White Station High School 2026-2027
Family Engagement Plan

Parental Involvement provides active participation of parents in the education of their child/children. Our Family Engagement Plan at White Station High School has been jointly developedwith our parents, and our Family Engagement Plan has established theexpectations for parent involvement.Our goal is to prepare parents to know the skills and information needed to help their children succeed in school and to be informedof Title I requirements.

White Station High School pledges to eliminate barriers to parental involvement in the following ways:
1. Consistently acknowledge and greet parents in a friendly and welcoming manner by office staff, support staff, administrators, and teachers when visiting the school.
2. Invite parents to annual meetings at various times which allow all parents to participate;
3. Clarify terms using simple and direct language by the use of various language prompts for parents who may have literacy/reading deficits by the use of phone contacts;
4. Provide written materials in both English and Spanish;
5. Provide interpreter services when necessary;
6. Provide teacher contact information, website information, and email addresses.
7. Provide a platform for parents to express ideas, concerns, and suggestions and receive a timely response from school leaders and administrators.
8. Have daily dialogue throughout the school to ensure success for all students (teachers, administrators, and support staff);
9. Jointly develop with parents, teachers, and school administrators a school/parent compact and engagement plan.
10. Provide parents with opportunities for regular meetings to communicate concerns/problems with the principal by submitting a concern and/or formal face-to-face meetings.
11. Provide various postings of events and meetings throughout the community.

White Station High School will encourage and give parents the right to become meaningfully involved and promote the capacity for strong parental involvement in an organized, ongoing, and timely way by endorsing the following:
1. Participate as members of the School Leadership Council,PTSA, andBooster Clubs;
2. Attend and participate in conferences, workshops, and instructional activities to provide parents with a description and explanation of the assessments and curriculum encompassing each child's education.
3. Hold a flexible number of meetings for parents' convenience to keep parents informed of current events and issues and submit frequent progress reports.
4. Conduct parent/teacher conferences to discuss the child's progress;
5. Convene an annual meeting at flexible times and invite all parents to attend, during which they will receive an explanation of and observe the school's participation in Title I/ESSA programs, activities, and curriculum.
6. Provide a parent information bulletin board of current events with monthly activities calendars to provide parents with timely information.
7. Provide a student and parent handbook outlining school rules, policies, and procedures.
8. Parents will jointly develop and revise the Family Engagement Plan and the Parent-School Compact and sign and receive a copy of both at the beginning of the school year;
9. Utilize partnerships with community organizations, adopters, and businesses.
10. Utilize the Parent Resource Center to coordinate and provide timely information about parent involvement programs and activities.
11. Inform parents of curriculum, academic assessments, and proficiency levels.
