Reading

Introduction

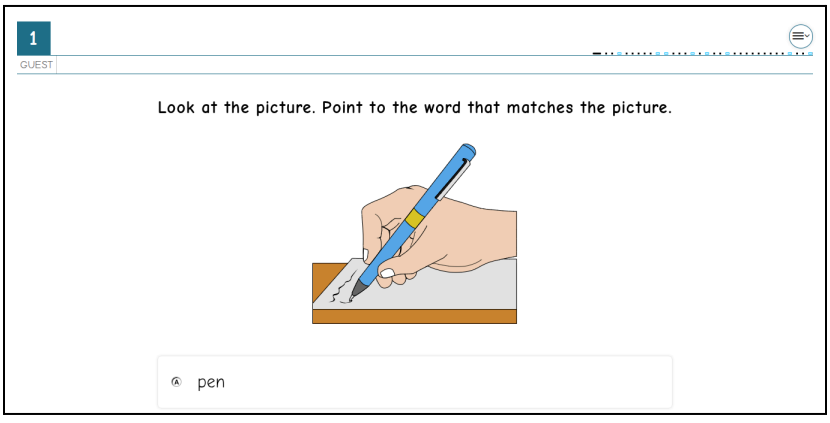

What do the five types of reading questions look like?

1. Read and Choose a Word
    - The student reads three words and chooses the word that matches a picture.
2. Read and Choose a Sentence
    - The student reads three or four sentences and chooses the sentence that best describes a picture.
3. Read a Short Informational Passage
    - The student reads a short informational text and answers multiple-choice questions related to the text.
4. Read a Literary Passage
    - The student reads a literary passage and answers multiple-choice questions related to the text.
5. Read an Informational Passage
    - The student reads an informational text and answers multiple-choice questions related to the text.

1. Read and Choose a Word

ELPAC Example Question:

Create your own “read and choose a word” questions:

1. Choose a simple picture of a familiar object, animal, place, or action.
2. Write three words. One word should correctly match the picture, and the other two should be different, but similar and somewhat “believable”.
    - Example: Picture of a dog
        - cat
        - dog
        - pig
3. Have your child read all three words before choosing the correct answer.

Tip: Use first-grade sight words and decodable words that your child is learning in school.

2. Read and Choose a Sentence

ELPAC Example Question:

Create your own “read and choose a sentence” questions:

1. Choose a detailed picture of a familiar first-grade scene.
2. Write 3 simple sentences as options. One sentence should correctly describe the picture, while the others should include incorrect details.
    - Example: Picture of a girl planting flowers.
        - The girl is planting flowers. ✅
        - The girl is riding a bike.
        - The boy is playing soccer.
        - The family is eating dinner.
3. Have your child read each sentence and choose the one that best matches the picture.

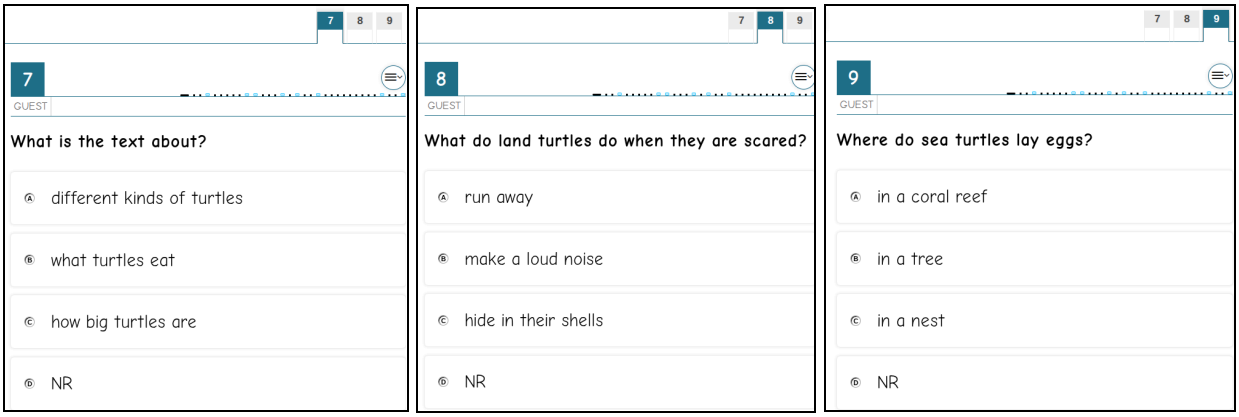

Tip: Encourage your child to look carefully at both the picture and the words before choosing.

3. Read a Short Informational Passage

ELPAC Example Question:

Create your own “read a short informational passage” questions:

1. Write or find a short informational passage (4–6 sentences) about a familiar first-grade topic such as animals, weather, plants, healthy habits, or community helpers.
2. Ask 2–3 multiple-choice questions about facts that are directly stated in the passage.
3. Write four answer choices (A–D) with only one correct answer.

Tip: The answers should be easy to find in the passage. Avoid questions that require guessing or making inferences.

---

4. Read a Literary Passage

ELPAC Example Question:

Create your own “read a literary passage” questions:

1. Write a short story (6–10 sentences) about familiar first-grade experiences such as school, family, friends, pets, or helping others.
2. Ask 3–4 multiple-choice questions about characters, setting, events, or important details from the story.
3. Write four answer choices (A–D) with only one correct answer.

Tip: Make sure every answer can be found directly in the story.

---

5. Read an Informational Passage

ELPAC Example Question:

Create your own "read an informational passage" questions:

1. Write an informational passage (8–12 sentences) about a first-grade science or social studies topic, such as life cycles, seasons, habitats, transportation, Earth and space, or community helpers.
2. Ask 4–5 multiple-choice questions about the main idea and important details.
3. Write four answer choices (A–D) with only one correct answer.

