a “District On the Rise.” This recognition is awarded to districts improving faster than their peers in both math and reading achievement. Fox Chapel Area is one of only 108 school districts nationwide to receive this distinction. You can read more about both of these achievements in this issue.

While no district’s impact can ever be fully represented by a ranking or designation, these recognitions affirm the extraordinary work happening in our schools each day. They reflect a district culture grounded in high expectations, continuous growth, innovation, and a deep commitment to doing what is best for children.

The success of the Fox Chapel Area School District is made possible by talented educators and staff members who care deeply about students and about one another. It is strengthened by supportive families, engaged community members, thoughtful leadership, and a school board committed to excellence.

Every day across our district, students are challenged academically, encouraged creatively, supported emotionally, and inspired to grow into compassionate and capable citizens. Whether through academics, arts, athletics, or service learning, our team works tirelessly to create opportunities that help every child thrive.

I am incredibly proud of the work taking place throughout our schools and grateful to everyone who contributes to our shared mission. Thank you for embodying our core values of respect, responsibility, and integrity, and for helping make the Fox Chapel Area School District a place where students flourish.

As we look ahead to what’s next, we remain committed to continuous improvement and to building on the strong foundation we have created together. We are, as always, #FCProud.

Sincerely,

Dr. Mary Catherine Reljac
Superintendent

FCASD EARNS TOP STATE RANKING, NAMED ‘DISTRICT ON THE RISE’ IN U.S.

The Fox Chapel Area School District recently received two major recognitions highlighting student achievement and growth at the regional, state, and national levels.

The Pittsburgh Business Times ranked Fox Chapel Area as the top public school district in both Southwestern Pennsylvania and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in its 2026 Guide to Southwestern Pennsylvania Schools. This marks the third consecutive year the district has earned the No. 1 ranking in both categories.

In addition, the Education Scorecard – a collaboration between Stanford University’s Educational Opportunity Project and Harvard University’s Center for Education Policy Research – designated Fox Chapel Area as a “District On the Rise.” The distinction recognizes school districts that are improving faster than their peers in both math and reading achievement, as measured by available standardized testing data. Fox Chapel Area is one of only 108 districts nationwide to receive this designation.

Grade-Level Rankings

The following Pittsburgh Business Times grade-level rankings are based on three years of standardized test scores – 2023, 2024, and 2025.

All the district’s tested grade levels ranked in either the No. 1 or No. 2 spot in the region as follows:

Grade 3 – No. 2	Grade 7 – No. 1
Grade 4 – No. 2	Grade 8 – No. 2
Grade 5 – No. 1	Grade 11 – No. 1
Grade 6 – No. 1

Superintendent Dr. Mary Catherine Reljac said the recognitions reflect the collective efforts of students, staff, families, district leadership, and the broader school community.

