IMMACULATA SEPARATE HOUSEHOLD AGREEMENT 2026-2027

Student Name(s): Please write the full legal name(s).
Student #1 _____	Student#3_____
Student #2 _____	Student#4_____

1. Guidelines for Separate Households/Custodial Arrangements:
   - Unless a court order specifies otherwise, all communications and financial burdens are considered joint and equal for both custodial parties of a separated household. The financial status, delinquent notifications, or other relevant information pertaining to the student's tuition may be communicated to both parties
   - Each custodial party's individual tuition contract may be sent separately, but all information regarding the student's tuition may be shared with both parties. If there are separate tuition agreements, and either party applies for financial aid, the process will require financial information from both parties.

2. Student Information System:
   - Households can be set up in one of two ways. Please choose:
     i. One Household: _____ OR Separate Households: _____
   - Both parties will receive all school and grade related communications. This includes school newsletters, alerts, and teacher correspondence. Both parties will have access to student information on FACTS Family Portal. Regardless of household status in FACTS, all information pertaining to students in their accounts may be accessed by custodial entities.
   - Only one parent can be listed as the Enrollment Responsible Parent. Please list parent here: _____
