Tools for Teaching: Classroom Management

Are you looking to strengthen your classroom management skills and create a more positive learning environment? This two-day training provides practical tools and strategies you can implement immediately to increase student engagement, reduce disruptive behavior, and build a culture of respect and accountability.

Led by co-author Patrick Jones and grounded in over four decades of research and classroom experience, this workshop will help you develop an engaging and well-managed classroom.

Don't miss this opportunity to expand your teaching toolkit and elevate your classroom practice.

A copy of the Fred Jones Tools for Teaching Handbook will be provided to all participants.
