WHEREAS, SCESD administrators are deeply committed to the District's Vision Statement, inspiring students to recognize their talents, become empowered learners, and contribute meaningfully to a dynamic global community; and

WHEREAS, the profession of school administration is rooted in a commitment to student success, with many administrators beginning their careers as teachers and bringing over a decade of experience in education; and

WHEREAS, school administrators work to improve student achievement by leading effectively and efficiently, drawing on their expertise and dedication; and

WHEREAS, SCESD administrators also create spaces of joy, connection, and belonging for students, staff, and families, ensuring that schools are places where every individual feels valued, supported, and inspired to thrive; and

WHEREAS, public schools employ fewer managers and supervisors than most other industries, including transportation, food service, manufacturing, utilities, and public administration, placing a significant leadership responsibility on administrators; and

WHEREAS, the State of California has declared the second full week of October as the “Week of the School Administrator” in Education Code 44015.1; and

WHEREAS, the future success of California’s public education system relies on the quality and dedication of its leadership;
