

OWASSO HIGH SCHOOL LIBRARY

Databases, Usernames, and Passwords

1) EBSCO:

Userid: owassohs Password: gorams-2027

Ebsco is a large group of databases of periodicals and reference books provided by OSDE. It has a lot of everything!

High School Research or the portal of your choice – It defaults to some of the most used databases. You can select or deselect databases based on your topic. Always include MAS Complete (HS level) and Academic Search Elite (college level) in your search.

2) GALE IN CONTEXT

Username: owassohs

Password: gorams

In Context-High School is a large database of reference books, magazines, journals, newspapers, and images. It is especially good for science, history, biographical information, social issues, and literature. Gale Ebooks is Gale's Virtual Reference Library of e-reference books. Global Issues will help you analyze important global issues and events through topic overviews, international viewpoints, news, and multimedia content. Opposing Viewpoints will provide overviews, news, and opinions on hundreds of today's important social issues.

3) SIRS RESEARCHER:

School Access by IP

Home access by username

Customer #: owassohs

Password: gorams

SIRS is a good resource for information on social issues. Great for beginning research, argumentative writing, and debates.

5) World Book

Username: owassops Password: 74055

The World Book Encyclopedia content includes additional engaging features such as the day's top stories, thousands of biographies, and timelines.

6) OHS LIBRARY CATALOG

Tulsa City-County Library (must have a library card)

- After signing in, click on the “Research” tab at the top.
- Scroll down to the Databases link
- Databases are listed in alphabetical order by name
- Academic Search Premier is the first one to pop up. This is one of the best academic resources you can use, providing peer-reviewed journals and full-text articles on every subject. Some other great databases they provide include African American Experience, American Indian Experience, Biography in Context, CultureGrams, Daily Life Through History, Homework Help Now, Issues & Controversies, Latino American Experience, Learning Express, Mango Languages, Novelist Plus, Pop Culture Universe, Science Online, World Folklore & Folklife, and dozens more.

SORA Reading App

- Download the Sora app from the Apple App Store, Google Play Store, or soraapp.com.
- Search for our school or use our setup code: owassook
- Read and listen from any device: Chromebooks, tablets, laptops, desktops, and phones.

