2. Please note commendable progress over the last year.

The Board commends the superintendent's continued commitment to strong policy governance and compliance. Members highlighted the district's regular review and updating of both WSSDA model policies and district-specific policies to ensure alignment with current requirements and best practices. The report also reflects effective collaboration with community stakeholders, district leadership, and legal counsel, supporting sound decision-making, transparency and accountability. Additionally, the Board recognized the district's clear systems for tracking policy status and maintaining a high level of legal and policy compliance.

3. Please note areas for additional improvement.

No areas for additional improvement were identified by board members.

4. Comments on the report itself.

Feedback on the report was positive. Board members found it clear, informative and helpful, particularly appreciating the comprehensive presentation of district policies and their review status.
