

SWHS/SWA Interim Principal CJ Gray

Ms. CJ Gray is honored to serve as the Interim Principal for South Whidbey High School and South Whidbey Academy. She is committed to empowering every student to achieve academic excellence, discover their passions, and graduate prepared for college, careers, and life.

Ms.Gray believes that high school is a transformative time in a young person's life. Her leadership is centered on creating a safe, inclusive, and engaging learning environment where students are challenged to think critically, embrace new opportunities, and develop the skills and character needed to thrive in an ever-changing world.

Working alongside an exceptional team of educators and staff, Ms.Gray is dedicated to providing rigorous academics, outstanding arts and athletic programs, career and technical education pathways, and meaningful extracurricular opportunities that help every student find their place and reach their full potential.

Partnership is at the heart of Ms.Gray's leadership philosophy. She values strong relationships with students, families, staff, and the greater South Whidbey community, believing that collaboration and open communication are essential to student success.

Ms.Gray looks forward to building on South Whidbey High School and Academy's proud traditions while fostering innovation, belonging, and a culture where every Falcon is encouraged to soar and where every student matters, every voice is valued, and every Falcon has the opportunity to succeed.

Outside of school, Ms. Gray enjoys spending time with family, exploring the outdoors, and being actively involved in the community she proudly serves.