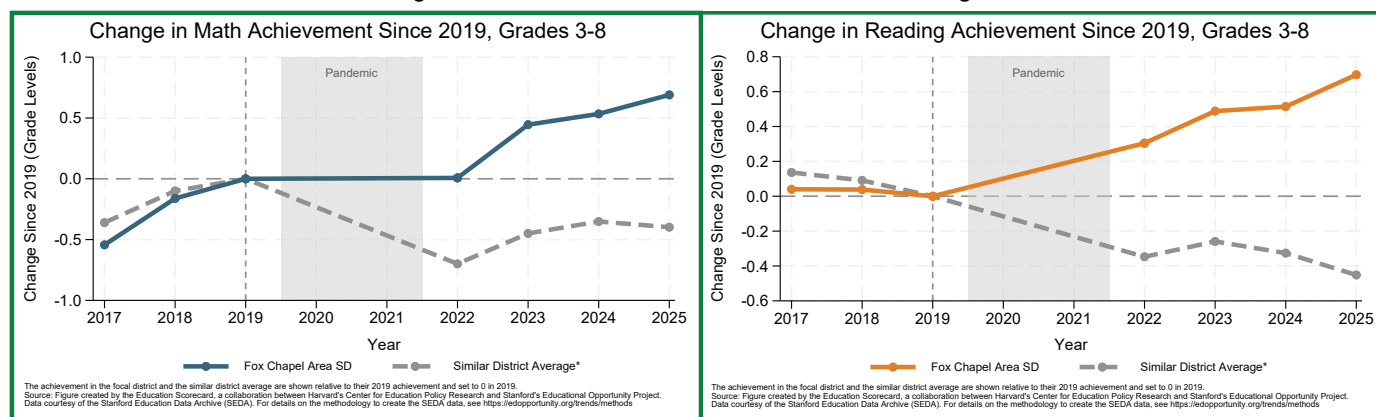

“Although no school district is merely a ranking or designation, it is impossible to have this kind of recognition without significant alignment, a talented staff, continuous improvement and development, administrative leadership, and a supportive board of school directors,” Dr. Reljac says.

The Pittsburgh Business Times rankings are based on a proprietary formula using standardized test data from 2023, 2024, and 2025. The Education Scorecard evaluates academic growth trends across school districts throughout the country.

The recognitions represent more than academic performance, Dr. Reljac says, noting that Fox Chapel Area students are also consistently recognized in the arts, athletics, and service learning, as staff members work to support student growth both inside and outside the classroom.

Dr. Reljac credited the district's success to its focus on the core pillars of purpose, passion, care, and community, as well as its commitment to the values of respect, responsibility, and integrity.

"The Fox Chapel Area School District is a place where we do meaningful, life-changing, and important work," she says. "The nuance of learning and teaching, the mentorship of others, and the respect and care we show for our work and our colleagues – that is what makes Fox Chapel Area a special place."

As for the future, Dr. Reljac says the district will remain focused on continuous improvement and preparing students for success by empowering every student to thrive academically, socially, and emotionally, while building a strong sense of belonging and community.

"There is joy in the work of building success for students," she says. "As we look to 'what's next' for the Fox Chapel Area School District, I am excited to work collaboratively to achieve it."

Other Rankings

Niche

The Fox Chapel Area School District scored well in Niche's 2026 "Best Schools" rankings.

All six of its schools maintained their "A+" ranking, and Fox Chapel Area was named the No. 5 school district in Pennsylvania. Each of the district's schools was also named among the top 20 public schools in the state in their respective categories.

The district received A+ grades in academics, teachers, and college prep, and A grades for clubs and activities, and administration. It was ranked in the top 100 districts in the nation.

U.S. News & World Report

All of the district's schools earned recognition in U.S. News & World Report's "Best Schools" rankings.

All four of Fox Chapel Area School District's elementary schools ranked among the top 50 in the state, and Dorseyville Middle School earned a place among the top 10 middle schools in Pennsylvania.

Fox Chapel Area High School ranked among the top 20 high schools in the state and among the top 3% in the nation.

The U.S. News & World Report rankings evaluate schools based on several key factors, including academic performance, proficiency in core subjects, and equitable student outcomes.

2026-2027 FINAL BUDGET

The Fox Chapel Area School Board adopted the 2026-2027 final budget at its regular business meeting June 8, 2026. The budget calls for expenditures of $125,489,654 and revenues of $123,549,707. The budget will be balanced via a 3.1% tax increase and the utilization of a portion of the fund balance. The millage increase falls below the 3.5% Act 1 index increase allowed by the state. The millage rate for 2026-2027 is 22.6898 mills. Each mill generates approximately $3.7 million for the school district. The final budget also reflects the following:

- Increased personnel costs
 - Salary and benefit costs comprise more than 70% of the budget.
 - Insurance premium increases
 - ♦ 8.3% for medical coverage
 - ♦ 3% for dental coverage
- Public School Employees' Retirement System (PSERS) employer contribution rate set at 33.59% for 2026-2027
 - This accounts for 14% of the overall budget. The state reimburses the district 50% of the costs.
- 3.1% tax increase
 - Represents low increases in real estate values due to real estate appeals and low increases in proposed state funding
 - ♦ Basic Education Subsidy – 1.7% increase
 - ♦ Special Education Subsidy – 1.3% increase
- Transfer of $1,937,418 to capital projects fund
 - The funds will support future capital project costs as part of the district's multiphase capital projects plan.

