

DUBLIN CITY SCHOOLS

MIDDLE SCHOOL DRESS CODE

We dress for success, safety, and kindness every day!

STUDENTS MAY WEAR:

- ✓ Shirts, blouses, polo shirts, and t-shirts with appropriate school-friendly messages or graphics.
- ✓ Pants, shorts, skirts, skorts, dresses, and jumpers that fit appropriately and allow for active participation.
Skirts and shorts must be as long as fingertips when arms are extended.
- ✓ Athletic shoes, tennis shoes, loafers, boots, and other closed-toe shoes.
- ✓ Jackets, sweaters, sweatshirts, and hoodies that are school appropriate. Hoods from hoodies must be removed while in the building.
- ✓ Joggers may be worn, but must be uniform style pants and not sweat pant material.
- ✓ Dublin Middle School athletic shorts/sweatpants can be worn.

Headphones may not be worn except for when needed for a classroom assignment. All other times, headphones must be placed in bookbags and kept out of sight.

STUDENTS MAY NOT WEAR:

- ✗ Clothing with inappropriate language, images, symbols, or advertisements for alcohol, tobacco, drugs, or weapons.
- ✗ Pants, shorts and jeans must not be torn, ripped, cut or frayed or have holes of any kind. Clothing that is excessively tight, revealing, or contains large holes above the knee.
- ✗ Pajamas, slippers, blankets, or sleepwear (except on approved spirit days).
- ✗ Hats, hoods, sunglasses, or other head coverings inside the building unless approved for religious or medical reasons.
- ✗ Clothing that creates a safety concern during school activities.
- ✗ No sagging pants. Students will be provided with a zip tie if a belt is not available.
- ✗ Leggings cannot be worn as a "stand-alone" attire.