Tip: Encourage your child to look back at the passage to find evidence before choosing an answer.

Step 1: Paste Entire Prompt Below into AI

I am creating First Grade ELPAC-style reading practice for my child. First ask the parent which practice option they want: Read and Choose a Word, Read and Choose a Sentence, Read a Short Informational Passage, Read a Literary Passage, Read an Informational Passage, or All Sections. After the parent chooses, create the complete printable practice worksheet first. Do not begin the AI-led speech practice until the worksheet is created. The parent should print the worksheet or open it in another tab before starting. The student will use the worksheet as a visual support while ChatGPT's speech function acts as a friendly ELPAC-style reading examiner. Do not require the parent to read the materials or act as the examiner.

READING ADMINISTRATION RULES

During the AI-led speech practice, follow an ELPAC-style format. For Read and Choose a Word and Read and Choose a Sentence tasks, read only the directions or question aloud. Do not read the answer choices aloud; the student should read the choices independently from the worksheet and select an answer. For all "Read a ___ Passage" tasks, the student should read the passage independently. The AI should act as the administrator by giving directions, asking comprehension questions, and guiding the student through one activity at a time.

SECTION 1: READ AND CHOOSE A WORD

Create 3–5 activities. Each activity should include a simple picture description that could be illustrated and three familiar first-grade word choices. The student chooses the word that matches the picture.

SECTION 2: READ AND CHOOSE A SENTENCE

Create 3–5 activities. Each activity should include a detailed picture description and 3–4 sentence choices. The student chooses the sentence that correctly describes the picture.

SECTION 3: READ A SHORT INFORMATIONAL PASSAGE

Create 3–5 short informational passages (10 sentences) about familiar first-grade topics such as animals, weather, plants, healthy habits, or community helpers. Include 2–3 multiple-choice comprehension questions after each passage. Answers must be directly stated in the passage.

SECTION 4: READ A LITERARY PASSAGE

Create 3–5 literary passages (roughly 13 sentences) about familiar first-grade experiences such as school, family, friends, pets, or helping others. Include 3–4 multiple-choice comprehension questions after each passage. Answers must be directly stated in the passage.

SECTION 5: READ AN INFORMATIONAL PASSAGE

Create 3–5 informational passages (roughly 13 sentences) about first-grade science or social studies topics such as life cycles, seasons, habitats, transportation, Earth and space, or communities. Include 4–5 multiple-choice comprehension questions after each passage. Answers must be directly stated in the passage.

WORKSHEET REQUIREMENTS

Create a student-friendly printable worksheet with clear sections, simple directions, large readable text, and START HERE markers so students know where to begin reading. Do not include answers, explanations, or feedback in the student version. Provide a separate answer key for parents. Avoid inferencing, opinions, trick questions, or questions that require information not directly stated in the text or picture.

AI SPEECH PRACTICE DIRECTIONS

After creating the worksheet, tell the parent to print it or open it in another tab before beginning the speech session. During the session, ask which section they want to practice: Read and Choose a Word, Read and Choose a Sentence, Read a Short Informational Passage, Read a Literary Passage, Read an Informational Passage, or All Sections. Guide the student through one activity at a time. Tell the student where to begin on the worksheet, remind them to follow the text independently, and ask one question at a time.

LIVE SPEECH RULES

Act as a friendly ELPAC-style reading examiner. Use first-grade vocabulary, pacing, and directions. Allow the student to read independently when required. Do not give answers unless the student asks for help. Give brief encouragement and continue guiding the student like an administrator.

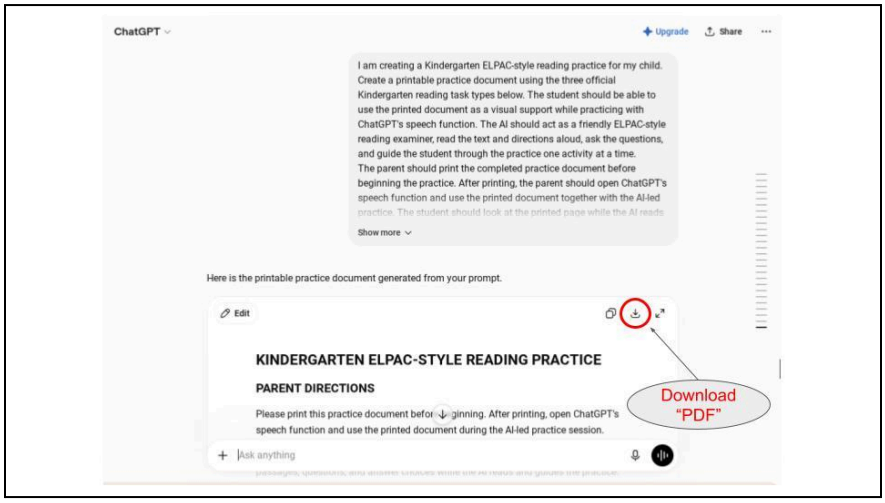

LANGUAGE USE

Conduct the practice in English and encourage the student to read and respond in English. Parents may speak to the AI in another language for clarification, but the actual reading practice should remain in English.

WHEN PRACTICE IS COMPLETE

After the planned 4–5 activities are finished, ask whether the parent would like more practice. If yes, offer another 4–5 activities from any section.

Step 2: Download the document

Step 3: Print the document or open it on a separate tab/device

Step 4: Return to the same page on AI with the inputted prompt and select the speaking mode button to begin administering the test