Future Challenges

- Assessment value reductions due to Allegheny County assessment appeals
- PSERS contributions continue to be a challenge for school districts in Pennsylvania.
 - The employer contribution rate is set by PSERS trustees, not by the district.
 - The district anticipates paying more than $44 million in PSERS contributions during the next five years.
- Projected multiphase capital projects plan
 - Projects address repair, replacement, and upgrades of equipment and infrastructure of aging district facilities.

Gaming Funds Distribution

The Pennsylvania Department of Education will provide the Fox Chapel Area School District with $2,562,436 in gaming funds.

The method of distributing the gaming funds, as prescribed by Act 1, the Taxpayer Relief Act, will be via the implementation of the homestead exclusion. Under this provision, any property in the school district approved by Allegheny County as a homestead will have the lesser of its taxable value, or an estimated $14,456, excluded for calculating school district real estate taxes for the 2026 tax year. Based on the final budget, the owners of the 7,812 properties in the district that qualified for the homestead exclusion will receive a $328 reduction on their property taxes. Property owners who do not have an approved homestead exclusion will have the opportunity to apply again when the district mails letters to those homeowners in December 2026.

Information on the budget is available on the district's website at www.fcasd.edu.

Facilities Update

A number of facilities improvements were recently completed, and others are underway, in the Fox Chapel Area School District.

- New playground equipment and soft surface at Hartwood and Fairview elementary schools
- New windows and window treatments at Fairview Elementary
- Major mechanical renovation at Hartwood Elementary

Projects being completed or under consideration include:

- Installation of new tennis courts at Fox Chapel Area High School
- Major mechanical renovation at the high school
- Lighting at the high school stadium

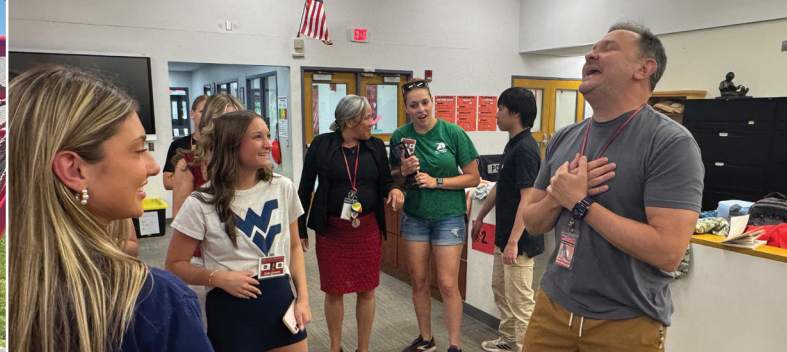

CLASS OF 2026 GRADUATES

Fox Chapel Area High School graduated approximately 325 students on June 7 during a ceremony at Soldiers & Sailors Memorial Hall & Museum in Oakland. The student speakers at the ceremony were Ulyana Kubini and John Rehak, and this year's address to the senior class by the faculty was given by high school science teacher Emily Sperdute. Eduardo Guirola Diaz, Elizabeth Thomas, and Nikolaj Vavpetic received Principals' Leadership Awards, given to students who have exemplified leadership and have served as inspiring role models throughout their high school careers.

SENIORS RELISH RETURN TO ROOTS

There were cheers, tears, and a lot of nostalgia as Fox Chapel Area High School seniors took part in the annual Senior Walk in early June.

In a full-circle moment, soon-to-be graduates walked the same halls where their educational journeys began and visited some of their former teachers. Elementary students lined the hallways holding signs, passing out high-fives, and cheering on the “big kids.”

It feels like just yesterday that they were carrying backpacks bigger than they were, learning their ABCs, and playing on the playground! (Actually, some of them even got in one more ride on the swing and one last crawl on the jungle gym!)

FUTURE FOXES READY TO LEARN

The rooms were filled with smiles, giggles, anticipation, and even a few tears at times, as the Fox Chapel Area School District's soon-to-be kindergartners "signed on" to attend school. The celebration was part of the elementary schools' story times, which help ease the transition from home to school.

