The Program and our collection and use of your personal information are also subject to our Privacy Policy <https://www.delbarton.org/legal>. By enrolling in, signing up, or otherwise agreeing to participate in the Program, you accept and agree to be bound by these Mobile Messaging Terms and our Privacy Policy.

1. Program Description.

The Program is designed to provide members of the DELBARTON community, including parents, guardians, alumni, students, faculty, and staff, with: (i) information regarding your account; (ii) school announcements, events, and programs; (iii) emergency or safety-related notifications; and (iv) athletics and extracurricular activity updates via SMS and MMS text messaging. Mobile messages may be sent using automated technology, including automated system or automatic telephone dialing system (autodialer). Message frequency will vary depending on school events and activities, but will not exceed 10 messages per month under normal circumstances. Emergency or safety-related messages are not subject to this frequency cap. Text messages will only be sent between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 9:00 p.m. in your local time zone, except for emergency or safety-related notifications.

You agree that we, our affiliates, and any third-party service providers may send you messages regarding the foregoing topics, and that such messages and/or calls may be sent from different telephone numbers or short codes. We do not charge fees for mobile messages sent through the Program; however, you are responsible for any message and data rates imposed by your mobile provider. Standard data and messaging rates may apply.

2. User Opt-In and Consent.

By providing your mobile phone number to us, you are voluntarily opting in to the Program and you agree to receive recurring automated mobile messages from us at the mobile phone number associated with your opt-in. Your consent is not a condition of enrollment at DELBARTON or of receiving any other services from DELBARTON. Participation in the Program is entirely voluntary.

You represent and warrant that any mobile phone number you provide to us is a valid mobile phone number of which you are the owner or authorized user, and that you are authorized to consent to receiving text messages at that number. If you change your mobile phone number or are no longer the owner or authorized user of the mobile phone number you provided, you agree to promptly notify DELBARTON at 973-538-3231 x3051 or by emailing webmaster@delbarton.org.

You acknowledge that by opting in, you consent to receive automated messages even if your number is registered on any state or federal Do Not Call list, to the extent such consent is required and permitted by applicable law, including the Telephone Consumer Protection Act, 47 U.S.C. § 227, and its implementing regulations.

3. User Opt-Out and Support.

You may opt-out of the Program at any time. To stop receiving mobile messages from DELBARTON, reply STOP, QUIT, CANCEL, OPT-OUT, or UNSUBSCRIBE to any mobile message you receive from us. We will honor your opt-out request within ten (10) business days. If we require additional time, we will notify you of the extension and the reason for it. You may continue to receive text messages for a short period while we process your request and you may receive a one-time opt-out confirmation message.

For support, reply HELP to any mobile message from us, or contact us directly at 973-538-3231 x3051 or at webmaster@delbarton.org.

Please note that our mobile messaging platform may not recognize opt-out or support requests that modify or deviate from the standard keywords listed above, and you agree that we and our service providers will not be liable for failing to honor requests that do not comply with the requirements in these Mobile Messaging Terms. If you experience difficulty opting out using the methods described, please contact us directly at the telephone number or email address provided above, and we will process your request manually.

DELBARTON may change the telephone number or short code used to operate the Program. If such a change occurs, we will make reasonable efforts to notify you. Opt-out requests sent to a telephone number or short code that is no longer in use may not be received, and DELBARTON cannot be responsible for honoring requests directed to a deactivated number.

4. Privacy and Data Use.

DELBARTON collects and uses your mobile phone number and related information solely for the purpose of operating the Program and communicating with you as described in these Mobile Messaging Terms. We will not sell, rent, or share your mobile phone number or opt-in information with unaffiliated third parties for their own marketing purposes.

Your personal information may be shared with third-party service providers who assist DELBARTON in operating the Program (e.g., messaging platform vendors), but only to the extent necessary to deliver messages and administer the Program, and subject to appropriate confidentiality obligations.

For complete information regarding how DELBARTON collects, uses, stores, and protects your personal information, please refer to our Privacy Policy at <https://www.delbarton.org/legal>.

5. Disclaimer of Warranty and Liability.

The Program is offered on an “as-is” and “as-available” basis. DELBARTON does not guarantee that the Program will be available in all areas, at all times, or on all mobile carriers or devices. Message delivery is subject to the effective transmission by your mobile carrier and other factors outside DELBARTON’s control.

To the fullest extent permitted by applicable law, DELBARTON and its service providers shall not be liable for any failed, delayed, or misdirected delivery of any mobile message or for any errors in message content, except to the extent caused by DELBARTON’s willful misconduct or gross negligence. Nothing in these Mobile Messaging Terms is intended to limit DELBARTON’s liability for personal injury or other claims that cannot be limited by law.

6. Modifications.

DELBARTON reserves the right to modify, suspend, or discontinue the Program or any of its features at any time, with or without prior notice. We may also modify these Mobile Messaging Terms at any time. Any such modification will take effect when the revised Mobile Messaging Terms are posted to our website at <https://www.delbarton.org/legal>. We encourage you to review these Mobile Messaging Terms. Your continued participation in the Program after any modification constitutes your acceptance of those modifications. If you do not agree to a modification, you may opt out of the Program at any time using the procedures described in Section 3 above.
