Role of the Individual LEAs

- The LEA superintendents through the Governance Council will ensure that the SELPA has appropriate fiscal and logistical support for the CAC.

Roles and Responsibilities of the SELPA in relationship to the CAC

F3 Law

- The SELPA Governance Council reviews and considers comments from the advisory CAC.
- The governing board of each LEA has the responsibility to appoint members to the SELPA Community Advisory Committee.
- The Superintendents' Council, also known as the Governance Council, provides support to the SELPA Program Administrator and is the decision-making entity for the Local Plan.
- The Governance Council is composed of the superintendents from each participating LEA.
- The SELPA will collaborate with the CAC although it is not bound by the CAC's recommendations

CAC Bylaws

F3 Law

- CAC bylaws may be amended by the membership consistent with the procedure specified in the bylaws. Any amendment to the bylaws approved by the membership must be submitted to Superintendents' Council for review and shall not take effect unless approved by the Superintendents' Council. The Superintendents' Council may periodically review the CAC bylaws. At its discretion, the Superintendents' may amend the CAC bylaws.
- CAC membership may be periodically reviewed by the Superintendents' Council. Any CAC member that takes action that is inconsistent with the Local Plan, CAC bylaws, or Education Code, or otherwise adverse to the mission or operation of the CAC may be removed from membership by the Superintendents' Council.

Examples of Possible CAC Local Plan Activities

- Discuss a local plan review, make recommendations and ensure that the plan adheres to guidelines and includes the required components
- Facilitate organization and recruitment of committee members (parents, community members, and District staff) assigned to review the plan
- Invite key District staff to CAC meetings to discuss all parts of the Local Plan to provide a more complete understanding of the entire Special Education system
- Establish annual goals relative to implementation of the Local Plan
- Logistical support (involving organization and planning)
- Assistance with supplies
- Resource support, such as photocopying and mailing costs

Examples of Parent Education and Recruitment

- Facilitate parent training on Special Education programs, issues, rights, leadership, development, collaborative decision-making skills, and other topics identified by CAC
- Invite parents to school/District trainings as available

- Ability to post information on the CAC webpage
- Access to SELPA/District communication methods
- Access to information about community, district, and statewide disability activities
- Access to information about community and statewide disability related award opportunities (CCE, ACSE, ACSA, etc.)

Open Meeting Requirements

CACs Are Not Subject to the Brown Act

Current law exempts CACs and certain councils and school advisory committees from Brown Act provisions but specifies other open meeting requirements. (Ed. Code § 35147)

Education Code Section 35147

- CAC meetings shall be open to the public
- Any member of the public shall be able to address the CAC during the meeting on any item within the subject matter jurisdiction of the CAC
- Notice of the CAC meeting shall be posted at the schoolsite, or other appropriate place accessible to the public, at least 72 hours before the time set for the meeting.
- The meeting notice shall specify the date, time, and location of the meeting and contain an agenda describing each item of business to be discussed or acted upon.
- The CAC may not take any action on any item of business unless that item appeared on the posted agenda or unless the council or committee members present, by unanimous vote, find that there is a need to take immediate action and that the need for action came to the attention of the council or committee subsequent to the posting of the agenda.

Education Code Section 35147

- Questions or brief statements made at a meeting by members of the CAC that do not have a significant effect on pupils or employees in the school or school district, or that can be resolved solely by the provision of information, need not be described on an agenda as items of business.
- If a CAC violates the procedural meeting requirements under the Education Code upon demand of any person, the CAC shall reconsider the item at its next meeting, after allowing for public input on the item.

Running an Effective Meeting

Running an Effective Meeting

- Call the meeting to order at the appointed time
- Announce the business to come before the CAC in its proper order

Running an Effective Meeting (cont'd)

- Recognize persons who desire to speak, and protect the speaker who has the floor from disturbance or interference
- Restrict discussion to the topic before the CAC

Tips For Effective Communications Between CAC Members

- Be respectful; every member will have an opportunity to speak at an appropriate time
- Disagreement and respectful debate between CAC members at CAC meetings is appropriate; open disagreement outside of meetings can be divisive and damaging to the CAC

Robert's Rules of Order

IMPORTANCE OF ROBERT'S RULES OF ORDER

A meeting without structure is like sailing without a compass- you spend a lot of time getting nowhere!

What are the Basic Rights at Stake?

1. Right of majority to make decisions.
2. Right of minority to be heard.
3. Rights of individual members to participate.
4. Right of members to develop their Bylaws.

Interplay of Open Meeting Requirements and Robert's Rules of Order

F3 Law

- Open meetings laws enforce transparency and provide for public input
- Robert's Rules promotes order and efficiency through meeting protocols
- Open meetings requirements are based in law
- Robert's Rules are procedural guidance
- If there is a conflict, applicable law controls
- Minor errors in following Robert's Rules are not violations of law
- ...and won't invalidate CAC action
- Robert's Rules are required under Article VII, Section 1, A.
