

11th/12th Grade Early Release Permission Form 2026-2027

Due to the unique nature of Clear Horizons, there may be times when students are released early. Any student leaving campus before the normal dismissal time must sign out in the front office.

Students will be dismissed early for the following reasons:

- College classes are not in session, and there are no other high school classes on the student schedule.
- College classes dismiss early, and there are no other high school classes on the student schedule.

Due to our unique circumstances, parents/guardians can grant permission for the student to leave campus during an early dismissal.
