

Masking Quiz

1 2 points

Technician A says that the purpose of masking is to protect the unpainted areas of the vehicle from over spray. Technician B says that the purpose of masking is to protect the unpainted areas from strong solvents. Who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both Technician A and B
- ☐ Neither technician A or B

2 2 points

Technician A says that masking paper comes in different types, qualities, and sizes. Technician B says that all masking paper has a polycoated backing that resist solvents. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither technician A or B

3 2 points

Technician A says that aperture tape is used to fill in around perimeter taping. Technician B says that aperture tape is sometimes called aperture rope. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither technician A or B

4

2 points

Technician A says that back masking is when you put tape on the edge of a door and the sticky side is out and Technician B says back masking is when you put tape on the front of the door with the sticky side in. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither technician A or B

5

2 points

Technician A says that reverse masking prevents a hard line or the line of edge, the paint ect. Technician B says that reverse masking doesn't prevent a hard line or the line of edge, the paint ect. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

6

2 points

Technician A says masking should not be done in temperatures below 50 degrees. Technician B says masking should be done over 50 degrees temperatures. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

7 2 points

Technician A says masking tape 1/8 inch is the most commonly used. Technician B says 3/4 inch tape is the most commonly used. Who is right?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

8 2 points

Technician A says that fine line masking tape is suited for custom painting. Technician B says that fine line tape is not suited for custom painting. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

9 2 points

Technician A says the type and size of tape chosen can have different prices. Technician B says all types and sizes of tape cost the same. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

10 2 points

Technician A says masking account for about 15% of the refinishing cost. Technician B says masking account for about 17% of the refinishing cost. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

11 2 points

Technician A says masking paper is formulated to resist penetration of solvents and paints. Technician B says masking paper is formulated to not resist penetration of solvents and paint. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A nor B

12 2 points

Technician A says that back masking and reverse masking are the same. Technician B says that back masking means wide tape is placed half on and half off the area to be masked. Who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

13 2 points

Technician A says that liquid mask can be washed off with water. Technician B says that liquid mask should remain on a vehicle until after wet sanding and buffing to aid in the clean up of the vehicle. Who is right?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

14 2 points

Technician A says that back masking uses natural panel crease-lines, where present, for masking purpose to minimize paint repair areas. Technician B says that reverse masking uses natural panel crease-lines, where present, for masking purpose to minimize paint repair areas. who is correct?

- ☐ Technician A
- ☐ Technician B
- ☐ Both technician A and B
- ☐ Neither A or B

15 2 points

Masking is one of the most important part of painting a vehicle?

- ☐ True
- ☐ False