PROGRAM OVERVIEW

North Adams Community Schools offers Title I programs at all qualifying public and private elementary schools focusing on providing additional reading support. Research-based curriculum (Leveled Literacy Intervention) is used. Title I programs are funded through grants and will maintain compliance with all state and federal requirements.

Classroom and Title I teachers work together to select students based on data evaluations

Title I teachers provide individual or small group instruction during the small group instruction during the school day in addition to the student's 90 minute minute reading black.

Reinforced reading skills including phonemic awareness, phonics, word knowledge, sight vocabulary, fluency, and comprehension

Read, Read Read!

North Adams Community Schools encourages reading with your child for 20 minutes each day to strengthen reading skills and build a lifetime love of reading! Read favorite books over and over. Ask your child questions, snuggle up and enjoy!
