WORK YEAR

The minimum number of workdays for each management position is recorded on the face of this salary schedule. A calendar of the actual beginning and ending dates of the work year for administrators working less than twelve (12) months is available in the Human Resources office. Twelve-month managers have a work year of 224 days, plus 16 paid holidays. The remaining workdays, excluding established holidays, are vacation days in a paid status (up to 22 days).

SPECIAL PROJECTS

Administrators may be paid at their daily rate for special projects assigned by the Superintendent. The daily rate is based on current annual salary divided by number of days assigned in contracted work year. Substitute Administrator will be paid at the daily rate based on the current administrative salary schedule – Step A of the position for which they are substituting.
