What does “On Task” look like?	What does “Needs Several Reminders” look like?	What does “Not following directions” look like?
● Student is actively working to complete task ● Student is using respectful words and manners during class ● Student is working cooperatively with classmates and teacher ● Student is showing King Pride ● Student is not interrupting others	● Student needs the “Take a Break” chair ● Student needs 3 or more reminders during the task given ● Student is having a tough time working on the task given, may be distracted frequently ● Student may forget to raise their hand a couple times but responds to redirection	● Student needs the “Buddy Room” ● Student needs the “Turn Around Room” ● Student has a disciplinary report written up ● Any physical aggression (hitting, kicking, spitting, biting, throwing objects) ● Student runs away from staff ● Student uses inappropriate and/or disrespectful language

What does “On Task” look like?	What does “Needs Several Reminders” look like?	What does “Not following directions” look like?
● Showing King Pride ● Using good manners ● You are being patient and waiting for your turn to talk ● You are being safe ● You are working well with others in the classroom ● Working hard to complete your assignment ● You are using words that make people feel good	● Sent to the “Take a Break” chair ● If you are asked 3 or more times to do something ● If you aren’t working on the assignment the teacher gave you ● If you are interrupting the class and forgetting to raise your hand	● Sent to “Buddy Room” ● Sent to “Turn Around Room” ● If you are writen up ● If you hit, kick, throw objects, or try to hurt others ● If you walk or run away from staff when they ask you to stop ● If you use words that aren’t ok in school (swearing, yelling, telling adults “no” if they give you a direction)