- f) Involve parents in Title I activities, which may include establishing a parent advisory board comprised of a sufficient number and representative group of parents or family members served by the District to adequately represent the students' needs, to develop, revise, and review the parent and family engagement policy; and the District will involve parents in Title I activities through annual Title I parent meetings, family engagement nights, parent-teacher conferences, surveys, committee participation opportunities, volunteer opportunities, activities focused on supporting student learning, and regular communication through newsletters, the District website, ParentSquare or similar messaging platforms, and school events;
- g) Involve parents and family members in decisions regarding how it spends funds reserved for parent and family engagement activities. Parents and family members will be involved in decisions regarding the use of parent and family engagement funds through surveys, feedback collected at Title I meetings, consultation with building-level and District committees, such as the Shared-Decision Making Committee, and discussions with parents and family members participating in Title I programs.

School-Level Parent and Family Member Engagement
