

SALINAS CITY ELEMENTARY SCHOOL DISTRICT

RESOLUTION TO RECOGNIZING CLASSIFIED SCHOOL EMPLOYEE WEEK MAY 17-23, 2026

RESOLUTION NO. 2025-26/ 31

WHEREAS, classified school employees are essential members of the public education team, providing indispensable services that support student learning, health, safety, and success each day; and

WHEREAS, the classified employees of the Salinas City Elementary School District play vital roles in transportation, nutrition services, maintenance and operations, instructional support, clerical and technical services, health and student support, and many other areas that help our schools thrive; and

WHEREAS, classified employees contribute greatly to creating positive, welcoming, and inclusive environments where students feel supported, encouraged, and connected; and

WHEREAS, the dedication, professionalism, and teamwork demonstrated by classified staff are instrumental in ensuring that the district operates effectively and that students, families, and staff receive outstanding service and care; and

WHEREAS, classified employees often serve as trusted mentors, caring role models, and familiar faces who make a meaningful difference in the lives of students across all Salinas City ESD schools; and

WHEREAS, these valued professionals are represented through strong collaborative partnerships, including the California School Employees Association (CSEA), and are deeply appreciated members of the Salinas City ESD community; and

WHEREAS, Section 45203 of the California Education Code designates the third full week of May as Classified School Employee Week in recognition of the exceptional contributions made by classified employees throughout California;

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Board of Trustees of the Salinas City Elementary School District hereby recognizes the week of May 17–23, 2026, as Classified School Employee Week, and extends its sincere gratitude and appreciation to all classified employees for their dedication, service, professionalism, and unwavering commitment to the students, families, and schools of Salinas City ESD.
