

Professional Development

Shelton Montessori Training offers fully customizable professional development sessions focused on Montessori philosophy, learning differences, and specialized teaching strategies. Topics include dyslexia, the science of reading, and leadership. Each session is intentionally designed in partnership with schools to meet their specific goals and needs, equipping educators with practical tools to support diverse learners in inclusive environments.

Previous Sessions:

- Dyslexia, The Science of Reading - Dallas ISD
- MACAR for Primary - Dallas ISD
- DISD Leadership Workshop Series - Dallas ISD
- Understanding Language, Learning & Attention Differences - Cedar Hill ISD
- Current Practices and Montessori philosophy - AMS Regional Symposium
- Principles of Montessori Education - Crowley ISD
- Understanding Learning Differences - Crowley ISD
- Montessori Assistant Training - Garland ISD
- Montessori Applied to Children At Risk - Ratner Montessori, Ohio
- Transformation of the Teachers - Escola Americana de Campinas, Brazil
- Remedial Strategies for Spelling - Bossier Christian Academy
- Integrating Montessori Strategies with Multisensory Structured Language Approaches - Bossier Christian Academy
- Preparing Montessori Schools to Support Children with Learning Differences - Bossier Christian Academy
- Empowering Learning Different Students with Social Emotional and Executive Function Skills - Bossier Christian Academy
- Understanding Learning Differences - INLY Montessori School
- Fostering Social-Emotional & Executive Function Development, Parent Session - St. Joseph Montessori School, Columbus, Ohio
- Understanding Language Learning & Attention Differences with Simulations - St. Joseph Montessori School, Columbus, Ohio

Email hjagada@shelton.org for registration