Learners should not expose their chest/cleavage or midriff (in standing or sitting positions).

Underwear and undergarments of any type shall be covered at all times.

Refrain from wearing hats, caps, head stockings, athletic style headbands, bandanas, head kerchiefs.

NO HOODIES.

No backless shoes, open-toed shoes, bedroom slippers, or flip-flops or wedge heels are allowed for safety reasons. Shoes with laces must be laced and tied at all times.

No shoes with wheels in them may be worn.

No pajamas or beachwear allowed.

No sunglasses may be worn indoors. Transition lenses are permitted.

Pants must be worn at the natural waistline.

Clothes that advertise alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, drugs, or other suggestive messages/merchandise (i.e. weapons, illegal substances) are not permitted.

Leggings/Jeggings, yoga pants or spandex pants may not be worn as pants. Shorts or a skirt that is fingertip length must be worn over them.

LEARNER DRESS CODE VIOLATIONS

If a learner is out of uniform compliance, please contact a student concern specialist. The student concern specialist will bring the student to the front office to call home and request a change of clothes. The teacher should then write a teacher managed referral for Dress Code Violation. After FOUR dress code violations, the student will receive a referral for 271 - Failure to Comply.

BE RESPECTFUL. BE RESPONSIBLE. BE A WOLVERINE!
