

2026-27 Middle School Textbook Ordering Instructions

NEW Middle School Student Textbook Process

NEW 6TH, 7TH AND 8TH GRADE MIDDLE SCHOOL DAY STUDENTS

- August 3, 2026 — All new Middle School students will order textbooks through the Online Bookstore.
- Students should order books for their appropriate grade for English, math, science, language and history/social science classes. Students selected a language on their course selection form and should order the textbooks for their chosen course of study.

Special Considerations: The course selection form indicated if students were placed in advanced or regular math. If you have questions regarding which textbooks to order, please contact Miriam Murtuza (mmurtuza@sstx.org) or wait to order books for that class until you receive a final schedule at orientation. Students taking placement exams in August should wait to purchase books for those courses (math and/or language) until test results are returned.

RETURNING Middle School Student Textbook Process

- July 1, 2026 — Returning student schedules will be posted to MySSES. Contact Magnus Maccow (mmaccow@sstx.org) if you have any questions regarding your schedule.
- August 3, 2026 — All returning Middle School students will order textbooks through the Online Bookstore. Textbooks may be shipped to the school (for boarding students) or to your home address.

Special Note to 8th Grade Boarding Students: If you pre-order books, please ship to the school mailing address.

Textbook Ordering Instructions

August 3, 2026 — Online Bookstore Opens

- Click here to access the Online Bookstore
- Order your books according to your class schedule and the Middle School Book List available on the Back-to-School webpage.
- Keep in mind that schedule changes could result in the need for textbook changes (do not write in the books until you have a firm schedule).
- Textbooks orders are placed through BNC K-12 and will require you to create an account on the website.
- If the book says “temporarily out of stock” go ahead and place the order. The book will ship as soon as it is available.
- When placing online book orders, parents/guardians will be required to enter the authentication code: Spartans2026. This further safeguards and protects the privacy of children when using the online store as set forth by COPPA, the Children’s Online Privacy Protection Act of 1998.

Textbooks from Family or Friends

- You may order a partial set of books if your student already has required textbooks available to them through another source (family or friend).
- View the Middle School Book List available on the Back-to-School webpage to see if there are any titles you may already have or have access to.
- Pay special attention to make sure the ISBN numbers on the list and the backs of the books match to ensure you have the correct editions.

School Supplies

- The Middle School supply list is available on the Back-to-School webpage, the items may be purchased in the Campus Store or off campus.
- The Campus Store will be open starting August 10, Monday – Friday from 10 a.m. – 3 p.m.
