7. COMMUNICATIONS TO THE BOARD OF EDUCATION

A. Chula Vista Classified Employees Organization (CVCEO)

B. Chula Vista Educators (CVE)

CVE President Rosi Martinez addressed the Board of Education and shared that CVE was pleased to see the tentative agreement on the agenda for approval. She thanked both bargaining teams for their work and stated that the agreement provided important relief for members impacted by rising health benefit costs.

Ms. Martinez asked the District to be prepared for negotiations beginning in August and emphasized the importance of investing in, attracting, and retaining highly qualified educators. She also expressed appreciation that employees who had received layoff notices, including counselors and social workers, had been placed, and noted the need to support temporary teachers with a pathway to permanency.

Ms. Martinez concluded by thanking those who organized recent teacher trainings and wished educators time for rest and relaxation before the new school year.

C. Administrators Association Chula Vista (AACV)

AACV President Theresa Corona shared that it was her final time speaking as President of the Administrators Association of Chula Vista. She reflected on the importance of understanding the history of schools, districts, and labor organizations.

Ms. Corona shared that AACV began during the COVID-19 pandemic, when administrators recognized the need for a collective voice within the District. She stated that, from the beginning, AACV made a deliberate choice to focus on professional partnership rather than conflict.

Ms. Corona expressed pride and gratitude for AACV's work and its commitment to meaningful collaboration and consultation. She thanked District leadership, Superintendent Dr. Reyes, and others who worked with AACV, and stated that labor and management can work respectfully and productively in service of a common mission.

8. SPECIAL RECOGNITION, AWARDS, AND HONORS

A. Recognition of Chula Vista Elementary School District Staff

Dr. Reyes announced the retirements of Executive Director Lalaine Perez and AACV President and Elementary School Principal Theresa Corona. He recognized them for their outstanding leadership and dedicated service, which left an enduring mark on the District, its employees, and the CVESD community.

Board Members provided comments and presented the retirees with Certificates of Recognition.

9. ORAL COMMUNICATIONS

A. The Oral Communications section provides the public with an opportunity to address the Board on non-agenda items. Persons wishing to be heard may attend in person and should complete a "Request to Be Heard" card and submit it to the Recording Secretary before the start of the meeting. Speakers are requested to limit their remarks to three minutes and speak in a respectful and professional manner. The Board shall limit the total time for public input on each topic to 20 minutes. With Board consent, the President may increase or decrease the time allowed for public comments depending on the number of persons wishing to be heard. The Board of Trustees cannot legally take action or respond to matters not posted on the public agenda due to government code but will refer the matter to the Superintendent for review and report.

There were three public speakers.

10. ORAL PRESENTATIONS AND WRITTEN REPORTS

A. District Safety and Health Update

Asst. Supt. Sharon Casey introduced Security and Safety Operations Manager Ahmed Wiggins to provide a brief update on district safety and health initiatives.

Following the presentation, Board Members asked questions and provided comments.

B. Report on Results of California School Dashboard Local Indicators

Asst. Supt. Jessica Morales introduced Coordinator Cindy Estrada to present on the Local Indicators.

Instructional Services Coordinator Cindy Estrada presented the Report on Results of the California School Dashboard Local Indicators. She explained that local indicators allow the District to reflect on progress in areas not measured by state assessments and noted that Dashboard results would now be released earlier each year.

Ms. Estrada reviewed the five local indicator priorities applicable to CVESD: basic conditions, implementation of academic standards, parent and family engagement, school climate, and access to a broad course of study. She highlighted District efforts in these areas, including Williams settlement compliance, standards-aligned instructional materials, professional learning, family engagement opportunities, school climate supports, and access to programs such as Station Experiences, STEAM Studios, LEAD, VAPA, and Dual Language Immersion.

Ms. Estrada concluded that the District would submit the local indicator reflection tool to the state by the required August 1 deadline, with the 2026 California School Dashboard expected to be published by October 15.

Board Members asked questions and provided comments.

President Ugarte announced a break at 7:45 P.M., and the meeting reconvened at 7:57 P.M.