STUDENT-ATHLETES TO CONTINUE CAREERS

Seventeen recent Fox Chapel Area High School graduates signed and/or committed to further their academic and athletic careers at the collegiate level.

As part of a ceremony in May, Fox Chapel Area Athletic Director Michael O'Brien encouraged the students to remember everything they have poured into their academic and athletic careers so far.

"That 'never give up' DNA is what you're taking with you to college," Mr. O'Brien said. "Every one of you has hit a wall at some point – an injury, a tough loss, or a coach giving you a 'hard time' in order to push you to reach your fullest potential. You didn't quit, but rather, you thrived.

"The jerseys and colors will change, but the lessons you learned here at Fox Chapel are permanent. We are incredibly proud of you."

Among the 2025-2026 athletic accomplishments that these students were part of include:

- Twenty-two out of 28 teams qualified for the WPIAL and/or the PIAA playoffs.
 - The boys soccer, girls soccer, and field hockey teams won WPIAL championships.
 - The girls cross country, boys golf, girls golf, and girls swimming and diving teams finished as WPIAL runner-ups.
 - Nine teams – girls cross country, field hockey, girls golf, boys soccer, girls soccer, boys swimming, girls swimming, girls basketball, and girls lacrosse – qualified for state competition.
 - Eleven teams were named section champions, and seven had undefeated records in their sections (boys cross country, girls cross country, boys golf, girls golf, boys swimming, girls swimming, and boys tennis). The field hockey, boys soccer, girls soccer, and boys lacrosse teams also won their sections.

- Team QPA awards went to the girls tennis team (4.25 QPA) and boys volleyball team (4.03 QPA).
- The cumulative average team QPA this year for all varsity teams was 3.97.
- Senior Ava Calandra was the section individual champion in girls golf.
- Senior Claire Conti qualified for the PIAA track and field championships.

YOUNG SQUAD DEFIES EXPECTATIONS IN FIRST-EVER FLAG FOOTBALL SEASON

When the Foxes' inaugural flag football team came together this spring, many of its members had little to no knowledge of the technical aspects of the sport, let alone playing together as a team. Sure, they were football fans, but while flag football shares similarities with America's most-watched sport, the two sports are very different.

What occurred over the spring season was an inspiring display of growth, grit, resilience, and determination to succeed. Not only did the Foxes finish with an impressive 12-4 overall record and a 10-3 mark in their section, but the team also advanced to the WPIAL Class 3A playoffs.

Coach Brandon Rios had few expectations when he assumed the helm of the program. He just wanted his players to learn the game and have fun doing it.

"Overall, I'm just proud of the girls and how they trusted us as coaches," said coach Rios, who is also an assistant varsity football coach at Fox Chapel Area. "They stayed together, stepped up, and supported each other all season."

The maiden flag football roster featured 28 players, enough to field both varsity and junior varsity teams, and with only one senior on the squad, the underclassmen had the opportunity to hone their skills and gain valuable experience.

Sophomore quarterback and leader Izzy Morado said, "One of the biggest things I learned this season is that you win by working together. Everyone had a role, and when we trusted each other, we played our best games."

"Everyone had a chance to play equally, and that helped us come together," added freshman Delaney Drum. "I poured my heart out on that field, and we all did the same for each other."

When the Foxes became postseason qualifiers, they knew they faced significant challenges against the No. 1 seed in Class 3A, Shaler Area. Despite a loss, they competed with confidence and pride.

"When I decided to coach the team, I knew we'd be facing programs that had years of experience already in place," coach Rios said. "But the way the girls responded all season was incredible."

Junior safety Sera Filar said the team felt pressure at the beginning of the season to set the tone for what flag football could look like at Fox Chapel Area. She believes the Foxes have set a strong foundation for the years ahead.

"As time progressed and we started winning games and figuring things out, I think we all are proud of ourselves in how the inaugural season played out," she said. "Working together for a common goal really brought us together. I'm honored to have been part of the first year, and it makes me even more excited to play next season."
